(Where the original Permanent Committee or Agency Report has proposed a change in the BCO or RAO, that change is indicated by single underlining.)

The Forty-Fourth General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America gathered for the opening worship service at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, June 21, 2016, at the Mobile Convention Center in Mobile, Alabama. Moderator RE James W. Wert, Jr. called the Assembly to order for worship (see Appendix X, p. 715).

Following worship, the Assembly recessed at 9:20 p.m. to reconvene at 9:30 p.m.

44-2 Declaration of Quorum and Enrollment
The Moderator reconvened the Assembly at 9:36 p.m. for business. After leading in prayer, the Moderator declared a quorum present, with 275 Ruling Elders and 977 Teaching Elders (1252 total) enrolled (see Appendix S, p. 463, for complete roll).

44-3 Election of Moderator
The Moderator opened the floor for nominations for Moderator of the Forty-Fourth General Assembly. TE Paul D. Kooistra placed in nomination TE George W. Robertson. The Moderator declared nominations closed, and TE Robertson was elected Moderator.

Moderator Robertson assumed the chair. He spoke of the influence of the PCA on his spiritual life and calling to the pastoral ministry, and of his sense that God has both prepared and blessed him for such a time as this. He also shared lessons learned from previous Moderators, and pledged to follow their advice.

TE Jerry Schriver, Chairman of the Administrative Committee, presented retiring Moderator Wert a plaque in token of the Assembly’s appreciation for his year of service as Moderator.

The Assembly reconvened at 10:45 a.m. on June 22, 2016, with the singing of “Great is Thy Faithfulness” and prayer by TE Andrew M. Sigenthaler. The Moderator read I Corinthians 1:2 and encouraged listeners to follow Paul in seeing one another as we are in Christ.

44-8 Docket

The Third Draft of the Docket was declared adopted, with the following items being added to the report of the Stated Clerk slated for Wednesday morning: a partial report of the Committee on Constitutional Business regarding proposed amendments to the Rules of Assembly Operations (RAO) from the Administrative Committee, and a partial report of the Administrative Committee regarding proposed amendments to the RAO.

44-9 Report of the Stated Clerk

TE L. Roy Taylor, Stated Clerk, presented his report (Appendix A, p. 95). He reviewed his report, including the statistical portions. Representatives of churches who had been particularized in the last year were recognized by the Assembly, including churches inadvertently omitted from the list. The clerk reported on Communications, which were received (Appendix W, p. 706). He reported on the referral of Overtures (Appendix V, p. 570).
The Stated Clerk reminded the Assembly that no proposed BCO Amendments were sent down by the Forty-Third General Assembly for approval.

Electronic voting was explained by Jonathan Calloway, and several test votes were taken.

44-10 Partial Report of CoC on Administrative Committee

TE Roland S. Barnes, Chairman, led the Assembly in prayer and presented the Partial Report, offering a substitute recommendation (RAO 14-6.h) for the Permanent Committee Recommendation 1 (see 44-38, p. 57). He deferred to TE Jerry Schriver, Chairman of the Permanent Committee, who led the Assembly in prayer. TE Schriver yielded his time to TE John Robertson, who spoke against the substitute. TE Barnes then spoke in favor of the substitute recommendation.

Recommendation 1 of the CoC was adopted as a substitute (483-292), then adopted as the main motion (525-208).

TE David Coffin raised a point of order as to how the electronic voting is reported. He requested that the votes be reported as an actual vote count rather than as percentages. The Moderator ruled the point of order well taken and instructed that the actual vote counts be reported.

44-11 Appointment of Committee on Thanks

The Moderator appointed the following men to serve as the Committee on Thanks: TE Henry Lewis Smith and RE Melton Duncan.

44-12 Welcome from the Host Committee

TE Malcolm M. (Mack) Griffith, Chairman, welcomed the Assembly to Mobile.

The Chairman yielded to TE E. Bruce O’Neil, Chairman of the Permanent Committee. He introduced the following men who brought greetings: Rev. Davi Gomes, Presbyterian Church in Brazil (also representing World Reformed Fellowship); Rev. David Monroy, Iglesia Nacional Presbiteriana de Mexico (Rafael Rodriguez translating); Dr. Chad Van Dixhoorn, Orthodox Presbyterian Church; and Rev. Douglas Field, United Reformed Churches in North America.

The report was interrupted for the order of the day. For continuation of the report, see 44-16 (below).

RE Jim Wert, Chairman, led the Assembly in prayer and presented the report as information (Appendix M, p. 327). He spoke briefly of the purpose and composition of the committee, and explained that the CMC does not have authority to make recommendations directly to the Assembly (RAO 7-6), but rather refers matters requiring General Assembly action to “the appropriate Committee or Agency for its consideration and recommendation” (RAO 7-3.c).

Time having expired, the Assembly defeated (361-514) an extension of debate. The Minority Report recommendation was defeated (357-500). Recommendation 57 was adopted (628-251).

The Chairman led the Assembly in prayer, including intercession for a commissioner who is dealing with a health matter.

44-24  Partial Report of Committee of Commissioners on Administrative Committee

TE Roland Barnes, CoC Chairman, led the Assembly in prayer. He yielded to TE Jerry Schriver, Chairman of the Permanent Committee, who yielded in turn to TE Will Barker, Chairman of the Historical Center. TE Barker presented the Partial Report, taking up Recommendation 31 regarding a PCA logo (see 44-38, p. 50).

After reviewing the history of the research concerning the choosing of a PCA logo, TE Barker yielded to Mr. Steve Beaver of Beaver Design Group, who explained the procedures followed in developing the logo options and presented graphics of the two options being proposed to the Assembly.

A procedural motion was made by TE Arch Van Devender to vote on a logo at this General Assembly, then send the logo down for Presbyteries to consider, and then formally vote on the logo at the next General Assembly. The Moderator ruled the procedural motion out of order since it would effectively function as a substitute to the main motion (RAO 14-9.e).

TE Van Devender asked for a constitutional inquiry as to whether this Assembly would be in order adopting a logo that would be binding the denomination. The Moderator ruled that a constitutional inquiry was not in order (RAO 14-9.e), and that the only options were to vote the main motion up or down or to recommit.

A vote was taken, and Recommendation 31 was adopted (527-85-13), approving the selection a PCA logo.
A second vote was then taken to choose one of the two options presented. The logo option shown below was adopted (325-277-11).

The Chairman closed the partial report with prayer.

44-25  Report of Committee on Constitutional Business
   TE Larry C. Hoop, Chairman, led the Assembly in prayer, thanking God for the ill commissioner’s good progress. TE Hoop presented the CCB report (Appendix O, p. 346) as information and closed with prayer.

   The Assembly recessed at 4:45 p.m., with the singing of “To God Be the Glory” and prayer by TE Kenneth McHeard, to reconvene for worship at 7:30 p.m. and for business Thursday at 9:30 a.m.

Fourth Session - Thursday Morning

D. Review of 2017 Proposed CMTW Budget
E. Review of Overture 2016-20 from Southwest Florida Presbytery

III. Recommendations

1. That the General Assembly urge churches to set aside the month of November 2016 as a month of prayer for global missions, asking God to send many more laborers into His harvest field. (Contact MTW to ask for copies of “30 Days of Prayer” to be sent to your church in the fall and to learn about other prayer resources MTW can provide);
   Adopted

2. That the General Assembly urge churches to set aside a portion of their giving for the suffering peoples of the world; to that end, be it recommended that a special offering for relief and mercy (MTW Compassion offering) be taken during 2016 and distributed by MTW;
   Adopted

3. That the General Assembly urge churches to set aside Sunday, November 6, 2016, as a day of prayer for the persecuted church worldwide;
   Adopted

4. Having performed a review of Dr. Lloyd Kim’s work to date, we express our gratitude to Almighty God for Dr. Kim’s humble, visionary leadership; leadership affirmed in the exceptionally smooth transition that has taken place at Mission to the World during his first full year as coordinator. CMTW wholeheartedly recommends that Dr. Kim be re-elected as Coordinator; Adopted

5. That the proposed budget of MTW, as presented through the Administrative Committee, be approved; Deferred to CoC on AC

6. That the minutes of the meeting of CMTW of March 11–12, 2015, be accepted with notations; Adopted

7. That the minutes of the meeting of CMTW of September 23–24, 2015, be accepted; Adopted

8. Regarding MTW’s 2014 Financial Audit: That the Committee of Commissioners reviewed the financial audit for calendar year ending December 31, 2014. They also noted per CMTW’s minutes that CMTW had accepted the audit; Adopted

9. That Overture 20 from Southwest Florida Presbytery regarding "Erect Provisional Presbytery in Nicaragua" be answered in the affirmative with the following grounds recorded as a part of the motion.

MTW recommends that the Southwest Florida Presbytery, because of their history of close relations with the Reformed and covenantal ministry in Nicaragua, form, as a presbytery, a provisional commission to prepare, examine, and ordain candidates for the offices of Teaching and Ruling Elder until sufficient men have been ordained and churches established to form their own presbytery and a new Reformed and covenantal denomination in Nicaragua.

Rationale and Operational Recommendation

By way of testimonial, in the 40 years that the PCA has been in existence, the provision in BCO 15-6 has rarely been exercised by the MTW community. It has become our working model over the years to:

a. Make every attempt to discover and develop working relationships with congregations, presbyteries, and Reformed denominations within a country rather than to multiply the number of denominations within a particular nation through the formation of provisional presbyteries. MTW has experienced numerous situations over the years where factions have wanted to begin their own denominations for no compelling theological reasons nor for reasons rooted in the desire to pursue the peace and purity of the church.

b. In cases where no Reformed and covenantal churches and/or denominations are present, to develop and recognize local leadership and to form local congregations and presbyteries in partnership with Reformed and covenantal denominations in neighboring countries in the region. This is an attempt to honor the guiding principles of locality (local resources, local community, local collaboration, etc.) and indigenization and to foster regional teamwork and partnerships. These principles have become increasingly meaningful to our international colleagues and partners over the years.

Adopted

10. That 3.1.1.2 of the MTW Missions Policy Manual be changed (change bolded and italicized) to read:

Church Involvement. Prior to approval, long-term missionary candidates will be expected to be members of a congregation or presbytery of the PCA, the exception being acceptance of a candidate from a NAPARC agency, or a member of a church or agency of the World Reformed Fellowship, and covered by a mutually approved On-Loan Agreement.

OVERTURE 44 from Potomac Presbytery (to MNA)
"Creation of PCA Unity Fund"

Whereas, the 43rd General Assembly considered a personal resolution on racial reconciliation and referred the matter to the 44th General Assembly, so that lower courts could perfect and propose a resolution encouraging heartfelt repentance; and

Whereas, presbyteries have responded to this appeal “to prayerfully consider any and all sins of racial prejudice” by submitting overtures on racial reconciliation that call us to individual and corporate repentance; and

Whereas, repentance is an essential first step of racial reconciliation, but not the only one; and

Whereas, the 43rd General Assembly also encouraged sessions and presbyteries to “pursue a proper course of action humbly, sincerely and expeditiously”; and

Whereas, a proper course of action would include actively welcoming minority brothers called to pastoral ministry and encouraging their representation as Ruling and Teaching Elders in the PCA;

Therefore be it resolved, that the 44th General Assembly create a fund to be known as “The PCA Unity Fund” to help raise up future generations of godly, reformed African American and other minority Ruling and Teaching Elders that would include the following objectives:

a) Provide tuition to approved Reformed seminaries for minority PCA seminarians;

b) Pay expenses for minority Ruling and Teaching Elders to attend General Assembly;

c) Support the compensation expenses of minorities serving as an Assistant Pastor in a PCA church, for the first two years of their ministry in churches that pledge to provide full support by the third year;
d) Provide means for historians to explore the role that Reformed minority pastors and theologians have played in our country’s history.

Be it further resolved, that this Unity Fund would be managed by Mission to North America, which would be responsible for:

a) Establishing a board that reports to MNA and is comprised of African American and other minority teaching and ruling elders of the PCA;

b) Receiving, receipting and disbursing monies;

c) Approving the seminaries to which support can be directed;

d) Encouraging individuals, churches and presbyteries to donate to the fund.

44-38 Administrative Committee (Informational and Committee of Commissioners Reports)

TE L. Roy Taylor, Stated Clerk, led the Assembly in prayer and presented the Informational Report. (For the full report of the AC Permanent Committee, see Appendix C, p. 111.)

TE Daniel Jarstfer led the Assembly in prayer for former Stated Clerk TE Morton Smith and his wife.

TE Roland Barnes, CoC Chairman, led the Assembly in prayer and presented the CoC report (below).
Recommendations 5-7, 9-24, 26-30, 32 were adopted in gross (959-11-25).

(For action on Recommendation 1, see 44-10, p. 19; for Recommendation 31, see 44-24, p. 29.)

Recommendation 2 was adopted (871-53-36).
Recommendation 4 was adopted (815-124-34).
Recommendation 8 was adopted (1005-17-15).
Recommendation 25 was adopted as a substitute (843-95-78), and adopted as the main motion (886-93-48).

Recommendation 3, regarding the formation of a study committee on the issue of women serving in the ministry of the church, was brought to the Assembly.

TE David Coffin raised a point of order that Recommendation 3 was not properly before the Assembly for consideration because the matter at hand did not fall within the limits of the Cooperative Ministries Committee’s responsibilities (RAO 7-3) nor did the Administrative Committee have subject matter jurisdiction. The Moderator ruled the point of order not well taken, stating that the Permanent Committee Recommendation was in order and that the CMC had acted properly and referred the matter appropriately. The ruling was appealed, and the Moderator’s ruling was sustained (582-466-36).

The following commissioners registered their agreement with the point of order and disagreement with the Moderator’s ruling:

TE Mike Ross addressed the Assembly, representing the Administrative Committee in favor of the AC recommendation. TE Roland Barnes, CoC Chairman, addressed the Assembly regarding the CoC Substitute Motion. TE Ross was given the opportunity to respond to the CoC Chairman (RAO 19-4.b).

TE Chuck Hickey raised a point of order as to whether it was permissible to appoint members to the study committee who were not members of the court. RE Frederick Neikirk raised the question of whether a point of order must cite something in the constitution or rules as the basis for the point, and the point of order was withdrawn.

TE Wes Reynolds raised a point of order, based on BCO 14-1.9-10, that committees ought to be representative of the presbyteries and therefore the recommendation should be found out of order. The Moderator ruled the point of order not well taken, stating that this reference in the BCO is not applicable to study committees, and that Roberts Rules of Order allows for non-members to be appointed to committees (RONR [11th ed.], p. 174, ll. 31-34; p. 489, ll. 24-25).

The question was called (947-170-12). The Chairman of the AC was given a last word, followed by the Chairman of the CoC. CoC Recommendation 3 was defeated as a substitute for the main motion (447-699-8). The question was called (912-182-3). The Chairman was given the last word (RAO 19-4.b). After prayer, the Permanent Committee Recommendation 3 was adopted (767-375-12), approving the formation of a study committee on the issue of women serving in the ministry of the church (RAO 9-1; 9-3).

The Chairman closed the report with prayer.

   B. Minutes of the 2015-2016 meetings of the AC and Board of Directors
      1. AC – June 9, 2015, October 8, 2015, April 28, 2016
      2. BD – June 9, 2015, October 8, 2015, April 28, 2016
   C. Budgets for the Permanent Committees and Agencies
   D. Overtures related to the AC
   E. Recommendations of the AC Committee including a significant amount of time discussing Recommendation #3.

III. Recommendations
   1. Permanent Committee Recommendation:
      That RAO 13-2 be amended by adding the following words: “No overture proposed by a commissioner which is a memorial resolution honoring a deceased officer or member of the Presbyterian Church in America shall be considered by the General Assembly, unless the resolution deals with a person who has died within 60 days of the convening of the General Assembly.”
      Grounds: The Forty-third Assembly requested this change. The proposal allows for recent deaths to be memorialized through Personal Resolutions brought on the floor, but requires that memorial resolutions for less-than-recent deaths come via the usual overture process.

      Committee of Commissioners Substitute Motion:
      That the Assembly refer Recommendation 1 back to the Administrative Committee in order that the Administrative Committee might comply with Recommendation 10 from the Overtures Committee of the 43nd General Assembly that the Administrative Committee consider means whereby such memorials may be received in the future. Adopted

2. That the Assembly renew the call to TE L. Roy Taylor as Stated Clerk of the General Assembly (RAO 4-9). Adopted

3. Permanent Committee Recommendation:
   That –

   - The Assembly form a study committee on the issue of women serving in the ministry of the church (RAO 9-1; 9-3). The Assembly authorizes the Moderator to appoint the study committee. The study committee should be made up of competent men and women representing the diversity of opinions within the PCA (RAO 9-1; Robert’s Rules of Order [11th edition], §13, pp. 174-175, §50, pp.495-496, §50, pp. 497-498 §56, p. 579]).
   - The committee should give particular attention to the issues of:
     - (1) The biblical basis, theology, history, nature, and authority of ordination;
     - (2) The biblical nature and function of the office of deacon;
     - (3) Clarification on the ordination or commissioning of deacons/deaconesses;
     - (4) Should the findings of the study committee warrant BCO changes, the study committee will propose such changes for the General Assembly to consider.
   - The committee will have a budget of $15,000 that is funded by designated donations to the AC from churches and individuals (RAO 9-2).
   - A Pastoral Letter to be proposed by the ad interim study committee and approved by the General Assembly be sent to all churches, encouraging them to (1) promote the practice of women in ministry, (2) appoint women to serve alongside elders and deacons in the pastoral work of the church, and (3) hire women on church staff in appropriate ministries.

   Grounds: The Cooperative Ministries Committee may not make recommendations directly to the General Assembly but must do so through an appropriate committee or agency (RAO 7-3 c; 7-6). The CMC has had a subcommittee on the role of women and has sent several recommendations to the AC (including a proposal
Committee of Commissioners Substitute Motion:
That Recommendation 3 of the Permanent Committee (p. 306, lines 34-43; p307, 1-16) be answered in the negative.

Grounds: The action of the 37th General Assembly is clear on this subject: “Unlike most issues for which past General Assemblies have erected study committees, the question of the role of women in the Church is not a new or unstudied issue. As such, the proposed study committee is unlikely to break new ground or shed new insights.” (M37GA, 296)

Further the decisions of the 36th and 37th General Assemblies, “That presbyteries are reminded that appropriate ways to bring these issues before the Assembly are through presbytery overtures to amend the BCO, or by way of reference (BCO 41)” (M36GA, 205; M37GA, 297) remind the Assembly that the preferred method of bringing changes to the BCO and the calling of study committees should be through the Presbyteries. Adopted

4. In the event that the Assembly approves the formation of an ad interim Committee on Racial Reconciliation (Overture 45 from Potomac Presbytery), that the budget for the committee be $15,000, with funds derived from contributions to the AC designated for that purpose (RAO 9-1). Adopted

5. That the Building Occupancy Cost charged to each ministry be kept at $12 per square foot for 2017. (This reflects no increase from the previous year.) Adopted

6. That the plan outlined below for the payment of the required contribution from the PCA Committees and Agencies to the PCA Administrative Committee be approved (RAO 5-4 a.). Adopted

PLAN: Committees and Agencies are asked to pay in one of the following three options:

(1) Semiannual – one half paid in January and one half paid in July.

(2) Quarterly – one fourth paid the first month of each quarter: January, April, July, and October.

(3) Monthly – one twelfth paid the first of each month.

Committee of Commissioners Substitute Motion:
That the minutes of the AC for June 9, 2015 and October 8, 2015 be approved without exception, but with notation that was reported to the Administrative Committee.  Adopted

To approve the April 28, 2016 minutes, with notations and the following Exception of Substance: Item PM-04/16-12, proposes amendments to PCA governing documents which would open permanent committees and agency boards to the inclusion of any “members in good standing in the PCA who are of age legal majority” would result in the possibility for unordained members of the PCA to be placed on such committees and/or agencies in a voting capacity. This would have the effect of placing unordained persons in positions of authority within the church, and therefore, proposing these amendments would fail to conform with the Standards of the Presbyterian Church in America. (WCF 1:2,4; WLC 3, WSC 2; WCF 31:1) and the Scriptures (1 Timothy 2:11-12).  Adopted 26. That the minutes of the Board for June 9, 2015, October 8, 2015, and April 28, 2016, be approved without exception, but with one notation that was reported to the Administrative Committee.

Adopted

27. That the General Assembly accept the charts below as the acceptable response to the GA requirement for an annual report on the cost of the AC’s mandated responsibilities.

² The expense of the Nominating Committee is shared by the PCA Committees and Agencies.

³ The Theological Examining Committee did not incur any material expenses in 2015 as per their report to the AC.

Adopted
28. That the registration fee remain at $450 for the 2017 General Assembly with $350 allocated to the GA expenses, $25 for publication of the GA Minutes, and $75 allocated to the Standing Committee cost center for the expenses of the Standing Judicial Commission. Honorably retired or emeritus elders would continue to pay 1/3 of the regular registration ($150). Elders coming from churches with annual incomes below $100,000, as per their 2016 statistics, may register for $300.

Adopted

29. That the “2017 Budgeted Partnership Shares and Ministry Asks of PCA Ministry Partners by the Participating General Assembly Ministries” (p. 466) be approved.

Adopted

30. That the minutes of the AC adjourned meeting of June 7, 2016 be approved.

Adopted

31. That the General Assembly consider both logo presentations that have been approved by the Historical Center Subcommittee and the AC and that the Assembly vote to make a selection between the two proposed logos.

Rationale: The Historical Center Subcommittee concurred that both logos were worthy proposals and the HC Subcommittee had an equally split vote between the two after much research, deliberation, and debate. The General Assembly’s instruction to the HC Subcommittee included bringing two options before the General Assembly when reporting (M34 GA, p. 162).

Adopted

32. That the Assembly commend the AC staff for their dedicated and professional service and sacrifice: Dr. Roy Taylor, John Robertson, Richard Doster, Sherry Eschenberg, Wayne Herring, Larry Hoop, Robert Hornick, Priscilla Lowrey, Angela Nantz, Wayne Sparkman, Karen Cook, Anna Eubanks, Amy Hoaxter, Monica Johnston, Erika Derr, Margie Mallow, and Billy Park.

OVERTURE 54 from 1 Calvary Presbytery (to CC) “Commend Covenant College for Forfeiting Championship Tennis Match Scheduled on a Lord’s Day”

Whereas the Word of God clearly instructs men to observe the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy, and to set aside this one day out of seven as being consecrated to the Lord (Genesis 2:1-3; Exodus 20:8-11; Isaiah 58:13-14); and

Whereas the Sabbath Day has fallen into widespread profanation and disuse in American society today, and various athletic, commercial, and social enterprises and activities have all but obliterated our former national reverence for this holy day;

Therefore, be it resolved that the 44th General Assembly express its appreciation to Covenant College for electing to forfeit with the Women’s Tennis USA South Conference championship match, scheduled for April 17, 2016, because it was scheduled on the Lord’s Day.

And moreover, we remind our congregations of the resolution adopted by the 4th General Assembly in 1976:

Therefore, we the members of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America reaffirm our unwavering stand against all unnecessary encroachments upon the Lord’s Day, and exhort all citizens everywhere to worship God and to properly set aside and sanctify the Sabbath of the Lord Jesus Christ. And that we exhort each pastor and session to study the positive application of Sabbath observance to their congregation in order to bring our practice into great conformity with the Church’s Standards. 44-40 Report of Overtures Committee TE David Richter asked whether a standing vote might be requested on some votes, citing a concern for a visible sign of unity in the body. The Moderator said the point was well taken, and that he would wait for the Spirit to guide.

TE Irwyn L. Ince, Jr., Chairman, led the Assembly in prayer and presented the report (see 44-44, p. 72).

The following recommendations were adopted in gross (545-4-8): Recommendations 2 (Overture 3), 4 (Overture 7), 6 (Overture 21), 7 (Overture 22), 8 (Overture 25), 9 (Overture 26), 10 (Overture 32), 12 (Overture 37 – adopted as amended), and 13 (Overture 38 – adopted as amended).
Recommendation 3 was adopted (466-43-18), answering Overture 5 in the negative. See 44-44, p. 70, for continuation of the report.

44-41 Assembly Recessed
The Assembly recessed at 5:30 p.m. with the singing of “How Firm a Foundation” and prayer by RE Sylvester Brown to reconvene after worship at 9:00 p.m.

Sixth Session – Thursday Evening
June 23, 2016

44-42 Assembly Reconvened
The Assembly reconvened at 9:10 p.m. with the prayer by TE Kevin Smith.

44-43 Protest
TE Joseph Pipa presented the following protest regarding AC Recommendation 3 (see 44-38, p. 56), which on motion was found by the Assembly to be in temperate language, and therefore ordered spread upon the Minutes:

We, the undersigned, humbly protest the establishment of a committee to study the issue of woman serving in the ministry of the church based on the following grounds:
1. The committee having women as well as men, contrary to 1 Timothy 2:12-13.
2. The committee is to reflect the diversity of opinion in the denomination with no apparent respect to Scriptural or Confessional parameters.
3. It appears, with the suggestion of a pastoral letter, that there is a goal already in mind prior to the study committee being formed.
4. Hebrews 6:1-2 states that the laying on of hands (ordination) has been established and further study hinders the progress of the gospel.

The following commissioners added their names to the protest:

TE Andrew Barnes        Heartland
TE Ryan Biese           Mississippi Valley
TE Bob Brubaker         Southwest Florida
TE Andrew P. Dionne     Calvary
RE Joel Belz requested that the Moderator rule out of order the following words in the Protest: “with no apparent respect to the Scriptures.” The Moderator ruled that the Protest had already been received by the Assembly, but he accepted the sentiments of RE Belz “with all due deference.”

Recommendation 1 (Overture 43) was introduced by the Chairman. TE Joel Linton made a motion to recommit, the question was called (881-98-4), and the motion to recommit was defeated (150-828-16). Time having expired for debate on the main motion, a motion to extend debate 5 minutes was defeated (263-730-10).

Recommendation 1 was adopted (861-123-23), answering Overture 43 in the affirmative as amended, with the following overtures being answered with reference to Overture 43: Overtures 1, 4, 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 23, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 33, 34, 35, 41, 42, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, and 63.

The Assembly paused for prayer by RE Sylvester Brown and RE William Joseph, and to sing “It Is Well.”

TE David Sarafolean, on a point of personal privilege, recognized RE Jay Neikirk for his assistance in guiding this matter in Overtures Committee.

The Moderator, at the request of TE Daniel Jarstfer and in the interest of time limitations, reminded the Assembly of the limited purpose of points of personal privilege.

TE David Coffin, Potomac Presbytery, requested (BCO 45-2) that his dissent with respect to Overture 43 be recorded in these words: “With respect to the otherwise laudable resolutions adopted by the Assembly, I dissent from the use of the word ‘repent’ in the first two paragraphs. I do not believe one can repent of the sins of another.”

Recommendation 16 was introduced by the Chairman. The question was called (912-34-5), and the recommendation was adopted (814-87-15), answering in the affirmative Overture 45, to form a study committee on Racial and Ethnic Reconciliation.

Recommendation 8 from MNA Committee of Commissioners Report (see p. 42) was moved by TE Andy Hunt on behalf of the CoC, the question was called (817-98-4), and the recommendation was adopted (728-149-36), approving as amended Overture 44 to create a “PCA Unity Fund’ to help raise up future generations of godly, reformed African American and other minority Ruling and Teaching Elders. . . .”

Overtures Committee Recommendation 17 was adopted (817-28-37), answering Overture 60 by reference to Overture 43.

Recommendation 5 (Overture 14) was introduced by Committee member RE John Bise. A Minority Report (p. 89) was presented by RE Howie Donahoe, representing the Minority. The Committee representative responded.

TE Ed Eubanks moved that the Assembly rules be suspended and debate be limited to 20 minutes. TE David Coffin raised a point of order that the rules for consideration of the Overtures Report do not allow for limitations on debate. The Moderator ruled that the point of order was well taken and that the motion was out of order.

The question was called (664-120-8), and the Minority Report was adopted as a substitute motion (503-269-24).

The question of the Minority Report as the Main Motion was called (711-54-4), and the motion was adopted (561-191-18), answering Overture 14 in the negative and thereby defeating the proposed amendment to BCO 35-1.
Recommendation 11 (Overture 36) failed to obtain the requisite majority (619-20-38).

The question on Recommendation 15 (Overture 40) was called (567-102-5), and defeated (227-427-25), thereby defeating the proposed amendment to BCO 43-1.

On a point of order, TE Per Almquist stated that Recommendation 14 had not been dealt with. The Moderator ruled the point well taken.

Recommendation 14 was adopted (527-63-55), answering Overture 39 in the negative and thereby defeating proposed amendments to BCO 38-1 and 42-2.

The Chairman closed the report with prayer.

REPORT OF THE OVERTURES COMMITTEE

Four other overtures (#s 24, 44, 61, 62) were referred by the Stated Clerk to MNA, one (# 20) to MTW, and one (# 2) to the SJC. These were not considered by the OC. One overture (#45) was referred to the AC as well as the OC.

II. Statement of Major Issues Discussed

Each overture and personal resolution was discussed and recommendations were made. If the OC did not recommend any amendment, then the overture is not reprinted, and we included only the Clerk’s Summary Title. In instances where the OC proposed amendments, the Presbytery’s proposed action is reprinted, noting the changes proposed by the OC (double strike through for deletions, double underline for insertions).

The full text of the Overtures as originally submitted is found in Appendix V, pp. 570-705.

Overture 43 (as amended)
(double strike-through for deletions, double underline for insertions):

Be it resolved, that the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America does recognize, confess, and condemn, and repent of these past corporate and historical sins, including those committed during the Civil Rights era, and continuing racial sins of ourselves and our fathers such as the segregation of worshipers by race; the exclusion of persons from Church membership on the basis of race; the exclusion of churches, or elders, from membership in the Presbyteries on the basis of race; the teaching that the Bible sanctions racial segregation and discourages inter-racial marriage; the participation in and defense of white supremacist organizations; and the failure to live out the gospel imperative that “love does no wrong to a neighbor” (Romans 13:10); and failure to love brothers and sisters from minority cultures in accordance with what the Gospel requires; and

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly does recognize, confess, and condemn and repent of past failures to love brothers and sisters from minority cultures in accordance with what the Gospel requires, as well as failures to lovingly confront our brothers and sisters concerning racial sins and personal bigotry, and failing to “learn to do good, seek justice and correct oppression” (Isaiah 1:17); and

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly praises and recommits itself to the gospel task of racial reconciliation, diligently seeking effective courses of action to further that goal, with humility, sincerity and zeal, for the glory of God and the furtherance of the Gospel; and
Be it finally further resolved, that the General Assembly urges the congregations and presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church in America to make this resolution known to their members in order that they may prayerfully confess their own racial sins as led by the Spirit and strive towards racial reconciliation for the advancement of the gospel, the love of Christ, and the glory of God; and

Be it further resolved, that the 44th General Assembly call the attention of churches and presbyteries to the pastoral letter contained in Overture 55 as an example of how a presbytery might provide shepherding leadership for its churches toward racial reconciliation; and

Be it finally resolved, that the 44th General Assembly remind the churches and presbyteries of the PCA that BCO 31-2 and 38-1 provide potent and readily available means for dealing with ones who have sinned or continue to sin in these areas.

The amended version now reads:

Be it resolved, that the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America does recognize, confess, condemn and repent of corporate and historical sins, including those committed during the Civil Rights era, and continuing racial sins of ourselves and our fathers such as the segregation of worshipers by race; the exclusion of persons from Church membership on the basis of race; the exclusion of churches, or elders, from membership in the Presbyteries on the basis of race; the teaching that the Bible sanctions racial segregation and discourages inter-racial marriage; the participation in and defense of white supremacist organizations; and the failure to live out the gospel imperative that “love does no wrong to a neighbor” (Romans 13:10); and

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly praises and recommits itself to the gospel task of racial reconciliation, diligently seeking effective courses of action to further that goal,

Be it further resolved, that the General Assembly urges the congregations and presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church in America to make this resolution known to their members in order that they may prayerfully confess their own racial sins as led by the Spirit and strive towards racial reconciliation for the advancement of the gospel, the love of Christ, and the glory of God; and

2. That Overture 3 from Chesapeake (“Amend BCO 15-3 to Allow Judicial Commission Minority Reports,” p. 575) be referred back to Chesapeake Presbytery without prejudice in order to perfect the language.
   Adopted

3. That Overture 5 from Pittsburgh (“Amend BCO 15-5.a and RAO 17-1, Paragraph 4, to Allow the General Assembly to Give Directions to the SJC in Judicial Decisions and Reasoning and Opinions,” p. 580) be answered in the negative.
   Adopted

Grounds: The overture would undermine the judicial process established by the Constitution of our church.

Justice would be delayed. The Standing Judicial Commission was established to conclude the matters assigned. With the proposed overture, a matter that had been adjudicated by the SJC would not be final until the General Assembly acted on the report of the Committee on Constitutional Business. For example, if the SJC adjudicated a matter concerning the views of a Teaching Elder on July 1st, the status of the calling and livelihood of the Teaching Elder would not be finally settled until the General Assembly met the next summer.
The term "Constitutional Matters" does little to limit the matters that are subject to review. The Constitution of the PCA consists of the Westminster Confession of Faith, The Larger and Shorter Catechisms and the Book of Church Order. Therefore, exceptions could be raised about not only doctrine, but also personal conduct, judicial procedures, and evidentiary matters. The entire Assembly would need to be familiar with the details of the case, as contained in the Record of the Case, in order to evaluate the judgment of the SJC and give guidance to the SJC.

4. That Overture 7 from Grace (“Petition Government Leaders to Insure Religious Liberty in Light of SCOTUS Ruling on Same-sex Marriage,” p. 586) be referred to the AC with instructions to report back to the 45th GA.

   Adopted

5. That Overture 14 from Providence (“Amend BCO 35-1 to Require Accused Officers to Testify,” p. 600) be answered in the affirmative.

   Adopted

   For Minority Report on Overture 14, see p. 89.

   Adopted

8. That Overture 25 from Rocky Mountain (“Amend BCO 15-1; 15-2; Add new 15-4 and Renumber Subsequent Paragraphs,” p. 620) be answered in the negative.

   Grounds: This amendment is not necessary. The power to appoint a commission is a power that is inherent to a session.

   Adopted
10. That Overture 32 from James River (“A Day of Prayer and Fasting,” p. 632) be referred back to James River Presbytery without prejudice. Adopted Grounds: The Overture provides neither a rationale for the Day nor instructions to the Churches concerning its conduct.

12. That Overture 37 from Pacific Northwest (“Amend BCO 13-2 to Add Requirement for Annual Reports from Ministers Without Call,” p. 637) be answered in the affirmative as amended: Adopted

Be it resolved, that the 44th General Assembly amend BCO 13-2 by the addition of a final sentence as follows (addition underlined):

BCO 13-2. A minister shall be required to hold his membership in the Presbytery within whose geographical bounds he resides, unless there are reasons which are satisfactory to his Presbytery why he should not do so. When a minister labors outside the geographical bounds of, or in a work not under the jurisdiction of his Presbytery, at home or abroad, it shall be only with the full concurrence of and under circumstances agreeable to his Presbytery, and to the Presbytery within whose geographical bounds he labors, if one exists. When a minister shall continue on the rolls of his Presbytery without a call to a particular work for a prolonged period, not exceeding three years, the procedure as set forth in BCO 34-10 shall be followed. A minister without call shall submit at least one make or file a report to his Presbytery at least once each calendar year and it shall be recorded in the minutes.

The amended version now reads:

BCO 13-2. A minister shall be required to hold his membership in the Presbytery within whose geographical bounds he resides, unless there are reasons which are satisfactory to his Presbytery why he should not do so. When a minister labors outside the geographical bounds of, or in a work not under the jurisdiction of his Presbytery, at home or abroad, it shall be only with the full concurrence of and under circumstances agreeable to his Presbytery, and to the Presbytery within whose geographical bounds he labors, if one exists. When a minister shall continue on the rolls of his Presbytery without a call to a particular work for a prolonged period, not exceeding three years, the procedure as set forth in BCO 34-10 shall be followed. A minister without call shall make or file a report to his Presbytery at least once each year.

Grounds: The OC amended the overture by allowing the TE report to be “made” or “filed.” In other words, the minister without call does not necessarily need to be present at a Presbytery meeting to deliver his report. OC also changed “calendar year” to “year,” because many ministers without call enter that status at different months in the calendar. OC also deleted the final clause of the original overture - “it shall be recorded in the minutes.” This is already understood, because anytime the BCO places a requirement on a Presbytery, the Presbytery needs to reflect the accomplishment in its minutes.

Adopted

Be it resolved, that the 44th General Assembly amend BCO 5-3 by the addition of a final sentence as follows (added sentence underlined):

5-3. The mission church, because of its transitional condition, requires a temporary system of government. Depending on the circumstances and at its own discretion, Presbytery may provide for such government in one of several ways:

a. Appoint an evangelist as prescribed in with BCO 8-6.

b. Cooperate with the Session of a particular church in arranging a mother-daughter relationship with a mission church. The Session may then serve as the temporary governing body of the mission church.

c. Appoint a BCO 15-1 commission to serve as a temporary Session of the mission church. When a minister of the Presbytery has been approved to serve as pastor of the mission church, he shall be included as a member of the commission and serve as its moderator.

The temporary system of government shall record and submit its records to Presbytery for annual review in the same manner as Sessions of particular churches.

The amended version now reads:

5-3. The mission church, because of its transitional condition, requires a temporary system of government. Depending on the circumstances and at its own discretion, Presbytery may provide for such government in one of several ways:

a. Appoint an evangelist as prescribed in with BCO 8-6.

c. Appoint a BCO 15-1 commission to serve as a temporary Session of the mission church. When a minister of the Presbytery has been approved to serve as pastor of the mission church, he shall be included as a member of the commission and serve as its moderator.

The temporary system of government shall record and submit its records to Presbytery for annual review in the same manner as Sessions of particular churches.

Grounds: The OC amended the overture by replacing “minutes” with “records” to address concerns expressed by CCB regarding an evangelist serving as the mission church temporary system of government. He would not have minutes, per se, but he would maintain church “records,” and these should be reviewed annually by Presbytery.

Adopted
Grounds: Allowing an appeal instead of complaint in a case without process, would introduce process to a judicial case that, by definition, was not intended to have it.

Adopted

Be it resolved, that the 44th General Assembly amend BCO 43-1 as follows (strike-through for deletions; underlining for additions):

43-1. A complaint is a written representation made against some act or decision of a court of the Church. It is the right of any communing member of the Church in good standing to make complaint against any action of a court to whose jurisdiction he is subject, except that no complaint is allowable in a judicial case in which an appeal is pending.

During the process of a judicial case, a higher court shall not consider a timely-filed complaint against an action or ruling of the lower court in that case until a judgment has been rendered, and:
- there is an acquittal or a dismissal of all charges,
- the deadline for filing an appeal has expired,
- the accused has abandoned his appeal, or
- an appeal has been adjudicated.

However, by a 2/3 vote the higher court may consider a pre-judgment complaint, and it shall record a reason why the circumstances warrant doing so.

The amended version now reads:

43-1. A complaint is a written representation made against some act or decision of a court of the Church. It is the right of any communing member of the Church in good standing to make complaint against any action of a court to whose jurisdiction he is subject.

− the accused has abandoned his appeal, or
− an appeal has been adjudicated.

However, by a 2/3 vote the higher court may consider a pre-judgment complaint, and it shall record a reason why the circumstances warrant doing so.

Grounds: The OC amended the overture by adding three words - “in that case” - to address concerns raised by the CCB. This clarifies that complaints unrelated to the specific judicial case are certainly allowable.

16. That Overture 45 from Potomac (“Form Racial Reconciliation Study Committee,” p. 649) be answered in the affirmative as amended.

Adopted

Therefore be it resolved that the 44th General Assembly

1. Authorize the Moderator to appoint a Racial and Ethnic Reconciliation study committee, comprised of multiple ethnicities, with and a ruling elder participation, that would use available resources and consult knowledgeable persons, in order to majority with research and analytical skills that would:

a. Assess the current situation in the PCA concerning racial and ethnic reconciliation;
b. Identify specific problems the PCA needs to address to promote racial reconciliation and ethnic diversity;
c. Develop constructive guidelines and suggest concrete steps for the use of the PCA, including all presbyteries and sessions, in order to make progress toward in the work of racial reconciliation and diversity;
d. The Racial and Ethnic Reconciliation Study Committee shall report to the 45th General Assembly.

Establish
reliable criteria for discerning successful progress in reconciliation;

2. Recognizing the particular circumstances that exist at the local level, the 44th General Assembly urges each presbytery and session to form similar study committees to consider how to make progress toward racial reconciliation within their context. Set the budget for the study committee at $15,000/year and that funds be derived from gifts to the Administrative Committee designated for that purpose.

The amended version now reads:

Therefore be it resolved that the 44th General Assembly

1. Authorize the Moderator to appoint a Racial and Ethnic Reconciliation study committee, comprised of multiple ethnicities, with ruling elder participation, that would use available resources and consult knowledgeable persons, in order to:

   a. Assess the current situation in the PCA concerning racial and ethnic reconciliation;

   e. Set the budget for the study committee at $15,000/year and that funds be derived from gifts to the Administrative Committee designated for that purpose.
2. Recognizing the particular circumstances that exist at the local level, the 44th General Assembly urges each presbytery and session to form similar study committees to consider how to make progress toward racial reconciliation within their context.

Grounds: While the Overtures Committee is encouraged by the unity expressed around Overture 43, we also believe that there is much work still to be done at denominational, presbytery, and local church levels.

17. That Overture 60 from the Session of Auburn Road Presbyterian Church, Venice, Florida (“Resolution of Gospel Supremacy and the Work of the Church,” p. 702) be answered by reference to Overture 43. Adopted

The OC Minority recommends the Assembly answer Overture 14 in the Negative.

By a vote of 51-36-2 (58% - 42%), the Overtures Committee adopted a motion to recommend that GA answer Overture 14 in the Affirmative. The undersigned recommend it be answered in the Negative, and some rationale follows.

Our Rationale

A. Not Wise

1. Our current Church protection against compelling a defendant to testify goes back at least to the 1879 BCO: “The accused party may be allowed, but shall not be compelled, to testify.” In addition to being a fundamental of our American legal system, the right to decline to testify against yourself has been a fundamental principle in American Presbyterian jurisprudence for at least 140 years. Before we remove such a long-respected right, there should be more clear demonstration of the need to do so.

2. The BCOs of other NAPARC denominations, such as the ARP, RPCNA and OPC, do not compel ministers to testify against themselves.

3. By focusing only on doctrine, the Overture unwisely divides doctrine and practice, and elevates the importance of doctrine, over behavior and character – or at least gives the appearance of doing such.

4. A court, rightly, already has more power than a defendant, but this Overture could exacerbate that “delicate imbalance” making the abuse of power perhaps more likely.

B. Not Necessary

1. In three recent trials related to doctrine, two ministers voluntarily took the stand (Leithart in Pacific NW and Myers in Missouri) and one declined (Lawrence in Siouxlands). The two that voluntarily tested were acquitted. The Siouxlands Case where the minister decided to testify resulted in an SJC annulled acquittal and a remand for retrial. In other words, a defendant taking the stand is no guarantee of a successful prosecution.

2. Most of the Scripture citations in the Overture’s Grounds – perhaps all of them - are not very germane to the specific question of compelling defendant testimony. For example:

   Gen. 4:9 Then the Lord said to Cain, ‘Where is Abel your brother?’ He said, ‘I do not know; am I my brother's keeper?’

   Prov. 25:1 A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in a setting of silver.

   Ps. 15:1-2 O LORD, who shall sojourn in your tent? Who shall dwell on your holy hill? He who walks blamelessly and does what is right and speaks truth in his heart;

3. If false teaching is “industriously spread” (BCO 34-5), there is no need to put the accused on the stand. There will be plenty of material to enter into evidence.

4. If a court has determined there is a strong presumption of guilt, and is proceeding to an indictment, there is already has enough evidence to prove the indictment – or they shouldn’t be proceeding to a trial.
C. Not Best Solution

1. This Overture could actually make it less likely that men will divulge information if they are ever the subject of a BCO 31-2 investigation, or even if they receive a friendly visit from the Shepherding or Ministers & Churches Committee.

2. This Overture could actually make it less likely that officers will come forward and inform their Presbytery or Session if they find themselves “out of accord with any of the fundamentals of this system of doctrine” (BCO 21-5 and 24-6).

3. If an officer is required to testify in his own trial, then perhaps BCO 32-19 should be broadened to allow him to recruit defense counsel from anywhere in the PCA, and not just his own church or his own Presbytery.

4. There are probably better ways to revisit the doctrinal views of an officer, particularly a Teaching Elder. Perhaps it would be wiser to consider a revision to BCO 21-4 and 24-1, adding some provision whereby the Presbytery or Session could revisit some portion of an ordination or transfer exam. We should not be reaching for an ax, when a scalpel is really what’s needed.

Conclusion - Last year, the Chattanooga GA answered a similar Overture in the Negative, by a 56% majority. But it’s still not in the form that would be most helpful to our Church. It should again be answered in the Negative, and then men with passion, experience and gifts should work to find a wiser solution.

44-45 Answer to Protest of TE Joseph Pipa

The following answer to the Protest was proposed, and adopted by the Assembly (452-148-28).

The 44th General Assembly recognizes the right of a member of a minority to bear testimony against what he deems an improper action on any issue before the court (BCO 45-5), and therefore receives the protest filed by TE Joseph Pipa regarding the action of the Assembly in establishing the study committee on the issue of women serving in the ministry of the church and records the protest in the minutes. However, the Assembly challenges his assertion in the protest that it showed “no apparent respect to scripture or confessional parameters” in its action to reflect the diversity of opinion in the denomination as being a grave mischaracterization.
44-46 Report of the Committee on Thanks
RE Melton L. Duncan, Secretary, led the Assembly in prayer and presented the report for the committee by reading the Resolution of Thanks (Appendix U, p. 568), which was adopted by acclamation. RE Duncan closed the report with prayer.

44-47 Election of a Commission to Review the Minutes of the 2016 General Assembly
TE L. Roy Taylor made a motion that the following men serve as a commission to review the minutes of the 2015 General Assembly: Ruling Elders John Dunahoo and John White; Teaching Elders Robert Hornick and L. Roy Taylor.

44-48 Moderator’s Committee Appointments
The Moderator reported his appointments to the Ad Interim Study Committee on Women Serving in the Ministry of the Church and the Ad Interim Study Committee on Racial and Ethnic Reconciliation. For a listing of the members of these committees see Part I, General Assembly Directory, p. 15.

44-49 Conclusion and Adjournment
The Moderator adjourned the Assembly at 11:30 p.m. with the singing of Psalm 133, and the pronouncement of the Apostolic benediction by the Stated Clerk, to convene in Greensboro, NC, on June 13, 2017.

APPENDIX A

REPORT OF THE STATED CLERK
TO THE FORTY-FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY
OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN AMERICA

STATEMENT ON SAME-SEX MARRIAGE

Shortly after our 2015 Assembly the Supreme Court of the United States issued its ruling on same-sex marriage. I issued the following statement (RAO 3-2.t.):

The Supreme Court of the United States has issued a 5-4 ruling legalizing same-sex marriage. The Office of the Stated Clerk of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) has received numerous inquiries regarding the position of the PCA on this issue. The PCA, like other evangelical, conservative, orthodox, and traditional Christians from many denominations, believes that from creation God ordained the marriage covenant to be a bond only between one man and one woman. That understanding is what the Church has always believed, taught, and confessed. It is based upon the teachings of the Holy Scriptures and is clearly stated in the doctrinal standards of the PCA.

Over the last 2,000 years, changing cultures and secular legal perspectives have differed on significant occasions from that of Christians and the Church because the Church bases her ethical and moral positions on timeless truths divinely revealed in the Bible. The ancient and undivided Church disagreed with abortion and infanticide, practices that were acceptable in Roman culture and legal under Roman law. In 1973 the Supreme Court of the United States legalized abortion. Though abortion became legal, we cannot regard it to be moral. Though same-sex marriage is now legal, the PCA, like many others, does not regard it to be in keeping with God’s intentions for marriage. We hope that the recent Supreme Court ruling does not become the occasion for limiting the religious and free-speech rights of believers and churches who, like others for thousands of years, sincerely believe in traditional marriage.
INTERCHURCH RELATIONS

- I serve on the Interchurch Relations Committee as part of my responsibilities (RAO 3-2 j.).
- I attend meetings of the Common Ground Christian Network in as an observer. The CGCN is a network of evangelical denominations, networks, and individuals that have emerged from mainline denominations.
- I serve on the Board of the World Reformed Fellowship. I was unable to attend the March 2016 board meeting in Jakarta, Indonesia, due to a schedule conflict. I serve on the Strategic Planning Committee and Committee on Denominational Involvement.
- I continue to serve as the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the National Association of Evangelicals. I chaired board meetings on October 15 and March 10.
- I serve on the Board of Directors of the World Relief Commission of the National Association of Evangelicals by virtue of my being Chairman of the Board of Directors of the National Association of Evangelicals.

COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTIONAL BUSINESS

- Since the last General Assembly I have not sought the advice of the CCB on any matters (RAO 8-2 b.[1]).
- I have received two non-judicial references to the CCB (RAO 8-2 b.[2]).
- I also referred to the CCB all proposed amendments to the BCO (RAO 11-5).

THEOLOGICAL EXAMINING COMMITTEE

- Mr. Jeff Sandhoff was examined and approved by the Theological Examining Committee on October 13, 2015 (BCO 14-1.14) to serve as Vice-President for Advancement at Covenant College.
- TE Paul Hahn was examined and approved by the Theological Examining Committee on April 26, 2016 (BCO 14-1.14) to serve as Coordinator-elect of Mission to North America.

REFERENCE OF OVERTURES

I have received sixty-three overtures and have referred them to the appropriate committee or commission (RAO 3-2 g.; 11-5; 14-1).
Forty-three presbyteries have submitted overtures responding to the issue of racial reconciliation and the need for confession of sin and commitment to action. In addition, there are overtures dealing with the institution of marriage, the formation of a new presbytery and a provisional presbytery, a call to prayer, and proposed BCO and RAO amendments, as well as three memorials.

For a complete listing, and the text of the overtures, see Appendix V, pp. 570-705. Overtures may also be accessed, as they are submitted, on the AC web site www.pcaac.org, click on General Assembly/Commissioners/Overtures. The deadline for submitting overtures to this year’s Assembly (if they do not require CCB review) is May 23.

COMMUNICATIONS TO THE 44TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

I have received six Communications to the General Assembly – from the National Association of Evangelicals, the Presbyterian Church in Australia, Église réformée de Québec, the Free Church of Scotland, the Presbyterian Church in Japan, and the Reformed Church in the Netherlands. (See Appendix W, p. 706).

PRESBYTERY VOTES ON THE BOOK OF CHURCH ORDER AMENDMENTS

No proposed amendments to the BCO were approved by the Forty-third General Assembly to be sent to the Presbyteries for approval.

LAWSUITS

The PCA is not currently party to any lawsuits.

STANDING JUDICIAL COMMISSION

I serve as clerk of the Standing Judicial Commission. The Standing Judicial Commission has held several meetings since the adjournment of the Forty-third General Assembly: a web conference special meeting on August 12, 2015; a web conference stated meeting on October 15, 2015; and an in-person annual meeting on March 3-4, 2016 in Atlanta. A web conference special meeting is scheduled for May 9, 2016. The SJC has had nineteen cases over the last assembly year.
COOPERATIVE MINISTRIES COMMITTEE

The CMC is composed of the six most recent moderators of the General Assembly, the chairmen of the General Assembly Committees and Agencies, and the coordinators and presidents of the General Assembly Committees and Agencies. The CMC met January 12-13, 2016, for its annual meeting. As secretary of the CMC, I worked with the current moderator to prepare the agenda (RAO 7-4 c.). Matters requiring Assembly action were referred to the appropriate Committees or Agencies (RAO 7-3 c.).

DOCKET

I have prepared the docket for the 44th General Assembly and submitted it to the Administrative Committee (RAO 3-2.m).

RESIGNATIONS AND DEATH

Resignations by men elected to General Assembly Committees and Agency Boards are to be submitted to the Stated Clerk (RAO 8-4 k.) I have received and accepted on behalf of the General Assembly four resignations and one death and informed the Nominating Committee.

- TE Don Clements from CDM, Class of 2016, resignation
- RE Keith Bucklen from MTW, Class of 2017, resignation
- TE David H. Clelland, PCAF, Class of 2017, resignation
- RE Steven Dowling from CCB, Class of 2019, resignation
- RE Ed Harris, CTS Class of 2017, death

STATISTICS

Approximately 60% of our churches report statistics. Comparing reported statistics from 2014 and 2015, in 2015:

- We had 1,534 churches, an increase of 35.
- We had 327 Mission churches, a decrease of five.
- We had a total membership of 370,332, an increase of 11,816
- We had a Sunday School attendance of 97,719, an increase of 1,096, which is the first increase in SS in a number of years.
- We had a total of 9,679 professions of faith, an increase of 254.
- Giving was up in all categories.

With virtually all mainline and some evangelical denominations plateaued or declining, our growth, though not as spectacular as in our early years, is noteworthy.

MEETINGS OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE COMMITTEE AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN AMERICA (A CORPORATION)

The Administrative Committee handles the ecclesiastical matters committed to it by the General Assembly (BCO 14-1.12; RAO 4-2; V). The Administrative Committee of the General Assembly also serves as the Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Church in America (A Corporation) [PCA “Corporate Bylaws,” Article II Section 2]. “The purpose of the corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the general Corporation Law of Delaware” (PCA Certificate of Incorporation). Matters requiring civil actions are handled by the PCA Board of Directors. The Board of directors meets immediately following the meetings of the Administrative Committee to deal with civil actions and activities. The last stated meetings were:

June 9, 2015 – General Assembly, Chattanooga, TN
October 8, 2015 – MTW Building, Lawrenceville, GA
April 28, 2016 – MTW Building, Lawrenceville, GA

OFFICERS FOR THE 2016-2017 ASSEMBLY YEAR

The AC, at its spring meeting (RAO 4-16), elected the following as its officers for the 2016-2017 Assembly year commencing at the adjournment of the Forty-fourth General Assembly:

• Chairman – TE Robert F. Brunson
• Vice Chairman – TE Rod S. Mays
• Secretary – RE W. Todd Carlisle

SUMMARY OF THE ACTIONS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

These actions of the Board of Directors are reported to the General Assembly. No action of the General Assembly is required.

1. All required corporate filings of the Presbyterian Church in America (A Corporation) have been filed in the relevant states. The Presbyterian Church in America (A Corporation) is a registered Delaware corporation. The Presbyterian Church in America (A Corporation) is currently registered as a foreign corporation in Georgia, Missouri, Mississippi, and Washington.

2. All required corporate filings of the corporations of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, Evangelical Synod (acquired in the “Joining and Receiving of 1982) have been filed in the relevant states. Delaware Corporations: World Presbyterian Missions, Inc.; National Presbyterian Missions, Inc.; Christian Training, Inc. Michigan Corporation: Board of Home Ministries. Pennsylvania Corporation: Reformed Presbyterian Church, Evangelical Synod.

3. The current Officers of the Corporation (through the end of this Assembly) are: President, TE Jerry Schriver; Secretary and Treasurer, TE L. Roy Taylor, (Stated Clerk); Assistant Secretaries/Treasurers, TE John W. Robertson (Business Administrator), Mrs. Sherry Eschenberg (Meeting Planner), Miss Angela Nantz, (Operations Manager) [RAO 3-2.o., PCA “Corporate Bylaws,” Article IV].

4. The Stated Clerk updated the Board of Directors regarding the status of lawsuits. See Stated Clerk’s Report to the General Assembly.

PERSONNEL

- We appreciate the faithful and diligent service of all of the Staff of the Office of the Stated Clerk and the Administrative Committee. The PCA Historical Center (see Attachment 1, p. 123) and byFaith magazine operate under the AC. We have both full- and part-time staff. Some work in the AC office suite; others work from other locations. The AC staff presently includes TE L. Roy Taylor, TE John W. Robertson, RE Richard Doster, Mrs. Sherry Eschenberg, TE Wayne C. Herring, TE Larry C. Hoop, TE Robert Hornick, Mrs. Priscilla Lowrey, Miss Angela Nantz, RE Wayne Sparkman, Mrs. Karen Cook, Mrs. Erika Derr, Mrs. Anna Eubanks, Miss Amy Hoxter, Mrs. Monica Johnston, and Mrs. Margie Mallow, and TE Billy Park.
- Wayne Sparkman, Director of the PCA Historical Center, continues to recover well from surgeries and treatment for cancer originating in his mouth. We are grateful to the Lord for his improved health. A CTS seminarian, Jody Van Dyke, is helping Wayne on a part-time basis at the Historical Center.
- The AC evaluated the job performance of the Stated Clerk (RAO 3.3d) and recommends his re-election (RAO 4-9).
ASSIGNMENT TO THE AC FROM THE PREVIOUS ASSEMBLY

The 43rd General Assembly directed the Administrative Committee to prepare a proposal for an amendment to the Rules of Assembly Operations regarding memorials concerning deceased elders. See Recommendation 1, p. 306.

OVERTURE REFERRED TO THE AC

Overture 45 from Potomac Presbytery, “Form Racial Reconciliation Study Committee,” was referred to the Administrative Committee. See Recommendation 4, pp. 51, 59, regarding the budget of the study committee, if it is formed.

MATTERS REFERRED TO THE AC FROM THE COOPERATIVE MINISTRIES COMMITTEE (CMC)

Part of the CMC’s charge is to “facilitate long-range planning that supports progress toward the overall mission and ministry of the PCA [and] . . . . Any matters requiring General Assembly action shall be referred to the appropriate Committee or Agency for its consideration and recommendation” (RAO 7-3 c.).

The CMC has had several subcommittees addressing issues touching on the overall mission and ministry of the PCA. One of those subcommittees has been dealing with the role of women in the PCA. Given that we do not ordain women to ecclesiastical office, the issue is how we may better encourage and utilize the gifts, insights, perspectives, and experiences of women in fulfillment of the Great Commission.

The CMC made several recommendations to the AC for its consideration and recommendation to the Assembly. The AC considered those recommendations at its spring meeting and is making some recommendations to the Assembly. One recommendation is to form an ad interim study committee on the role of women in our churches.

FUTURE ASSEMBLIES

- June 13-16, 2017 – Greensboro, North Carolina, hosted by Piedmont Triad Presbytery. A contract has been signed with the Joseph S. Cory Convention Center and the Sheraton Greensboro Hotel. A competitive room rate of $128 plus tax per night is available for 985 rooms. The Assembly Hall and Exhibit Hall are adjacent to each other. The hotel is next to a mall with both shopping and restaurants.

- June 12-15, 2018 – Atlanta, Georgia, hosted by Metro Atlanta Presbytery. This will be the first Assembly with the shortened schedule that was approved by the Assembly in 2015, including the following adjustments:
  - All Committee of Commissioner briefings and meetings on Tuesday. (No Monday meetings).
  - Overtures Committee meetings on Tuesday and Wednesday. This will give the OC about seventeen hours available for deliberations.
  - CCB, AC Permanent Committee, TEC, and SJC meetings on Wednesdays.
  - Reduction in the number of seminars offered. Fewer limited-interest seminars.
  - Convening of the Assembly on Wednesday, 1:30 p.m., for worship, communion, preliminary business, election of Moderator, and some initial reports (IRC and RPR).\(^1\)
  - Wednesday evening open for fellowship, family time, or constituency group dinners and meetings.
  - Retaining of Friday, noon (12 m.), as adjournment goal.

- 2019 – Columbus, Ohio, is a possibility. No recommendation is yet in the offing.
- 2020 – Birmingham, Alabama, is a possibility. No recommendation is yet in the offing.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

- The annual audits of the AC and the PCA Office Building were completed as required.
- The AC is recommending to the General Assembly that all C&A budgets for 2017 be approved as presented (RAO 4-11). Budgets are approved annually. Approved budgets are spending ceilings.
- The AC evaluated the Committee and Agency Chief Administrative Officer compensation guidelines as required (BCO 14-1.13). The Committees and Agencies state CAO compensation as separate line items in their respective proposed budgets presented to the Assembly. The AC annually reviews CAO guidelines. Every four years the

\(^1\) RAO 1-1 presently requires that the Assembly begins with a worship service to include a sermon or exhortation by the retiring Moderator and communion. A possible change would be to have the worship service on Wednesday evening, but that would require a change to RAO 1-1, which could be done by one Assembly in 2017.
Committees and Agencies do an in-depth study of comparable CAO compensations. This will be done for the 2016-2017 Assembly year.

- The AC reviewed the General Assembly Commissioner’s Registration fee as required (RAO 9-4) and is recommending no increase this year. ²
- The AC reviewed the required contributions of other General Assembly Committees and Agencies to the AC (RAO 5-4 a.) and is recommending no increase this year. Concessions were made to CDM and RH due to their adverse circumstances.
- The AC reviewed the requested Annual Administrative Fee of Teaching Elders to the AC and is (RAO 5-4 c.) recommending no increase this year.
- Theoretically, SJC costs would be funded by a portion of General Assembly Registration Fees being reserved for SJC Operations. SJC costs have sometimes exceeded Assembly Fee funding, and the AC has had to subsidize the costs of SJC Operations. The SJC now conducts many of its panel hearing and some of its full commission meetings via audio-visual Internet connections. Internet availability of documents also is a cost-control measure.
- The AC received and approved a recommendation from the Building Management Committee regarding the space cost fees for Committees and Agencies occupying the PCA Office Building. No increase is recommended
- The AC approved auditors for the various Committees and Agencies as requested.
- “Certificate of Compliance” forms were signed by AC members and collected for the file (as part of the Conflict of Interest Policy, per M21GA, 1993, 21-64, p. 174ff).

DEVELOPMENT

- The AC ended 2015 in the black, for which we praise God and thank the PCA churches, General Assembly Committee and Agencies, Teaching Elders, and individual donors that support the ministry of the AC. About ² Commissioners should note that the General Assembly Registration fees do not fully cover all the costs associated with the General Assembly, that not all commissioners have paid the full fee, and that the AC Funding Plan Adopted by the General Assembly in 2012 recommended that the General Assembly Registration fees more realistically cover costs. Moreover, some of the changes in General Assembly logistics and amenities that are being enacted and are being proposed will increase Assembly costs, which the AC has been absorbing. About one-third of the costs of the Assembly’s annual meeting are underwritten by exhibitors. Moreover, the larger costs to commissioners are usually not the registration fee but travel, hotel, and meals expenses.

45% of PCA churches contributed to the AC in 2015. About 1/3 of PCA Teaching Elders paid the “Annual Administration Fee for Ministers” in 2015 as a voluntary payment. The General Assembly Committees and Agencies contribute to the AC annually.

- Since the adoption of the AC Funding Plan by the General Assembly in 2012, AC funding has improved. That AC Funding Plan includes six income streams for the AC from contributions and fees.
- A financially stable support services hub (the Administrative Committee) is essential for the operation of the PCA. Most denominations and parachurch agencies include administrative costs as overhead deducted from contributions. The PCA is very unusual in that we do not include administrative costs as overhead deducted from contributions but rather make the AC a separate funding request to the PCA constituency. So the AC has a significant development challenge. We are grateful to God and our supporters for progress.

IMPROVING THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY MEETINGS

The AC has the responsibility for General Assembly arrangements (RAO 3-2; 3-3; 10:1). Some of the changes improving the General Assembly meetings include:

- Electronic Voting – We used electronic voting in 2015 and plan to continue it.
- Interesting, informative, and ministry-related seminars – Seminars covering current topics or “hot button” issues will continue to be offered. Assembly-wide seminars on particularly significant issues will continue.
- Welcoming New Commissioners – A “GA 101” or “Rookie” seminar is provided to help educate commissioners to what are perhaps unfamiliar practices at GA. Arenas for connecting, fellowship, and networking are available. A New Commissioners Banquet is hosted by the AC.
- Scholarships – Funds are being developed and maintained by the AC for support of TEs and REs from churches that need some financial assistance.
- In 2018 we will reduce the meeting by one day.

THE ADMINISTRATIVE COMMITTEE AND OFFICE OF THE STATED CLERK SERVE THE ENTIRE PCA CONSTITUENCY

The Administrative Committee is a service committee connecting entire PCA constituency: people, churches, and ministries. The AC and Office of the Stated Clerk have been combined since 1988, joining both the administrative, civil, and business functions of the Assembly with its broader ecclesiastical functions. The AC is more of a generalist committee than a specialist committee. The AC serves and connects in a number of ways.

- The AC has a broad focus as the service committee for the entire PCA constituency.
- The composition of the AC is different from the other nine Committees and Agencies in that while eleven of its twenty members are directly elected by the General Assembly, each of the nine other Committees and Agencies has a designated representative as a voting member of the AC.
- The AC serves as the Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Church in America, a Corporation, and is responsible for the civil and legal affairs of the corporation.
- The AC is responsible for the arrangements and logistics of the annual General Assembly meeting and works with the local Host Committee.
- The AC provides logistical, clerical, and financial support for the Standing Judicial Commission.
- The AC provides support services for the Cooperative Ministries Committee.
- The AC assists churches and ministers in pastoral placement.
- The AC helps preserve the ongoing story of the PCA through the PCA Historical Center.
- The AC informs the PCA on current issues and news through byFaith magazine and byfaithonline.com.
- The Stated Clerk and his staff advise Presbyteries, Sessions, church officers, and members on controversial and sensitive issues.
- The AC provides support services for Special Committees such as Interchurch Relations as we relate with other denominations, the Review of Presbytery Records as the Assembly ensures that Presbyteries are operating according to our Constitution, Theological Examining as we certify the orthodoxy of first- and second-level Committee or Agency employees, Constitutional Business as overtures are reviewed for conformity to the Constitution, Nominating as Presbyteries’ nominees for Assembly-level positions on Committees and Agencies are proposed, and Study Committees that the Assembly may create for particular issues.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That RAO 13-2 be amended by adding the following words: “No overture proposed by a commissioner which is a memorial resolution honoring a deceased officer or member of the Presbyterian Church in America shall be considered by the General Assembly, unless the resolution deals with a person who has died within 60 days of the convening of the General Assembly.”

Grounds: The Forty-third Assembly requested this change. The proposal allows for recent deaths to be memorialized through Personal Resolutions brought on the floor, but requires that memorial resolutions for less-than-recent deaths come via the usual overture process.

2. That the Assembly renew the annual call to TE L. Roy Taylor as Stated Clerk of the General Assembly (RAO 4-9).

3. That –

- The Assembly form a study committee on the issue of women serving in the ministry of the church (RAO 9-1; 9-3). The Assembly authorizes the Moderator to appoint the study committee. The study committee should be made up of competent men and women representing the diversity of opinions within the PCA (RAO 9-1; Robert’s Rules of Order [11th edition], §13, pp. 174-175, §50, pp.495-496, §50, pp. 497-498 §56, p. 579).

- The committee should give particular attention to the issues of:
  1. The biblical basis, theology, history, nature, and authority of ordination;
  2. The biblical nature and function of the office of deacon;
  3. Clarification on the ordination or commissioning of deacons/deaconesses;
  4. Should the findings of the study committee warrant BCO changes, the study committee will propose such changes for the General Assembly to consider.

- The committee will have a budget of $15,000 that is funded by designated donations to the AC from churches and individuals (RAO 9-2).

- A Pastoral Letter to be proposed by the ad interim study committee and approved by the General Assembly be sent to all churches, encouraging them to (1) promote the practice of women in ministry, (2) appoint women to serve alongside elders and deacons in the pastoral work of the church, and (3) hire women on church staff in appropriate ministries.

Grounds: The Cooperative Ministries Committee may not make recommendations directly to the General Assembly but must do so through an appropriate committee or agency (RAO 7-3 c; 7-6). The CMC has had a subcommittee on the role of women and has sent several recommendations to the AC (including a proposal for a study committee on the issue women serving in the church) and CDM to bring to the Assembly.

4. In the event that the Assembly approves the formation of an ad interim Committee on Racial Reconciliation (Overture 45 from Potomac Presbytery), that the budget for the committee be $15,000, with funds derived from contributions to the AC designated for that purpose (RAO 9-1).

<sup>3</sup> The Theological Examining Committee did not incur any material expenses in 2015 as per their report to the AC.
28. That the registration fee remain at $450 for the 2017 General Assembly with $350 allocated to the GA expenses, $25 for publication of the GA Minutes, and $75 allocated to the Standing Committee cost center for the expenses of the Standing Judicial Commission. Honorably retired or emeritus elders would continue to pay 1/3 of the regular registration ($150). Elders coming from churches with annual incomes below $100,000, as per their 2016 statistics, may register for $300.

29. That the “2017 Budgeted Partnership Shares and Ministry Asks of PCA Ministry Partners by the Participating General Assembly Ministries” (p. 466) be approved.

30. That the minutes of the AC adjourned meeting of June 7, 2016 be approved.

31. That the General Assembly consider both logo presentations that have been approved by the Historical Center Subcommittee and the AC and that the Assembly vote to make a selection between the two proposed logos. Rationale: The Historical Center Subcommittee concurred that both logos were worthy proposals and the HC Subcommittee had an equally split vote between the two after much research, deliberation, and debate. The General Assembly’s instruction to the HC Subcommittee included bringing two options before the General Assembly when reporting (M34 GA, p. 162).
Fathers and brothers:
With great praise to our Lord, I am humbled and blessed to be able to report that I have now had a third clear CAT scan. The end of radiation and chemo treatments was just about a year ago, and the doctors have said that 85-90% of the time, if the cancer were to return, it would have been by now. My energy level and stamina are, if anything, better now, due to the weight loss incurred during radiation treatments a year ago, and I've been able to maintain that lower weight since that time. I do greatly appreciate your prayers on my behalf, and know you will rejoice with me in this evidence of His sustaining grace.

Facing your own mortality tends to bring a focus on getting the house in order, and that has been the case with my work at the Historical Center. As stated in my last report, I am striving to work through each of the Center's many collections to make sure that all is in order and that what is preserved is indeed of enduring value. Additionally, a group of ancillary collections, gathered over the last dozen or so years, will soon be made public. The collections at the Historical Center can be thought of as the four legs of a stool:

1. Organizational Records - the Center houses the records of the PCA, its agencies, and the records of four other conservative Presbyterian denominations.
2. Manuscript Collections - the Papers of over one hundred individuals associated with these denominations.
3. Congregational Histories - materials on the history of some seven hundred local churches.
4. A research library, with holdings on all aspects of American Presbyterian history. I estimate that at present, the Center's research library stands in excess of about 6000 volumes. Of these, almost 2000 have been entered into an online public access catalog.

The ancillary collections mentioned above, properly called "miscellany" collections, are materials gathered by the Archives staff, and these are intended to bolster the Center's other collections, filling in gaps in our information base and providing additional resources for patrons. At present there are about ninety of these miscellany collections. For example, we have a modest collection of original materials—about 1.5 cu. ft. each--by or about Samuel Miller; J. Gresham Machen; Cornelius Van Til; James H. Thornwell; and B.B. Warfield. Most of the miscellany collections are smaller, ranging from 0.25 cu. ft. to 0.50 cu. ft. in size. Many of the materials in these collections might be readily available elsewhere, but there is also much that is scarce, rare, or even unique. Together, these miscellany collections serve to augment the Center's primary collections, and it is this body of material which will finally be publicized on the Center's web site in coming months as part of a general improvement of the web site.

Collection Development
Among the many materials received at the PCA Historical Center over the past year, a few highlights include:

A recent and important accrual to the Henry G. Welbon Manuscript Collection. While a student at Princeton Seminary, Henry surveyed his classmates over the summer of 1929, asking them if they would stay at Princeton or leave to join the founding class at Westminster. His survey questions and the resulting replies from fellow students were recently discovered in a storage shed at the church Rev. Welbon attended in Tucson, AZ. This group of correspondence is now preserved at the Historical Center, and we have plans to better publicize the collection later this year.

A substantial acquisition [and a lengthy run, 1924-1948], of The Presbyterian, a Philadelphia-based periodical that was a journal of record for the modernist controversy in the 1920s and 1930s. Work is underway to index the primary articles that appeared in this journal, thus making it more accessible to researchers. The index for the first half of 1927 has already been completed.

Research Library
Several hundred “new” titles have been added to the Center’s research library. A comprehensive list of these accessions for 2015-2016 can be viewed here: http://www.pcahistory.org/HCLibrary/accessions/2015-2016.pdf

Web Site [http://www.pcahistory.org] and Blogs
Our web site continues to get good traffic, and I receive some occasional feedback on how the content presented is proving helpful to many in the PCA and beyond. The Historical Center also hosts two blogs currently: This Day in Presbyterian History [www.thisday.pcahistory.org] and The Continuing Story [http://continuing.wordpress.com]. The former is a daily devotional and the latter blog offers more occasional postings on various aspects of American Presbyterian history. TE David T. Myers and I share the duties of writing the entries on the former blog. Daily subscribers to the blog now total 497, with typically another 150-200 visitors to the blog site per day. Additional people are reached through Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn. In all, I calculate that we may be reaching as many as 1,000 people per day with our daily blog entries.

Patronage:
As might be expected, most of the patronage of the Historical Center comes by way of e-mail these days, with some by phone and/or postal mail. I’ve found that generally only the most serious researchers will go to the trouble of visiting in person. And in evidence of some of that serious research, a number of collections at the PCA Historical Center were specifically utilized and cited in two recent publications: For a Continuing Church: The Roots of the Presbyterian Church in America, by Dr. Sean Lucas (P&R, 2015) and Fighting Fundamentalist: Carl McIntire and the Politicization of American Fundamentalism, by Dr. Markku Ruotsila (Oxford, 2016).

Professional Development
I continue to maintain my standing as a Certified Archivist, while also remaining active with two professional archival organizations – the Midwest Archives Conference and the Association of St. Louis Area Archivists (ASLAA).

General Assembly Exhibits and Related Work
Under the title “When Catechism Was King,” an exhibit has been prepared which focuses on the many and various printed editions of the Westminster Shorter Catechism available in the 19th and early 20th centuries. An additional display on Alabama Presbyterians is being considered, if time permits the inclusion of this material.

Historical Center Staffing
Mr. Jody Van Dyke, now in his final year as a Covenant Seminary student, continues to be an excellent assistant in the work of the Historical Center. His primary duties have been in processing local church history materials. Mr. Van Dyke will be pursuing a pastoral call upon graduation, and he will be a hard man to replace. Additionally, Mr. Derek Tamm, another third-year student, has been earning some of the field education requirement for his seminary degree through volunteer work at the Center.

Changes in the Sub-Committee for the Work of the PCA Historical Center:
In the summer of 2014, Dr. David B. Calhoun relocated from St. Louis to be near his daughter and her family. About a year later, he made the difficult decision to resign from our Subcommittee, naming Dr. David C. Jones as his replacement. Dr. Calhoun is enjoying a richly deserved retirement, while continuing to publish some very valuable works. Banner of Truth will soon publish a work of his on Calvin’s Institutes of the Christian Religion.
Then late last year, our Subcommittee also suffered the loss of Mr. Ed Harris, who had served both as a long-time Board member for Covenant Theological Seminary and concurrently as a member of our Subcommittee. He passed away on November 5, 2015. Both men are dearly missed from our number, and with that thought we would also remember another long-serving member of our Subcommittee, Mr. John E. Spencer, who passed away in 2012. He served for so many years as a faithful ruling elder at Briarwood Presbyterian Church in Birmingham, while also serving concurrently both as a Trustee for Covenant Seminary and as a member of the Historical Center’s Subcommittee.

Lastly, in addition to Dr. David C. Jones, the Subcommittee is also pleased to welcome the addition of Dr. Sean M. Lucas to our number. Please do keep these men and women in your prayers as they seek to promote the work of our PCA Historical Center:

Historical Center Sub-Committee:

The members of the Historical Center Sub-Committee include:

- Dr. Will S. Barker II, past President of Covenant Seminary and past Professor of Church History at Westminster Theological Seminary.
- Dr. David C. Jones, emeritus professor of Ethics at Covenant Theological Seminary.
- Dr. Sean M. Lucas, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Hattiesburg, MS.
- Rev. Henry Lewis Smith, pastor and Professor at the Birmingham Theological Seminary.
- Mr. David Cooper, Ruling Elder at First Presbyterian Church, Chattanooga, TN, and former Wire Editor at the Chattanooga Times Free Press.
- Miss Lannae Graham, former archivist at the Presbyterian Historical Foundation, Montreat, NC
- Mrs. Shirley Duncan, previously co-owner of A Press, Greenville, SC, and now wonderfully enjoying retirement!
- Mr. Melton Duncan, Ruling Elder and church administrator at the Second Presbyterian Church, Greenville, SC. He is particularly notable as one of Shirley Duncan’s sons, and serves as an alternate for Mrs. Duncan.

Ex-officio members of the Subcommittee include:

Dr. L. Roy Taylor, Stated Clerk of the Presbyterian Church in America. Rev. John Robertson, Business Administrator for the Presbyterian Church in America.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ RE Wayne Sparkman
Th.M., C.A., and Director of the PCA Historical Center

PROPOSED BUDGETS

ADMINISTRATIVE COMMITTEE

2017 PROPOSED BUDGET

I. Economic Considerations and General Ministry Factors

Budget philosophy

The budget is built primarily on the job description of the Stated Clerk in the R.A.O., which determines the services that are to be provided by the Office of the Stated Clerk to churches, presbyteries, Committees and Agencies, and to the General Assembly. The General Assembly has also placed the Historical Center and byFaith Magazine under the general oversight and in the budget of the AC.

General Comments

Many of the activities and responsibilities of the Administrative Committee are directly affected by the activity and growth of the PCA, which in turn are reflected in annual budget increases for many line items. The economic inflation rate also affects many budget items.

The budgets are presented in a format to comply with the standards for not-for-profit organizations adopted by the Financial Accounting Standards (FASB). The FASB standards provide a definition of “supporting activities” which they call “management and general.” Therefore, compensation for the stated Clerk and his staff is allocated according to the estimated time spent by each person in “program,” administration, and fund raising areas.

The U.S. economy appears stronger, especially in relation to the rest of the globe. Job recovery is reported to be on the move bringing, of course, more competition for employees, and that leads to higher wages. Energy is now more available and less expensive than anyone conceived it would be based on the experience of the previous three decades. Disposable income is estimated to rise 2.9% in 2016 from 3.4% in 2015 after adjusting for inflation. All these factors argue for a stronger economy. (See Kiplinger Letter, March 18, 2016.)
The stock market remains very nervous and the least negative piece of information can cause the market to turn down for a day or two. Threats have to do with various types of government and political action, any report of unexpected revenue downturns, negative news of financial difficulties anywhere in the world and news of war and rumors of war. In the PCA Business Administrator’s opinion, the moral decline in our own nation and many other parts of the globe is and will be a contributing economic difficulty.

All of this being said, the PCA Administrative Committee 2017 budget is planned with modest growth in 2017. The 2017 budget will be quite similar to the 2017 budget, but some growth in expenditures is anticipated to cover a needed edition of the digest of the General Assembly minutes, electronic voting at General Assembly and additional costs for enhancing the General Assembly for ruling elders and younger pastors.

Economic Assumptions

A. Stated Clerk/Administration
   - 2.0% PCA Growth Rate (2015 was 3.295%).
   - 0.7 % National Consumer Price Index (CPI) in 2015 and estimated 2.4% for 2016 – Kiplinger Letter, March 18, 2016.
   - 5% (or better) Unemployment in 2015; Kiplinger predicted a year end rate of 4.6% for 2016 – Kiplinger Letter, March 18, 2016.
   - The full time equivalent (FTE) employees budgeted for 2017 is 16.2.

B. PCA Office Building
   - Rent will be at $12.00 per square foot for 2017.
   - The full time equivalent (FTE) employees budgeted at the beginning and end of the year will be 0.5.

NOTE: The international political instability and the terrorist activity along with the catastrophic acts of nature (God) are great unknowns in predicting future economies.

II. Major Changes in the Budget

The main changes in the PCA Administrative Committee budgets for 2017 over 2016 are expected to be the income and expenses of the General Assembly.
III. Income Streams and Development Plans

The PCA Administrative Committee staff is working to maintain or exceed the level of giving in 2016 that we received in 2014 and to have earned income which will challenge the 2015 financial performance. (2014 Earned Income was down in 2014 versus 2013 and 2015; GAs at Greenville, Houston, and Chattanooga being the main difference respectively.)

IV. Major Ministry Not Implemented in the Past Year

Because of the economic downturn and its effect on income streams, several proposed ministry efforts were omitted from the PCA Administrative Committee plans from 2008 through 2011. We are gradually addressing these postponed ministries.

- A new PCA Digest Volume is underway having been delayed for several years during the “Great Recession”. Completion should occur in 2017. Our Documents Manager does not expect to finish this year.
- A proposal to prepare a new edition of the Book of Church Order is postponed at least until 2017 based on staff load and an effort toward realistic expectations.
- Progress on a “logo” for the PCA is under way. We hope to take a final product to the 44th General Assembly to be approved by the AC and by the 2016 Commissioners.

Present & Future

- We are continuing our efforts to provide Korean translations of our more important documents.
- The digitized GA Minutes are complete and available on the Historical Center’s website.
- In 2014, 2015, 2016, and 2017 we have budgeted for the production of a Digest of Minutes for the years 1999 through 2015. We believe this will be completed in 2017.

V. Notes to Line Items

General Notes:
1. The net change in the 2017 budget from the 2016 budget is a 4.17% increase in Revenue and a 4.30% increase in Expenses; or expressed in raw dollars $104,250 increase in Revenue and a $105,565 increase in Expenses. (See Budget Comparison Statement.)

2. The 2017 General Assembly will be in Greensboro, North Carolina. We are not sure how well the deep South will travel for that location in this particular year.

Notes to Line Items:

1. Salaries and Benefits are estimated to be up 6.14% or $84,750 allowing for a 10% to 15% increase in health expenses and more moderate percentage increase in raises. (Budget Comparison Line 6)

2. Travel is estimated for a modest increase of $5,750 or about 2.9%. (Line 7)

3. Telephone Expense is estimated to drop based on some trend experience. This expense varies with the reality of the Internet charges at convention centers. (Line 12)

4. Printing is up based on estimates of cost increases and the printing of the GA Information Brochure, which until 2015 was a Host Committee expense, but now is part of the AC Budget. (Line 18)

5. Professional Services are down another $17,000 which may be “the bottom” for this expense. Legal fees vary each year; the byFaith Editor is now an employee, and a great deal of GA setup is done by outside vendors. (Line 23)

6. Contingencies are up allowing for cost variations in every department or cost center. (Line 26)

I. Economic Considerations and General Ministry Focus:

The attached budget represents the anticipated financial activities associated with the ministry to connect and equip those in the PCA who plan and conduct discipleship ministry in the denomination. The staff of CDM works to consult with and train practitioners in the local church, particularly through local, regional, and national training events. Participants include ministers of discipleship, Bible teachers, small group leaders, Sunday school teachers, and the staff and volunteers who work in ministries to children, youth, and adults. CDM also provides resources for those in the local church by providing helpful materials on the CDM website, by publishing the work of PCA members, by recommending resources available in the broader Church, and by operating the PCA Bookstore.

CDM is working to recover from the decline in giving from PCA churches during and after the economic recession of 2008. A number of supporting churches experienced a sharp decline in membership, which also affected giving to denominational causes. In addition to the economy, changes in the Partnership Share calculation adversely affected giving and, in some cases, changes in local church leadership resulted in a change in giving priorities.
Only 28% of PCA churches contributed to CDM in 2015, and there is great potential to see more churches partner with the ministry. CDM is prayerful and hopeful that PCA churches will join to support financially the ministry of discipleship throughout the denomination. CDM staff have increased travel to churches and presbyteries to raise awareness of the ministry and seek financial support.

Underlying budget assumptions include:

- General economic uncertainty.
- Excluding medical care, overall inflation rate is assumed to be approximately 2%.
- The 2017 budget maintains the salary levels as budgeted in 2016. However, actual salaries have not been increased in over six years due to the decrease in church giving. So, current actual salaries average 8% less than budget.
- Due to uncertainty related to health care costs and legislation, insurance premiums are expected to increase 15% from the rates being paid in 2016.
- Occupancy cost in the PCA Building will remain at $12 per square foot.
- In an effort to decrease costs, CDM anticipates employing 9.65 FTE employees, which is a reduction of .6 FTEs from what was budgeted for 2016.
- CDM provides mailroom and technology services and rents a significant portion of its floor space to Reformed University Fellowship and an outside tenant. CDM reports these [fully reimbursed] services as a separate line item under “Management and General.”

II. Major Changes in Budget:

The budget for 2017 decreases 3.5% as compared to 2016. This decrease reflects an effort to bring projections of Contributions and Support more in line with recent actual performance. Three years ago the staff and Permanent Committee were optimistic that church giving would begin a steady increase—supplemented by generous support from individuals. While individual giving has increased, church giving has continued to decline. Consequently, CDM has scaled back its estimates on personnel and related expenses.
III. Income Streams:

CDM depends on contribution income, as well as revenue earned from sales and fees. CDM’s primary source of gift income for the ministry is contributions from PCA churches. In light of the ministry responsibilities given to CDM by the General Assembly, the “Ministry Ask” is set at $7 per communicant member. If every PCA congregation was able to give at that level, CDM would be fully funded to accomplish what the Assembly has directed.

Since a majority of PCA congregations do not contribute to the ministry of CDM, and others are unable to give the $7 “Ministry Ask,” the staff of CDM works to solicit donations from individuals, local church women’s groups, and the PCA Foundation. In other words, the staff of CDM strives to “raise support” from PCA members in order to further the work of discipleship ministry. Additionally, the staff seeks to find creative ways to enhance revenue through sales of products, attendance at events, and the sale of advertising where possible. These revenues do not contribute significantly to the overall program cost (staff and office expenses) of CDM, but they do cover much of the out-of-pocket costs associated with delivering the training and resources.

IV. Major Ministry Not Implemented in the Past Year:

In order to bring the scope of the ministry of CDM in line with the giving from PCA churches, the staff and permanent committee have focused on the areas of ministry to women, children, and resource development. Currently, the revenue generated by the sales of books and resources more than covers the expenses of operating the PCA Bookstore; however, there are limited resources to enhance and grow the ministry of the bookstore. The ministry to youth is limited to the work of a part-time coordinator, and the ministry to men and seniors relies on the work of unpaid consultants.

V. Notes to Budget “line items”:

- Contributions and Support (Budget Comp., line 1) represents all donated funds by churches, individuals, and organizations. As previously noted, CDM has reduced the projection for this from that budgeted for 2016 to an amount more in line with actual giving in 2014.
- Other Revenue (Budget Comp., line 2) consists of book sales, conference fees, membership fees, subscriptions, advertising, and reimbursements for postage and other services. CDM anticipates this income source to remain fairly consistent since: 1) the seven women’s regional conferences held in 2016 will be replaced by six regional discipleship conferences in 2017, and 2) Bookstore sales appear to have stabilized (even increased in 2015) warranting an increase from the original projection for 2016.

- Seminars, Conferences, and Consulting (Budget Comp., line 3) include several general discipleship and leadership training events. The increase in this line item is indicative of a more ambitious conference itinerary for the staff in 2017. As previously noted, CDM is anticipating conducting 6 regional conferences focusing on a variety of discipleship topics, including next generation ministries.

- The Women’s Ministry (Budget Comp., line 4) represents the cost of related staff, the annual Women’s Leadership Training Conference, the women’s program at General Assembly, and local seminars conducted in churches by the Women’s Ministry Trainers. The decrease of -57% almost completely represents the absence of costs associated with the seven regional conferences held in 2016.

- CDM continues, in a limited way, to help local churches that request assistance in developing Men's Ministries (Budget Comp., line 5). This area of ministry has languished due to lack of funding. CDM continues to refer needs and inquiries to Gary Yagel of Forging Bonds for Brotherhood.

- Youth Ministry (Budget Comp., line 6) Due to prolonged downturn of church giving, CDM has not been able to staff a full-time Youth Ministries staff person since 2009. In previous budgets the majority of the expenses related to this ministry were dollars earned and spent to sponsor the YXL conference hosted at Covenant College. The increase projected from the 2016 budget reflects a greater time commitment on the part of the CDM’s Youth Ministries Consultant.

- Children's Ministry (Budget Comp., line 7) is projected to decrease as attempts made to grow the staff in this ministry through designated contributions have not provided the funds necessary to sustain a part-time associate to the Children’s Ministry Coordinator. Consequently, this part-time position (.2 FTE) has been removed from the budget.

- Seniors Ministry (Budget Comp, line 8) represents the possibility of conducting one or two seminars in 2017. Registration fees would fund these potential events.

- Publications and Curriculum (Budget Comp., line 9) includes the periodicals Equip & Connect and Staying Connected. It also includes the costs associated with developing and producing other annual materials for various seasons such as Advent, Easter, and Reformation Sunday, as well as several Bible study books.

- The increase of budgeted expenses for the Bookstore (Budget Comp., line 10) reflects the projected increase in revenue (sales) noted above. While sales in recent years have declined significantly, CDM saw an increase in 2015. Consequently, sales are projected to maintain the levels realized in 2015. Inventory Purchases (Proposed, 6) are likewise anticipated to increase by a proportional amount.

- Expenses to operate the Multi-media Library are based on number of church members and volume of activity.

- Management and General (Budget Comp., line 12) In addition to staff, this line item includes the Audit Fees (Proposed, line 26), and CDM’s share of Liability Insurance (Proposed, line 17) as well as fees that are mandated to CDM by the General Assembly such as Nominating Committee and Administrative Committee fees. See General Assembly Shared Expenses (Proposed, line 25)

- The line item Committee/Agency Services (Budget Comp., line 13) represents mailroom and technology services to the other committees and agencies in the building. In 2013, CDM also began leasing over 2,500 square feet of office space to RUF. Since these expenses represent over 8% of CDM’s total budget and are 100% reimbursed to CDM, they have been separated so that the Management and General expenses associated with operating CDM are more fairly stated.

- Depreciation (Budget Comp., line 15) represents the anticipated depreciation on CDM assets such as computer equipment, software, copiers, postage equipment, etc.

- Fund Raising (Budget Comp., line 16) represents the costs associated with contacting churches, presbyteries and individuals and informing them about the ministry of CDM and their potential role in supporting the ministry. This item includes 20% of the CDM Coordinator and his associated expenses. This line item includes a part time staff person to assist the Coordinator in this area, which is a reduction from the full time position originally budgeted for 2016. Also, the Permanent Committee desires to engage a consultant to work with the staff in this area (see Proposed, line 18).

- The Coordinator, his part time assistant and related expenses are allocated to the various expense categories as follows: Training 15%, Fund Raising 20%, Administration 15%, Bookstore 5%, Women’s Ministry 10%, Youth Ministry 5%, Children’s Ministry 10%, and Publications and Curriculum 20%

I. Economic Considerations and General Ministry Factors

Covenant College operates as an institution of higher education in a highly competitive market. Since the College is largely dependent on tuition for its revenues, attracting qualified students is essential to sustainable operations. In recent years, the cost of higher education has come under increased scrutiny, and changing enrollment patterns have created challenges for accurately projecting student enrollment.

Despite these challenges, Covenant College has been able to maintain a relatively stable and sustainable business model. Two factors are especially important to the College’s future: missional faithfulness and affordable net costs.

First, Covenant College remains faithful to its missional standards. Its professors subscribe to the Westminster Standards and faithfully embrace work in their scholarly disciplines. The entire college community, including the support staff, the residence life, the chapel program, as well as the academic program, embodies a commitment to the preeminence of Jesus Christ in all things. In addition, this missional faithfulness leads to seriousness about academic endeavors and a commitment to a rigorous program of study for every student. The College is passionate about Jesus, about learning, and about students. This faithfulness attracts dedicated and gifted students.

Second, the college strives for affordable net costs for families. The pricing structure of higher education is confusing and creates challenges during the admissions process. Typically there is a significant difference between the “sticker price” and the final bill that a student receives each semester. Students who complete the admissions process generally find an affordable net cost. Financial aid is awarded to nearly every student. Last year, the College awarded nearly $14 million in financial aid. A student can estimate the cost of attendance by visiting the “net price calculator” on the college website. We encourage anyone interested in the affordability of a Covenant College education to visit our website at affordability.covenant.edu.
II. Major Changes to Budget

The attached budget proposes a modest 2.9% increase in tuition and a 5% increase in room and board fees for the coming year. These increases allow the College to maintain its low student-to-teacher ratio of 14:1 and to provide high quality, residential programs. Covenant College is committed to sound financial planning and good stewardship of its resources.

The proposed FY17 budget includes primarily marginal increases in expenses. No significant changes in programs or operations are expected in the coming year. We plan to add two new faculty positions (including one that is a replacement of a professor who retired a year ago) and two new staff positions. We’ve also included a 3% raise pool effective January 1, 2017 after not providing raises for calendar year 2016.

The College has been blessed to have a stable financial position for many years. Covenant has adopted the practice of not spending all of the marginal increase from year to year until the revenue has been verified by fall enrollment in the traditional program. It is the goal of the College to have at least a 2% gain to net assets from the operating budget each year. The proposed budget accomplishes that goal.

III. Income Streams

Tuition and fees charged to students, gifts from donors (individuals and churches), fees for services, and gains from investing the college and foundation endowment constitute the four primary streams of income for the College.

The majority of College costs are paid by the students and their families, who are the direct beneficiaries. The College works with each family in an attempt to find an affordable path to attendance. The attraction and retention of students is essential to the financial health of the College.

Gifts from churches and individuals make up $2.2 million dollars of the operating budget. Churches historically have given about $1 million of that amount each year. Churches that participate in the Church Scholarship Promise program secure an award of 12.8% of annual tuition for their students.
The College provides other services for fees as well. Offering housing in its residential rental properties, operating the college bookstore, and delivering conference services provide for a modest income stream that nets about $250,000 each year.

Finally, the combined endowment of the College and the Covenant College Foundation provide modest resources directly to the annual operating budget of the College. In fiscal year 2016, around $1.2 million came from these investments.

IV. Major Ministry Not Implemented in the Last Year

There were no major ministry items not implemented in the last year.

V. Accounting Format & Other Notes

The College uses the NACUBO (National Association of College and University Business Officers) definitions of revenue and expense categories. This insures that the College will be able to directly compare various ratios with other colleges and assess our effectiveness in accordance with our assessment systems. While the categories do not exactly parallel the definitions used by the Accounting and Financial Reporting Guide for Christian Ministries, there is some similarity. NACUBO categories including Instructional, Academic Support, Library, Student Services, Public Service and Student Aid could be broadly considered "Program Services." Maintenance of Plant, Institutional Support and Fund Raising could be considered "Supporting Activities."

Compensation for the College’s President for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2016 totals $274,749, which consists of a salary of $235,620 and benefits of $39,129.

Notes for Specific Budget Line Items

1. Depreciation and Maintenance and Operation of Plant

Covenant accounts for depreciation and for the maintenance and operation of plant (M&O) as operating expenses. Under generally accepted accounting principles, at year end, the actual depreciation and M&O expenses are divided among the various expense categories rather than being displayed as separate figures. This means the budget sheets below will display depreciation and M&O as budget figures without any actual expense being displayed for prior years.

2. Capital Gifts

Covenant accounts for capital gifts as revenue in the year an unconditional pledge is made as accounting rules dictate. Capital gifts are released to unrestricted revenue annually in an amount equal to the capital asset’s depreciation cost.

3. Changes in Net Assets (Net Income)

Industry standards for private higher education institutions is that the unrestricted portion of the budget (which is shown in the following pages) should result in a change in net assets (commonly referred to as net income) of 2% to 4% of budgeted revenues. The proposed budget shows a change in net assets within this range.

I. Economic Considerations and General Ministry Factors
   a. Ministry Impact: Covenant Theological Seminary’s more than 3,000 alumni serve in all 50 states and 40 other countries. People all over the world continue to download Covenant’s free online materials.
   b. Budget Summary: FY17 operating budget of $8,157,475 in net revenues and $8,006,436 in net cash expenses results in a net cash basis income of $151,040. (This does not include depreciation or results of endowment gains or losses). The net revenue of $8,157,475 reflects an increase of $28,120 compared to original FY16 budget of $8,129,355. This increase is comprised of approximately $73,000 in increased tuition and fees, $32,000 increase in auxiliary services, offset by a decrease of $80,000 in giving for restricted purposes such as the Francis Schaeffer Institute. The FY17 budgeted net expenses of $8,006,436 reflect an increase of $129,516 compared to original budgeted expenses for FY16 of $7,876,920. This increase is primarily related to a 3% cost of living compensation increase for all full time personnel.
   c. Credit Hours Taken: At 10,685 credit hours taken, the Seminary is projecting a decrease of 1% in FY17 from budgeted hours of 10,810 from FY16. We currently anticipate that the actual FY16 credit hours taken will be in a range between 10,150 and 10,200 hours.
   d. Tuition Costs: Tuition rate were increased by $15 per credit hour from $480 per credit hour for MDiv and MA programs. However, with the 93 credit hour MDiv redesign, the total costs for the MDiv program will be at the median of Covenant’s theological peer seminaries and in the mid range for aspirational peer seminaries. The tuition charge for a full-time student (taking 30 hours) will be $14,850 before financial aid.
   e. The endowment draw is budgeted at 5% minus a reduction of $50,000 as the Seminary seeks to incrementally address underwater endowment assets.
   f. Faculty and full-time staff received a 3% compensation increase. The retirement contribution for eligible staff and faculty to the 403(b) plan will remain at 3% of eligible compensation.
II. Major Changes in Budget
This year there were no major changes in the budget other than the compensation increase which accounted for approximately $132,000.

The Seminary continues to develop its Nashville site. Restricted gifts are budgeted to cover the costs of operating Nashville. Revenues from Nashville are included in net tuition.

Continuing from prior year, the budget reflects the continued inclusion of approximately $100,000 for use in selected marketing and communications initiatives to boost enrollment and engagement with our constituents.

III. Income Streams

The Seminary’s revenue sources are:

(*Note that the Endowment line reflects withdrawals for both general operating purposes and for student scholarships.)

The tuition projection is based on enrollment projections in line with FY16 forecasted and year to date actuals, and reflects historical rates of scholarship, which currently account for approximately 39% of gross tuition.

The Covenant Fund represents unrestricted fund-raising for current-year expenses. The projection has remained unchanged from FY16 budget based on the amount of sustainable giving after analysis of donor pool and donor demographics.

The Endowment Draw is currently 5.0% of a twelve-quarter rolling average of the endowment assets based on the fair market value as of June 30, 2015 (the most recent audited amount when budget was prepared).

Restricted Gifts are counted as revenue when the gifts are actually spent for their restricted purpose.

Auxiliary Enterprises income is primarily the rents from students living on campus.
IV. Major Ministry Not Implemented in the Past Year

There was no planned ministry that was not implemented.

V. Notes to Budget line items

a. Budget Comparison – Revenue
   i. Covenant Fund – Unrestricted annual fund has remained the same from budgeted FY16 amount.
   ii. Restricted Income – Decrease primarily reflects a reduction in budgeted Francis Schaeffer Institute giving.
   iii. Endowment – Draw reflects slight improvement of 3-year rolling average of endowment value but reduced by $50,000 to allow restoration of underwater endowment assets.

b. Budget Comparison – Expenses
   i. Advancement – Includes the addition of marketing expenses and content creation to boost enrollment.

I. Economic Considerations and General Ministry Factors

A. The Committee on Mission to North America (MNA) is a Permanent Committee of the Presbyterian Church in America, serving Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) churches and presbyteries under the nonprofit corporation of the PCA. MNA provides leadership and coordination of resources for church planting and outreach ministries at the denominational level for the United States and Canada. MNA carries out its ministry through the following programs:

✓ Church Planting – ▪ African American Ministries
  ▪ Church Planter Development/Recruitment ▪ Church Planting Spouses Ministry ▪ Church Renewal
  ▪ Haitian American Ministries ▪ Hispanic American Ministries ▪ Korean Ministries
  ▪ Leadership and Ministry Preparation (LAMP)
  ▪ Midwest Church Planting Ministry
  ▪ Native American/First Nations Ministries ▪ Network of Portuguese Speaking Churches
  ▪ Western Region Church Planting Ministry
  ▪ Southwest and South Central Church Planting Ministry

✓ Outreach Ministries – ▪ Chaplain Ministries ▪ Disaster Response
  ▪ English as a Second Language (ESL)
  ▪ Metanoia Prison Ministries ▪ Ministry to State
  ▪ MNA Second Career Ministries
  ▪ MNA ShortTerm Missions
  ▪ Refugee and Immigrant Ministries
  ▪ Special Needs Ministries
  ▪ Urban and Mercy Ministries
Ministry to Constituency – MNA provides publications and referrals for established PCA churches to equip them for participation in church planting and outreach ministries.

The PCA Five Million Fund (5MF) – The purpose of the 5MF, managed by MNA, is to make loans to PCA churches and mission churches to help them obtain land or to build first buildings they could not afford by any other means.

B. Budget estimates, overall, are guided by several factors to include cost of living increase, current economic conditions, as well as past history of actual expenses over a three (3) to five (5) year period of time.

II. Major Changes in Budget

No major changes are reflected in the proposed 2017 budget.

III. Income Streams

MNA’s main income streams come through constituent donations, partnership share, and investment income.

IV. Major Ministry Not Implemented in the Past Year

All budgeted ministries were implemented in the past year.

V. Notes to Budget Line Items

♦ Our Calling
MNA coordinates church planting and outreach ministries to serve PCA churches and presbyteries in North America in their mission to grow and multiply biblically healthy churches.

♦ Assumption for 2017 budget: MNA is submitting a 2017 proposed budget that is an increase of almost 7.00% from the 2016 budget. Due to an increase in church planter project accounts and permanent staff accounts, we believe this is a realistic Total Expense Budget for 2017.
Per Capita Calculation: The 2017 Proposed Total Expense Budget of $12,502,948 is adjusted down using the following formula:

\begin{align*}
\text{2017 Proposed Total Expense Budget} & \quad 12,502,948 \\
\text{2017 Proposed Church Planters/Missionaries Expense} & \quad (7,591,526) \\
\text{Subtotal} & \quad 4,911,422 \\
\text{2017 Budgeted investment income} & \quad (161,770) \\
\text{2017 Budgeted conference revenue} & \quad (190,007) \\
\text{Total Net Partnership Share Fund} & \quad 4,559,645 \end{align*}

The per capita calculation of the Partnership Share Fund will be $4,559,645 divided by the number of PCA members. The MNA Ministry Ask figure will remain at $26 for 2017.

An overall net increase of 3% in salaries and 5% in benefits is assumed. That is an aggregate of cost of living, merit increases and health insurance costs.

Due to an evaluation of personnel needs, the total number of full-time equivalent staff budgeted for in the 2017 budget is 22.00 FTE, which is an increase from the 2016 budget. There currently two (2) vacant positions.

The cost being charged by the Administrative Committee for office space remained the same at $12 per square foot for the 2017 budget projection.

MISSION TO THE WORLD
PROPOSED CONSOLIDATED 2017 BUDGET

I. Economic Considerations and General Ministry Focus:

The 2017 budget is proposed from an analysis of key factors that influence the income and expenses of Mission to the World operating in a global context with a rapidly-changing global economy. We start by reviewing the results of 2015 and extend these indicators into 2016 and 2017.

In 2015, the U.S. dollar gained against most major currencies. For example, the dollar strengthened against the Euro by approximately 11% for the year. Because the European Central Bank and the Bank of Japan are in easing mode while the U.S. Federal Reserve is in the early stages of a tightening cycle, many expect a continuation of dollar strengthening. The U.S. economy showed continued slow growth in 2015, with a declining unemployment rate. However, low growth in workers poses a challenge to Gross Domestic Product growth. Growth in many international developed economies trails U.S. growth.

There were modest investment returns in 2015. The Standard & Poor’s 500, measuring large capitalization U.S. stocks, was a leading index despite returning just 1.4%. The MSCI Europe, Australasia, and Far East index, which represents international developed market equities, fell 0.8%. The Barclays U.S. Aggregate, the most prominent fixed income index, rose just 0.6%. While U.S. equities have typically performed positively in the early stages of an interest rate tightening cycle, we expect moderate equity returns in the near term. We believe that a continued rise in the dollar may pose a challenge to U.S. investors in international securities.

Remembering that the entire program of Mission to the World is by the grace of God, we want to give God praise for a positive year. In 2015 MTW saw a 0.6% increase in giving from individuals and a 1.7% decrease in giving from organizations. We rejoice that we were able to see our ministries fully funded in the midst of the uncertain U.S. and global economic conditions.

II. Major Changes in Budget:

Changes in budget reflect a careful look at the recovering economy and a desire to be good stewards of the resources God gives us through His people. The proposed budget should allow us to continue to give full support to our missionaries while helping them to advance the Kingdom.
In 2017, we will seek greater engagement with national partners at a strategic level. We will continue emphasizing partnerships with PCA churches, national partners and other agencies to advance church planting around the world. We will seek to open new ministries with an emphasis on church planting, mercy ministry and Business As Missions.

In 2015, we experienced a decrease of four long-term missionaries over 2014, and a decrease of 18 two-year missionaries. We also experienced a decrease in interns and a decrease in two-week participants. Our budget anticipates that we will experience a slight increase in long-term and two-year missionaries, as well as a small increase in interns. The two-week program will shift to a field-driven model; therefore, we anticipate a decline in number of participants in one and two-week missions projects.

Development efforts of the Partner Relations Department will continue to focus on raising endowment funds that will reduce the administrative fee for long-term missionaries, as well as new major gifts to fund programs and new initiatives. Our Mobilization Department has also set goals to continue to strengthen relationships with churches. Their goal is to find ways to help churches further their international mission goals by providing MTW resources where needed, which should positively impact missions in 2017. MTW’s mobilization efforts have been enhanced in 2016 in an effort to provide greater resources to the denomination and to potential missionaries.

Plans for information technology in 2017 will focus on a new financial accounting application and missionary support requirement system to replace the current aging system which we can no longer support or modify. This will supplement a new online expense reimbursement application that will merge with the new portal using SharePoint software completed in 2015. In 2015, we initiated a new platform for our website, and in 2016 we will add a mobilization tool and enhance our online giving portal. These new platforms support our tracking systems and add efficiency to our missionary mobilizing, candidate processing and our process working with our short-term participants. The implementation of this application will be performed in stages and will take a few years to complete.

III. Income Streams:

Projections have been made regarding the number of missionaries, Home Office personnel, annual income and annual expenses. In making these projections, the following assumption has been used:
We anticipate that continued efforts to recruit missionaries in 2016 would show additional results during 2017.

* Two –week is undergoing a re-design to a more field-driven model.

The implementation of the Home Office re-design is in process and, once completed, will support our strategic initiatives while controlling the growth of administrative fees. There will be some realignment to match the changing culture we live in, and additions will be directly related to new ministry that will generate needed income.

During 2015, we saw further improvement in the U.S. dollar’s purchasing power overseas, which helped control our Goods and Services cost, as it required less U.S. dollars to buy needed things. The dollar has shown gains in early 2016; however, this trend may not continue throughout 2016. We anticipate a slight decline in purchasing power in 2017. Accordingly, we will take necessary steps to keep income and expenses in balance.

Income projections have assumed a gradual decrease reflecting the anticipated decline in two-week missionaries. We anticipate this decline will be partially offset by the generous support for missionaries from churches and individuals. We have projected the support requirements of missionaries, adjusted the numbers for inflation, and balanced this with future income projections. For expense projections we modified the historic trends for salary adjustments resulting in a small per-missionary unit increase for 2016.

Missionary support accounts with deficit balances continue to remain low. Total deficits for all missionaries continued to remain low through 2015, indicating strong support from MTW ministry partners and proactive management.
Partnership share giving for the Home Office has stabilized at about $1.1 million. Partnership share giving in 2017 is projected to level off and remain constant, although we will continue to work with churches to see the amount increase.

Project and field income is calculated by reviewing active special projects and collecting field ministry budgets from all teams and missionaries. We expect a slight increase in 2017. Our Ambassadors program continues to provide major funding for new fields, church planting, training nationals, and mercy ministry.

Investment income projections assume that interest rates will continue to remain low over the next two years. In 2017, we expect a slight increase in distributions to the general fund due to the cash management program that has been put in place.

The Medical Insurance Fund (MIF) had an excellent year in 2015. As a result, the MIF reserve has reached approximately $4.6 million. For 2017, we expect further reductions in fees at the CareHere Clinic. Dental benefits have increased and certain in-network preventive care is now covered at 100%.

The missionary administrative assessment charge will be reduced by approximately $200,000 as the Home Office continues to absorb credit card and expense processing fees. We anticipate that earnings from endowment will continue to reduce administrative fees.

IV. Major Ministry Not Implemented in the Past Year

All major ministry items were implemented.

V. Notes to Budget

The following three tables show the consolidated income and expense budget proposed for 2017. The first table shows the 2017 budget broken down into major components. The second table presents a historical perspective showing 2015 and 2016 budgets approved at General Assembly, 2016 information, and the changes in budget from 2016 to 2017. The third table shows a five-year history of income and expenses.

In addition to the income and expense budget, the capital expense budget is requested in the amount of $301,000 for information technology, software purchases, network hardware, and improved telecommunication.

BUDGET NOTES

I. Economic Considerations and General Ministry Factors

The PCA Foundation’s (PCAF) primary purpose is to use its assets “…for the support of the cause of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ, primarily through the Presbyterian Church in America, but also through other groups, societies, organizations, and institutions that minister in Jesus’ name to man’s spiritual, physical, emotional and intellectual powers.” (PCAF Articles of Incorporation)

The purpose of the PCAF is accomplished primarily by providing information, education, and charitable financial services to individuals and families in order to help them carry out their charitable desires and stewardship responsibilities.

The PCAF offers the following charitable financial services: Advise and Consult Funds (donor-advised funds), Charitable Remainder Trusts, Charitable Lead Trusts, Endowments, Designated Funds for Churches, Estate Design, Bequest Processing, and providing educational materials, presentations and information.

The PCA Foundation has been somewhat affected since late 2008 by the recession and its slow recovery, the weakened financial markets and declining interest rates. These circumstances had a negative impact in late 2008 and during 2009 on the gifting of appreciated assets, the fair market values of the PCA Foundation’s assets and the income earned on some of its funds. Since 2009 gifting to the PCAF and total asset balances have shown continual growth due to improving financial markets, more awareness of the Foundation and its services, and other circumstances. The challenge of earning income on some of the PCAF’s funds still remains, and will continue considering financial market volatility.

The PCA Foundation’s proposed Operating and Capital Budget for 2017 of $1,097,000 represents a $91,000 or 9.0% increase from the 2016 General Assembly approved budget, primarily due to adding an administrative position and increased marketing related expenses.
II. Major Changes in Budget

There are no major changes in operations included in the proposed 2017 Budget.

III. Income Streams

The PCAF is self-supported. It does not participate in the PCA’s Partnership Shares Program, nor does it rely on the financial support of churches to help underwrite its operating expenses.

Approximately 75% of the PCAF’s total 2017 budgeted operating revenue will be derived from interest/earnings generated by its Advise and Consult Fund, the PCAF Endowment and several bank accounts. Trustee/Administrative Fees on Charitable Trusts, Endowments and other accounts are budgeted to provide approximately 20% of the budgeted revenues, and charitable contributions (primarily from a small number of individuals and Board members) account for the remaining 5%.

The sources of revenue and support described above should be attainable and sufficient to provide the 2017 budgeted operating revenues.

IV. Major Ministry Not Implemented in the Past Year

There were no new major ministry plans of the PCA Foundation scheduled for implementation during 2015.

V. Notes to Budget “line items”

General Comments
The 2017 Operating and Capital Budget of $1,097,000 represents a $91,000 or 9.0% increase compared to the 2016 Budget of $1,006,000. The primary reasons for the increase in the 2017 Operating and Capital Budget compared to the 2016 Budget is the increase in budgeted staff wages and benefits ($66,981) which includes an additional full-time administrative assistant and also increased marketing related expenses ($10,000).
Notes to Proposed 2017 Budget - (Notes generally relate to the proposed 2017 Budget Sheet and address notable variances of the 2017 Budget compared to the 2016 Budget.)

Support & Revenue
The 2017 Budget for Support and Revenue is $1,097,000, the amount needed to fund the 2017 Operating and Capital Budget.

Note: The PCA Foundation does not participate in the PCA’s Partnership Shares or Ministry Asks programs. It is self-supported.

Undesignated Earnings (line 1) – These payouts are from funds held by the PCA Foundation, mainly from Advise & Consult Funds and the PCAF Endowment, which help underwrite the Foundation’s operating expenses. The payout percentages are set annually by the PCA Foundation’s Board, and generally are somewhat correlated to the expected investment returns of the accounts. However, during times when the expected investment returns may be lower than the payout amounts needed to fund operations, reserves in these accounts are more than adequate to compensate for the differences. The 2017 Budget of $806,000 represents a $81,000, or 11.2% increase from the 2016 Budget amount of $725,000. This is primarily the result of an anticipated increase in projected balances and income in the Advise & Consult Fund New Pool Fund compared to what was budgeted in the 2016 Budget.

C & A Support (line 2) – This line was previously used for the total General Assembly mandated support from four Committees and Agencies (Covenant College, Covenant Theological Seminary, Mission to North America and Mission to the World). In 1996, the total amount was $176,000 and was reduced down incrementally to $0 by 2000, the year the Foundation successfully achieved self-supporting status.

Fees (line 3) – 2017 Budgeted fees are administrative fees charged on funds held for long term administration such as Charitable Remainder Trusts, Charitable Lead Trusts, Endowments, and Designated Funds, etc. The 2017 Budget amount of $225,000 is compared to the 2016 Budget amount of $215,000. Current account balances, the anticipation of new accounts in 2016, along with some expected improvement in the economy and the financial markets make achieving the 2017 Budgeted fee income realistic.
Contributions (line 4) – Gifts primarily from a small number of individuals and Board members help underwrite the Foundation’s Operating Budget. The contributions budgeted for 2017 are $50,000, compared to $50,000 in the 2016 Budget.

Operations Expenses
The 2017 amount budgeted for operating expenses is $1,096,500, compared to $1,005,500 budgeted for 2016, an increase of $91,000 or 9.1%.

Staff Wages & Benefits (lines 6, 7 and 8) – 2017 is budgeted at $793,300, representing an increase of 9.2% or $66,981 from the 2016 Budget amount of $726,319. $52,667 of this increase is due to budgeting for an additional administrative position. Wage increases budgeted for 2017 are approximately 3% of estimated 2016 wages.

The 2017 Budget for Staff Wages and Benefits of $793,300 represents an increase of $209,547 over the 2015 Actual of $583,753. However, of this amount, $115,147 is due to the salary and benefits of a Development/Marketing position which was vacant in 2015 (note: this function might be outsourced in 2017, in which case promotion expense would increase accordingly), plus $52,667 for the newly budgeted administrative position. The remainder of the increase of $41,733 is due to wage, payroll tax, health insurance, and retirement plan contribution expense increases, plus increased part-time employee expenses over the two-year period.

All Other Operating Expenses (lines 9 - 24) – All other operating expenses for the 2017 Budget are $303,200, compared to $279,181 in the 2016 Budget, an increase of $24,019. This increase is primarily due to increased marketing related expenses ($10,000) and increased travel expense ($5,000).

Capital Expenditures
Capital Expenditures (line 25) – The 2017 Budget of $32,500 consists of work station build-outs, new chairs, office equipment, server, new software applications and other.

I. Economic Considerations and General Ministry Factors

A. RBI Vision: To help our ministry partners steward God’s financial resources with wisdom and compassion.

B. RBI Mission: RBI is committed to serve the Lord and His Church by providing financial direction and ministries of encouragement and support. As a member of God’s covenant family, RBI will deliver its services through a trusted and confidential relationship. We will provide professional expertise and competitive products designed to meet the retirement, insurance, and ministerial relief needs of our Church family.

C. This budget reflects the costs incurred to administer the trust funds for PCA Retirement & Benefits, Inc. This budget does not reflect the financial activity in those trust funds. (Complete financial activity in the trust funds is provided in the 2015 RBI Annual Report, which includes audited financial statements.)

D. Economic considerations include a CPI of 2.4% and a medical trend of 10% based on our local group experience.

II. Major Changes in Budget

A. The 2016 budget reflects a 3.9% increase, or $112,513, compared to the 2016 approved budget (Budget Comparisons). The increase is spread between Retirement, Insurance, and Relief due to enhanced service objectives and associated expenses as described in our report to the Forty-Fourth General Assembly.

B. The total number of staff budgeted for 2017 is 21 FTE compared to 20.5 FTE in 2016. Currently, 19 FTE positions are filled.

C. The Retirement portion of Support and Revenue increased 4.4%, or $71,602, due to enhanced service objectives and estimated inflation (Budget Comparisons – Line 1).
D. The Insurance portion of Support and Revenue increased 4.1%, or $30,990, due to enhanced service objectives and estimated inflation (Budget Comparisons – Line 2).

E. The Relief portion of Support and Revenue shows a 1.5% increase, or $6,409, due to estimated costs associated with implementing the Relief Strategic Plan (Budget Comparisons – Line 3).

F. The Insurance TPA income portion of Support and Revenue reflects fee income collected by RBI for in-house administration of the Insurance plan (Budget Comparisons – Line 4).

H. Please note that 2015 actuals are unaudited. (Budget Comparisons and Five-Year Comparison).

III. Income Stream

The two sources of RBI budgeted revenue are 1) trustee fees charged to the Health and Welfare Benefit Trust and the PCA Retirement Plan Trust, and 2) estimated Insurance In House TPA fees. The trustee fee is set by the General Assembly when it approves our budget.

IV. Major Ministry Not Implemented in the Past Year

All major ministry items were implemented.

V. Notes to Budget Line Items

A. An overall net increase of 4.8% in salaries and benefits is assumed for 2016 compared to 2015. Budgeted positions assume a 1.5% cost of living factor and a 1.0% merit factor and the addition of one FTE. (Proposed Budget – Lines 5-8).

B. Occupancy expense for the shared facility is expected to remain at the same rate of $12 per square foot. (Proposed Budget – Line 13).
C. Board meeting expense has decreased 39.7% due to cost cutting measures. Prior year budget included funding for an extended board meeting that did not occur.

D. All fundraising activities relate to the Ministerial Relief program through our development activities, annual Relief Offering, appeals through PCA Foundation, and advertising in denominational publications (Proposed Budget – Fundraising Column).

E. Our General Assembly line item includes RBI’s share of the Nominating Committee expense and any Ad Hoc Committee expense, the cost of convention services, such as booth space and electrical supply, transportation of materials to and from General Assembly, seminars and other education / information activities presented at General Assembly. It also includes RBI’s share of denominational legal expense. It does not include travel expense for staff and presenting board members (Five-Year Comparison – Line 10).

APPENDIX C

REFORMED UNIVERSITY MINISTRIES
2017 PROPOSED BUDGET

RATIONALE

The RUF Mission:

Reformed University Fellowship has the goal of building the church now and for the future by reaching students for Christ and equipping students to serve. This is accomplished by supporting the RUF works of presbyteries and churches in the areas of administration, finance, development, intern program, training, conferences, recruiting, and general ministry operation.

I. Economic Considerations and General Ministry Factors

+ This budget reflects our continuing growth as we assist and work with presbyteries and churches to develop new RUF works on campuses nationwide. For 2017, we project to have 146 campus ministries with over 300 field staff, including 170 interns.

+ There is a net increase in the General Fund expenses of 5% over the 2016 budget. See below for explanation on budget changes.

+ The total number of full-time equivalent staff budgeted for 2017 is 31.5, an increase of .5 over the 2016 budget.

+ An overall net increase of 5% for salaries and related adjustments to benefits is assumed for all existing staff positions. That includes aggregate of cost of living and merit and benefit adjustments.

+ The cost being charged by the Administrative Committee for office space is projected to be $12 per square foot in 2017. (Due to the sale of RUF's equity share in the PCA office building, this amount is paid to PCA-CDM through a lease agreement.)

+ The 2017 budget for the entire ministry of $31,203,007, including affiliated committees, is included in the RUF General Assembly report for information.

II. Major Changes in Budget

+ In 2016, RUF realized that there were areas of ministry that were not included in the budget approved by the Permanent Committee and
GA. Our reports now include Ministry at Large (property, equipment, crisis relief fund, scholarships, expansion funds, conferences, mission projects and health insurance fund), as well as our Intern and Campus Staff programs. This explains the significant increase from 2016 to 2017.

III. Income Streams

+ Income for the 2017 budget is projected to come from contributions (64.9%), affiliated committee transfers (28.1%), conference revenues (.04%) and ministry at large (6.5%).

IV. Major Ministry Items Not Implemented

+ All major ministry items have been implemented.

V. Notes to Budget Line Items

+ The major areas of increase are for: 1) salary and benefits adjustments; 2) an increase in intern and development expenses to keep up with our growing revenue streams; 3) additional travel; and 4) major donor events.

RIDGE HAVEN
PROPOSED 2017 BUDGET

The Lord continues to bless Ridge Haven, and we are grateful and privileged to be a part of His work. It is both exciting and humbling to see the remodeling and expansion of our physical campus through the efforts of our almost completed Capital Campaign. Yet even more importantly, we are thrilled and thankful to see God’s Kingdom expand through our varied programs and resources. We are reminded daily that this is His work, and He will carry it on to completion.

I. Economic Considerations and General Ministry Factors

As noted below, the Lord enabled us to exceed our ambitious 2M budget while also allowing us to come under budget with our expenses, ending the year with a well-balanced budget.

We are delighted that our conferences and retreats are continuing to grow in spite of a severe housing shortage on campus. Six of our ten summer weeks have been “sold out” for the last two years and many weekends during the year have waiting lists.

Our earnest prayer is to complete the building of our new camper/youth group housing by mid-summer. This expansion is made possible through our 2.8M Capital Campaign projects. Two such projects are the new Shenandoah Treehouse Village and Mudgeville/Creekside Cabin villages. When all three new housing initiatives are completed we will be able to host over 144 additional campers each week during the summer and many, many more youth groups in the fall and spring.

Our Winter Camp and Winter Retreats are now some of our most popular camps. So much so we had to add a second Winter Retreat. Winter Retreat I is packed out over a year in advance.

Our specialized camps and retreats are more and more helping to define what we do at Ridge Haven. Braveheart Camp for youth is specifically designed for kids who have suffered the loss of a parent or loved one. We also have a Quarter Life Retreat for 20 and 30 somethings, our Chattanooga Sports Ministry Camp for inner city children, and our Keenagers Retreat for those 55 and over. There is truly a place for everyone at Ridge Haven.
Our ministry is about people ministering to and serving other people. Our staff is our most valuable asset, and thus, it is our largest budget item at 50% of our income and expenses.

As noted below, we are very conscious of paying our staff an adequate salary, but at the same time, we make every effort to keep all our costs, including our payroll, down so that Ridge Haven is affordable to the average PCA member. We are so grateful to the PCA for helping us keep our costs down. All support from our churches goes directly into our scholarship/camp discount fund. The average overnight camp in the American Camp Association is over $700 a week. Our week-long camp costs range from $225 to $589 (includes white water rafting) with our average camper paying only at $300 a week.

II. Major Changes in Budget

Our total income was $2,096,493 (slightly over budget) and our expenses were $2,020,168 (slightly under budget.)

This year, 2016, we have a separate budget for our Capital Campaign. For 2017, we will not have a separate budget for this as hopefully the majority of our Campaign pledges and projects will be funded.

III. Support/Revenue Streams

Ridge Haven receives support/revenue from the following sources:
1. Camp, Conference, and Retreat Fees (includes food service revenue);
2. Facility Rental;
3. Contributions (includes Partnership Shares and Direct Contributions);
4. Minor sources of revenue, which include resident fees (water/sewer fees, road assessments, etc.), sale of assets (lot leases, timber sales, etc.), and interest-bearing bank accounts.

IV. Major Ministry Not Implemented in the Past Year

As mentioned above, due to our lack of accommodations, we have not been able to start any new camps. We are hoping by this fall to have all three of our new camper housing areas operational. The main delay in using them is not the building of the housing units themselves but the new State mandated wastewater treatment plant that is currently being installed. The plant is also part of our current Capital Campaign. We are not allowed to occupy the new housing until the new wastewater treatment plant is fully functional.

We were hoping that once we built the new camper housing listed above, that we could then revert two of our motel-style buildings, Cassels and Laurel, back to adult accommodations. As you may know, four years ago we turned them into camper and youth group housing to accommodate our growth. But, our increase in campers and youth groups does not seem to be slowing down, so we will need all available space to accommodate them. We will need to delay additional adult housing until the next campaign.

V. Budget Line Items Notes

2017 Proposed Budget Notes

Line 4, Property – This line item includes revenue from lot maintenance fees, water hookups, water usage fees, and road maintenance fees from 18 lots which are contiguous to our main campus. The amount budgeted each year reflects the predictable aspects of this revenue, i.e. the principal and interest being paid on lot leases being bought over time, the annually collected lot lease maintenance fees, water usage fees, and a portion of the road maintenance fees.

Line 7, Miscellaneous – Includes refund of state sales tax, amortization of lot leases, timber sales, Right-of-Way land sales, staff rentals, and interest revenue account for most of the revenue generated in this category.

Line 10, Payroll and Benefits – Includes payroll and benefits for 15 year-round employees, counselors, and summer/weekend staff. Counselors and summer staff raise about 70% of their compensation and are included in line 5 (Contributions). In addition, camp and conference leaders, speakers, and musicians’ honorariums and travel expenses are included in this category, as well as payroll taxes and workers’ compensation insurance. Development of ministry partners for new construction projects is also included here.
Line 12, Office and Administrative – Includes major expense items, including commercial insurance, telephone fees, office and housekeeping supplies, loan interest and bank fees, and audit and legal fees.

Line 14, Facilities – Includes repairs, maintenance, deferred maintenance, real estate taxes, and refuse expenses. Our spending in this area continues to focus on past deferred maintenance, and we have made major progress in bringing our facilities back to a healthy state of repair.

Line 16, Ministry – Includes camp and retreat supplies, camp registration software fees, travel, and expenses associated with our Inner City Kids camp.

Line 17, Recruiting – Includes all printing costs, promotional ads and media productions, and the Executive Director and Program Director’s recruitment initiatives and trips.

Line 18, Maintenance – Includes vehicle parts and service, fuel costs, and equipment leases.

2011-2015 Five-Year Comparison Notes

Comment - The 2015 figures are pre-audit and our auditors may adjust certain accounts such as depreciation.

2017 PARTNERSHIP SHARES STATEMENT FOR THE PCA GENERAL ASSEMBLY MINISTRIES

PREFACE

The working definition under which the 2017 Partnership Share Budgets have been calculated is as follows.

As a general statement, “Partnership Shares” describes the amount of money needed to cover the anticipated total expenses of a ministry minus earned income and minus funds designated to specific individuals who are missionaries, church planters, campus ministers, and staff (unless the ministry also guarantees the full compensation of the employee), as well as specific capital funds or similar designated monies. This portion of the approved expense budget is dependent on contributions from the PCA churches and individuals. In every case the “Partnership Share” is permitted to be at least the General Administrative and Overhead portion of the particular ministry’s total budget.

Two important numbers for each participating ministry are provided by the Partnership Share and Ministry Ask calculations. First, the numbers located in the column labeled “Per Capita Calculation” are obtained by a per capita giving formula, which divides the Partnership Share Fund amount for each General Assembly Ministry by the total number of communicant members last reported to and accumulated by the Office of the Stated Clerk.

A second set of numbers under the column labeled “Ministry Ask” is provided for churches. The “Ministry Ask” is the amount of money each Committee or Agency is asking the churches of the PCA to give if the church would like to give to PCA Ministries on a “per member” basis. The amount listed in this column is generally an estimate of what each Committee and Agency needs to receive from each donor church per member in order for the Committee or Agency to raise their full budget approved by the PCA General Assembly.

These two numbers provide churches and individuals with important factors as they seek to decide how to give to the PCA General Assembly Committees and Agencies. All PCA Ministries struggle to raise Partnership Share funds, and none of the PCA ministries would be sustained without generous donors who give far beyond the Partnership Share. Please assist as generously as you are able.

In short, the Partnership Shares calculation is based on the inaccurate assumption that all churches have the same giving capacity per member and that all churches will give to all committees and agencies. The Ministry Ask is a more realistic figure.

The total number of Communicant Members according to the PCA Administrative Committee was 287,746 as of December 31, 2015.

GENERAL NOTE

Gifts designated “spread per Partnership Shares” (or some equivalent) and the totally undesignated gifts (which amount to less than $3,000 a year) will be spread according to the “Ministry Ask” column (by percentages of the total).

SPECIFIC COMMITTEE AND AGENCY NOTES

1. The PCA Administrative Committee requests that you contribute on the basis of 0.35% of total tithes and offerings (excepting contribution to capital campaigns for such efforts as new buildings). Please support us in this way if you are able to do so.
2. By giving $10 per member to Covenant College, churches qualify for the Church Scholarship Promise program at Covenant College.
3. The portion of RUM's budget that General Assembly approves is $11,287,111. The rest of this amount comes from budgets of churches and presbyteries that sponsor RUF works.
APPENDIX D

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DISCIPLESHIP MINISTRIES TO THE FORTY-FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN AMERICA

“For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to strengthen you—that is, that we may be mutually encouraged by each other’s faith, both yours and mine.”

(Romans 1:11-12 ESV)

Paul’s desire to visit the believers in Rome provides insight into an important element of discipleship. The Holy Spirit works through relationships to encourage and strengthen those who share a common faith. The work of PCA Discipleship Ministries is to assist local churches as they make disciples, particularly among the children, youth, and adults in the congregation. We strive to do this by connecting—people to people and people to resources. Fruitful discipleship is Word-based and relationship-driven.

Relationships

In discipleship ministry to children, God has used CDM to strengthen relational connections through Connect conferences, which are locally and regionally-based, targeted to those who serve in PCA churches, and designed to be less expensive than larger gatherings. Attendance varies from 50-150, and the seminar topics are driven by the needs of the local leaders who host the conference. The smaller number of attendees allows for greater interaction and participation. This characteristic has been particularly helpful for some new leaders who agreed to oversee the ministry in their congregation, even though they believed they had little experience. In the past year, CDM partnered with churches to have six conferences for children’s ministry staff and parents in Naples, FL; Harrisonburg VA; Starkville, MS; Mason, OH; Nashville, TN; and Atlanta, GA.

Conversations and questions at these events reveal some common issues facing those who serve children in PCA churches. A perennial need involves recruiting teachers and leaders, especially in light of the transient nature of PCA members (“regular” church attendance in some congregations is twice a month) and the desire to follow best practices in child protection (e.g., “two-
Some congregations are wrestling with the issue of transitioning non-communing members to full membership (e.g., What age? What process? What resources are available? How should elders be involved?). A troubling issue is the perceived lack of support from pastors and elders that many children’s directors experience. Some have voiced frustration that elders rarely talk to them unless there is a problem. There seems to be an acute need for elders to be more intentional in shepherding those called to make disciples among the children of PCA congregations.

Relational connection continues to be strong in the PCA Women’s Ministry, particularly as more congregations embrace a new vision for women’s discipleship that is less program-oriented and more reflective of the relational nature described in Titus 2. Over 1,100 people have joined the Connect PCA Women’s Facebook group. Women from congregations all over the denomination use this venue to ask for advice, get ideas for small group studies, and share information about ministry. One woman from a small church in an area with few PCA churches reported the group helps her feel more connected to the denomination. In February 2016, CDM launched a new blog (encourage.pcadm.org) where a pool of PCA authors (many of whom write for well-known blogs and magazines) provide weekly articles designed to encourage and equip women in the denomination. The idea for this blog came from a group discussion at the annual Leadership Training (LT). Every year, CDM gathers PCA women who serve as leaders in their congregation for seminars on topics chosen by the advisors and trainers who work with various congregations. In February 2016, the topic was “Show Me,” and the speakers and seminars considered how the discipleship principles found in Paul’s letter to Titus find expression in today’s church.

Beginning in April 2016, women from all over the PCA will be gathering for the Transformed conferences. Rather than host a national gathering in Atlanta, the Women’s Ministry Team decided to work with local churches to have a series of regional gatherings that reflect the needs and character of different areas in the denomination. Response from the local planning teams, as well as the first two conferences (Chicago, IL, and Orange County, CA), has been excellent. There will be five meetings in the fall: Birmingham, AL (September 9-10, with speaker Nancy Guthrie); Philadelphia, PA (September 30-October 1, with speaker Melissa Kruger); Hamilton, Ontario (October 21-22, with speaker Courtney Doctor); Charlotte, NC (October 28-29, with speaker Nancy Guthrie); and Dallas, TX (November 11-12, with speaker Nancy Guthrie).
In an effort to serve churches and develop leaders, CDM has formed a ministry team for children’s discipleship and is developing one for youth discipleship. These groups join the ministry team for women’s discipleship. These teams are comprised of ministry practitioners in PCA churches who volunteer to help CDM address issues raised by local church leaders. Additionally, every year CDM gathers women who serve part-time or full-time in vocational ministry as directors of women’s ministry. In October 2015, Tasha Chapman from Covenant Seminary helped the group consider the topic of ministry resilience. Many participants noted one particular quote: leadership involves “disappointing people at a rate they can absorb.”

Another development in connecting relationally is in the cooperative projects CDM has started with other agencies and ministries. For a number of years, CDM has explored a closer relationship with Reformed Youth Ministries (RYM). Under Executive Director Joey Stewart (TE in Nashville Presbytery), RYM has developed a great ministry for equipping and connecting those who serve the next generation. Rather than develop a parallel youth program, CDM desires to work with RYM and others to serve the PCA. As Youth Ministry Coordinator, TE Danny Mitchell acts as a liaison between PCA congregations and various ministries that serve youth.

CDM also desires to partner with other ministries and PCA Agencies. CDM, MNA, and Great Commission Publications (GCP) worked together to develop a tool designed to help teachers use the GCP “Show Me Jesus” curriculum with students who have special needs. CDM personnel are also exploring ways to work with MTW to help short-term teams conduct VBS programs, as well as church VBS programs nurture a mission mindset among participants. CDM also hopes to partner with MNA, RUF, and CTS to develop resources for training elders in new and established churches. These cooperative projects demonstrate the importance of relational connection in the ministry of discipleship.

Resources

CDM also desires to connect PCA members and leaders with good resources. In response to repeated requests, CDM personnel developed and launched Teach Me to Worship, a curriculum designed to help children understand the various elements of worship. Over 60 churches have purchased the curriculum for use during a worship time designed particularly for children. The lessons are downloaded from teachmetoworship.com so leaders can easily share them with the volunteers who teach the class. So far, feedback has been good.
CDM continues to publish studies and resources written by PCA authors. The Bible studies by TE George Robertson and Mary Beth McGreevy have been popular with many churches. At the February 2016 Women’s Leadership Training, CDM provided Titus 2 Tools. This resource is compatible with the 25th anniversary edition of Susan Hunt’s Spiritual Mothering (published by Crossway). Titus 2 Tools is designed to help churches develop and implement a women’s discipleship program that takes the transcendent principles of Scripture and applies those principles in the unique context of the congregation. In April 2016, CDM published From Garden to Glory by PCA member Courtney Doctor. This study involves three separate resources: 1) a study workbook for small groups, 2) 30 minute video presentations by Courtney Doctor, and 3) a children’s curriculum written by Jennifer Zell (a member of the CDM Children’s Ministry Team). Also in April, CDM offered Engaging Motherhood, a resource written by members of Oak Mountain PC in Birmingham.

CDM has added to the collection of short training videos (3 minutes) designed to stimulate discussion and develop volunteers. The original 15 videos of the Women’s Connection Series were released through the Connect PCA Women Facebook group and have received over 4,200 views. More videos have been added, including some for children, youth, and small group discipleship. See all 35 videos at vimeo.com/pcacdm/videos.

In a world of internet searches and readily available tools for ministry, CDM’s role in connecting people to resources centers on helping churches filter the mass of information that is available, as well as highlight resources produced by PCA members. Gone are the days when the denomination distributed a uniform curriculum for every congregation. Now the task is to help leaders discover what is right for their unique context.

Response to the actions of the 43rd General Assembly

After the debate and actions of the 43rd General Assembly on the “Personal Resolution on Civil Rights” (M43GA, pp. 16-17, 81-82), TE Travis Hutchinson (Tennessee Valley Presbytery) brought to the attention of the CDM staff a book he had purchased in the PCA Bookstore in 2000 entitled The Historical Birth of the Presbyterian Church in America by PCA pastor John Edwards Richards (now deceased). Inside the front cover was a label reading, “Proceeds from this book, after deducting expenses, will go to the work of the Presbyterian Church in America.” Chapter two of the book (now out of print) is a sermon by Dr. Richards overtly advocating racial segregation and implicitly advocating the supremacy of the white race. According to interviews with current and former staff members and a search of records, CDM leadership estimates 50 books or less were donated to the Bookstore in the late 1980’s with the front cover label already attached. The sales records that could be found indicate 10 copies were sold between 2003-2005, and the last copy sold in April 2005. The Bookstore staff estimates total profit from these 10 copies was less than $150.

In the September 2015 stated meeting of CDM, the committee discussed the information presented by TE Hutchinson and the CDM staff. The following resolution was passed:

Whereas the book The Historical Birth of the Presbyterian Church in America by John Edwards Richards contained teachings that contradict a biblical anthropology that all people, from every race, equally reflect the imago dei; and

Whereas the permanent committee and staff of Christian Education and Publications (CEP) sold the book in the CEP bookstore, and thereby unwittingly benefitted from the sale of a book that was not in keeping with the truth of the gospel;

Therefore be it resolved that the Committee on Discipleship Ministries (CDM) rejects the sinful and aberrant content in the book with respect to its teaching on racial issues.

In the March 2016 stated meeting, the permanent committee passed a motion to note the action taken at the September 2015 meeting in the written report to the 44th General Assembly, as well as the report to the CDM Committee of Commissioners.

PCA Bookstore (www.pcabookstore.com)

In the very competitive world of online discounter stores like Amazon and CBD, the PCA Bookstore is a niche retailer designed to serve the PCA community. Often the PCA Bookstore is able to match or beat other retailers on price, especially on orders for multiple copies. However, many PCA members place a greater value on convenience, preferring a “one stop shopping” experience like Amazon over using the denominational bookstore. Others prefer the “human touch” offered by the PCA Bookstore as customers talk to a salesperson and arrange for larger orders to be billed to the church. In 2015, the PCA Bookstore had a successful year. Not only did revenue cover inventory, rent, and personnel costs, but the Bookstore contributed over $30,000 to the general operating fund of CDM. This surplus was due to lower personnel costs (staff members were scaled back after sales had dropped in 2014), good sales at the 43rd General Assembly (approximately $30,000, averaging about $20 per commissioner), the launch of the Teach Me to Worship curriculum, and a number of large orders from churches who benefitted from the multiple copy discount. Though the revenue for the general fund was encouraging, the primary value of the Bookstore is the avenue of connection it provides to people inside and outside the PCA.

The Bookstore staff fills the order and includes information about pcabookstore.com so the customer can save money in the future by coming directly to the Bookstore.

Financial Review

While ministry opportunities continue to increase and CDM staff members are actively engaged in training, networking and resource development, the ministry continues to struggle to obtain the necessary resources to accomplish what the General Assembly has tasked CDM to do. In 2015, expenses exceeded income by $30,800 (2.2% of total income). After the small surplus in 2014, the staff held expenses essentially the same in the hope that giving would remain constant. However, a fourth quarter decline in church giving accounted for two-thirds of the operating shortfall, and individual giving failed to match the amount in 2014, which was boosted by a significant challenge gift from an anonymous donor through the PCA Foundation.

Though the revenue trends are discouraging (particularly the decline in support from PCA churches), CDM’s overall financial health is stable due to a cash reserve. It is reasonable to assume CDM could sustain losses similar to 2015 for 3 – 5 more years without having to utilize its available line of credit. Nevertheless, members of the CDM staff and permanent committee desire to keep expenses in line with income. At the same time, they are also working with churches and individuals to increase contributions, attendance at events, and sales of resources. In 2015, 114 PCA churches contributed to the CDM ministry for the first time or increased giving by $100 or more, but 133 churches decreased giving to CDM by $100 or more. Reasons for the decrease vary (e.g., congregational turmoil, planting a daughter church, etc.), but the total loss in church giving was $21,500 compared to 2014.

Through its history, CDM’s primary source of income has been support from congregations of the PCA (BCO 14-1). Yet, less than 30% of churches partner with CDM, so there is great potential for growth in this area. It is interesting to note a number of the congregations entering the PCA from the RCA have already partnered with CDM. Other sources of income for the ministry include individual giving (down from 2014, but up from years previous), and revenue from conference fees (up $12,000 in 2015). The PCA Bookstore ordinarily operates on a “break-even” basis; however, increased sales revenue and lower personnel costs enabled the Bookstore to contribute to the general operations of CDM in 2015.
Conclusion to the CDM Report

The ministry of discipleship in the PCA is diverse as congregations minister the truth of the gospel in very different contexts. The Committee on Discipleship Ministries exists to connect PCA people to other PCA people and PCA people to resources that reflect our doctrinal convictions and mission priorities. CDM serves as a hub to help those who have questions about ministry to children, youth, and adults, and also to serve as a conduit for stories about what God is doing and ideas for new models of discipleship. We give thanks for what God has done through the ministry of CDM in the past year and trust he will continue to guide and bless our effort to serve as a hub for relationships and resources.

Recommendations

1. That the General Assembly approve the minutes of the meetings of the Permanent Committee for the Committee on Discipleship Ministries in September 2015 and March 2016.

2. That the General Assembly receive the 2015 Audit performed by Robins, Eskew, Smith, and Jordan, and approve the same firm for the 2016 Audit.

3. That the General Assembly approve the 2017 CDM budget as presented by the Administrative Committee.

4. That the General Assembly give thanks to God and express appreciation to the churches and individuals who contributed to the 2015 Women’s Love Gift given to benefit Reformed University Fellowship (RUF). The gift totaled over $52,700.

5. That the General Assembly encourage churches and individuals to contribute generously to the 2016 Women’s Love Gift designated to benefit the work of Parakaleo, which is a ministry of Mission to North America (MNA).

6. That the General Assembly designate the 2017 Women’s Love Gift to benefit the ministry of Covenant College (CC).

7. That the General Assembly encourage individuals, local churches, and presbyteries to utilize the many resources available on the CDM website (pcacdm.org), as well as the many books and resources offered through the PCA Bookstore (pcabookstore.com).

8. That the Assembly encourage individuals and local churches to utilize the excellent curricula from Great Commission Publications (GCP), e.g., Show Me Jesus, Kids’ Quest, and So What? youth Bible studies, particularly the newest material—So What? A Study of Philippians for teens and G2R (Genesis to Revelation) Bible Survey, an 8-study series for preteens to young teens. (See Attachment 1)

9. That the General Assembly give thanks to TE Bernie Lawrence, RE William Stanway, and RE Gary White for their faithful service as members of the Permanent Committee.

10. That the General Assembly re-elect TE Stephen Estock to serve as the Coordinator for the Committee on Discipleship Ministries (CDM).

11. That the General Assembly authorize CDM to work with other Committees, Agencies, and Reformed ministries to develop a training and certification program, specifically for non-ordained ministry leaders (paid or volunteer) serving in discipleship ministries in the local church (e.g., ministry to children, youth, men and women). This certification will recognize developed competencies and serve as a helpful tool to churches as they seek trained staff personnel to serve in their local ministries.

12. That the General Assembly recognize Reformed Youth Ministries (RYM) as a valuable ministry partner to CDM in equipping and training students and youth staff (ordained and non-ordained) in local PCA churches.

13. That the General Assembly encourage women in local PCA churches to participate in one of the five remaining Transformed Conferences in 2016: Birmingham, AL (September 9-10); Philadelphia, PA (September 30-October 1); Hamilton, Ontario (October 21-22); Charlotte, NC (October 28-29); and Dallas, TX (November 11-12).
Great Commission Publications (GCP) is the official publishing ministry of the PCA and the Orthodox Presbyterian Church (OPC). This joint publishing ministry was established by the respective General Assemblies of the PCA and the OPC in 1975. GCP produces high-quality Reformed and covenantal curriculum for all ages, as well as Trinity Hymnal. GCP publishes a full-orbed system of curriculum that is clearly based upon the Bible as the Word of God.

GCP is governed by a twelve member board of trustees. Six are elected by the PCA CDM and six by the OPC Committee on Christian Education (CCE). Additionally, the PCA CDM Coordinator and the OPC CCE General Secretary for Christian Education serve as ex-officio, non-voting trustees. Currently the GCP Executive Director and the Associate Executive Director are PCA teaching elders and the Director of Business Operations is a PCA ruling elder. The President of the board of trustees for 2016 is PCA TE Winston Maddox, Executive Pastor of Catalina Foothills Church in Tucson, AZ.

This year GCP is continuing to release its G2R Bible Survey (Genesis to Revelation) series of studies for preteens and young teens using the ESV. Studies for the entire Old Testament are currently available. Surveys of New Testament books will be available for this fall, including the Gospels in July, as well as Acts and Romans in October. First Corinthians through Philemon are scheduled for January 2017, and Hebrews through Revelation in April 2017. When completed next April, there will be survey studies for every book of the Bible. This set of Bible surveys allows churches more flexibility in how they group grades 5 through 8. Upon series completion in 2017, all titles will be available for churches to use at any time. Check out the website www.gcp.org to see how to use these studies in a two-year, three-year, or four-year plan. The critical nature of these foundational studies helps students integrate the familiar stories of the Bible into a comprehensive understanding of God’s single story of his redemptive plan throughout Scripture.

GCP’s So What? Bible studies for youth continue to grow in popularity. This year GCP is releasing its tenth study in this series, A Study of Philippians. For sample lessons visit www.sowhatstudies.org. The modular format of this series allows flexibility in scheduling for use with youth groups, small group studies, homeschooleds, and Christian day schools.

GCP publishes a child’s curriculum based on The Pilgrim’s Progress. It features a new child’s edition of the book, a dramatic reading, a selection of original songs, as well as lessons. For sample lessons for the Pilgrim’s Progress curriculum please visit www.childrenspilgrimsprogress.org.

The Show Me Jesus curriculum (Toddler through sixth grade) is the core upon which all the GCP curriculum is built. Further, Kids’ Quest is a catechetical curriculum in a club program format that is suited for a variety of settings in a discipleship program.
Greetings in the name of Jesus Christ,

On behalf of the Board of Trustees and the Covenant College community, I offer this annual report on the 2014–2015 academic year.

Academics

We appointed three full-time faculty members, who will begin their service in the fall of 2015:

- Ms. Christiana Fitzpatrick (MA, Education, Wake Forest University), director of global education
- Dr. Karen Nelson (PhD, Molecular Biology, Case Western Reserve University), director of institutional research
- Dr. Chris Robinson (PhD, Sociology, University of South Carolina; MDiv, Union Theological Seminary), assistant professor of sociology

Professors Steve Corbett (community development), Brian Fikkert (economics & community development), Kelly Kapic (theological studies), and Hans Madueme (theological studies), and Russell Mask (community development) authored or edited books that were published.

Author and singer-songwriter Andrew Peterson was named Covenant’s Nick Barker Writer in Residence for the spring semester of 2015.

The Department of Chemistry was awarded a Pittsburgh Conference Memorial National College Grant to fund the purchase of workstations that allow for faster data acquisition and analysis in chemistry labs.

Admissions & Communications

We were pleased to welcome 318 new students in the fall of 2014.

We completed a responsive redesign of the College’s website, covenant.edu.

We began live-streaming and publishing video of chapel services.
Campus & Facilities
Following investigations by facilities management and a structural engineer, we dismantled the College’s longtime art facility—the Art Barn—and designed and constructed a new visual art facility, which opened in the fall of 2015. The cost for the construction of this facility was roughly $2.2 million, the funds for which have all been pledged.

We completed a redesign of the gateway Covenant College sign at the main entrance.

We completed planning for and began a two-year, historic renovation of the exterior of our flagship building, Carter Hall. Opened in 1928 as the Lookout Mountain Hotel, this iconic structure, which has great bones, was sorely in need of repairs to its exterior wall as well as new windows and a new roof (the original having served for 87 years). The total cost of the renovation project—including soft costs and contingency—is $19.4 million. The project necessitates the displacement of one-quarter of the building’s tenants (students and administration) at a time, for semester-long periods. Completion is scheduled for August, 2017.

Development & Finances
Donors generously gave $9,410,796 to Covenant during the 2014-2015 fiscal year. $5 million of that came in the form of a single estate gift—the largest single check the College has ever received—which was restricted by the donor for endowment for student scholarships.

Covenant saw positive operating results again this year, with a nearly $700,000 increase in net assets.

A campaign to fund the construction of a new visual art facility was begun and completed.

A campaign to fund the restoration of Carter Hall began.

We had a record number of churches participate in our Church Scholarship Promise program, with 272 partner churches.

Following Troy Duble’s resignation as vice president for advancement, Jeff Sandhoff was appointed to replace him. Other new hires include Kim Collins, director of alumni engagement; Gus Diamondidis, regional director of development; and Ike Reeder, church relations officer.
Strategic Plan
The 2014-2015 year was the first year of implementation of a new three-year strategic plan for the College. The overarching focus of the plan is on strengthening the total Covenant experience—the educational experience had both by students and by other College constituents—while increasing the availability and sustainability of that experience. This focus is supported by five strategic priorities:

- Strengthen academic excellence & impact
- Create lifelong Covenant value & connection
- Foster transformation through diverse experiences
- Create a sustainable economic model
- Strengthen organizational resilience & innovation

Each of the five priorities entails supporting objectives. In the first year of implementation, the College focused on enhancing mentoring and increasing opportunities for guided practicums and internships, evaluating and revising the core curriculum, evaluating and augmenting the College’s marketing and communications strategy, assessing and revising the current business model, and implementing a plan to address deferred maintenance and capital expenditures.

Student Life
We continued an ongoing conversation on homosexuality and gender identity with guest speaker Sam Allberry and a panel of faculty and staff members.

The men’s cross country team won the USA South championship for the second consecutive year, and coach Katie Stanford was voted Coach of the Year. The men’s soccer team won the USA South championship and earned a berth to the NCAA Division III tournament championship. John Hirte was voted USA South Coach of the Year for men’s tennis. Covenant’s athletics department won the USA South Sportsmanship Award.

A survey of graduating seniors revealed that 92% reported being members or regular attenders of a local church and 63% had completed internships before graduation.

General Assembly
The College was pleased to welcome the PCA General Assembly to the Chattanooga area in 2015. College staff created branding and print collateral for General Assembly, planned seminars, coordinated transportation needs, and hosted a women’s luncheon and an evening picnic and Andrew Peterson concert on Covenant’s campus.

Recognition

Washington Monthly ranked Covenant #10 in the nation among baccalaureate colleges, and U.S. News & World Report ranked Covenant #9 among regional colleges in the South.

In Washington Monthly, Covenant ranked 5th in the nation for the number of alumni who go on to receive PhDs and 1st in the nation for the number of graduates who go on to serve in the Peace Corps, relative to school size.

At 85%, Covenant’s freshman retention rate ranks 1st among regional colleges in the South.

Conclusion

We are grateful for the oversight of the PCA as we seek to remain faithful to our mission to explore and express the preeminence of Jesus Christ in all things. Thank you for your partnership in the work God is doing through Covenant College—the fruits of this enterprise are evident in the lives of students and alumni.

Yours in Christ,

J. Derek Halvorson (’93) Ph.D.
President

Recommendations

1. That the General Assembly thank and praise God for the excellent work and faithfulness of the Board of Trustees, faculty, and staff of Covenant College in serving the Presbyterian Church in America by shaping students for lives of service in the Kingdom of God.
2. That the General Assembly encourage congregations of the PCA to support the ministry of Covenant College through encouraging prospective students to attend, through contributing the Partnership Shares approved by the General Assembly, and through prayer.
3. That the General Assembly approve the budget for 2015-2016, as submitted through the Administrative Committee.

5. That the General Assembly approve the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Trustees for October 8-9, 2015, and March 17-18, 2016, with notations.

6. That the General Assembly receive as information the foregoing Annual Report, recognizing God’s gracious and abundant blessing and commending the College in its desire to continue pursuing excellence in higher education for the glory of God.

7. That the General Assembly designate a Sunday in the coming year on which churches of the denomination are encouraged to highlight the ministry of Covenant College and to pray specifically for the College in its mission and ministry.

8. That the General Assembly direct the College to maintain policies in keeping with a biblical understanding of sexual identity (see Attachment).
The following is a summary statement on sexual identity put forward by the College administration. The faculty of the College offered a unanimous resolution of support for this statement, and the board adopted it at its regular Spring 2016 meeting. This statement is not intended to address every possible situation that might be encountered, but is intended rather to represent at a summary level a biblical understanding of sexual identity.

Statement on Sexual Identity

Covenant College is the college of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) and, as such, upholds and affirms the confessional statements of its denomination. The PCA maintains the Old and New Testaments to be the infallible Word of God and the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms as secondary standards of faith and practice. Specifically, the Westminster Confession of Faith asserts that the Holy Scriptures—the 66 books constituting the Old and New Testaments—are given by inspiration of God to be the rule of faith and life.

With regard to the nature of the sexes, Covenant College affirms that passages in both the Old and New Testaments explicitly state that human sexuality is binary: male and female. These passages include the creation narratives in Genesis 1:27 and Genesis 2:21-24, which are later repeated by both Jesus (Matthew 19:1-9) and Paul (Ephesians 5:31), who affirm these binary distinctions when linking the sexes to monogamous heterosexual marriage. The distinct creation of male and female intended for communal relationship with one another is a reflection of the image of the relational God. These biblical passages provide a normative framework that establishes sex as a distinct morphological phenotype differentiated by the presence of external sex characteristics which provide the sexual union that produces “one flesh.” Sexual identity is therefore based on these objective and observable biological realities. Individual subjective feelings and experiences of gradations that deviate from this binary norm, however existentially salient, cannot supersede this normative sexual framework.

There are a small percentage of individuals whose biological sexuality is indeterminate resulting from genetic or in utero developmental anomalies. The existence of such intersex conditions does not invalidate the creational norms established by the Genesis narratives and affirmed by Jesus and Paul. These anomalies notwithstanding, such individuals bear the image of God and are deserving of all the dignity, respect, and care afforded to divine image-bearers, and we are called to support them in wisdom and love.

JUNE 2016

The Gospel for All of Life:
Equipping God’s People for Kingdom Service—for 2025 and Beyond

\text{And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists,}\]
\[
\text{the shepherds and teachers,}\]
\[
\text{to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up}\]
\[
\text{the body of Christ, . . .}\]

Ephesians 4:11–12

Each year, it is our great privilege to report to our denomination on the ways in which the Lord has been fulfilling his Kingdom purposes through the mission and ministry of Covenant Seminary. This year we are thankful for the many blessings God has showered on us, and for the many opportunities for increased gospel impact he has put before us, even as the changing cultural and economic landscapes continue to present significant challenges to Christian educational institutions like ours. Please join us in praising God as we share with you, our sister PCA agencies and partner churches, this overview of his faithfulness over the past year and his provision for the way ahead.

Equipping for Gospel Impact in a Rapidly Changing Culture
As the culture around us continues to shift dramatically away from biblical truth in nearly every area of life, the need for well-trained pastors and leaders who can help others understand the issues of our times and engage with them in a biblical way is greater than ever. These pastors and leaders—who will have a lasting impact on our churches, our denomination, our culture, and our world—must be identified, encouraged, and equipped for this daunting but essential task. It matters greatly who trains these leaders, and how. Indeed, we might say that as go the seminaries, so go the pastors—and so will go the church, the nation, and the world.
Committed to Excellence in Pastoral Training. We at Covenant Seminary take very seriously our responsibility to shape and form the kind of pastors and leaders who are able to shape and form others who will then impact the world for Christ in whatever vocations and areas of service to which the Lord calls them. We also take very seriously our standing as the primary pastoral training institution of our denomination. We believe it is important to provide the kind of training we do in the manner in which we do it—residential, life-on-life, mentored ministry training within the context of a living, learning, worshiping, covenantal community of grace—because we believe that this approach best reflects Jesus’s own approach with his disciples.

We see this approach as being more important than ever in a world where technological advances that allow for amazing innovations in how human beings interact with and learn from one another also bring with them some serious challenges to building the kind of community and deep relationships that are necessary for shaping good pastoral leaders. While we embrace and celebrate many of these technologies—and see them as a vital part of our educational mission—we also remain firmly committed to a form of theological education rooted in deep personal relationships that grow from the soil of faith in and love for Christ, and are empowered by his redeeming grace.

Building on Missional Goals. To this end, with gratitude toward God for his faithfulness to us over the last 60 years, we are looking to build on the strong foundation he has given us, so that, over the next ten years, we may further become a seminary that:

- Recruits and retains the most promising ministerial students and the highest quality faculty of pastor-scholars.
- Equips transformational servant-leaders to lead and shape the church and our denomination for gospel proclamation and biblical engagement with the pressing issues of the day.
- Expands the impact of our mentored life-formation approach to every degree program and every student on our campus.
- Maximizes our partnerships with local churches to expand field education opportunities and experiences for our students.
- Launches our graduates into ministry well, without the burden of educational debt, and sustains and encourages them through a lifetime of faithful ministry.
- Strengthens our organizational budget and expands our base of annual and capital support so that we might steward our campus and our human resources well for the next generation.
• Leverages our many grace-based resources for the sake of the church, the denomination, and the Kingdom by expanding the impact of Covenant Seminary far beyond St. Louis, both online and in person.

Planning for Future Effectiveness. Many of our efforts over the last year have been aimed at laying the groundwork for further growth in each of these major areas. We are developing a strategic plan that will guide us in these endeavors as we look ahead to the year 2025 and beyond. We have also been consulting with our lead donors over the past several months as we prepare to launch a major capital campaign later this year to grow our endowment with the goal of bringing greater financial strength to areas that are vital to our mission. These include:

- Increasing support for our students through endowed scholarships,
- Ensuring long-term stability and continuity for our faculty through endowed professorships,
- Enhancing operational effectiveness through infrastructural improvements and resource stewardship, and
- Expanding our Kingdom-equipping opportunities through strategic partnerships that will enable us to bring something of the distinctive ethos, energy, and educational resources of Covenant to the broader church via online and on-the-ground channels that reach far beyond our main campus.

You’ll be hearing more about all of this in the coming months as we further develop our goals and plans. Please pray for God’s guidance and provision as we seek to honor him in carrying out our mission.

Equipping for Gospel Influence in Every Area of Life

We have been working faithfully in several practical ways to make our future vision a present reality.

The Renovation of Edwards Hall Community Center. Our newly refurbished Community Center reopened in fall 2015 after a massive 18-month renovation program aimed at making the building—which has served a variety of functions over the years—more inviting and conducive to fostering the deep, gospel-centered relationships that are vital to the formation of effective pastors and church leaders. Named for the Edwards family, who have been friends and supporters of the Seminary since its inception and whose heritage includes the former financial firm of A. G. Edwards and Sons (now part of Wells Fargo Advisors), the facility was originally built as a multi-purpose classroom. Later converted into a gathering space for students, faculty, and staff, the center became an important focal point for campus community life. Over the last several years, it was increasingly apparent that the facility was inadequate for the needs of a growing student body. Thanks to funds raised from many generous private donors, Seminary alumni, and a gift from the PCA’s Women in the Church, the center underwent a complete makeover, transforming it into an up-to-date, accessible, and family-friendly facility. Improvements include:

- A larger dining space with a beamed ceiling, large windows that look out onto an exterior patio dining space, and a double-sided fireplace to add inviting warmth.
- A more intimate booth seating area.
- A community self-serve kitchen with seating around an open kitchen bar.
- A new café and coffee shop near the larger dining area that will sell fresh, light fare.
- More lounge and meeting space, with a reservable area for use by small study and discussion groups.
- A recreation room on the lower level that will include facilities for table tennis and light fitness equipment.
- Family-friendly restrooms.
- An elevator for easier access to the lower level.

Many environmentally friendly LEED concepts were incorporated into the design, such as a light shelf to reflect light and reduce the use of overhead lighting, a highly efficient HVAC system that will reduce energy consumption, recycled materials in finishes and furnishings, permeable pavers for the patio, and a rain garden to catch runoff from the roof.

We believe the new Community Center will have a tremendous impact on our students and their future ministries because so much of what shapes us in life happens around tables and food—sharing meals together, sharing conversation, sharing the stories of our day. Our goal was to create a place for our campus community that provides a shared space for those kinds of formative times, a place that encourages relationships and conversations between students, faculty, and others within our surrounding churches. These hopes are already being realized.

The Launch of Covenant Seminary—Nashville. We are pleased to announce that two years after serious exploratory conversations began between our staff and pastors and elders in Nashville, Tennessee, our expanded presence in that city, known as Covenant Seminary–Nashville, officially launched in January 2016. While we remain as firmly committed as ever to the residential model of theological education as the most effective way to train pastors and leaders for Christ’s church, we also recognize that increasingly, many students cannot, for economic or other reasons, relocate to St. Louis for full-time seminary study as readily as in the past. Our desire is to help such students get a head start on their training through locally offered instruction in a strategically chosen city. Based on a strong existing network of alumni and churches in Nashville that can serve as infrastructural support for such a project, we chose that city as the home for an extension site. The goals for Covenant Seminary–Nashville are to:

- Serve as an access point and on-ramp for students who desire to begin their seminary training before moving to St. Louis.
- Provide on-site and hybrid online/on-site courses for a variety of students seeking further training with our MATS for their ministry staff positions.
- Further equip those in ministry or lay leadership who seek deeper understanding of their faith and a better integration of that faith into their vocational life.
- Provide strategic research and insight for the potential development of future learning sites.

We kicked things off with our first class, a weekend seminar called Interpreting the Bible, taught by Dr. Dan Doriani, followed by Dr. Doriani’s week-long morning class Exploring the Gospels. The enthusiasm and excitement experienced during the week was encouraging and gave us much to build on for the future.

An additional course, Spiritual and Ministry Formation, was taught weekly on Thursday evenings during the spring semester by Dr. Phil Douglass, Dr. Brad Matthews, and Dr. Scotty Smith, a Nashville friend and one of our adjunct faculty members. Dr. Matthews also taught a weekend seminar on Christian Maturity in April. A further course on Calling, Vocation, and Work, to be taught by Dr. Mark Dalgby, Dr. Mike Williams, and Adjunct Professor Dr. Donald Guthrie will take place in August.

We are profoundly grateful to the many staff members, friends, donors, and other partners who played key roles in bringing this dream to fruition. We praise God for his favor in bringing all the many details together so that the work of equipping his people in Nashville could get off to such a solid start.
We pray that he will use this work to bless his people, whether they pursue studies while remaining in Nashville or seek further training for ministry by joining us eventually in St. Louis.

More Scholarships to Support Our Students. In keeping with our desire to ensure that as many students and alumni as possible are able to pursue a seminary education without incurring a heavy burden of debt, this year we were able to institute new scholarships to support key constituencies.

- New Doctor of Ministry (DMin) Scholarships. In keeping with our desire to serve as a resource and provide ongoing educational opportunities for our alumni, Covenant Seminary this year began offering a 75% scholarship for alumni taking the first course of our DMin program. After the first course, Covenant will match funds that alumni receive from their churches, up to a maximum of 25% of tuition per course. The number of 75% scholarships is limited each year. Non-alumni DMin students with financial need and students who do not have any funding from their churches can also apply for the matching scholarship program. Specific qualifications and details are available on our website.

- New Reformed University Fellowship (RUF) Scholarships. Nearly half of the new students we receive come to us through participation in some form of campus ministry, with many of those coming from Reformed University Fellowship. We recently established several scholarships to encourage and support students who are actively involved with an RUF ministry or who are serving as RUF interns. Specific qualifications and details are available on our website. In general:
  - 50%-tuition awards are available for full-time, main-campus MDiv students.
  - 50% awards are also available for online or Nashville courses for interns prior to attending as full-time, main-campus MDiv students.

Biblical Engagement with Pressing Issues of Our Day. Part of helping our students to understand and interact biblically with our culture and its challenges requires that we as an institution model such interaction for them. This year provided several significant opportunities to do so.

- The 2015 Francis A. Schaeffer Lectures explored the church’s missional identity in a changing global landscape as plenary speak Dr. Michael Goheen, theological director and scholar-in-residence at the Missional Training Center in Phoenix, Arizona, and author of A Light to the Nations: The Missional Church and the Biblical Story spoke on the theme “Sent Into the World: Missional Recovery of Ecclesial Identity.” Dr. Goheen was joined by Acts 29 Network vice president and St. Louis Cardinal chaplain Rev. Darrin Patrick, who is also founder/lead pastor of The Journey in St. Louis; Rev. Josiah Bancroft, director of mission at Serge (formerly World Harvest Mission); Dr. Luke Bobo, curriculum director and resident theologian at Biblical Business Training; and Dr. Michael Williams, professor of systematic theology at Covenant Seminary. The goal of the conference was to help believers recapture our identity as those who join God in his missional task to bless and heal the nations as the good news of Christ’s redeeming work is made known in and through the church—the sign, instrument, and foretaste of God’s salvation.

- The African American Leadership Development and Resource Weekend in September 2015 focused on the theme of “Orthodox Activism: The Church in Pursuit of Social Justice.” Hosted by Covenant Seminary and South City Church, the conference brought together people of all ethnicities and denominations in a safe place to have important conversations among believers about difficulties the church faces in addressing social justice issues. Speakers included Dr. Sean Michael Lucas, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Hattiesburg, Mississippi; Dr. Carl Ellis Jr., associate pastor for cultural apologetics, New City Fellowship, Chattanooga, Tennessee; Mrs. K. A. Ellis, speaker and writer on the theology of human rights, African American culture, understanding Islam, and the persecuted church; Dr. Thurman Williams, associate pastor, Grace and Peace Fellowship, St. Louis, Missouri; Rev. Tony Myles, associate pastor, New City Fellowship-University City, Missouri; and Dr. Mike Higgins, dean of students at Covenant Seminary.

The event built on some of the same themes addressed at last summer’s General Assembly during a fellowship dinner on justice and peace that featured Dr. Higgins and his daughter, Michelle Higgins, director of worship and outreach at South City Church, as the main speakers. It also built on the City Ministry Initiative conference from April 2015 entitled “Welcoming One Another: Racial Identity in Christ,” which featured Dr. Carl Ellis and Michelle Higgins, as well as Dr. Peter Slade of the Department of Religious Studies at Ashland University; Dr. Vince Bantu, co-chair of the Theology Committee of the Christian Community Development Association.
• The winter 2016 issue of Covenant Magazine addressed the theme of “Reflections on the Church and Racial Reconciliation.” Drawing on the insights of some of our professors and alumni, the main articles in this issue reflected the growing recognition within our denomination and the broader evangelical community that the church in America has not always lived up to its calling to be the living voice, hands, and feet of the gospel when it comes to issues of racial and social justice. Intended as a helpful, thought-provoking and discussion-starting resource for those in our churches, this has quickly become one of our most-requested issues.

• The Seminary’s Board of Trustees moved at its January 2016 meeting to affirm and endorse the Missouri Presbytery’s Overture (Overture 4) to this year’s General Assembly on the need for racial reconciliation and repentance in our denomination’s churches. The endorsement includes the following statement applied to Covenant Seminary:

  We believe this overture provides a helpful and important next step to grow as a seminary community in our commitment to racial reconciliation and justice:

  o In our understanding of where we have failed to love and serve our African American brothers and sisters and neighbors in the past and present;
  o In our listening to and providing voice for a deeper owning of the ways we have sinned and are sinning against our brothers and sisters by way of commission and omission;
  o In our commitment to seeing the Seminary become a more diverse community in its faculty, staff, board, and student body; and o In our need to have a more comprehensive training and equipping of all our students to understand and embrace doing justly, loving mercy, and walking humbly with our God in relationship to our brothers and sisters.

• The Fourth Annual St. Louis L’Abri Conference, sponsored by L’Abri Fellowship in Rochester, Minnesota, and held on our campus in October 2015, explored the theme “Defending Life and Liberty in a Brave New World.” The conference addressed the challenges to human liberty in an increasingly divisive, intolerant, and relativistic world. Speakers included Mr. Dick Keyes, director of L’Abri Fellowship in Southborough, Massachusetts; Dr. David Lyon, research chair in surveillance studies and director of the Surveillance Studies Centre, Queen’s University, Kingston, Ontario; Dr. Richard Winter, professor of applied theology and counseling, Covenant Seminary; Rev. Mark Ryan, director of the Francis A. Schaeffer Institute at Covenant Seminary; and Mr. Larry Snyder, scholar, teacher, and former director of the Rochester L’Abri.

- “Porn: Gateway to the Gospel—A Training Seminar for Leaders Walking Alongside Those Battling Sexual Addictions” was the title of another special weekend course held on campus in October 2015. The conference addressed the scourge of pornography that is rampant in our culture and in the church, and the need for the church to be proactive in leading others to counter its lustful power with the true passion for which God has made humanity. The featured speaker was Michael Cusick, an ordained pastor, licensed professional counselor, and author of Surfing for God: Discovering the Divine Desire Beneath Sexual Struggle.

- “Apologetics in the Urban Context: Defending the Faith in the City” was the theme of a special weekend course held in November 2015 at South City Church in St. Louis. Featured speaker Rev. Dr. Luke Bobo, director of resource curriculum development for Made to Flourish, led attendees in an exploration of some of the hard questions our unbelieving friends, neighbors, co-workers, and family members ask about the values of God’s Kingdom. Students took field trips around the city, learned to listen well and ask good questions, and to work together to develop better skills for defending the faith in an urban context.

- A special weekend conference entitled “How Missional Service is Pulling Christians Together Around the World: Generational, Ethnic, and Denominational Differences Can Be Overcome” featured Dr. J. Nelson Jennings, former professor of world mission at Covenant Seminary and now mission pastor and consultant at Onnuri Community Church in Seoul, South Korea, bringing his considerable knowledge to bear on bridging some of the gaps that divide Christians as they attempt to work together for the sake of the gospel in different parts of the world. The weekend also offered a panel of mission practitioners sharing their experiences in addressing the challenges of cross-cultural collaboration in their unique ministry contexts.

- “Eating Disorders and the Body” was the title of a weekend seminar held in March 2015 to help believers understand and deal biblically with the impact of eating-related issues such as anorexia, bulimia, and binge eating disorder that claim the lives of thousands each year. The seminar addressed the biological, psychological, social, and spiritual aspects of food, body image, and eating disorders. The featured speakers were two Covenant Seminary alumni: Travis Stewart (MAC ’01/MATS ’03), a licensed professional counselor and director of outreach for Castlewood Treatment Center; and Dr. Kelly Maxwell (MAC ’08), a licensed professional counselor in private practice with experience at an eating disorder clinic and a PhD in family therapy. The event was co-sponsored by our Counseling Department and Castlewood Treatment Centers.

- The Men’s Leadership Breakfast, our long-running Bible study for men in our community from every walk of life, continued to meet this year with a well-received in-depth study of the biblical understanding of manhood as presented by Dr. Dan Doriani, vice president of strategic academic initiatives and professor of theology, in his recent book The New Man: Becoming a Man After God’s Heart (P&R, 2015), an updated edition of his earlier The Life of a God-Made Man.

Other Significant Events and Activities

- The Covenant Seminary Preaching Lectures, held in October 2015, featured Rev. Greg Thompson, senior pastor of Trinity Presbyterian Church in Charlottesville, Virginia, speaking on the topic “My Beloved Speaks: Preaching and the Triune Voice of Love.” Rev. Thompson explored the many ways in which God’s voice of love speaks to us in the Scriptures and the implications this has for the preaching of his Word.

- The Fifth Annual Theology Conference, sponsored by the student-led Theological Fellowship at Covenant Seminary in January 2016, featured the presentation of student and faculty papers on a variety of topics such as: “The Theology of Food,” “Zeal, Despair, and Future Hope,” “Ethical Apparel,” “Viniculture and Wine Consumption in the Iron Age,” and more. The Theological Fellowship also hosts occasional Bantam Lectures throughout the school year.

- The Seminary received the gift of an authentic Torah scroll at a special dedication ceremony at Rayburn Chapel in March 2016. Given to Covenant through the generosity of Ken and Barb Larson and their family, the scroll is more than 250 years old and nearly 100 feet long. The Larsons, founders of Slumberland Furniture, are passionate lovers of the Bible and enthusiastic collectors of ancient manuscripts. They have traveled to Israel multiple times over many years and have graciously donated similar scrolls to other seminaries. They were on hand at the dedication ceremony to officially present the scroll to Covenant. Joining them was Dr. Scott Carroll, an expert manuscript researcher who has helped to build two of the largest collections of Bibles and biblically related manuscripts in the world, the Van Kampen Collection and the Green Collection. Members of the Covenant Seminary community, including some from neighboring Jewish synagogues, joined us in receiving this historic and meaningful gift. Having survived some of the darkest periods of human history, this scroll is a powerful testament to God’s faithfulness and the enduring power of his Word. This stunning piece of our spiritual heritage demonstrates the meticulous care and sacrificial commitment with which faithful copyists have preserved and transmitted Scripture for millennia using scrolls like this one. The manuscript will be a significant tool for biblical study, giving students and professors firsthand access to and engagement with an important artifact that will teach them more about the preservation of the Bible across the centuries. The scroll was available for public viewing at the ceremony before going on permanent display in the J. Oliver Buswell Jr. Library.

- The Faithful Shepherd Pastors’ Conference, sponsored by the Alliance of Confessing Evangelicals and P&R Publishing and held in Long Beach, New Jersey, in May 2016, featured Dr. Dan Doriani, vice president for strategic academic initiatives and professor of theology, as one of its main speakers. The others were Dr. David Powlison, faculty member of the Christian Counseling and Educational Foundation (CCEF) and author of Seeing with New Eyes, and Dr. Iain Duguid, professor of Old Testament at Westminster Theological Seminary and author of Hero of Heroes. Open to men who are ministers, missionaries, chaplains, elders, deacons, and seminary students (and their wives), the conference covered important issues that every pastor and elder should consider in his labors, including the personal reading of Scripture, self-care, the practice of Christ-like leadership, and the task of reaching the community with the gospel, among other topics.

- This spring we began the process of preparing for our ten-year self-study report with the Association of Theological Schools (ATS). Required by our accreditors every decade, the report provides a regular opportunity for in-depth analysis and evaluation of our curriculum, methods, and educational outcomes, and serves as a key point of reference as we plan for the future. Our last self-study was completed in 2007.

- As 2016–2017 marks our 60th Anniversary as an institution, we are making plans to mark the occasion in a special way. You will be hearing more about this soon. Meanwhile, please praise God with us for his great faithfulness to the Seminary and ask for his continued blessing for the future.

Stewarding God’s Provision of Financial Resources. As we did last year, we continued this year to move toward greater financial stability through careful, vigilant stewardship of the resources God has provided for us. As you are aware, the last few years have been difficult for us due to ongoing economic challenges, shifting student demographics, and changes in the field of theological education generally. Wise stewardship has necessitated some hopefully temporary budgetary constraints. On the positive side, enrollments were up slightly this year, though not quite as high as we had hoped, and Annual Fund giving has been very strong. As of this writing, we are on track to hit our giving goals for the fiscal year.

Celebrating God’s Provision of Dedicated People. The Lord’s greatest gift to Covenant Seminary is the people who serve here as faculty, staff, or trustees. We have been particularly blessed in this regard, as the following personnel updates indicate.

- Faculty Arrivals
  - Dr. Vince Bantu, co-chair of the Theology Committee of the Christian Development Association, joined us in fall 2015 as a visiting professor of missiology, teaching in some of our world mission classes. Dr. Bantu, a native of St. Louis, has completed a PhD from the Catholic University of America focused on missiological issues in the early church. He also holds a ThM in church history from Princeton Seminary and an MDiv from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary’s Center for Urban Ministerial Education. His primary interests include racial reconciliation, non-Western Christianity, and theological education in under-resourced communities. Dr. Bantu also has pastoral experience as well, having served the Cambridge Community Fellowship Church in Cambridge, Massachusetts, as an apprentice under Dr. Soong-Chan Rah, and as a program coordinator for the Emmanuel Gospel Center. He and his wife, Diana, also planted DC Shalom Church in Washington, DC.
Dr. Zack Eswine (MDiv ’95), who taught at Covenant several years ago, returned in July 2015 in a part-time role as director of homiletics and adjunct professor of applied theology. He replaces Dr. Jimmy Agan, who left the Seminary in June to return to pastoral ministry. Zack continues in his capacity as lead pastor at Riverside Church (EPC) in Webster Groves, Missouri, where he has served since 2008. He was director of Covenant’s Doctor of Ministry program from 2001 to 2008. Prior to that, he was lead pastor of Grace Church (PCA) in Hudson, Ohio (1995–2001); an associate staff member for the Navigators in Muncie, Indiana; and director of the Victim Assistance Program for Blackford County, Indiana. He currently serves as moderator of Mid-America Presbytery for the Evangelical Presbyterian Church (EPC), is director of the Webster Groves Clergy Alliance for Racial Equality, is on the board of Webster’s Alliance for Racial Dignity, and is a visiting lecturer at Grace Theological College in New Zealand. He brings many years’ experience as a pastor, preacher, and teacher to his role at the Seminary, where he teaches the introductory homiletics course and the introductory lectures for the core homiletics curriculum, and also oversees the adjunct and visiting homiletics instructors. Dr. Eswine is the author of several books, including Preaching to a Post-Everything World, Sensing Jesus, and The Imperfect Pastor.

Dr. Bruce McRae joined the Seminary in October 2015 as dean of academic administration and adjunct professor of applied theology. He takes over this role following the departure in May 2015 of Rev. Chris Florence, who returned to pastoral ministry. Bringing a wealth of leadership experience in church, seminary, non-profit, and corporate contexts, Dr. McRae is highly skilled in leading teams and in bringing administrative and relational skills to bear in the service of God’s Kingdom. His duties as dean of academic administration will include ensuring that the Seminary’s mission and doctrinal standards are being fulfilled through academic policy, procedures, and resourcing. Dr. McRae is already known and respected by the Covenant community, as he has served as an adjunct professor of applied theology at the Seminary since 2009, teaching in the Doctor of Ministry Program. Dr. McRae previously served with PCA.
Retirement & Benefits, Inc., as a development officer for ministerial relief (2013–2015), and was director of church relations with Great Commissions Publications (2008–2013). Dr. McRae has been an adjunct professor with Reformed Theological Seminary Atlanta since 2003. He has also served in various senior and executive pastor roles.

- Faculty Departures
  - Dr. Clarence DeWitt “Jimmy” Agan III, professor of New Testament and director of the homiletics program, left at the end of spring semester 2015 to follow a call to return to pastoral ministry. He now serves as senior pastor of Intown Community Church in Atlanta, Georgia.
  - Rev. Chris Florence, vice president of academic administration and assistant professor of educational ministries, also felt the call to return to pastoral ministry. He left us last summer to take on the role of senior associate pastor at Westminster Presbyterian Church in Rock Hill, South Carolina, where he serves with another former Covenant professor, Dr. Mike Honeycutt, who is senior pastor at Westminster.
  - Dr. Richard Winter, professor of applied theology and counseling and chair of the Counseling Department, will retire from full-time teaching at the end of the current academic year. Dr. Winter has had a profound impact on the counseling program and the school as a whole, and will be sorely missed. He plans to continue teaching part-time for us in the coming years. Our search process for Dr. Winter’s replacement is going well.

- Change in Faculty/Staff Responsibilities
  - Dr. Tasha Chapman, who had been serving as dean of academic services and adjunct professor of educational ministries, is now director of educational studies, while retaining her status as adjunct professor of educational ministries. Her new role enables Dr. Chapman to have more time for teaching and interacting with students in the classroom.
  - Ms. Jordan Harwood, who has served as an administrator in the Development Office for the last two years, was named as our capital campaign director. Ms. Harwood comes to us with a background in advancement, marketing, and alumni relations. She will be an invaluable asset as we prepare to conduct a major capital campaign over the next few years with the goal of strengthening our institutional endowment and raising funds for other strategic initiatives that will further enhance our ability to carry out our mission. Originally from North Carolina, Jordan came to Covenant Seminary in 2014 after working three years working in Alumni Relations at Covenant College, from which she holds a BA in philosophy. She is currently pursuing an MAC at the Seminary.

- Board and Advisory Board Changes
  - Rev. Dr. Hugh Barlett, senior pastor, Chesterfield Presbyterian Church in Chesterfield, Missouri, began his service on our Board in 2015. Hugh has been a visiting instructor in homiletics at Covenant Seminary for more than 15 years, and has also taught courses on preparing for ordination and church renewal for MDiv and DMin students. He has extensive pastoral experience and has served on a number of committees and commissions in both the Heartland and Missouri Presbyteries. He has been married to his wife, Judy, for 33 years; they have three children.
  - Mr. William R. Bennett, senior vice president, Cadence Bank, Birmingham, Alabama, also joined our Board in 2015. He held various positions during 20 years with AmSouth/Regions Bank before joining Cadence Bank in 2011. He serves as a ruling elder at Covenant Presbyterian Church in Homewood, Alabama, and is a member of the Church and Pastor Care Committee and the Administrative Committee of Evangel Presbytery. He has also served on the MNA Committee of Commissioners. Mr. Bennett and his wife, Kem, have three children.
  - Mr. Samuel “Sam” N. Graham, chief executive officer of Diversified Trust Company, Memphis, Tennessee, moved to our Advisory Board for a year following several years of active service on our Board of Trustees. Mr. Graham is a past president of the Estate Planning Council of Memphis, is chairman of the board of trustees for Memphis University School (a college preparatory school for boys founded in 1893), a member of the President’s Council for the University of Tennessee, and serves as an elder at Independent Presbyterian Church in Memphis.
Dr. Miles Gresham, physician/partner with Gastroenterology Associates, Birmingham, Alabama, also moved to our Advisory Board this year. Dr. Gresham has been president of the Medical Staff at Medical Center East, Birmingham, and currently serves as chairman of the board of directors of Outpatient Services East, Birmingham. He has served Evangel Presbytery as a member and chairman of the Reformed University Ministries Alabama Committee, and is currently serving the presbytery as moderator. Dr. Gresham is a member and ruling elder at Red Mountain Presbyterian Church in Birmingham.

Mr. James “Jim” Price, co-founder and vice president of software development, Encore Analytics, LLC, Tacoma, Washington, joined our Advisory Board for the first time in 2015. Mr. Price has worked as an aerospace engineer, a software developer, and a ground-radio maintenance technician. He also served in the U.S. Air Force for nine years, five as a commissioned officer. Encore Analytics is his second startup with the same partner, the first of which was sold in 2006. He is on the board of the Alliance of Christian Musicians and serves as a ruling elder at Faith Presbyterian Church in Tacoma. Mr. Price and his wife, Paige, have been married for 37 years.

Dr. Jonathan Seda, senior pastor of Grace Presbyterian Church in Dover, Delaware, returned to our Board in 2015 after serving a year on our Advisory Board. He was first elected to the Board in 2006. The son of Puerto Rican missionaries to Cuba, Peru, Colombia, and Venezuela, Dr. Seda has a passion for seeing people worship together across the lines of race and class. He has led worship seminars in several locations both inside and outside the U.S. for more than ten years. He serves on Heritage Presbytery’s RUF Committee, Young Life’s State Board of Directors, and the Board of Mosaix Global Network. He and his wife, Dale, have four children.

Dr. Frank Wicks Jr., retired executive vice president and president of Applied Markets, a division of Sigma-Aldrich, St. Louis, Missouri, returned to our Board in 2015 after serving a year on our Advisory Board. He was on our Advisory Board from 2001 to 2004, and was first elected to the Board in 2005. Prior to his successful business career, Dr. Wicks served for four years on the staff of the Navigators at the U.S. Air Force Academy and at the University of Colorado at Boulder. He is currently a member of the CEO Forum and serves on the board of Cass Information Systems. He was a founding elder at Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church in South St. Louis County (under founding pastor Dr. Phil Douglass, professor of applied theology at Covenant Seminary) and has led a men’s Bible study there since the church began. Dr. Wicks and his wife, Elvesta, have three daughters and eleven grandchildren.

Lamenting the Loss of Old Friends. This year the Seminary said bittersweet farewells to some dear friends and supporters who will be greatly missed, though we rejoice that they now glory in the presence of their Lord.

- Mr. Edward “Ed” L. Harris, president of Harris Harper Counsel, Inc., Tulsa, Oklahoma, passed away in November 2015. Mr. Harris had served on our Board or Advisory Board since 1987. He began his professional life as editor and publisher of a daily newspaper in Richmond, Indiana, but when that was sold in 1976, he entered the investment field managing two limited partnerships of money managers. He is survived by his wife, DeAnn (who also serves on our Advisory Board), their four children, and seven grandchildren. Mr. Harris served for many years on local church sessions, both in St. Louis and in Tulsa.

- Rev. William B. Leonard Jr., a Board member for 20 years (1962-1982), passed away in September 2015 at the age of 98. Rev. Leonard was a remarkable pastor, church planter, and chaplain, as well as a noted spiritual leader in his beloved home of Colorado Springs, Colorado. A veteran of the Pacific Campaign in World War II and of the Korean Conflict, Rev. Leonard organized the first police chaplaincy in Colorado Springs, was the founding executive director of a PCA Chaplains Commission that today serves seven Presbyterian denominations, pastored and/or organized several churches and a Christian school, and, during his retirement, traveled the world extensively to offer encouragement to military chaplains and their families. Rev. Leonard was preceded in death by his wife, Helen; he is survived by 5 children, 17 grandchildren, and 38 great-grandchildren.

- Dr. S. Fleetwood “Fleet” Maddox Jr., physician (ophthalmologist) at the Central Georgia Eye Center, Macon, Georgia, went home to be with the Lord in July 2015. Dr. Maddox was a great friend and supporter of the Seminary, having served on our Board or Advisory Board since 1993. annual medical mission trips to Jamaica. He is survived by his wife, Katie, their two children, eleven grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

- Mr. John J. “Jack” Reed, retired senior advisor at Bush-O’Donnell Investments in St. Louis, Missouri, passed away in August 2015. He served on the Seminary’s Board from 1987 to 2008, and was instrumental in organizing and sponsoring the Seminary’s Men’s Leadership Breakfast Bible study, which is taught by Seminary professors and has attended by hundreds of St. Louis-area men and business leaders in the years since its inception. A former vice president of the Goldman, Sachs, and Company banking firm, Mr. Reed was an elder at Kirk of the Hills Presbyterian Church in St. Louis and served on the boards of many organizations. His wife, Joanne, preceded him in death by a few months. He is survived by his three children and five grandchildren.

Equipping the Broader Church Through Scholarship and Service

The Lord has greatly blessed Covenant Seminary with a distinctive and distinguished faculty of world-class pastor-scholars whose academic excellence and pastoral focus make them uniquely qualified to prepare the next generation of leaders for Christ’s church and Kingdom. The influence of our faculty is felt far beyond the classroom as professors mentor and disciple students, participate in the life of local congregations, share their teaching and preaching abilities with the larger church in the U.S. and around the world, and engage with our culture and the pressing issues of our day from a gospel-centered perspective. APPENDIX G

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON
MISSION TO NORTH AMERICA
TO THE FORTY-FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN AMERICA

Serving the Church to Advance God's Kingdom
…striving side by side for the faith of the Gospel. (Philippians 1:27)

Introduction

Our Calling: MNA coordinates church planting and outreach ministries to serve PCA churches and presbyteries in North America in their mission to grow and multiply biblically healthy churches.

Our Vision: That God, by His grace and for His own glory, will transform the PCA into a grassroots church planting culture.

In fulfillment of this Vision, our Hope is...

• To see all PCA churches become houses of prayer for all the nations (Mark 11:7), embracing a Great Commission vision.
• To see people coming to Christ from the many diverse communities and people groups of North America.
• To impact the centers of influence in North America.
• To see churches planted in all regions of North America.

As assigned by the General Assembly, Mission to North America focuses on the development of church planting and outreach ministries resources in North America (United States and Canada) according to the priorities reflected in the four key points above.

Church Planting Services provide resources for these Seven Phases:

• Develop church planters.
• Assess church planter candidates and their spouses.
• Train and assist church planters in their Fundraising.
• Seek God’s guidance in Placing the church planter.
• Provide church planter Training.
• Support and encourage the church planter through Coaching.
• Encourage the ongoing vision through Mentoring church planters.
MNA’s goal is to encourage presbyteries to carry out all seven of these phases themselves as they are able, or join with other presbyteries in a larger system that provides for these services. MNA’s focus is on working with presbyteries to provide these services themselves, rather than MNA presenting them in a centralized system.

MNA Coordinator Transition

MNA Coordinator TE James C. Bland III announced at the March 2015 MNA Committee meeting his intention to retire effective June 30, 2016.

The MNA Committee calls the General Assembly to give thanks to God for the faithful service of TE Bland. After having served in several PCA churches as pastor and church planter, TE Bland joined the MNA Staff as Associate Coordinator beginning October 1, 1998, until June 1999, when he was elected to serve as MNA Coordinator following the retirement of Cortez A. Cooper Jr. During TE Bland’s tenure as MNA Coordinator, the Church Planting Staff was expanded with the objective of addressing the growing diversity of the populations in North America in particular, and Outreach Ministries were added. The latter provided for a greater diversity of ministry in mission churches and provided training and guidance to long-established churches, fulfilling in greater measure the First General Assembly mandate to MNA to provide leadership in the extension of the church into all people groups in the United States and Canada. Throughout TE Bland’s tenure, the PCA has consistently placed at least 50 church planters (including site pastors for churches adding geographically separated worship sites) on the field each year. During these years, the variety of ethnic groups and socioeconomic subcultures among whom mission churches have been launched has steadily grown. We give thanks to God for the many new churches and many new ministries of established churches that have begun under TE Bland’s leadership with MNA, and we pray God’s blessing on his retirement to spend more time with his wife, Linda, and with family and friends, even as he continues in ministry as opportunities arise.

As Recommendation 2 of this Report, the MNA Committee recommends unanimously to the 44th General Assembly that TE J. Paul Hahn, Jr., be elected MNA Coordinator.

Among the considerable gifts and experience that commend TE Hahn for this call, we highlight the following. TE Hahn offers:
• A compelling testimony to God’s grace in calling him to faith in Christ and into the Gospel ministry; a faithful walk in his personal life and his marriage to Fran, who wholeheartedly supports and encourages him in his call to ministry. Paul and Fran are the parents of four adult children.

• A broad range of pastoral leadership and church planting experience within the PCA, including the planting of two churches in different regions of the PCA and service as an RUF campus minister. TE Hahn currently serves Tennessee Valley Presbytery in a full-time call in which he leads church planting and church renewal initiatives for the presbytery. While serving as a church planting pastor himself, he was a founding leader of the Southwest Church Planting Network. His experience also includes coaching church planters and coaching mission church launch teams.

• Relationships across generations within the denomination, from the church fathers through the younger generation.

• Sensitivity to issues and a seeking of intercultural ministry in his prior calls.

• A vision for strong future PCA leadership for MNA in the extension of the church through prayer, evangelism, church planting, outreach ministries, and renewal ministries.

• TE Hahn earned the BA degree from Yale University and the MDiv degree from Reformed Theological Seminary.

PCA Discussion on Racism and Racial Reconciliation

During the time since the 43rd General Assembly, MNA Committee Members and Staff have informally followed the discussion and various actions in response to the 43rd General Assembly’s action on the personal resolution on Civil Rights. MNA makes every effort to steadily build resources for greater ministry among minorities in North America, recognizing that the PCA’s direct ministry among the minority races and cultures of our society is still very limited when compared to our ministry among those in the majority culture. As a part of the discussion on these crucial issues, the MNA Committee approved the following resolution on March 3, 2016:

Inasmuch as Overture 4 from Missouri Presbytery to the 44th General Assembly affirms the key themes of the personal resolution on Civil Rights presented at the 43rd General Assembly; and, inasmuch as Overture 4 calls the PCA not only to address the wrongs of the Civil Rights period and other periods of United States history in which African Americans were sinned against because of their race, but also calls for confession of continuing sin and fruit in keeping with our repentance;

Therefore, the Permanent Committee on Mission to North America affirms the commitments of Overture 4; and,

Further, the Permanent Committee on Mission to North America reaffirms that Committee and Staff will continue to give increasing priority to leadership and services for the extension of the church among all people groups in North America, recognizing that the advancement of the Gospel through the PCA among minority populations has been very limited, and so we pray and trust that God’s Spirit will indeed empower the PCA to “show the beauty, grace, and power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ” (per Overture 4) among all races, as new churches are planted and new outreach ministries developed all across North America.

Rejoicing in God’s goodness to us in Christ,
/s/ TE Doug Domin
Committee on Mission to North America Chairman

I. Highlights of 2015 Church Planting and Outreach Ministry Progress.

The work of Mission to North America is grouped for convenience into two major categories: Church Planting and Outreach Ministries. Both have one objective: to advance the Gospel in North America through planting healthy churches and developing other outreach ministries. The method in all MNA activity is to serve presbyteries and churches as they establish, build, and own their own church planting and outreach initiatives. For further details, visit the MNA web site: www.pcamna.org.

MNA Church Planting

- 52 church planters (including new site pastors for multisite churches) were placed on the field in 2015, sustaining an average of a new church planter placed on the field every week for more than 10 years.
- 13 church planter apprentices were placed on the field during 2015.
Attachment 1 presents a list of all PCA church planters placed on the field during 2015. Some of these mission churches were established solely by presbyteries or churches without MNA involvement, while others utilized MNA services extensively. Teaching Elders assigned to a new site of a multi-congregation church are included in this list as church planters placed on the field.

Another key transition in leadership among MNA Staff comes with the retirement of TE Henry Koh as MNA Korean Ministries Coordinator, effective with this General Assembly. TE Koh served as pastor of several churches prior to his joining the MNA Staff in 1998. We thank God for the faithful ministry of TE Koh with MNA these 18 years, and we pray God’s blessing on his retirement to spend more time with his wife, Margaret, and with family and friends, even as he continues in ministry as opportunities arise.

In addition to offering services to assist in the implementation of the Seven Phases of Church Planting listed in the Introduction to this Report, MNA continues to offer services to our churches, presbyteries and church planting networks focused on these people groups or specialized services: African American, Haitian American, Hispanic American, Korean American, Native American, Portuguese Language Churches, Parakaleo Church Planting Spouses Ministry, Urban and Mercy, and LAMP (Leadership and Ministry Preparation, providing seminary-equivalent education through the local church).

MNA Outreach Ministries

The First General Assembly assigned to MNA not only church planting but also the mandate to provide leadership and resources to established churches in their outreach to the many people groups of North American society. During 2015, MNA Outreach Ministries continued to add Staff in order to rapidly expand their services. All of the MNA Outreach Ministries concluded 2015 with a significantly greater number of churches and individuals involved in ministry when compared to the numbers participating at the end of 2014.

MNA Outreach Ministries include: Chaplain Ministries, ESL (English as a Second Language), Metanoia Prison Ministries, Ministry to State, MNA SecondCareer, MNA ShortTerm Missions, MNA Disaster Response, Special Needs Ministry, Refugee and Immigrant Ministry.
II. MNA Stewardship and Finances: 2015 Progress

A. Ministry Ask/Askings Giving:

MNA was supported in 2015 by 1,182 churches giving $2,808,324 and 1,647 individual donors giving $1,314,589. The MNA Partnership Fund budget includes designated support for MNA program staff members. 100% of all designated gifts to MNA go to their intended project; MNA receives no administrative support from designated income. MNA requests that churches give the Ministry Ask of $26 per member if giving on a per capita basis. If all churches gave $26 per member, all projects would be funded without individual fundraising by project leaders.

MNA encourages the churches of the PCA to make giving to all PCA Committees and Agencies a high priority, giving at the Ministry Ask level. Because many churches do not contribute at the Ministry Ask level, MNA senior staff members seek designated support for their personal support and programs. Churches have responded generously to these additional requests for support, providing significantly greater resources for ministry. Contact Associate Coordinator TE Fred Marsh (fmash@pcanet.org or 404-307-8266) or Church Relations Director RE Stephen Lutz (slutz@pcanet.org or 828-242-1440) for further information on financial support for MNA.

B. Church Planting Projects and Other Funding:

- All church planters are supported by gifts designated for their particular projects. No administrative fees are taken from project support for any project coordinated by MNA. Every designated dollar given to MNA is used directly and fully for the purpose designated.
- Church planters who do not have a strong personal PCA network require a special priority for project support, particularly as we seek the Lord for much greater ministry among the many people groups of North America. MNA strongly encourages churches to give a high priority to church planters who do not have a background in the PCA and who thus lack a strong personal network through which to raise support.
- Five Million Fund for Church Buildings: providing interest-free loans of up to $100,000, this fund continues to be a helpful source for churches as they put together funding packages for their initial building programs. This is a revolving fund, supported by loan repayments, as well as by donations.

C. Thanksgiving Offering: MNA is grateful to the Lord for more than $37,500 given to the 2015 Thanksgiving Offering, and commends to PCA churches the opportunity to support, through the annual MNA Thanksgiving Offering, the training of men and women for leadership in ministry among the ethnic groups of our communities.

Recommendations:

1. That the General Assembly accept the resignation of TE James C. Bland III from his service as MNA Coordinator effective June 30, 2016, with thanksgiving to God for his faithful leadership of MNA and the progress of MNA ministry from 1999 to 2016, and asking God’s blessing upon TE Bland in his retirement. Attachment 3 provides a complete list of MNA staff; see Attachment 4 for the list of MNA Permanent Committee members.

2. That the General Assembly, being well satisfied with his testimony and qualifications, and upon recommendation of the Permanent Committee on Mission to North America, elect TE J. Paul Hahn, Jr., as Coordinator of Mission to North America.

3. That the General Assembly express thanks to God for the long and effective ministry of Bethany Christian Services in the area of pregnancy counseling and adoption, reaffirm its endorsement of Bethany for another year, and encourage continued support and participation by churches and presbyteries. See Attachment 5 for Bethany’s Report.

4. That the General Assembly adopt the 2017 MNA Budget as presented through the Administrative Committee and commend it to the churches for their support.

5. That the General Assembly adopt the 2015 MNA Audit.

6. That TE Michael Stewart, be appointed to serve as PCA member of the Presbyterian and Reformed Commission on Chaplains and Military Personnel (PRCC) for the Class of 2020, replacing TE Charlie Rector. TE Ken Bush, be re-appointed to serve as PCA member of the Presbyterian and Reformed Commission on Chaplains and Military Personnel (PRCC) for the Class of 2020.

7. That the MNA Committee recommend to the General Assembly that Overture 24 from Ohio Presbytery to “Form Columbus Metropolitan Presbytery,” be answered in the affirmative. See Attachment 6.
8. That Overture 44 to the 44th General Assembly, “Creation of PCA Unity Fund,” be answered in the affirmative with the following amendments:

That the underlined words be inserted at the end of this paragraph:

Therefore be it resolved, that the 44th General Assembly create a fund to be known as “The PCA Unity Fund” to help raise up future generations of godly, reformed African American and other minority Ruling and Teaching Elders that would include the following objectives, based on the availability of designated funds given to the Unity Fund:

That the following paragraph be amended as follows:

a) Establishing a board that reports to MNA and is comprised of African American and other minority teaching and ruling elders of the PCA 6 Teaching Elders and 6 Ruling Elders, of whom at least 8 are African American or other minorities.

And further, that the Permanent Committee on Mission to North America be directed to proceed with implementation of both sets of items a) through d) of the Overture, reporting that implementation to the General Assembly in future years through the customary Permanent Committee and Committee of Commissioners procedures. (Attachment 7)

9. That Overture 61 from Illiana Presbytery, in concurrence with the expressed desire of Presbytery of Northern Illinois, “Restructure Boundary of Illiana Presbytery,” by transferring Sangamon County to Presbytery of Northern Illinois, be answered in the affirmative. (Attachment 8)

10. That Overture 62 from Presbytery of Northern Illinois, “Restructure Boundary of Presbytery of Northern Illinois,” by transferring Sangamon County to Presbytery of Northern Illinois, with the concurrence of Illiana presbytery, be answered in the affirmative. (Attachment 9)

2015 CHURCH PLANTERS PLACED ON THE FIELD

This church planter list is compiled by MNA staff through contact with the presbyteries and attempts to identify every church planter placed on the field to begin a new work during 2015. In listing these mission churches, MNA does not intend to imply that MNA had direct involvement with each and every mission church. The majority of the listed mission churches utilized MNA services; others were established solely by presbyteries or sponsoring churches. Teaching Elders assigned to a new site of a multi-congregation church are included in this list as church planters placed on the field. Some church planters listed here may have been placed in previous years but not reported at the time.

MNA CHAPLAIN MINISTRIES REPORT ON 2015 ACTIVITIES

THANKSGIVING AND PRAISE: We are extremely grateful for the generosity of God’s people; our 2015 operating expenses were covered with gifts from individuals, churches, presbyteries, and PRCC denominations.

As of December 31, 2015, the PCA had 206 civilian, military chaplains, and military chaplain candidates (284 for all PRCC denominations). The PCA is privileged to endorse military and civilian chaplains in a variety of settings including those of the additional 6 denominations in the Presbyterian and Reformed Commission (PRCC): Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church (ARPC), Korean American Presbyterian Church (KAPC), Korean Presbyterian Church in America (KPCA), Orthodox Presbyterian Church (OPC), The Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America (RPCNA), and United Reformed Churches of North America (RPCNA). As the MNA Chaplain Ministries Director, I also serve as the Endorser for aforementioned Reformed denominations. In total, the PRCC endorses and supports about 283 military and civilian chaplains and chaplain candidates.

2015 HIGHLIGHTS:

Growing Civilian Chaplain Population: I am delighted to work with a new Associate Coordinator, TE Del Farris (Associate Coordinator, Civilian Chaplaincy). Del has a vision for an expanded role of Presbyterian and Reformed TEs serving in the civilian chaplain environment. He revised some PRCC policies and added several names to our roster that either required or requested a PRCC endorsement.

Chaplain Recruitment: Our goal is to recruit an additional 20 chaplains and chaplain candidates during the year 2016. We thank the Lord that 37 additional men came “on board” in 2015 – most were PCA.

PRCC Staff: As always, it is a professional and personal satisfaction to serve with four other godly PCA men who work hard to support our chaplains: RE Gary Hitzfeld, TEs Del Farris, Mack Griffith, and David Tubley. They are exceptional men who make significant contributions to support this vibrant chaplain ministry!
CHURCH AND PRESBYTERY SUPPORT PROGRAMS:

Congregation Sponsorship: It is our goal to enlist three sponsoring congregations for every full-time military and civilian chaplain. The primary purpose of the sponsorship program is to enlist prayer support for the chaplain, his ministry, and his family. The sponsoring chaplain, in turn, will provide at least three update reports per year with prayer requests to the congregation/presbytery.

Church/Presbytery Financial Support: To honor giving churches, a special Purple Star Certificate has been created to thank them for their sacrifice. In these challenging financial times, Chaplain Ministries is especially thankful for this kind of support; providing for MNA Staff to care for our current chaplains and to recruit more.

Missions Conferences: Since the Chaplaincy is all about the Great Commission, we enjoy such invitations. An increasing number of congregations during the past year have included chaplains in their respective mission’s conferences. Contact us and we will locate a chaplain to speak to your various church groups and/or worship services about MNA Chaplain Ministries. Email us at: ChaplainMinistries@pcanet.org.

PLEASE JOIN IN PRAYER FOR THESE CURRENT CHALLENGES:

Our chaplains have the First Amendment liberty to boldly represent our faith. No one can tell them how to pray, preach, counsel, or carry out their ecclesiastical duties. Our men are superb at walking through the pluralistic minefields inherent in the Chaplaincies. However, prayer is urgently needed for these requests, which are on our “ministry table” every day:

- I am retiring in Oct 2017. Please pray for the search committee as they seek my replacement.
- Religious liberties are being challenged in the military due to recent legal and cultural changes. We are partnering with like-minded evangelicals to help those whose liberties may be challenged in the future. The Good News is that our chaplains can still serve with religious liberty as they preach, teach, counsel, marry, bury, and advise leadership.
- We can expect the “world, the flesh and the devil” to tempt and challenge our chaplains to be quiet and fearful when it comes to bold Gospel proclamation.
• In order to serve this growing ministry, we need to increase our budget to $500,000. This will enable us to stay on the road providing “Care and Cover” to these terrific families.

For more information on ministry opportunities with MNA Chaplain Ministries, please contact Gary Hitzfeld at ChaplainMinistries@pcanet.org or 678-825-1251.

Dear Mission to North America and Members of the Presbyterian Church in America,

Thank you for your ongoing support and prayers for Bethany and its work. God has blessed us with a very successful year of providing services to children and families. This year Bethany will serve over 230,000 children and families. Bethany’s work brings families together through adoption, keeps families together through its family preservation and foster care programs, and partners with Christians worldwide to provide services in the name of Jesus Christ.

In 2016, Bethany will place over 2112 children in loving adoptive homes, from expectant parents in the United States and 15 other countries. Bethany has foster to adoption programs in five African countries. We partner with African churches to provide homes for children who are abandoned and live in orphanages. It is humbling to see God’s Spirit move through these families and their willingness to rescue children from living in institutions. I ask you to pray for more adoptive families to come forward in Ethiopia, South Africa, Zambia and Ghana. We continue to expand our foster to adoption work in China. Although we partner with the Chinese government, many of the foster parents are Christian families. Please pray that more Christian Chinese families will come forward to be foster and adoptive parents.

Several years ago Bethany started a new program called Safe Families for Children. We now have 31 sites providing this service. In this program, Bethany partners with a local church to have its members voluntarily take in children for up to 30 days. A single parent who is in a crisis of losing her children to the government foster care system is able to voluntarily place the children with a Christian family on a temporary basis. The children may need a temporary home due to hospitalization, loss of housing, drug treatment, or short-term imprisonment. Bethany, with our church partners, has placed thousands of children temporarily with these host families. Members of the host families’ church provide assistance to the single parent. In our work, 98% of all children return to their parent. We hear stories of people who receive this help and give their life to the Lord. We even hear of government workers, who are so impressed by the Christian community, that they give their life to the Lord as well.
We continue to expand our pro-life counseling services to single women experiencing an unplanned pregnancy. While birth rates have dropped for single women and teenagers, there are still over one million abortions every year in the US. While there has been a significant decrease in the teenage birth rate, one third of all teenagers between the age of 14 and 18 will still experience a pregnancy during those years. Your support allows us to continue to offer free pregnancy counseling to all women with whom we engage. I want to thank you again for your support and prayers for Bethany’s work. Our ongoing relationship has enabled Bethany to provide services to hundreds of thousands of children and families on an annual basis. We look forward to our continuing partnership in this ministry.

OVERTURE 24 from Ohio Presbytery (to MNA)
“Form Columbus Metropolitan Presbytery”

Whereas, a Presbytery’s geographic boundaries must be conducive to efficient oversight, cooperation, and connection between particular congregations in the Presbytery; and

Whereas, fostering connectionalism and cooperation among churches, Teaching Elders, and Ruling Elders beyond the local congregation is a hallmark of historic Presbyterianism; and

Whereas, a Presbytery that has greater concentration within a specific geographic region may and should lead to a greater emphasis on church planting, campus ministry, mercy ministry within that region; and

Whereas, a Presbytery encompassing a smaller geographic region requires less time invested in travel, leading to more effective and efficient meetings; and

Whereas, shorter distances should lead to greater participation in Presbytery by Ruling Elders, thus allowing Ruling Elders to better fulfill their established calling to “govern the church well”; and

Whereas, the Guidelines for Dividing Presbyteries, as adopted by the 26th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America, include “regional cohesiveness,” “member churches hav[ing] a potential for shared ministries,” and “member churches hav[ing] a common commitment to the region;” and

Whereas, the current boundaries of Ohio Presbytery contain metropolitan regions (Cleveland/ Akron/Canton, whose 2014 Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA) population was 2.06M, and Columbus, whose 2014 MSA population was 2M, on opposite ends of the Presbytery, along with other significant population centers located to the north in the current Presbytery (including Toledo (MSA population 607K in 2014), and whose regional influence demands concentrated mission focus; and

Whereas, The Ohio Presbytery has the potential to divide into two Presbyteries that would meet the Guidelines of having “a total communicant membership of at least 1000” (#3) and “at least 3 churches each having a membership of at least 125 communicant members (#6); and

Now therefore be it resolved, that The Ohio Presbytery overture the 44th General Assembly to divide The Ohio Presbytery into the Columbus Metropolitan Presbytery, to include all mission works and churches of the greater Columbus Metro region located in the counties of Franklin, Madison, Union, Delaware, Licking, Fairfield, and Pickaway; and the continuing Ohio Presbytery which contains all mission works and churches in the counties remaining within her bounds after such division.

And that the effective date of this division be August 1, 2016.

Whereas, the 43rd General Assembly considered a personal resolution on racial reconciliation and referred the matter to the 44th General Assembly, so that lower courts could perfect and propose a resolution encouraging heartfelt repentance; and
Whereas, presbyteries have responded to this appeal “to prayerfully consider any and all sins of racial prejudice” by submitting overtures on racial reconciliation that call us to individual and corporate repentance; and
Whereas, repentance is an essential first step of racial reconciliation, but not the only one; and
Whereas, the 43rd General Assembly also encouraged sessions and presbyteries to “pursue a proper course of action humbly, sincerely and expeditiously”; and
Whereas, a proper course of action would include actively welcoming minority brothers called to pastoral ministry and encouraging their representation as Ruling and Teaching Elders in the PCA;
Therefore be it resolved, that the 44th General Assembly create a fund to be known as “The PCA Unity Fund” to help raise up future generations of godly, reformed African American and other minority Ruling and Teaching Elders that would include the following objectives, based on the availability of designated funds given to the Unity Fund:

a) Provide tuition to approved Reformed seminaries for minority PCA seminarians;
b) Pay expenses for minority Ruling and Teaching Elders to attend General Assembly;
c) Support the compensation expenses of minorities serving as an Assistant Pastor in a PCA church, for the first two years of their ministry in churches that pledge to provide full support by the third year;
d) Provide means for historians to explore the role that Reformed minority pastors and theologians have played in our country’s history.

Be it further resolved, that this Unity Fund would be managed by Mission to North America, which would be responsible for:
a) Establishing a board that reports to MNA and is comprised of African American and other minority teaching and ruling elders of the PCA. 6 Teaching Elders and 6 Ruling Elders, of whom at least 8 are African American or other minorities;
b) Receiving, receipting and disbursing monies;
c) Approving the seminaries to which support can be directed;
d) Encouraging individuals, churches and presbyteries to donate to the fund.

REPORT FROM THE COMMITTEE ON MISSION TO THE WORLD
TO THE FORTY-FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN AMERICA

Though this report is from the Chairman of the Committee on Mission to the World, the introduction is written by Coordinator Dr. Lloyd Kim.

This past year has been marked by some pretty significant global events that are continuing to shape our strategic priorities. Probably the biggest single event is the refugee crisis in the Middle East and Europe. Some have likened this mass emigration of refugees to the fall of the Berlin Wall. In God’s grace and providence, we have missionaries and national partners on the ground who are able to see this crisis as an opportunity not only to extend the mercy of Christ to those in need, but also to make disciples among those who are least reached and least engaged.

Another significant event was a consultation our senior field leadership held with several key national partners in December. We prayed that the Holy Spirit would guide our thoughts and ideas and give us direction in moving forward together. We believe the Lord has answered our prayers.

Two significant things emerged from the consultation: 1) a mutual desire for a global MTW network where there would be collaboration, communication, and sharing of resources among all members for global kingdom advancement and fulfilling the Great Commission; 2) the development of regional councils comprised of MTW field leadership and national partners in our various geographical areas to discuss strategic objectives, placements, resource allocations, and other ministry priorities.

How would this global network differ from how we relate with our national partners today? Currently our national partners each have a unique relationship with MTW. MTW is like the center hub of a bicycle wheel with spokes going out to each of our partners. What we envision is that the network would allow all of our partners to engage and collaborate not only with MTW, but also with each other. MTW would be one voice among all of our global partners in this network.
We believe the global network will allow us to retain our unique identity as the sending agency of the PCA while engaging with our national partners for global missions. The regional councils will help facilitate more healthy cooperation with our partners, demonstrating mutual trust and respect for greater kingdom witness and advancement.

Certainly we recognize that each field is in a different place in its development as a ministry, and regional councils and involvement in the global network would have to make sense based on what is happening on the ground. However, we are excited about the possibility of greater synergy, mutual learning, and ultimately greater kingdom advancement through these collaborative efforts.

Please pray that there would be unity of mind and spirit as we continue to discuss and plan for the development of these structures. Pray that these efforts would allow us to better respond to the needs and opportunities for kingdom witness around the globe and that the Lord of the Harvest would send out His workers into His harvest field from everywhere to everywhere.

2015 GLOBAL MINISTRY HIGHLIGHTS

ASIA/PACIFIC

Growth and Change — In 2015 the largest-ever number of MTW missionaries attended our Asia/Pacific area retreat, due to the growth in numbers of MTW workers and their families which the Lord has given in the region. The retreat was marked by refreshment in the Word and with workshops designed for spiritual nurture. Approximately 450 people attended this vital time of fellowship and rest. Three months later more than 50 ministry leaders and emerging leaders gathered in Tokyo, Japan, to spend three days together in fellowship and the Word, and in workshops focused on improving leadership of self, teams, ministry, and of other leaders. Developing and equipping leaders remains a focus for the Asia/Pacific area over the next few years as we seek to keep pace with the numerical growth of missionary units which God has brought throughout the area.

In 2016 a cross-regional team will conduct meetings to examine our current structure and consider challenges and opportunities we are facing. Facilitated by MTW’s Care and Development group, this team will also solicit feedback from every MTW missionary in the area, and consider possible areas where changes may help us better position ourselves for kingdom work in the future. One of these key opportunities is in the area of internationalization, something that is already happening throughout the region. Australia sends short-term teams to Japan and East Asia, Japan has sent teams to Bangladesh, and Filipino pastors are serving in Cambodia. This is an exciting area of opportunity as we partner more closely, being the “whole Church taking the whole gospel to the whole world,” in the words of the Lausanne Movement.

Cities — City-center church planting in global cities of Asia continued progressing in 2015 by God’s grace. New City Fellowship, based in a top-10 city of India, began public worship in 2015 and has already relocated due to space constraints from the growth God has brought. In Bangkok, Thailand, Grace City Church saw five adult baptisms and anticipates more in the first half of 2016. In Tokyo, Japan, the Grace Harbor Tokyo Church, with Pastor Seima Aoyagi, began weekly worship on Easter of last year, and discussions will begin this year about the next church plant in the Tokyo Bay area. Harbor City Church, in Sydney, Australia, continues to grow, and now enjoys 50–60 people in attendance each week.

Theological Education — Training pastors and future pastors in cities, towns, and villages continues to grow as a focus area for Asia/Pacific. In Southern India, a seminary education class through LAMP (http://lampseminary.org/) has six students who are being mentored and trained by MTW teaching elders. Training of pastors by MTW teaching elders in three Southeast Asian countries continues, with help from teaching elders from the United States. In one South Asian country, courses began for tribal pastors who travel several hours to attend three-day classes in what is hoped will become a Bible college.

The Lord of mission continues to bless and grow His Church in the Asia/Pacific region in so many ways. We pray that He will send more workers, and continue to bless and guide.

EUROPE

Refugee Crisis — Europe as a whole was in the news during much of 2015 due to the refugee crisis. Hundreds of thousands of refugees have fled to Europe, escaping political situations which make living in their countries of origin an unsafe option. Most are coming from the Middle East and Africa, and many are fleeing from the terrors of ISIS. European governments are scrambling to figure out how to best meet the needs of these newcomers and integrate them into their societies. This political situation has opened new opportunities for our European church plants to step up and minister to displaced people like never before. Two European cities in particular have become the focal point for MTW ministry to refugees: Athens, Greece, as the point of entry into Europe, and Berlin, Germany, as a more-or-less final destination. MTW teams in these cities, in conjunction with our national partners and their churches, have been assisting with the physical, social, and spiritual needs of the refugees during various parts of their journey. The governments are overwhelmed by the sheer number of people arriving, and welcome the help our churches are offering. This is an unprecedented opportunity, providing the churches with an open door not only with the refugees, but also in gaining credibility and esteem in the eyes of government officials.

Human Trafficking — The problem of human trafficking continues to grow, and our teams in Europe are expanding outreach to those who have been affected. MTW workers in Athens, Greece, have been partnering for several years with Nea Zoi, a Christian organization that supports individuals who have been affected by prostitution and human trafficking. Volunteers and counselors visit weekly with trafficked women on the streets and in brothels. Christmas outreaches with gifts and materials translated into nine languages have created open doors for MTW personnel and other Nea Zoi staff. Through the Christmas outreaches, staff and volunteers were able to interact with more than 400 women who work on the streets and inside brothels around central Athens. Some brothels will not allow Nea Zoi counselors inside to speak with the girls regularly, but will let them distribute gifts twice a year at Easter and Christmas. Over time, Nea Zoi personnel have been able to answer spiritual questions not only from the girls, but also from the madams!

In October 2015 Nea Zoi celebrated the one-year anniversary of “Threads of Hope,” an employment program for women fleeing prostitution and trafficking. “Threads of Hope” trains and mentors women who are seeking freedom from sexual enslavement. These women learn valuable trade skills related to sewing, which will give them a dignified source of income wherever they go. More importantly, they study Scripture in community and learn about the Lord together. Counseling with the women is at times intense, and at the same time fruitful. Many of the women face emotional and practical difficulties that affect their ability to work and care for themselves and their children.
England — MTW personnel in England participated in the birth of two new church plants during 2015. Hexham Presbyterian Church opened her doors in February with over 20 people attending regularly, and several new believers and inquirers attending throughout the year. MTW missionaries Josh and Gina Rieger are collaborating with the Evangelical Presbyterian Church of England and Wales to nurture the Hexham church to maturity.

The International Presbyterian Church of Ealing announced in the summer of 2015 that they will be starting Inmanuel Church in the neighboring community of Brentford. MTW missionaries Rob and Jenny Ilderton are actively involved with “birthing” this new church. They are working closely with the church planter, Stuart Cashman, to gather a seed group, plan outreach activities, and work out logistics to begin meetings. A seed group of 20 adults and 10 children began meeting in September in the Cashmans’ home. In January 2016 meetings moved to Sunday afternoons in a cafe in Brentford with morning services slated to begin in September 2016.

Latin America

Peru — It is a joy to celebrate the work that God has been doing in and though the MTW team in Cusco, Peru. Through the ministry of La Fuente medical clinic, where clinic staff cares for the poor by providing medical care and sharing the healing power of the gospel with each patient, and Josephine House, a home for children from desperate situations, the team has developed and grown relationships that have led to individuals accepting Christ. In September 2015, the MTW Cusco team celebrated the inauguration of a new church plant, Iglesia Fuente de Gracia. In front of a standing-room only crowd, 10 Peruvians were baptized. MTW missionary Nathan Wilson reflected, “The inauguration of Cusco’s newest MTW church plant, Fuente de Gracia, was a sweet demonstration of the multiethnic, beautifully diverse family of God engaging in unified worship. We laughed, we worshipped through song, we reflected on the gospel of grace through the preaching of God’s Word, we remembered our constant need and Christ’s constant provision as we celebrated the Lord’s Supper, we witnessed 10 new believers publicly declare their newness in Christ through baptism.”

Honduras — In 2015 we saw the development of one of our newest ministries in Latin America as the MTW team in La Ceiba opened a theological seminary. MTW’s Mike Troxell, Adam Cain, and Seth McLaughlin are instructing students in classes designed specifically to teach Reformed theology to local Honduran pastors and church leaders. The seminary instruction includes mentoring the students through the course material. This new ministry has been years in the making, and is the result of much hard work, as well as financial and prayer support from U.S.-based partners. As part of this ministry, four Honduran pastors traveled to Nicaragua to participate in a conference of Central American pastors. National pastors from Belize, Honduras, Nicaragua, and Costa Rica came together for a time of prayer, worship, and sharing what the Lord is doing throughout Central America.

Haiti — August 2, 2015, was a great milestone for the ministry in Haiti as the first-ever Presbyterian ordination service was held to install elders and deacons. The ordination and installation worship service included congregants from the three churches MTW has established, with 200 people in attendance. Six men were ordained as elders and two men as deacons. These men were well equipped through the focused training efforts by MTW missionary Esaie Etienne, joined by other MTW missionaries and PCA pastors along the way who helped teach, mentor, and supervise these new leaders. We give thanks to the Lord for His faithfulness throughout this process and are excited to see how He will use these men as He builds His church in Haiti.

SUB-SAHARAN AFRICA

Madagascar — In the fall of 2015, MTW missionaries Bryan and Rebe McReynolds and family, completed a three-year partnership with Africa Inland Mission (AIM), living among the Sakalava people in the village of Ambatozavavy, Madagascar. The team spent those years developing friendships with their neighbors and learning the language and customs of the people. During their time there, the McReynolds met and befriended a group of talented musicians and songwriters with whom they were able to share the gospel. They also worked with the musicians to develop Sakalava Christian music with translated Scripture, which was shared at village gatherings and on the local radio. It has been a blessing to watch the development of this relationship and see the Lord work among the Sakalava people group through this ministry. It was such a joyful day when the McReynolds received the news that the band members had committed their lives to Christ. These young men have since been meeting with other new Christians for a Bible study in their village, and have invited other people to the study who have expressed their need for a savior. After their home ministry assignment the McReynolds family will return to Madagascar to work alongside the new believers to plant a church.
Uganda — The Kampala team continues to be encouraged by the ministry of the Business Development Center (BDC) in the city. The center began in January 2013 with the stated purpose of bringing kingdom values to the business culture of Uganda. Since that first class, more than 100 entrepreneurs have graduated from the 14-week program. Through these classes, the BDC is seeing the creation of real, sustainable small/medium businesses led by skilled Christian entrepreneurs. In addition, the classes have led to opportunities for spiritual conversations with the students. The prayer of the local director of the center, Moses Engwau, together with MTW missionary Carolyn Phillips who is partnering with the program, is that “the BDC will be instrumental in building an environment where business is conducted ethically, employees and customers are treated fairly, and people are honest.” It has been exciting to see Daniel and Jalia Matovu, a Ugandan couple, start a jewelry business. After beginning the business in their garage with 10 local workers, they now employ 100 people in their local workshop and 150 more who work from their homes. Each day Bible studies are offered and the Lord of the Harvest has added Muslim-background believers to their number.

Ethiopia — The MTW team in Addis Ababa is working in Suki, an informal slum community on the southwest edge of the city, which is home to more than 15,000 people. Many of those people had been displaced due to increasing house rent and neighborhood demolition and resettlement. The slum offers a minimal water supply, no community sanitation, and significant physical and spiritual needs. The team recently completed a water project that provides clean water to more than 500 families in the Suki community, and is launching a cervical cancer screening program that will broaden the team’s presence in the community and help them identify more HIV-positive people. They have also started several well-attended Bible studies and have had the joy of baptizing several new believers. After some strong initial resistance from the community, God completely changed things virtually overnight. The community saw the team serving some of the neediest people and doing things that benefited the whole community, and their attitude changed from antagonism to enthusiasm. With much thanksgiving, we can share that the church plant in Suki has progressed to the place that they are joining hearts and hands at the Lord's Table.

GLOBAL SUPPORT MINISTRIES

Mobilization — Mobilization created a new event called Link, and plans to host numerous of these events for people to learn about MTW and how they might get involved. Mobilization partners with various colleges (RUF) and seminaries (notably Covenant and RTS), and offers wider exposure to MTW through events like the Gospel Coalition.

Church Resourcing — MTW, along with Redeemer Presbyterian Church in San Diego, co-sponsored the first-ever regional MTW West Coast Missions Conference in January 2015. Initial preparations for the next PCA Global Missions Conference are underway, partnering with Park Cities PCA in Dallas, and highlighting mobilization of the next generation of missionaries (November 10-12, 2017).

Medical — Medical teams continue to play a strong role in supporting and enhancing the outreach of the church. Following clinics in places like Cambodia, Senegal, and Costa Rica, pastors have started Bible studies and preaching stations due to the clinics’ work, and many new people attend church. MTW hosted its first Women’s Health Symposium for Kenyan women, addressing spiritual, emotional, and physical needs through medical clinics, seminars, Bible studies, worship and fellowship. We ask for prayers for additional women’s health symposiums scheduled for 2016 as well as for participants to fulfill requests for over 50 teams a year.

Global Disaster Response (GDR) — God graciously provided over $460,000 as GDR provided trained volunteers to provide specialty support to our partners who experienced disasters in Vanuatu, Nepal, and to those responding to the refugee crisis in Europe. MTW also sent a GDR-trained missionary to oversee the building of a new ministry center following a typhoon in the Philippines.

ONEChild — ONEChild sponsorship contributed resources for our missionaries and national partners in eight countries to provide education, food, and basic medical care for almost 600 needy children.

Marketing and Communication — MTW's redesigned website (www.mtw.org) focuses on mobilization, prayer, and telling the stories of God's global work. New features include searchable serving opportunities, a blog, places to explore MTW videos, and a chance to encourage missionaries, with all of these features coalescing on ministry team pages.

One- and Two-Week Trips — MTW facilitated 4369 short-term participants in the following sites: North America (45%), Latin America (35%), Asia (9%), Europe (5%), Enterprise (4%), and Africa (1%).

APPENDIX H

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the General Assembly urge churches to set aside the month of November 2016 as a month of prayer for global missions, asking God to send many more laborers into His harvest field. (Contact MTW to ask for copies of “30 Days of Prayer” to be sent to your church in the fall and to learn about other prayer resources MTW can provide);
2. That the General Assembly urge churches to set aside a portion of their giving for the suffering peoples of the world; to that end, be it recommended that a special offering for relief and mercy (MTW Compassion offering) be taken during 2016 and distributed by MTW;

3. That the General Assembly urge churches to set aside Sunday, November 6, 2016, as a day of prayer for the persecuted church worldwide;

4. Having performed a review of Dr. Lloyd Kim’s work to date, we express our gratitude to Almighty God for Dr. Kim’s humble, visionary leadership; leadership affirmed in the exceptionally smooth transition that has taken place at Mission to the World during his first full year as coordinator. CMTW wholeheartedly recommends that Dr. Kim be re-elected as Coordinator;

5. That the proposed budget of MTW, as presented through the Administrative Committee, be approved;

6. That the minutes of the meeting of CMTW of March 11–12, 2015, be accepted; and

7. That the minutes of the meeting of CMTW of September 23–24, 2015, be accepted.

8. Regarding MTW’s 2014 Financial Audit: That the Committee of Commissioners reviewed the financial audit for calendar year ending December 31, 2014. They also noted per CMTW’s minutes that CMTW had accepted the audit;

9. That Overture 20 from Southwest Florida Presbytery regarding "Erect Provisional Presbytery in Nicaragua" be answered in the affirmative with the following grounds recorded as a part of the motion.

MTW recommends that the Southwest Florida Presbytery, because of their history of close relations with the Reformed and covenantal ministry in Nicaragua, form, as a presbytery, a provisional commission to prepare, examine, and ordain candidates for the offices of Teaching and Ruling Elder until sufficient men have been ordained and churches established to form their own presbytery and a new Reformed and covenantal denomination in Nicaragua.

Rationale and Operational Recommendation

By way of testimonial, in the 40 years that the PCA has been in existence, the provision in BCO 15-6 has rarely been exercised by the MTW community. It has become our working model over the years to:
a. Make every attempt to discover and develop working relationships with congregations, presbyteries, and Reformed denominations within a country rather than to multiply the number of denominations within a particular nation through the formation of provisional presbyteries. MTW has experienced numerous situations over the years where factions have wanted to begin their own denominations for no compelling theological reasons nor for reasons rooted in the desire to pursue the peace and purity of the church.

b. In cases where no Reformed and covenantal churches and/or denominations are present, to develop and recognize local leadership and to form local congregations and presbyteries in partnership with Reformed and covenantal denominations in neighboring countries in the region. This is an attempt to honor the guiding principles of locality (local resources, local community, local collaboration, etc.) and indigenization and to foster regional teamwork and partnerships. These principles have become increasingly meaningful to our international colleagues and partners over the years.

10. That 3.1.1.2 of the MTW Missions Policy Manual be changed (change bolded and italicized) to read:

Church Involvement. Prior to approval, long-term missionary candidates will be expected to be members of a congregation or presbytery of the PCA, the exception being acceptance of a candidate from a NAPARC agency, or a member of World Reformed Fellowship, and covered by a mutually approved On-Loan Agreement.

Respectfully submitted,
TE Patrick Womack, Chairman
Committee on Mission to the World

APPENDIX I

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN AMERICA FOUNDATION, INC.
REPORT TO THE FORTY-FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY
OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN AMERICA

The PCA Foundation is pleased to report that, by God’s grace, the PCA Foundation’s ministry was once again blessed during 2015. We are pleased to see how the Lord continues to help fund Kingdom Ministry through the work of the PCA Foundation, even during difficult economic times.

Total gifts to the PCA Foundation during 2015 were $13.1 million.

We are pleased to report that the PCA Foundation distributed, or granted to ministry, $9.1 million during 2015. Distributions to PCA churches were $3.9 million, distributions to PCA Committees and Agencies were $1.2 million, and distributions to other Christian ministries were $4.0 million.

We continue to look for opportunities to work with PCA churches and their members, and are desirous of helping individuals and their families fulfill their stewardship responsibilities and carry out their charitable desires.

The 2015 distributions and grants to ministry by the PCA Foundation were as follows:

- Mission to the World $458,000
- Mission to North America 180,000
- Committee on Discipleship Ministries 22,000
- Administrative Committee 36,000
- RBI-Ministerial Relief 12,000
- Reformed University Ministries 216,000
- Covenant College 104,000
- Covenant Theological Seminary 95,000
- PCA Foundation 58,000
- Ridge Haven 60,000

Total Committees & Agencies 1,241,000

PCA Churches 3,877,000
Other Christian Ministries 3,959,000

Total $9,077,000
The PCA Foundation’s total assets were $68.9 million as of December 31, 2015. This compares to $66.6 million as of December 31, 2014. Much of what the Foundation does results in gifts coming into the Foundation and going right back out as distributions and grants to ministries within a relatively short period of time — often within the same or the following year. Therefore, the PCA Foundation may realize significant amounts as both gifts and distributions in a given year, and total assets may stay about the same, or experience substantial increases or decreases from year to year.

The PCA Foundation has and continues to make significant progress in serving members and friends of the PCA. Since 1997, total assets have grown from $16.6 million to $68.9 million. This total asset balance provides a sound base for future financial support of PCA Churches, PCA Committees and Agencies, and other Christian ministries.

Coincidental with the growth of its assets since 1997, the PCA Foundation received $163.5 million in gifts, and made distributions to ministries totaling $117.4 million.

Throughout 2015, the PCA Foundation continued to market the Designated Funds for churches, presbyteries, and other ministries. We believe that they will be used by more churches, presbyteries, and ministries as the value and benefits of this service become known to them. By setting up a Designated Fund with the Foundation, a church, presbytery or ministry specifies the intended use of the Fund and controls distributions from it. The PCA Foundation invests and administrates the Fund, and can accept various types of gifts to it, such as stocks, mutual funds, land, etc.

The PCA Foundation plans to increase intentional marketing to and servicing of individuals and families, churches, presbyteries and ministries, as well as provide services to PCA Committees and Agencies whenever possible. During 2016, the PCA Foundation plans to go live with an online portal, which will allow PCA Foundation donors to access their account information online, and will also improve grant distribution processing. During 2015, the Foundation instituted a program where donors are able to make gifts online to the Foundation via ACH transfers and credit card transactions.

The PCA Foundation became fully self-supported in 2000, a process that began in 1998. Prior to becoming self-supported, a significant amount of its operating expenses were underwritten by some of the PCA Committees and Agencies. The Foundation does not participate in the PCA’s Partnership Shares or Ministry Ask Programs, nor does it rely on the financial support of churches to help underwrite its operating budget. Rather, its operations are funded primarily by fees and earnings on accounts, and by some charitable contributions from a small number of individuals and families, including current and former PCA Foundation Board Members.

Because the main focus of the PCA Foundation is not on raising funds for its own operations, or for any other particular ministry, it has a unique opportunity and niche within the PCA. Our ministry is providing charitable financial services and vehicles to help Christians carry out their stewardship responsibilities and charitable desires. Our most popular service is the Advise & Consult Fund (a donor advised fund). We also offer endowments, charitable trusts, bequest processing and estate design to individuals and families.

Since the PCA Foundation is self-supported, it is “donor driven,” which means that we work on the donor’s agenda, not our own, or that of any other ministry. Therefore, the timing and amounts of distributions and to which ministry are determined by the donors themselves, not the PCA Foundation. We provide charitable services to individuals without pressuring them to give to the PCA Foundation for its own operations, or to any other particular ministry. The result is that more funding is available for Kingdom building.

The PCA Foundation will continue to strive to effectively meet the needs of its present and future donors, as well as those of the PCA: its churches, presbyteries, Committees, and Agencies. By God’s grace, the PCA Foundation will be able to do so.

We ask that you continue to pray for the Board and Staff of the Foundation as they seek to continue leading the PCA Foundation successfully into the future, especially during these difficult economic times.

Recommendations:

1. That the financial audit for the PCA Foundation, Inc. for the calendar year ended December 31, 2015, by Capin Crouse, LLP, be adopted.
2. That the General Assembly approve the proposed 2017 Budget of the PCA Foundation, Inc., with the understanding that it is a spending plan and will be modified as necessary by the PCA Foundation’s Board of Directors to accommodate changing circumstances during the year.
3. That the Minutes of Board meetings of August 14, 2015, and March 4, 2016, be approved.

Respectfully Submitted,
Randel N. Stair, President

We are pleased to present the 2015 Annual Report on Behalf of the Board of Directors and Staff of PCA Retirement & Benefits, Inc. (RBI).

I’m tempted to begin this year’s annual report by saying, “We are living in very interesting times.” But, of course when it comes to the economy and the financial markets we always seem to be living in interesting times!

My own experience in the financial markets began in the late 1970’s. Hyper-inflation seemed to impact almost every aspect of life. Groceries and gasoline, a large part of our newlywed budget, made saving almost impossible. Interesting times!

In the 1980’s, inflation’s corrosive impact was finally extinguished using the blunt force of restrictive monetary policy. Interest rates were dramatically increased, which put consumer spending into hibernation and significantly slowed economic growth across the globe. Interesting times!

The 1990’s were a boom-time for risk assets like stocks. Jobs grew slowly, but ultimately the economy adjusted and investment returns, especially in the growing technology sector, went through the roof. Interesting times!

After a decade of economic prosperity, the dot.com bubble burst in the early 2000’s. A period of international conflict began with the attack on the World Trade Center, and the mid-decade housing bubble thrust the U.S. and the world into the Great Recession of 2007-2009. Risk markets (stocks) ended the decade with a virtual “zero” rate of return. Interesting times!

Here we are in the middle of the 2010-2020 decade and we are still living in interesting times. Given that we are squarely in the middle of the decade, are there any themes we can identify that might help us with our expectations or provide wise insight leading to good behavior in managing our personal finances? I think there are and in this annual report, I’d like to discuss what I believe are the significant features of this economic environment and provide my interpretation of what these events may mean for us as investors in the decade of 2010-2020.

As most of our readers know, this decade began with an inspiring upward move in the financial markets (both bonds and stocks) that helped investors recoup losses from the 2008/2009 Great Recession. The first five years of this current decade produced an annual compound return for the S&P 500 of 12.6%. I certainly was relieved to see losses recouped by funds in the PCA Retirement Plan. These early years in the decade rewarded those investors who stuck with their long term asset allocation.

Despite these relatively high stock market returns during the first half of the decade, the corresponding real GDP growth rates of most developed economies was surprisingly low during this period. This was certainly true in the United States. It was clear that the essential drivers of growth were severely damaged during the Great Recession. For instance, the rampant and extreme fall in housing values created moribund consumers. While low interest rates and enticing deals did get us off the couch to purchase new cars, consumers largely spent the first half of the decade repairing their personal balance sheets. Modest rates of job creation and persistent unemployment claims early in the recovery kept wage growth for the average American around 2.0%.

Are we now ready to see the U.S. economy finally achieve lift-off and orbit? Probably not! While the U.S. is certainly in better shape than most countries in the Eurozone, the upward trajectory of this recovery remains relatively modest. Many of the problems with current and future growth are outcomes of the Great Recession. Examples are the crisis in Greece and other “Club Med” countries in Southern Europe, ongoing threatened recession on the European continent, depression-like erosion in global commodity prices, a bust in world oil prices, and a slowdown in economic growth in China.

All of the above would seem to indicate that we should moderate our expectations for growth for what remains of this decade. This principal essentially should apply to both levels of aggregate economic growth as well as returns for other assets like stocks and bonds. Consider the following factors that provided a tailwind for growth in the U.S. and other developed economies:

✓ A “zero interest rate policy” program by the Federal Reserve for an unprecedented period of time. This policy ended in December 2015.
An additional and huge program by the Federal Reserve to lower long-term interest rates through a program of asset purchases called quantitative easing. This has raised Federal Reserve Total Assets from $2.5 Trillion in 2011 to $4.5 Trillion today.

Technology breakthroughs in the oil industry have allowed the U.S. to become one of the world’s leading exporters of oil and natural gas. Who would have thought!?

Valuation levels for risk assets slowly moving from cheap to moderately expensive.

I suppose one could argue that new factors of growth will emerge and become our future engines, resulting in better days ahead. Anything is possible, but let’s look at some of the larger issues we face before coming to that point of view. First, China (the world’s second largest economy) is slowing and will continue to do so. After decades of double-digit growth, China is transitioning from a manufacturing led economy to a consumer led economy. This is a normal pattern of change for most developing economies like China. At a minimum, it is a significant event for China given the strain of dealing with excess manufacturing capacity and growing the service sector of its economy.

The second factor of potential diminished growth ahead is productivity. Why does this matter? Keep in mind that two of the most important elements of potential economic growth center around population and productivity growth. Productivity is simply a measure of efficiency. Specifically, it measures the rate of output per unit of input. The input is defined as labor. The circumstances we face are explained in a January 2015 research paper by McKinsey Global Institute titled, “Global Growth: Can Productivity Save the Day in an Aging World.” McKinsey’s researchers came up with these two conclusions. First, the heyday of population growth is behind us as fertility growth is now falling in all major countries. Second, productivity growth will not be able to make up for the loss in population growth unless emerging economies are able to boost productivity through a process called “catching up” (adoption of productivity standards in emerging economies practiced by developed countries), and “pushing the productivity frontier” which comes from technological, operational, and business innovations that go beyond today’s best practices. This is a difficult mission and it shouldn’t be rejected, but we need to be cautious about the future of world economic growth.
Let’s finish up this outlook for the decade by talking about what to expect from fixed income investments. As we’ve already mentioned, growth during the rest of the decade should be relatively constrained. Additionally, oil and commodity prices will recover over the short run, but moderating demand and robust supplies should keep inflation in check for some time. Job growth in the U.S. may pressure wage growth over the next several years; however, evidence of this is not clear as yet. Thus interest rates will remain well below the long term trend of the post WWII era.

In summary, the important message for all is as follows:

- Investment returns over the remaining years of this decade may be more modest than what we’ve seen since the end of the Great Recession.
- For those who are pre-retirees, you should focus on your contributions you are making to your PCA Retirement Plan. Do not let lower returns persuade you to give up and chase last year’s winners. Remember, this is almost always a losing strategy.
- For those who are retirees, periods of low returns require a more conservative approach to your personal spending during retirement. It boils down to simple math. Here at RBI we call it “sequence risk.” It means that the long term impact on a retirement plan portfolio is greater when contributions are taken out during periods of low returns vs. periods when returns are average or higher. In other words, longevity risk rises; longevity risk is the risk of running out of money before you die. Please call us if you believe you are in this situation.
- Finally, and most importantly, the visible road ahead with respect to market returns is likely to be bumpy. When economic growth is modest and returns are meager markets will over react. In simple terms, life lived near the edge of a knife is spooky… why shouldn’t the markets act in a similar fashion?

Given all of the above, it seems the decade we are in requires a great deal of wisdom as we seek to grow God’s provision for our eventual retirement. Thankfully, RBI has prepared for a time such as this. If you feel uncertain about your plan for saving and/or spending in retirement, please give your ministry partners at RBI a call. We are staffed to assist you and your call would be joyfully welcomed.
We are thankful to report that our ministry to the PCA continues to expand. Most recently, our advisory services to families participating in the PCA Retirement Plan has helped many sort through the challenges of retirement planning. We have further ramped up our advisory services to our teaching elder families by offering regional financial planning seminars across the U.S. ServantCare Ministries, a confidential and low cost counseling resource is now available to PCA presbyteries for pastors and their wives. Our hope is to encourage these families through a partnership ministry with Christian Counseling and Education Foundation. Every year we produce a new edition of the PCA Call Package Guidelines. Many presbyteries have used this document as a resource for establishing call packages presented to the presbytery for approval. We believe that through this resource church leaders are better equipped to understand the financial needs of PCA pastors and their families.

Thank you for your support of PCA Retirement & Benefits, Inc. Through your participation in the Retirement Plan, Group Insurance products and Ministerial Relief, we are able to sustain programs that encourage and support our churches and employees.

Summary of 2015 Operations

Total retirement plan assets under management dropped by 1.0% from $474,857,010 to $470,214,822. This decrease can be attributed to lower market performance compared to prior year. As our largest plan, participation in the PCA Retirement Plan increased a modest 2.7%. Participation results within the various insurance benefit plans offered by RBI were very good. For the year, the number of participants increased in PCA Standard Life (13.6%), PCA Basic Life (9.8%) and PCA Long Term Disability (3.0%). We experienced declines in PCA Enhanced Life Products (-22.4%), and PCA Voluntary AD&D (-17.7%) largely due to contract changes with one client. We experienced percentage increases in PCA Vision (11.1%) and PCA Dental (6.9%) due to their relative newness (early in a plan growth cycle) and competitive pricing.

Each of the PCA Long Term Disability Plan (LTD) options experienced no changes in 2015, but the decision was made to change the payroll and billing accounting method to one which would allow employees filing disability claims to receive the disability income as tax free. There will be a three year phase-in period from January 1, 2015, and employees may have a slight impact to income taxes based on how employers provide the benefit. However, this change will be a tremendous benefit to those on disability.

The PCA Group Life plans experienced no changes in 2015. The plans continue to be good values, including such features as Will Preparation (for those with insurance supplemental to Basic Life) and Portability or Convertibility upon employment termination or retirement.

RBI has recommended GuideOne as the Property and Casualty firm that PCA organizations should consider. GuideOne provides coverage in every state, specializes in providing insurance to churches and works to offer PCA organizations group affiliated pricing. More information can be learned on the RBI website at pcarbi.org.

During 2015, eighteen teaching elders, four wives of teaching elders, and two widows were called home to Glory. The 2014-2015 Relief Offering of $653,383 provided primary funding for Relief activities. Ministerial Relief Development work provided an additional $70,295 of funding for future Relief Fund needs.

Throughout the year, there were 60 relief recipients who received a combined amount of $489,026. Seventeen families received Survivor Assistance in 2015. Monthly, short-term, or emergency supplemental income assistance was provided to those retired pastors, disabled pastors, pastors without call, missionaries, active pastors facing emergencies, lay workers, their widows (by death or abandonment), and dependent children who qualified according to need under guidelines established by the Relief Committee of the RBI Board of Directors.

Please assist us in the stewardship of our God-given resources and our ministry to “the least of these” by directing those in need to the applications for Ministerial Relief and Health Insurance Assistance (for pastors without call) to the Ministerial Relief section of our website.

We would appreciate your prayers that God would give us discernment and wisdom as we consider the needs of His servants in the U.S. and throughout the world, that He may be glorified in all things.
Legislative Changes

In October of 2015, it was announced by the Internal Revenue Service that all three key retirement plan contribution limits for 2016 would remain the same. The list below references maximum amounts for elective deferrals (employee contributions), defined contributions (employee and employer contributions), and catch-up contributions (employee contributions for participants who are 50 and older).

402(g) Elective Deferral Maximum is $18,000 for 2015 and 2016
415(c) Defined Contribution Maximum is $53,000 for 2015 and 2016
414(v) Catch-up (Age 50 or older) Contribution Limit is $6,000 for 2015 and 2016

The Church Plan Clarification Act (CPCA) was enacted on December 18, 2015, as part of the 2016 Consolidated Appropriations Act – a $1.8 trillion dollar year-end spending and tax package that Congress passed and the President signed. Among other things, the year-end package also delayed the Affordable Care Act (ACA)’s “Cadillac” Plan Tax (the excise tax on high-cost health plans) by two years to 2020.

The CPCA, authored by the Church Alliance (of which PCA Retirement & Benefits, Inc. is a member), addresses five issues that are critical to church benefit plans: the “controlled group” rules, section 415 limits on grandfathered defined benefit plans, automatic enrollment in church defined contribution plans, transfers between 403(b) and 401(a) plans, and investing in collective trusts. Under the CPCA’s new controlled group provisions, the IRS is prevented from aggregating certain church plans together for purposes of the non-discrimination rules, which prevent highly compensated participants from receiving disproportionate benefits under the plan, and provides flexibility for church employers in determining which other church employers are in its controlled group of employers. This may help churches ascertain the applicability of the Affordable Care Act’s large employer shared responsibility rule, for example. Under the new section 415 provisions, certain grandfathered church defined-benefit plans will be subject only to the defined benefit limitations of code section 415(b), and no longer subject to the defined contribution limitations of code section 415(c). Under the automatic enrollment provisions, church retirement plans are now allowed to offer auto-enrollment in all fifty states despite state wage withholding laws, similar to plans covered by ERISA. Under the new plan-to-plan transfer provisions, it will be easier for church plans to engage in certain plan-to-plan transfers and mergers between 401(a) and 403(b) plans. Lastly, the CPCA adds a provision that permits church plan investment boards to invest in a group trust described in IRS Revenue Ruling 81-100 (“collective trusts”). These provisions generally are effective on or after the date of enactment.

The Church Alliance worked diligently during the 114th Congress and the previous two Congresses to push this bill to enactment. This accomplishment is the result of the strong support from the members of the Church Alliance and numerous individuals within the member denominations.

Staff

The RBI staff is thankful to the Lord for His faithfulness and everlasting love to His Church this past year and eagerly awaits the opportunities and challenges in store for our future. We believe that God will continue to bless our ministry to others as we remain faithful to Him. We welcome the prayers and partnership of participants and churches this year and into the future.

It is our privilege to serve those who minister in the Presbyterian Church in America.

Respectfully Submitted,

TE Jonathan B. (Jon) Medlock RE Gary D. Campbell, CFA
Chairman, Board of Directors President
Ministry to college represents an important part of the mission of the Presbyterian Church in America. The college years have increasingly become a time for questioning authority, scrutinizing absolutes, throwing out old premises, and reinventing the self. Students must learn to navigate that milieu of converging thought, and Reformed University Ministries is thankful to be part of this unfolding campus narrative to reach students for Christ and equip them to serve. The passion and vigor of college students have proved, over the last 200 years, to affect the church globally, significantly engaging the world with mission and purpose. The story of redemption playing out is bigger than any story that we can imagine.

Reformed University Ministries goes to the campus with a fixed theology (The Westminster Standards) and a flexible methodology that allows us to contextualize in order to suit various campus personalities and demographics. We are not limited in how and where we preach the Gospel.

To engage the current academic culture, Reformed University Ministries sends ordained PCA ministers to serve on the college campus, preach the gospel of Christ, build Christ’s Church, and ultimately prepare students to live all of life under the Lordship of Christ. This is a concrete expression of our commitment to our covenant children and our obedience to the Great Commission, to reach students for Christ and equip them to serve.

The Permanent Committee for Reformed University Ministries wishes to thank all of our churches, presbyteries, and the General Assembly for their oversight, financial support, prayers, and encouragement for our campus ministers and interns who have served on 150 campuses across America.

REFORMED UNIVERSITY FELLOWSHIP

Reformed University Fellowship (RUF) offers the truth of God’s Word to students who are searching. By working within the context of the Church, we follow Christ’s leadership as He builds His Kingdom. Students are instructed in Evangelism and Missions, Growth in Grace, Fellowship and Service, and a Biblical World-and-Life View. An ordained PCA minister leads each RUF, actively working to accomplish goals in these four major areas. RUF strengthens the Church by reaching students who may not know Christ, as well as equipping those who know Him to serve.

REFORMED UNIVERSITY FELLOWSHIP INTERNATIONAL

RUF International (RUFI) reaches out to international students and scholars in the USA. Currently over 700,000 internationals study on US campuses, making American universities the world's top destination for international students. Currently, the largest number of students studying in the US come from China and India, while some of the fastest growing groups are from nations officially "closed" to the gospel - like Saudi Arabia and Iran. God is at work bringing future world leaders and culture-shapers to the USA; the world mission field is no longer just "over there." God has commanded his people to "welcome the foreigner." As RUF ministers represent the church going to the campus, RUF-International represents the church welcoming the nations and equipping kingdom ambassadors. Our RUFI campus ministers train and partner with individuals, churches, and Presbyteries to:

- Welcome scholars from all nations through deed ministries of Biblical hospitality;
- Explore the gospel of Christ with internationals through Word ministries like investigative Bible study;
- Equip internationals to become servant-leaders for God’s global kingdom.

RUFI now serves 12 USA campuses. We pray for many more opportunities to lead the PCA onto a contemporary, cost-effective world mission field.

REFORMED UNIVERSITY FELLOWSHIP GLOBAL

RUF Global partners with MTW and other mission agencies to establish RUF ministries on campuses around the world. We currently have ministries in Mexico City, Bogota, Columbia and Prague, Czechoslovakia.

MINISTRY DISTINCTIVES

Weekly large group, small groups, and one-on-one staff-student meetings provide the structure for campus ministry. Each kind of meeting is essential in ministering to college students. In large group meetings the truth is taught through preaching the good news of Jesus and corporate worship. Small groups focus on study, prayer, and fellowship, and many are led by junior and senior students, under the direction of the campus minister and interns.
One-on-one meetings between students and staff members offer in-depth discipleship, evangelistic encounters, and accountability in trust-confidence relationships, as well as counseling. RUF emphasizes the development of a biblical world-and-life view. As students learn to think biblically, they will make a lasting difference in the Church and the world. A key distinctive of RUF is its connection to the Church.

Through exhortation by their campus minister, attendance with friends at local churches, involvement in campus community, and exposition of Biblical truth, college students learn to love the Church and develop a lifelong commitment to involvement with God’s people. RUF provides a bridge maintaining (or establishing) connection to the Church as students make the transitions from home to college to work and family life. RUF does not exist for the purpose of perpetuating a campus ministry, but in order to grow the church.

FIELD EXHIBITION

Started in 1980, the Intern Program has trained over 700 interns. Nearly 170 young men and women (all recent college graduates) are currently working directly with a campus minister to receive on-the-job-training in evangelism, small group leadership, and one-on-one ministry. While interns minister to college students, they also participate in a study program focusing on biblical and theological training. After their internship with Reformed University Ministries, interns move into both vocational ministry and the broader marketplace with a deepened understanding of God’s Word and experience in His service. The campus intern, as well as campus staff, is equipped to be “an instrument for noble purposes, made holy, useful to the Master and prepared to do any good work” (II Timothy 2:21).

SUMMER CONFERENCE

The purposes of Summer Conference are: to provide solid Biblical exposition and teaching to equip students to better understand and live the Christian life; to offer teaching, training, and equipping in skills related to reaching others for Christ; and to provide fellowship and fun among Christians from over 100 college and university campuses.
Reformed University Ministries’ thirty-fifth Summer Conference was held the weeks of May 4-9, May 11-16, and May 17-22, 2015, in Panama City Beach, Florida. Students and staff from across the country gathered at the beginning of the summer for clear exposition of God’s Word, prayer, seminars, and fellowship. Ricky Jones, Pastor, River Oaks Presbyterian Church, Tulsa, OK; Leo Schuster, Church Planter, City Church PCA, Houston, TX; and Brian Habig, Senior Pastor, Downtown Presbyterian Church, Greenville, SC, were the speakers.

Summer Conference addressed the topic of Sanctification, one of the principles of RUF Philosophy of Ministry. The Summer Conference schedule included back to back large group meetings in the evening, free time in the afternoon, and seminars in the mornings. Reformed University Ministries Campus Ministers and staff led a variety of seminars covering both theological and practical topics.

Our 36th Summer Conference will be held for three weeks again in 2016: May 2-7, May 9-14, and May 15-21, addressing the topic of Glorification. Speakers for these weeks will be Tom Cannon, RUF National Coordinator, Ray Cortese, Seven Rivers Presbyterian Church, and Rankin Wilbourne, Pacific Crossroads Church.

WIVES RETREAT

Over 70 wives of RUF ministers met in Atlanta the weekend of January 14-17, 2016, for a retreat to enjoy fellowship, encouraging teaching, and connection. Sessions were led by RUF Area Coordinator, Brent Harriman.

This year saw the addition of a West Coast Wives Retreat in San Diego, California. Sessions were led by Linn Kaiser Haralson (wife of John Haralson, Pastor of Grace Church, Seattle).

STAFF TRAINING

In 2015, the three full weeks of training for field staff included orientation for new interns and new campus ministers. This in-depth training is a distinctive of the ministry and provides philosophical, practical, and reflective instruction to RUF campus ministers, interns, and staff. We were pleased to welcome the Rev. Rankin Wilbourne and the Rev. Mark Bates to lead us in the continuing education segment of our training.
RUF CAMPUS MINISTER ASSESSMENT

In December of 2006, RUF held its first Campus Minister Assessment. Since that time, Assessment has been held twice a year, in February and July. During Assessment, candidates are interviewed by former and senior RUF ministers and some of their wives. The prospective campus ministers complete a personality profile, preach and demonstrate small group leadership, and engage with assessors in a marriage and family interview, along with other activities designed to help RUF evaluate each applicant. We assess approximately 25 candidates a year.

GROWTH

2015 was another year of growth as RUM partnered with presbyteries to start five new campus ministries on the following campuses: Florida Gulf Coast; University of California-Irvine; University of Delaware; University of North Carolina (Wilmington); and Penn State (RUFI). This growth placed RUF ministries on over 145 campuses in 39 states and in 60 Presbyteries.

Reformed University Ministries continues to grow, with nine ministries scheduled to begin in 2016: Valdosta State University; Florida Atlantic University; University of Hawaii; University of Texas-San Antonio; Austin Peay State University; Western Washington University; San Jose State; Queens College, and Virginia Tech (RUFI)

RUF’S VISION FOR THE CHURCH

Currently over 100 former RUF Campus Ministers are serving our church as church planters, pastors, associate pastors, assistant pastors, and denominational staff. Thousands of RUF Alumni are serving in the church enforcing the fact that RUF is not just about perpetuating campus ministry but about enriching the Church. We have also added a church planting track to our staff training for former RUF campus ministers who are now planting churches as well as current campus ministers who are interested in church planting.

CONCLUSION

God is at work through the ministry of RUF. RUF strives to engage culture and carry out the kingdom priorities of the Church. God brings together students and ministers from many different walks of life to accomplish His purposes. Each person influenced by Reformed University Ministries will in turn influence many other people in the course of his or her life. The Church is strengthened as students learn to love and seek out the Church, and are trained to serve as future church leaders.

TOTAL FUNDS DISBURSED

The Committee on Reformed University Fellowship provides support services to Presbyteries whose campus ministries are affiliated with Reformed University Fellowship. The Presbyteries receiving services make a contribution toward their cost. Presbyteries and their affiliated committees are completely responsible for the funding of ministries within their area and for determining the budget of each ministry. Reformed University Fellowship receives and disburses funds only as directed by the Presbyteries.

From January 1, 2015 to December 31, 2015, Reformed University Fellowship received $20,518.91 and dispersed $17,645,789 for campus ministers, church plants and alumni events as directed by presbyteries and their Affiliated Committees. The funds are received for particular ministries, which are the responsibility of a presbytery as noted on the next page. The responsible body receives an audit report of its funds.

It is a humbling privilege to see the ministry of Ridge Haven grow and thrive because of the Lord’s overwhelming blessings. Living, working, and ministering with these kids has been the most exciting time of Paige’s and my life. What a privilege it is to be here and to witness first-hand the expansion of God’s Kingdom into the lives of youth and families. One such mother recently wrote me expressing her thanks for the impact Ridge Haven has had on her family:

Once again my boys went to Ridge Haven [for Winter Camp] and came back filled, prepped and ready for 2016! Which fills this mother's heart. Our LORD works in so many ways to further the sanctification of our covenant children and Ridge Haven has had a profound effect on [them.] Truly, we are so grateful for all the work you and countless others do there in the mountains of Western NC. Carry on my friend, carry on.

Summer Camp Season – In 2015, and for the second year in a row, Ridge Haven welcomed over 3,500 guests to our summer camp program. Six of the ten weeks were once again at capacity, so our summer programs simply could not grow without the expansion of our housing accommodations. We praise the Lord that this expansion is now well under way and hopefully will be fully operational by mid to late summer. We are especially thankful to our ever faithful partners and to the many donors to our current Capital Campaign that are allowing us to minister to even more kids. Once completed, these facilities will be able to accommodate 144 more campers each week throughout the summer and many more groups throughout the rest of the year.

One of the exciting additions to the summer camp program is the addition of a second week of Family Camp. Last year’s Family Camp filled up within weeks of our opening registration, so we decided to add another family camp this year by moving two of our regular camps - one earlier in May and the other later in August. Currently one of our Family Camps is completely full, and we expect the second week will be full any day now. What a joy to see families come “play and worship” together. We are especially grateful that Pastors George Robertson and Jimmy Agan are coming back as our speakers, and for Pastor Archie Moore leading our children’s program for both weeks. Talk about a “dream team!”

Year-Round Ministry – Summer is just one season of our ministry. For two years now, the summer is no longer our busiest season. Ridge Haven now hosts even more guests throughout the rest of the year. Every weekend from the end of summer until Thanksgiving, we welcome church-wide groups of all kinds. Winter has also become one of the busier seasons for us. Our Winter Camp over the holidays is such a blessing as the quote above reflects, and as of last year, we added a second Winter Retreat in February since Winter Retreat I has “sold out” with over 500 guests.

We also host our “Quarter Life” conference that was started in 2014. It is especially designed for the 20s and 30s age group of both singles and couples. It has been a welcome addition to our retreat schedule. We hope to add a Family and Marriage Conference in the near future. Keenagers, our retreat for those 55 and over, is held annually in the fall. And our new Celebration Lodge is perfect for small groups seeking the warmth and privacy of a mountain top executive lodge for private meetings, with the many nearby amenities of the Ridge Haven campus.

Ministry Contributions and Campus Improvements – God has certainly blessed the work of our hands well beyond our imaginations as He enabled us to exceed our ambitious 2M income budget while also allowing us to come under budget with our expenses. As you read this, please stop and thank and praise the Lord for His provision.

We have been able to raise all but $480,000 of our 2.8M Capital Campaign goal. Though we originally hoped to complete the campaign in 2015, the Lord has shown us this is His work, and He will carry it on to completion in His timing. We are so thankful that so many supporters have already paid their pledges and enabled us to begin a number of campaign projects.

The new Shenandoah Treehouse Village is probably the most highly anticipated project. Once completed, the 6 treehouse cabins will be able to house 72 campers per session and many more youth groups in the spring and fall. We know kids will be so thrilled to spend their nights at camp in a treehouse, and it is fun to see it beginning to take shape.
We have also begun work on four new camper cabins down at our “Mudgeville” camping area next to our new South Recreational Complex. The new recreational area has a soccer field, sand volleyball court, wooded playing area, basketball court, and two large picnic areas. In addition, there is a wonderful trout stream that flows beside it where we are also constructing three additional Treehouses. As stated above, with all three of these new camper housing areas, we will be able to accommodate another 144 campers each week and many, many more youth groups the rest of the year. What a blessing.

We have also started on our new State mandated wastewater treatment plant. As you can imagine, this is a very time consuming project and extremely time sensitive. It is slated to be completed by the end of May in time for our summer season but if not, then we cannot use the new camper cabins.

Please pray for this construction as well as for the last 480K of our 2.8M Capital Campaign. Finishing out the campaign will allow us to construct our much needed new Dining Hall. We already have a very generous donor who has pledged 330K if we are able to raise this last 480K toward our 2.8M goal. As you read this, please stop and give God praise for all that He has done for us, for all the kids and guests that have come to Ridge Haven and have left knowing the Lord Jesus Christ for the first time, or who have left knowing Him better than when they came. Then join us in asking for blessing and provision to “finish well” this last leg of the campaign. Thank you.

Special Camps - We continue to host licensed counselor Martha Furman, LPC, LMFT, and her staff for a specialized "Camp Braveheart" for children and youth that are walking the journey of grief after the death of a loved one. This camp has impacted so many kids. Our Service Project Camps are becoming a more and more popular way to enjoy Ridge Haven and make camp even more affordable. They are designed for kids and youth groups to come experience a full camp, “work off” some of the camp costs, and also give back for the benefit of Ridge Haven and its long-term future and ministry. Our Chattanooga Sports Ministries Camp for inner city children is in its sixth year and remains a highlight, when over a 100 kids come, many for the first time ever outside of the inner city, to experience a week of camp and its blessings and beauty. Ridge Haven fully funds this camp including transportation to and from Chattanooga. While it is one of our “hardest” weeks, it has proven time and again, to be our most cherished time of the summer.
Our Capital Campaign has also allowed us to expand one of our most popular ministries, our Camp Summer Internship (CSI) program. Our CSI program provides upper high school students work experience and focused discipleship training, with mentoring from our experienced staff. CSIs spend their summer as work crews, providing behind the scenes support for the camping ministry. They also attend daily sessions of worship and preaching as well as a daily Bible Study. It is our “camp within a camp,” and a powerful tool to train a next generation of leaders for lifelong ministry.

Summary – We are so thankful to the Lord and you, His Church, for allowing us to expand and improve our many ministries. It is so exciting to be a part of this ministry and denomination where the Lord is allowing us to participate in His kingdom work so powerfully. We continue to praise Him and put our faith in Him as we seek to reach more and more youth and Covenant families for His kingdom. To God be all glory!

Recommendations:

1. That the Ridge Haven 2017 Budget, as presented through the AC Budget Review Committee, be approved.
2. That the 2014 audit dated May 27, 2015, performed by Robins, Smith & Jordan, be received.
4. That February 26, 2017, be a day our churches pray for the ministries of Ridge Haven.

UNIQUENESS OF THE COMMITTEE

The Cooperative Ministries Committee (CMC) is unique among other Committees and Agencies of the General Assembly in that all chairmen and chief administrative officers of each of the ten General Assembly Committees and Agencies have both a voice and vote on the committee. Moreover, the current Moderator of the General Assembly serves as moderator of the CMC. He and the immediate past five Moderators serve as advisory members of the CMC. The Stated Clerk of the General Assembly serves as the Clerk of the CMC. Article VII of the Rules of Assembly Operations contains the rules under which the CMC operates.

The CMC is not a General Executive Board with any authority over the ten Committees and Agencies of the General Assembly but does provide a useful means for advancing cooperation in ministry, communications, integrated long-range planning, handling matters referred to it by General Assembly Committees and Agencies or by the Assembly itself, evaluating standards for the effectiveness of General Assembly Committees and Agencies, and serving as a forum to resolve issues of inter-agency cooperation, collaboration or possible conflict.

MATTERS DISCUSSED AND ACTIONS TAKEN

For the last couple of years the CMC has focused on integrated long-range planning. Five sub-committees were formed to study and make suggestions regarding some significant issues the PCA is or will be facing:

1. Practicing Diversity Well in the PCA — considering ethnic, cultural, linguistic, generational, gender, regional, urban-suburban-small-town-rural, political, socio-economic diversity within our churches and ministry contexts in the United States and Canada.

2. Sexual Brokenness in a Fallen World — involving not only same-sex attraction, but a plethora of sexual desires, tendencies, and practices that are a result of the original fall into sin and are contrary to God’s design for hetero-sexual, monogamous marriage as revealed in Holy Scripture and affirmed in the Constitution of the PCA.

3. The Role of Women in the PCA — utilizing the gifts, insights, experiences, wisdom, and abilities of women within the parameters of biblical teachings.

4. The Rising Generation of Leaders Within and For the PCA — identifying, listening to, developing, and involving the rising generation of leaders.

5. Making the Annual General Assembly More Attractive to Ruling Elders and Younger Pastors — creating venues and procedures to orient and involve Ruling Elders and younger ministers.

The composition of the CMC and its appointed subcommittees changes over time. Therefore, the CMC authorized the Moderator and Clerk to repopulate the subcommittees where needed.

Since the CMC does not make recommendations for action directly to the General Assembly, the CMC refers its recommendations to the appropriate Committees and Agencies.

Here is a summary of the work of the subcommittees of the CMC.

PRACTICING DIVERSITY WELL IN THE PCA

Racial reconciliation is an important aspect of practicing ethnic diversity well in the PCA. As part of the widespread response to concern about racial reconciliation with the PCA, this subcommittee of the CMC continues its work.

- At the last General Assembly a Personal Resolution on racial reconciliation was introduced as new business. After considerable discussion, the Assembly decided to defer action on the issue until the Forty-fourth General Assembly in order to give Presbyteries time and opportunity to consider the issue and prepare overtures to the Assembly.
- The Assembly-wide seminar last year on Advancing Ethnic Diversity in the PCA was well received.
- The response to this emphasis at the Forty-third General Assembly has been notable. As of the time of the writing of this report, over three dozen overtures have been submitted and will be considered by the Overtures Committee for recommendations to the Assembly.
- The CMC anticipates further clarification and counsel for the ongoing work of this subcommittee from the 44th General Assembly, given the number of overtures already received that are connected to the issues of racial reconciliation and repentance.

SEXUAL BROKENNESS IN A FALLEN WORLD

The subcommittee’s work on homosexuality was expanded to deal not only with same-sex attraction but also with the broader issue of sexual brokenness in a fallen world and religious liberty.
- Shortly after the Forty-third General Assembly the Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) issued its 5-4 decision legalizing same-sex marriage. (See the Stated Clerk’s Report to the General Assembly for a statement on the PCA’s stance on marriage). The SCOTUS decision and recent changes in laws, as well as challenges to laws regarding gender self-identity in the use public restrooms, have not only evinced a further secularization of our culture but have also raised religious liberty issues that may affect churches, denominational institutions, independent Christian institutions, and businesses operated by Christians.

The subcommittee will seek to cite ties between its subject of study and existing PCA constitutional standards insofar as possible, recognizing that some of the current 21st-century issues were not addressed by the Westminster Assembly of 1643-1648.
- RBI and CDM are working on making materials available to the churches regarding best practices and help with policies.
- The CMC wanted last year’s report of the subcommittee to be included in this year’s General Assembly’s Minutes (see Attachment, p. 332. A bibliography has been added.)
- An Assembly-wide seminar will be held at the Forty-fourth General Assembly on Sexual Brokenness in a Fallen World, with emphasis how churches, leaders, and individual Christians may minister to struggling people.
THE ROLE OF WOMEN IN THE PCA

- The subcommittee continued its work on the importance of and possible means of giving women a greater voice and more visible roles in all levels of PCA church life. They reported back to the CMC regarding their study of matters including exegesis of key Scriptures and topics related to women serving in the church from the local to the denominational level.
- The subcommittee made several recommendations to the AC (including a proposal for a study committee on the issue women serving in the church) and CDM to bring to the Assembly. See the AC and CDM reports for recommendations.

THE RISING GENERATION OF LEADERS WITHIN AND FOR THE PCA

- The subcommittee plans to continue to have gatherings and work to promote leadership within the younger generation.
- A gathering at the Chattanooga (43rd) General Assembly was well attended.

MAKING THE ANNUAL GENERAL ASSEMBLY MORE ATTRACTIVE TO RULING ELDERS AND YOUNGER PASTORS

Several of the CMC recommendations to the AC regarding the work of the subcommittee on Making the PCA and GA More Attractive to Younger Pastors and Ruling Elders are already being implemented by the AC.
- A first-time commissioner event at the Chattanooga General Assembly was well attended.
- The 43rd Assembly approved two RAO amendments designed to improve communication within Committees of Commissioners at General Assembly (see M43GA, 24, 57). The amendments grew out of the work of the subcommittee.
The following (except for the bibliography, which is added here) appeared as Attachment 2 of the CMC report in last year’s GA Minutes (M43GA, pp. 331ff).

Report of the CMC Sub-Committee on Homosexuality
January 14, 2015

At the 2014 Cooperative Ministries Committee Meeting the CMC addressed key issues that the PCA, like many other evangelical denominations, face in ministering in the 21st Century. One of those issues is the issue of sexual brokenness, particularly people who are sexually attracted to members of the same gender. We are all broken people living in a fallen world.

A PCA Response to Issues of Sexual Expression

The exclusiveness of salvation through faith in Christ alone and the Church’s response to homosexuality may well be two of the most important issues of our day. As always the Church must interpret the trends of our times in light of the Bible rather than interpreting the Bible in light of the trends of our times. The Church is called to speak the truth in love (Eph. 4:15). In speaking the truth in love, we realize that we may well be misunderstood. When we speak the truth that sexual intimacy is biblically reserved only for heterosexual marriage, there will be those who think that it is unloving not to affirm all sorts of sexual behaviors. When we affirm that the Lord Jesus Christ graciously forgives all sorts of sins, even sexual sins, some may think we are not standing firmly enough for the truth.

God’s Intentions for Sexual Intimacy

Throughout history the Church has always believed, taught and confessed that God’s intention for sexual intimacy was confined to heterosexual marriage between a man and a woman (Gen. 2:24; Matt. 19:5-6). The Bible, the Westminster Standards, and our Book of Church order are explicit and clear on this issue (WCF 24-1; WLC 137-139; BCO 59). The biblical standard of sexual ethics is fidelity within heterosexual marriage or chastity outside of such a marriage. There is not a single biblical reference to homosexual activity in which such activity is divinely approved. In fact, when the Bible addresses homosexual activity, it is regarded as a sinful act (Lev. 18:22; 20:13; Deut. 23:17; Romans 1:18-32). Though several mainline denominations have condoned same-sex sexual relationships and re-defined marriage, the PCA maintains the biblical standards on marriage and sexual ethics.

The Origins of Sexual Brokenness

The Fall into Sin has affected our humanity in every aspect of our being. Thereafter human beings were born spiritually dead, i.e. no longer in fellowship with God but separated from him. Just as physical death is the separation of the spirit/soul from the body (Gen. 35:18) so spiritual death is separation from God (Gen. 2:17; Rom. 5:12; Eph. 2:1-3). Our wills became rebellious. Our understanding became clouded. Our affections became distorted (Gen. 6:5; Ps. 58:1-5; Jer. 17:9; Rom. 3:10-23; 8:6-8). We became subject to physical abnormalities, all kinds of afflictions and physical deteriorations that eventually lead to death. (Gen. 2:17; Romans 5).

All sexual sins, whether heterosexual or homosexual, have their root in original sin and total depravity. Moreover sexual desires and behaviors are complex and may be affected and shaped by a myriad of factors such as childhood experiences, positive and negative role models, sexual abuse, family life, abnormal hormonal levels, or unusual physical conditions.

Recent Developments in Same-sex Issues

Through violations of biblical sexual ethics have occurred throughout history, several factors have recently brought same-sex attraction to the fore. As a result of this wide ranging and intense cultural pressures, most of the mainline American Protestant denominations have officially approved of same-sex relationships. Numerous civil courts have ruled same-sex marriage to be constitutional and the matter was taken to the United States Supreme Court to decide on the constitutionality of same-sex marriage. So the Church’s maintaining its biblical standards will increasingly be standing against the flow of the mainstream of American culture.

We offer the following wisdom for our members, officers, and churches:

1. Speak the truth in love. Speaking the truth requires that in our personal conversations, teaching, and preaching we clearly articulate not only that all sexual relations outside of heterosexual marriage are sinful actions, but that we trace these behaviors to the root cause of original sin.

2. Speak the truth in love. A common perception of evangelical Christians from those in the homosexual community is that Christians hate homosexuals. Just as the Church has ministered the gospel to women who have become pregnant out of wedlock and sought to help them either to develop Christian parenting skills or to provide adoption services, the Church should minister the gospel to those who struggle with same-sex attraction. Many in the homosexual community have church backgrounds, but did not find the Church to be helpful as they struggled with same-sex attractions.

3. Recognize the complexity of same-sex attraction. Though there are some who deliberately choose behavior influenced by same-sex attraction a significant number of homosexuals, however, state that they would have preferred to have been attracted to members of the opposite sex. It would be simplistic to assume that all homosexuals deliberately choose to be attracted to persons of the same sex.

4. Recognize that some, but not all, who struggle with same-sex attraction may be able, by God’s grace, to become attracted to persons of the opposite gender and enter into a heterosexual marriage. Rosaria Champagne Butterfield is an example (see The Secret Thoughts of an Unlikely Convert). Such cases require patient Christians and a loving church ethos for transformations to occur.

5. Realize that some who struggle with same-sex attraction, due to a complex of factors, may never fully experience opposite-sex attraction and therefore are called to lifelong celibacy in order to practice sexual purity. Wesley Hill is an example of one who is committed to lifelong celibacy (see Washed and Waiting, Reflections on Christian Faithfulness and Homosexuality).

6. Due to the effects of the fall, there are people who have physical or also psychological characteristics that create and present utterly complex situations and cases.

7. Dealing with people in sexual brokenness will require some challenging pastoral care and discipline issues. The best of wisdom and knowledge afforded us by special and common grace must be used in responding to such issues. To this end we strongly commend that the study paper of 2011 by the RPCNA entitled The Gospel & Sexual Orientation to be read and studied by Teaching Elders and Sessions.

8. Realize that Christians who struggle with same-sex attraction may relapse. We should be prepared to deal mercifully with those “relapses” as we would with others.

9. The Church needs to avoid the Spiritual Museum model (perfect specimens who are on display) and practice the Spiritual Hospital model, (imperfect people who are in various stages of spiritual recovery).
10. One of the major problems people who struggle with same-sex attraction is loneliness. The Church needs to develop ministries to incorporate lonely people into the fellowship of the church.

11. Seek to learn from other evangelical churches and para-church ministries that have developed gospel ministries to homosexual persons.

The Ministry of the Interchurch Relations Committee
• The First General Assembly PCA (then called the National Presbyterian Church) had a subcommittee on Interchurch Relations under the Committee on Administration (MIGA, 1973, p. 24).
• One of the first recommendations of the IRC subcommittee was the adoption of the “A Message to All Churches of Jesus Christ throughout the World from the General Assembly of the National Presbyterian Church,” in which the Assembly expressed its grief over the necessity of and reasons for our separating from our former denomination, professed its unity with all who are in Christ, delineated our purpose of pursuing peace and charity with love toward all fellow Christians throughout the world, expressed our continued love and concern for our former denomination, and invited... into ecclesiastical fellowship all who maintain our faith and order (MIGA, 1973, pp. 40-42).

- The IRC later was changed from a subcommittee to a Special Committee, funded by the Administrative Committee, as it remains today.

- Through the efforts of the IRC a merger of five Presbyterian and Reformed denominations (PCA; Orthodox Presbyterian Church; Reformed Presbyterian Church, Evangelical Synod; Christian Reformed Church of North America; and the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America) was attempted within the first decade of the existence of the PCA. That ambitious attempt failed. Two attempts at merger with the OPC failed. The Reformed Presbyterian Church, Evangelical Synod joined and was received into the PCA in 1982.

- In 2003, the Thirtieth General Assembly adopted a recommendation of the IRC that we extend to the member denominations of the North America Presbyterian and Reformed Council (NAPARC) an invitation for NAPARC denominations to consider the matter of Church Union once more, since holding forth the desirability of Church Union was one of the reasons for the existence of NAPARC and because the membership of the Council had changed in the almost three decades since its founding. That effort was also unsuccessful.

- In the early years of the PCA, the Assembly related to other Presbyterian and Reformed denominations outside of NAPARC primarily through the Committee on Mission to the World. In recent years the IRC has recommended and the Assembly has agreed that we also relate to some of those denominations abroad through the IRC as well as MTW. For example, the Presbyterian Church of Brazil and the National Presbyterian Church of Mexico have a longer history and are of greater size than the PCA. Both denominations could be of assistance in planting Portuguese and Spanish speaking PCA congregations in North America in symbiotic relationships.

- In recent years, in keeping with the “Message to All Churches” adopted by the First General Assembly, the Stated Clerk, with the approval and encouragement of the IRC, has had contacts with other evangelical, conservative, orthodox, and traditional renewal groups and newly formed denominations. A fruit of those contacts was our Thirty-seventh General Assembly’s sending a letter of greeting to the First Provincial Assembly of the Anglican Church of North America (ACNA) in 2009 in the same fashion as the Reformed Episcopal Church (REC) sent a letter of greeting to our First General Assembly in 1973. The REC was one of the six ecclesiastical entities that formed ACNA. The Cooperative Ministries Committee (CMC) has also encouraged contacts with other evangelical, conservative, orthodox, and traditional newly formed denominations. That will likely be an opportunity the IRC will continue to pursue as we think of the ministry of the Gospel, the growth of the Church Universal, and the advancement of the Kingdom of God.

- It is through the IRC that the Assembly relates to other Reformed Churches and organizations in North America and abroad through our participation in the North American Presbyterian and Reformed Council (NAPARC) and the World Reformed Fellowship (WRF).
- It is through the IRC that the Assembly relates to other evangelical denominations and organizations through our membership in the National Association of Evangelicals.
- The IRC also appoints fraternal delegates and ecclesiastical observers to other General Assemblies or General Synods.

Items Discussed

- The actions and annual meeting of NAPARC.
- Response to proposed “Agreement of Ministerial Fellowship” of the Iglesia Nacional Presbiteriana de Mexico (INPM) – The committee deputed Paul Gilchrist, Bruce O’Neil, and the Stated Clerk to respond to the INPM proposal.
- World Reformed Fellowship – the meeting of the WRF in Jakarta, Indonesia, and the declining health and subsequent death of WRF Board Chairman Dr. Rick Perrin. TE Perrin formerly served as Chairman of the IRC and has served as chairman of the WRF Board for a number of years.
- National Association of Evangelicals – the activities and board meetings of the NAE.
- International Conference of Reformed Churches – an invitation to attend a regional seminar February 9-11, 2016, in Orlando, FL, with the theme “Women in Teaching Offices.” The seminar was subsequently cancelled.
- Listing of Denominations in Fraternal or Corresponding Relations.
- Presbyterian Church of Japan’s request to investigate fraternal relations.
- Grace Presbyterian Church of New Zealand’s request to investigate fraternal relations.
• Appointment of PCA Fraternal Delegates and Ecclesiastical Observers to the meetings of the highest assemblies of other denominations.

North American Presbyterian and Reformed Council

• Election of representative(s) to annual meeting of NAPARC – TE Bruce O’Neil and RE Jim Richardson were elected to represent the PCA at the annual NAPARC meeting November 10-12, 2015, at Quebec City, Quebec, Canada.

• Amendments to NAPARC bylaws – The committee approved the proposed amendments to the NAPARC Bylaws. Amendments to the NAPARC Bylaws do not require the action of the member Assembly, but are amended by the Council itself by a two-thirds majority. The IRC reviewed the proposed amendments at its September 24, 2015, meeting and instructed its delegation to NAPARC to vote in favor of the amendments, which were primarily editorial changes. NAPARC approved the amendments at its November 2015 meeting.

• Your IRC continues to be of the opinion that the likelihood of any of the NAPARC denominations merging with the PCA in the foreseeable future is remote. We can report that several NAPARC denominations with similar perspectives and historical roots are engaging in cooperative efforts (e.g. joint publication of a Psalter) and are having concurrent Synods.

• The 2016 annual meeting will be held November 8-10 in New Jersey.

World Reformed Fellowship

• The WRF is a fellowship of Reformed denominations, local churches, ministries, institutions, and individuals who hold to the ecumenical creeds of the Ancient Church and one of the Reformed Confessions.

• Dr. K. Eric “Rick” Perrin, former chairman and several-term member of the IRC served as chairman of the board of WRF since its inception. The committee, at its April 19, 2016, noted with regret and appreciation his death which took place April 13, 2016. Rick is survived by his wife, Barbara, their three sons and daughters-in-law, and eight grandchildren. Rick's career in ministry spanned more than 40 years, nearly all of them as senior pastor of congregations in Pennsylvania, Maryland, South Carolina, and New Jersey. Although Rick retired as a senior pastor nearly two years ago, his ministry continued as an adult ministries teacher at Westminster Presbyterian Church in Lancaster, PA.
• The WRF Board meeting was held in Jakarta, Indonesia, in March 2016.
• The mission of the World Reformed Fellowship is to promote understanding, cooperation, and sharing of resources among our membership of evangelical and Reformed Christians in the advancement of the Gospel.
• The vision of the WRF is simple – "That the strengths of some might become the strengths of all in the service of Jesus Christ" (see Paul's prayer in Ephesians 4: 11-13).
• The Biblical and Confessional Foundation of the World Reformed Fellowship – The WRF vision is to live out one of the clearly stated but often neglected themes of the great Reformed confessions of the church. The Westminster Confession of Faith (XXV, 2) affirms that there is "a visible universal church which consists of all those throughout the world that profess the true religion." The Belgic Confession (Article 27) emphasizes that "the one single catholic or universal church . . . is not confined, bound, or limited to a certain place or certain persons. But it is spread and dispersed throughout the entire world." While specific regional or national expressions of the universal church do, in many ways, embody characteristics of the Body of Christ, there are other characteristics of that Body which transcend those expressions. It is those other characteristics that the WRF seeks to set forth in its commitments and in its activities.
• The Affirmations of the World Reformed Fellowship – o The essence of the true religion (and of Reformed theology) is adoration and worship of the Triune God - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
  o This Triune God is worthy of the praise and service of all of creation.
  o Christians in many places and many denominations who share these first two commitments will find their worship and service of the Lord God enhanced by contact with others of like mind.
• The Formal Doctrinal Basis of the World Reformed Fellowship –
  o We affirm the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the God-breathed Word of God, without error in all that it affirms.
  o We stand in the mainstream of the historic Christian Faith in affirming the following catholic creeds of the Early Church: The Apostles Creed, the Nicene Creed, and the Chalcedonian Definition.

- The Services of the World Reformed Fellowship – For those who share our affirmations and our doctrinal base, the World Reformed Fellowship seeks to provide:
  - A network for communication and sharing of ministry resources among such Christians.
  - A forum for dialogue among such Christians on current issues.
  - The opportunity for such Christians from one region of the world to share their unique spiritual and theological perspectives with such Christians from other regions of the world, all within the framework of the evangelical Reformed faith.
  - Regular occasions, some for such Christians in specific regions of the world and some for such Christians world-wide, to come together for worship and dialogue and resource-sharing.

- The Structure and the By-Laws of the World Reformed Fellowship – The WRF holds General Assemblies at least once every four years. The most recent General Assembly met in Sao Paulo, Brazil, from March 23 through March 27, 2015. At General Assemblies, all WRF members vote on major policy issues and elect the members of the WRF Executive Committee. Also at General Assemblies, issues of importance for the evangelical Reformed church world-wide are addressed.

National Association of Evangelicals

- The NAE was formed in 1942 initially to give evangelicals opportunity to have greater access to radio ministry. The Federal Communications Commission was at that time giving preference to mainline denominations associated with the Federal Council (later National Council) of Churches.
- A number of Presbyterian evangelicals were involved in the formation of the NAE.
After WWII the NAE provided War Relief particularly to devastated Europe. That later transitioned into the World Relief Commission of the NAE, which continues to serve the most vulnerable people in many places in the world.

The National Association of Evangelicals has spoken as a united voice for millions of American evangelicals since 1942. The association represents more than 45,000 local churches from nearly 40 different denominations and serves a constituency of millions. The NAE serves to make denominations strong and effective, influence society for justice and righteousness, and gather the many voices of evangelicals together to be more effective for Jesus Christ and his cause.

The Stated Clerk of the PCA continues to serve as the Chairman of the Board of the NAE and chaired Board meetings on October 15, 2015, in Lakeville, MN, and March 10 in Washington, DC. A seminar on Marriage, Family, and Religious Freedom after Obergefell was a major event of the October meeting. At the March meeting presentations were made on religious freedom in the military and the persecution and rapid decline of the Christian community in the Middle East.

The NAE and LifeWay Research of the Southern Baptist Convention have been working on a research/survey definition of the term “evangelical” since its use has become more broadly defined. The result was that to be categorized as an evangelical, respondents must strongly agree that:

- The Bible is the highest authority for what I believe.
- It is very important for me personally to encourage non-Christians to trust Jesus Christ as their Savior.
- Jesus Christ’s death on the cross is the only sacrifice that could remove the penalty of my sin.
- Only those who trust in Jesus Christ alone as their Savior receive God’s free gift of eternal salvation.

The PCA Stated Clerk serves as an ex officio member of the Board of Directors of World Relief.

The Stated Clerk forwarded to the IRC the periodic NAE publication, Insights, summarizing NAE activities. A new NAE magazine, Evangelicals began publication in early 2016.

Since the June 26, 2015, SCOTUS decision on Obergefell legalizing same-sex marriage, the NAE issued press statements affirming biblical monogamous marriage between a man and a woman http://nae.net/tag/marriage/ and had a conference call briefing July 1, 2015, with legal experts and denominational leaders on the issue of religious liberty protections in light of Obergefell.

- Dr. Leith Anderson was re-elected to another three-year term as President of the NAE (2016-2019).
- The NAE held a Conversation on Race in DC in November, 2015. Three themes (Educational Opportunity, Income Disparity, and Criminal Justice Reform) were identified by African-American leaders as major issues affecting racial reconciliation in the USA.
- The committee decided that none of the actions of the NAE are contrary to the official positions of the PCA. According to the directive of the PCA’s General Assembly, the IRC reports annually to the Assembly regarding actions or positions taken by the NAE (M40GA, p. 22; M41GA, p. 20).

Common Ground Christian Network

- The experience of evangelical, traditional, conservative, orthodox Christians within the mainline Protestant denominations has been very similar no matter what their doctrinal confession or polity. All have gone through 1) doctrinal and ethical decline, 2) lack of accountability or discipline, and 3) the abuse of ecclesiastical power. That cycle has resulted in the formation of several new denominations out of the mainlines within the last decade. That repeated cycle, coupled with the increasing secularization of our culture, threats to religious liberty, and the mandate to the Church to fulfill the Great Commission, have provided a new impetus for maintaining contacts and engaging in collaborative efforts with other evangelical, traditional, conservative, orthodox denominations. For example, several of those denominations have benefitted from the input and expertise of PCA people and ministries in the areas of cross-cultural missions, church planting, and campus ministry. Another possibility is to serve as allies in warding off increasing threats to religious liberties.
- Common Ground Christian Network was formed out of the Association for Church Renewal and is now called the Common Ground Christian Network (CGCN). Its purposes are to share best practices for ministry and witness. The CGCN meets semi-annually. The PCA is not presently a denominational member. The IRC has encouraged the Stated Clerk to attend CGCN meetings whenever possible and to inform the IRC of its work.
Possible Relationships with Presbyterian Denominations Abroad

- The Committee voted to invite an observer from the Presbyterian Church of Japan to our General Assembly with a view to discussions on possible fraternal relations. MTW has worked with them for decades. Prior to the formation of the PCA, the PCUS and the RPCES worked with them. They have six Presbyteries, sixty-seven churches, and 2,200 members. They have fraternal relations with the OPC, the KPC (Kosin), the Presbyterian Church of Brazil, and the National Presbyterian Church of Mexico.

- The Committee voted to invite an observer from the Grace Presbyterian Church of New Zealand to our General Assembly with a view to discussions on possible fraternal relations. They were formed in 2003 and used the PCA Book of Church Order as beginning point for their BCO. They have connections with several PCA congregations.

- The committee has had several inquiries from the Presbyterian Church of Pakistan. Since there are about seventeen Presbyterian denominations in Pakistan, the IRC is seeking guidance from MTW on this matter in order to make an informed decision on any possible recommendation.

Recommendations

1. That Fraternal Delegates, Corresponding Delegates, and Ecclesiastical Observers be welcomed and invited to address the General Assembly.
2. That visiting ministers be introduced to the General Assembly (BCO 13-3).
3. That the minutes of September 24, 2015, be approved without exception.
4. That the minutes of April 19, 2016, be approved without exception.

II. Advice on Overtures

The Stated Clerk referred the following overtures to the Committee:

A. Overture 3 from Chesapeake Presbytery: "Amend BCO 15-3 to Allow Judicial Commission Minority Reports"

In the opinion of the CCB, Overture 3 is not in conflict with other parts of the Constitution.

Adopted. 7-1-0.

It should be noted, however, that if this amendment to the BCO is approved, the BCO Appendix H will need to be revised.

B. Overture 5 from Pittsburgh Presbytery: "Amend BCO 15-5.a and RAO 17-1, Paragraph 4, to Allow the General Assembly to Give Directions to the SJC in Judicial Decisions and Reasoning and Opinions"

In the opinion of the CCB, Overture 5 is in conflict with the Constitution. BCO 15-1 states that "A commission differs from an ordinary committee in that while a committee is appointed to examine, consider and report, a commission is authorized to deliberate upon and conclude the business referred to it, except in the case of judicial commissions of a Presbytery appointed under BCO 15-3." [emphasis added]. In other words, when a commission concludes the business referred to it, it is acting as the court of which it is a commission. BCO 15-4 specifies the business which General Assembly refers to the SJC (which it commissions the SJC to conclude - noted in italics): "The General Assembly shall elect a Standing Judicial Commission to which it shall commit all matters governed by the Rules of Discipline, except for the annual review of Presbytery records, which may come before the Assembly." The last clause clearly indicates that the only matter addressed in the Rules of Discipline that may come before the entire Assembly is review of Presbytery records.

It should be noted that the provision that "The General Assembly may direct the Standing Judicial Commission to retry a case if upon the review of its minutes exceptions are taken with respect to that case" springs from the provision of BCO 15-5a that states, "In the cases committed to it, the Standing Judicial Commission shall . . . be governed by the judicial procedures of the General Assembly."

Adopted. 7-1-0.

C. Overture 14 from Providence Presbytery: “Amend BCO 35-1 to Require Accused Officers to Testify”

In the opinion of the CCB, Overture 14 is not in conflict with other parts of the Constitution. Adopted. 8-0-0.

D. Overture 25 from the Rocky Mountain Presbytery: “Amend BCO 15-1; 15-2; Add new 15-4 and Renumber Subsequent Paragraphs”

In the opinion of the CCB, Overture 25 is not in conflict with other parts of the Constitution. (cf. BCO 12-3) Adopted. 5-3-0.

Dissenting Opinion by the Minority: Those voting in the minority suggested that the potential for a session to appoint a teaching elder of the same presbytery to serve as a voting member of the Judicial Commission violates Preliminary Principle 6 of the BCO.

In the opinion of the CCB, Overture 36 is not in conflict with other parts of the Constitution. Adopted. 8-0-0.
F. Overture 37 from Pacific Northwest Presbytery: “Amend BCO 13-2 to Add Requirement for Annual Reports from Ministers Without Call”

In the opinion of the CCB, Overture 37 is not in conflict with other parts of the Constitution.

G. Overture 38 from Pacific Northwest Presbytery: “Amend BCO 5-3 to Add an Explicit Requirement for Reporting and Reviewing Minutes of a Mission Church Temporary System of Government”

In the opinion of the CCB, Overture 38 is in conflict with the Constitution. Overture 38, as it is written, conflicts with BCO 5-3.a, in that an evangelist would not have minutes to submit as opposed to the governing bodies stipulated in items b and c of BCO 5-3. The BCO does not require an evangelist to submit minutes.

In the opinion of the CCB, Overture 37 is not in conflict with other parts of the Constitution.
Adopted. 7-1-0.

I. Overture 40 from Pacific Northwest Presbytery: “Amend BCO 43-1 to Clarify the Timing of Higher Court Review of Complaints in Judicial Cases”

In the opinion of the CCB, Overture 38 is in conflict with the Constitution. As currently written, Overture 40 would preclude the filing of complaints against any action of that court while any judicial case is in process.

III. Advice to Stated Clerk

No advice was requested.

IV. Non-Judicial References

A. Great Lakes Presbytery submitted a non-judicial reference, inquiring as to the propriety of allowing absentee ballots in Congregation meetings.
The CCB responded as follows:

It is the opinion of the CCB that whenever the BCO requires the convening of the congregation and/or a requirement that a majority vote of those present is required for a matter to carry, absentee votes would be barred. Therefore, as an example, absentee ballot voting for a new pastor (BCO 20-3 and 20-4) or for elders or deacons (BCO 24-3 and 24-4) is not constitutionally permissible. Nor, would it be permissible in matters in which action must be taken in a regularly constituted congregational meeting, such as the election of Trustees (BCO 25-7).

In other matters, if the congregation’s by-laws do not state otherwise, Robert's Rules of Order apply as follows:

It is a fundamental principle of parliamentary law that the right to vote is limited to the members of an organization who are actually present at the time the vote is taken in a regular or properly called meeting, the rules cannot be suspended so as to give the right to vote to a nonmember, or to authorize absentee voting. Roberts Rules of Order Newly Revised p. 263 RONR (11th ed.). (see also p. 423)

B. The Korean Southwest Presbytery submitted a non-judicial reference for the CCB’s consideration regarding concerning the presbytery stated clerk’s scope of duty with respect to the dissemination of information and the offering and opinions.

The CCB responded as follows:

It is the opinion of the CCB that BCO 10-4 specifies that among the duties of the clerk of a Presbytery are “to preserve the records carefully, and to grant extracts from them whenever properly required.” Acting in his official capacity it is in accordance with the duties of a clerk to provide information consistent with the records kept, and especially so, when asked by a former Presbytery Teaching Elder to provide the information when it is related to ecclesiastical litigation. This information should be provided and need not have the prior permission of the Presbytery or the Moderator. If the information sought or provided extends beyond what is available in records normally kept or opinions beyond procedural matters, the Presbytery Stated Clerk might wish to seek the approval of the Presbytery as a whole. Notwithstanding, the information provided by the stated clerk in his January 12, 2016 communication appears to be within the scope of his duties.

C. The Korean Southwest Presbytery submitted a second non-judicial reference for the CCB’s consideration regarding regarding ordination credentials of a former presbytery member.

The CCB responded as follows:

It is the opinion of the CCB that records indicate that Reverend Jung Hyun Oh was properly ordained and at the time of his transfer was a member in good standing of KSWP.

V. Minutes of the Standing Judicial Commission

It was moved to report to the General Assembly that the CCB had examined the Minutes of the Standing Judicial Commission meetings on April 29, 2015; June 9, 2015; August 12, 2015; October 15, 2015; and March 3-4, 2016; that it had also examined the Minutes of the meetings of SJC officers on April 14, 2015; June 19, 2015; July 14, 2015; July 29, 2015; August 24, 2015; September 29, 2015; December 1, 2015; and January 7, 2016. The minutes were found to be in order without exception and notations reported to the SJC.

Adopted. 6-2-0.

Preliminary vote tallies were discussed by the Committee. The Committee approved a slate of nominees for each of the Standing Committees, Agencies, and Commission to be presented to the General Assembly.

The Committee discussed the usage of electronic voting, Survey Monkey, and preliminary ballot distribution.

MSP - The Committee recommends the following change to RAO 8-4.i to submit to the 44th General Assembly:

RAO 8-4.i (additions underlined):
Additional nominations may be made submitted either (1) in writing or (2) electronically, in either case on forms supplied by the Stated Clerk, which shall include consent of the nominee to serve, if elected, and a brief statement regarding the nominee. In the event that a nomination is submitted electronically, the nominator should be aware that responsibility for such nomination rests with the nominator and that non-delivery is the sole responsibility of the nominator. Because the nominator has sole responsibility for delivery of a nomination, the nominator should obtain a receipt verifying successful electronic delivery of the nomination. The nominee is to give consent to only one nomination. In the event that the nominee is nominated for more than one position, the nominee may indicate to which nomination the nominee consents. The deadline for these nominations is the close of the afternoon session of the second day of the Assembly. The Clerk’s office shall issue a supplement to the Assembly’s Nominating Committee report during the third day’s business sessions.

Nominations were entertained for Chairman and Secretary of the 2016-2017 Nominating Committee. The Committee elected TE Hoochan Paul Lee from Korean Northeastern Presbytery to serve as Chairman and TE Donald Friederichsen from Metropolitan New York Presbytery as Secretary. The following elders were appointed assistant secretaries:

RE Howie Donahoe
RE Frank Cohee
TE David S. Hall
TE Robert Cathcart
TE Ethan Sayler
TE Andy Moehn
RE John Pink
RE William Hatcher
TE Donny Friederichsen
The Chairman announced that the next meeting of the Nominating Committee will be at General Assembly in Mobile, AL, on Wednesday, June 22, 2016, after the conclusion of the Floor Nominations. The 2017 meeting will be Saturday, March 25, 2017.

MSP that the Committee adjourn. Chairman Greco adjourned the meeting at 11:46 a.m., and TE Lucas closed in prayer.

Respectfully Submitted,
TE Fred Greco, Chairman            TE Sean Lucas, Secretary

II. A list of the Presbyteries that submitted Minutes after the 60-day deadline required by RAO 16-4.d:

2. Cite the following presbyteries to appear before the Committee on Review of Presbytery Records at its 2017 meeting (date to be determined by the Administrative Committee) with the stated records according to the provisions of RAO 16-4.e and BCO 40-1, 4, and 5 for repeatedly failing to submit and/or responses to exceptions of substance:

- Korean Eastern (Responses to GA exceptions to minutes of 2011-2013)

IV. General Recommendations:

That the 44th General Assembly, meeting in Mobile, AL:

1. Thank Dr. Roy Taylor, Margie Mallow, Karen Cook, Sherry Eschenberg, Angela Nantz, TE Billy Park, and the rest of the AC staff who covered their responsibilities, as well as MTW and their staff for the use of their facilities, their attentive support, and friendly welcome.
   Adopted

2. Commend the 2016 Committee on Review of Presbytery Records officers, TE Jon Anderson, TE Matthew Bradley, TE Hoochan Paul Lee, and TE Kenneth McHeard, as well as TE Per Almquist, for their dedication to the work, capable leadership, and helpful shepherding.
   Adopted

3. Commend those Clerks who sent records for their hard work to create, keep, and submit their records, and every presbytery who sent delegates to be committee members.
   Adopted

4. Urge those who failed to send reports or delegates to do so in the future. Note that 67 of 82 presbyteries had representatives (including 49 TEs and 18 REs) appointed to the committee this year, with 58 attending the meeting. We urge all to observe stated deadlines, as 8 reports were received late, rendering them unable to be mailed to committee members ahead of the meeting, which adds an extra burden on the committee.
   Adopted

5. Remind presbyteries that responses to GA’s exceptions will be published in the Commissioner’s Handbook at General Assembly, and they should therefore omit sensitive details, especially names of individuals and churches.

Adopted

6. Remind presbyteries approving the dissolution of a pastoral relationship (BCO 23-1) to document prior congregational (in the case of pastors and associate pastors) or sessional (in the case of assistant pastors) approval of that action.

Adopted

7. Urge presbyteries, when recording an examinee’s stated differences to the Confessional Standards, to record judgment on each stated difference using the wording of one of the four categories explicitly spelled out in RAO 16-3.e.5.a through d.

Adopted

8. Remind presbyteries that the actions of their commissions are the actions of that presbytery, and the full record of each commission’s proceedings must be included in subsequent presbytery minutes, either in the body of the minutes or as an addendum thereto (BCO 15-1).

Adopted

9. Remind presbyteries that when GA takes exception to a Presbytery’s minutes for failure to record or take a required action, and Presbytery agrees with the exception, a satisfactory response should indicate that they have taken the required action, if possible, and properly recorded same in their minutes, amending past minutes if necessary.

Adopted

10. Remind presbyteries that responses to GA’s exceptions must be approved by the presbytery, and such approval must be recorded in their minutes.

Adopted

11. Request that presbyteries approve their responses to GA exceptions in the same calendar year in which the exceptions were taken.

Adopted

12. Remind presbyteries that some actions must be taken annually, including review of session records, receiving reports from TEs laboring out of bounds, receiving reports from interns and receiving reports from candidates under care, and that record of such reports should be included in their minutes.

Adopted

13. Encourage Presbytery stated clerks to attend the annual clerk’s meeting in December.

Adopted

V. Report Concerning the Minutes of Each Presbytery:

1. That the Minutes of Ascension Presbytery:

   a. Be approved without exception: January 31, 2015; April 25, 2015; June 25, 2015; and November 7, 2015.

   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: None.

   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: None.
d. No response to the 44th GA or previous assemblies is required.

2. That the Minutes of Blue Ridge Presbytery:
   a. Be approved without exception: None.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: January 30-31, 2015; April 24-25, 2015; June 3, 2015; June 24, 2015; November 6-7, 2015; and Directory.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance:
      Exception: November 6-7, 2015 (BCO 23-1) – No record of congregational meeting to dissolve the pastoral relation.
   d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:
      Exception: April 25-26, 2014 (BCO 13-5) – Transfer without a definite ecclesiastical work and without further elaboration.
      Response: The Presbytery of the Blue Ridge respectfully disagrees with this exception as BCO 13-5 speaks clearly of the process of man transferring without call to another Presbytery. Blue Ridge Presbytery voted to examine the TE under BCO 13-5.
      Exception: April 25-26, 2014 (BCO 23-1) – No record of congregational approval of dissolution of pastoral relations.
      Response: The Presbytery of the Blue Ridge agrees with this exception and will seek to be more careful in the way congregational approval is shown in the minutes.
      Exception: September 26-27, 2014 (BCO 21-4.f; RAO 16-3.e.5) – No record of candidate’s differences being judged in accord with RAO 16-3.e.5.
      Response: The Presbytery of the Blue Ridge agrees with this exception. The candidate’s differences were stated on the floor but were not included in the minutes. We will seek to be more careful in the future.

3. That the Minutes of Calvary Presbytery:
   a. Be approved without exception: None.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: January 24, 2015; April 23, 2015; July 25, 2015; October 22, 2015; and Directory.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance:
      Exception: January 24, 2015 (BCO 13; 21-4) – Incomplete record of transfer exam for minister from another denomination (No record of original languages, English Bible, church history).
Exception: January 24, 2015 and October 22, 2015 (BCO 21-4; RAO 16-3.e.5) – Stated differences not judged with the prescribed categories.

d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:

Exception: July 27, 2013 (BCO 19-2.e and f, RAO 16-3.e.5) – Candidate’s differences not recorded as approved by presbytery in proper manner.

2015 Response: We assure The General Assembly the question was asked the candidate about any exceptions of our Constitution. However, it was not recorded in the Presbytery minutes, and for that we apologize, and we seek to be more careful in the future.

2015 Rationale: Presbytery still has not indicated (1) what the candidate’s differences were and (2) which part of RAO 16.3.e.5 it adopted as its judgment on the difference(s).

Response: We did not record the question that was asked the candidate about exceptions with our Constitution. The question was asked, and the candidate had no exceptions with our constitution. We apologize for the confusion, and will seek to be more diligent in the future.

Exception: April 25, 2013 (BCO 32-2, 4; BCO 35-3; BCO 38-1) – TE indefinitely suspended with no record of process.

2015 Response: This was under the Shepherding Committee Report on page 7, and we apologize for not recording this properly, there was a lengthy discussion about the matter (in executive session for 54 minutes) the issue, witnesses who were involved and interviewed, including the TE and his wife before the motion was made, We hope this clears us our lack of information in the motion, and we will seek to be more careful in the future.

2015 Rationale: Presbytery still has not indicated whether the censure of suspension was imposed after conviction at trial or after written confession in a case without process (BCO 38-1).

2016 Response: The Shepherding Committee interviewed a number of witnesses, along with the TE and his wife, (the TE admitted his wrong), and was Indefinitely Suspended without process (BCO 38-10) (BCO 36-5). He was admonished by the Court, and the Court made several suggestions to the TE and his wife (including continuing to go to counseling) This issue is to be brought back to the Presbytery in January 2014. We are sorry for the oversight.

e. That the following response to the 44th GA be found unsatisfactory:
Exception: July 26, 2014 (page 6). In the transfer exam of a Southern Baptist minister, Presbytery examined on theology, sacraments, and BCO. They omitted Greek, Bible content, church history, PCA history, exegetical paper, theology paper, and sermon. It appears Presbytery was following an older version of BCO 13-6. In addition, it appears the Hebrew exam was waived without the requisite 3/4 vote. Or, if Presbytery was intending to waive Greek, Bible, and history, there is no record of a 3/4 vote.

Response: Rev. [name omitted] came to Calvary Presbytery for transferring his membership from The Southern Baptist Denomination to the PCA. He was received under the Extra Ordinary Clause which requires a 3/4 vote. He was approved with more than a ¾ vote (BCO 13-6, 21-4) for his transfer’s exams in Christian Experience, Call to the ministry, Devotional life, Theology, Sacraments, and BCO. He has an M-Div degree from Columbia International University in Columbia, South Carolina. However, he did not have the classes needed in Hebrew to skip his exam in the original language. The recommendation approved by Presbytery, was for him to take 2 classes in Hebrew (which he agreed to do) in lieu of examination in the original language. This required a ¾ vote, which he received. We trust this clears up the issue, and we apologize for not recording this properly.

Note: Rev [name omitted] has completed one Hebrew class, and is currently taking his second class at this time, (during the fall semester of 2015).

Rationale: There is no record of a ¾ vote to waive examination requirement in Bible content, church history, and history of the PCA. Furthermore, the use of the extraordinary clause was not explained for theology, sacraments, and BCO.

4. That the Minutes of Catawba Valley Presbytery: Adopted
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: January 24, 2015; May 26, 2015; September 22, 2015; and General.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: None.
   d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:
      Exception: January 25, 2014; February 18, 2014; May 27, 2014; and September 23, 2014 (BCO 13-7) – No record of ministerial obligation being signed.
Response: Presbytery regrets the omission. We have addressed this oversight with a new form based on the membership vows of (BCO 21-5), and will ensure that both past and future ordinands sign it

Exception: January 25, 2013 (BCO 21-4; RAO 16-3.e.5) – Candidate’s differences not recorded in the proper manner.

2015 Response: CVP regrets that it did not record the Candidate’s difference with the Standards in his own words, although we did have in hand his written explanation of his views, which were approved by Presbytery as not striking at the vitals of true religion. We will be more diligent to record and attach exceptions more in accord with the BCO and RAO.

2015 Rationale: The Presbytery failed to include the candidate’s difference(s) in his own words in their response.

2016 Response to 44th GA: CVP regrets that it did not record the Candidate’s difference with the Standards in his own words, although we did have in hand his written explanation of his views, which were approved by Presbytery as not striking at the vitals of true religion. We will be more diligent to record and attach exceptions more in accord with the BCO and RAO. The candidate’s written views are hereby submitted as follows: [Candidate’s words omitted]

Exception: May 22, 2012 (BCO 21-4, and RAO 16-3.e.5) – Candidate’s difference with the Standards was not recorded in the candidate’s own words.

Response: 2016 Response to 44th GA: CVP regrets that it did not record the Candidate’s difference with the Standards in his own words, although we did have in hand his written explanation of his views, which were approved by Presbytery as not striking at the vitals of true religion. We will be more diligent to record and attach exceptions more in accord with the BCO and RAO. The candidate’s written views are hereby submitted as follows: [Candidate’s words omitted]

Exception: November 27, 2012 (BCO 21-4 and RAO 16-3.e.5) – Candidate’s difference with the Standards was not recorded in the candidate’s own words and Presbytery did not record how it was judged.

Response: CVP regrets that it did not record the transferring TE’s difference with the Standards in his own words. Although our prior response states that we did have a written explanation in hand, our new stated clerk cannot find this document, and we have reason to believe that his exception, regarding the Sabbath ‘recreation’ clause, was only presented orally, and was approved by Presbytery as not striking at the vitals of true religion. Since any original document from that meeting does not appear to exist, our presbytery has asked him to briefly state his difference for the benefit of the Assembly, which he has done as follows: “I would agree with and adopt all portions of the Westminster Standards and the Book of Church Order with the exception of WCF 21:8 (and paralleled in LC 117, 119 & SC 60) regarding recreation on the Sabbath. While work should be avoided on the Sabbath, it is my belief that God does not forbid recreational activities on Sabbath.” Presbytery will be more diligent to record and attach exceptions in accord with the BCO and RAO, and ask the Assembly’s forgiveness for this significant omission.

Exception: September 17, 2011 (BCO 20-1) – Presbytery approved a call to a minister from a church not listed in the directory.

Response: Presbytery regrets the error, which appears to be with the directory, not with the pastor. Harvest Church in Lincolnton is indeed a part of our presbytery, and our directory may not have been accurate, as this was our inaugural meeting and we were still in the process of compiling our data. The pastor in question is now honorably retired and no longer prosecuting this call, which was part-time and non-compensated.

Exception: September 17, 2011 (BCO 18-2) – No record of 6-month church membership for candidate.

Response: Presbytery regrets the omission. The candidate in question had actually grown up in the church of which he was then coming under care, and definitely met the six-month requirement. We will endeavor to be more cautious in recording this detail in the future.

5. That the Minutes of Central Carolina Presbytery: Adopted
   a. Be approved without exception: May 26, 2015; August 22, 2015; and November 17, 2015.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: February 28, 2015; and Directory.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: None.
   d. No response to the 44th GA or previous assemblies is required.

6. That the Minutes of Central Florida Presbytery: Adopted
   a. Be approved without exception: None.
APPENDIX Q

b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery:
   February 4, 2014; April 22, 2014; August 19, 2014; January 27, 2015; April 21, 2015; August 18, 2015; November 3, 2015; and Directory.

c. Be approved with exceptions of substance:
   Exception: February 4, 2014 (BCO 21-4, RAO 16-3.e.5) – Minister/candidate’s differences not recorded in his own words; stated differences not judged with prescribed categories.
   Exception: February 4, 2014 (BCO 13-6, 21-4, 19-2) – Minutes do not record all specific requirements of transfer exam, ordination exam, and licensure exam.
   Exception: February 4, 2014; April 21, 2015; August 18, 2015; and August 19, 2014 (BCO 15-1) – No commission reports are given for installation of TEs.
   Exception: August 19, 2014; August 18, 2015; and November 3, 2015 (BCO 15-1) – Presbytery Minutes records receipt of commission reports; but the minutes of commissions were not entered in Presbytery Minutes for installation of TE [name omitted].
   Exception: August 19, 2014 (BCO 13-11; RAO 16-3.e.6) – Minutes of executive session not included.
   Exception: August 19, 2014 (BCO 19-3) – There is no motion or official presbytery action to license candidate [name omitted]. The final presbytery action is to MSP that his exceptions are in order. However, in Presbytery Minutes for January 27, 2015, p.13, Mr. [name omitted] is referred to as a licensee.
   Exception: November 11, 2014 (RAO 16-4.b) – There are no minutes for Stated Meeting on November 11, 2014. The minutes move from the 152nd meeting to the 154th meeting. In the Stated Meeting on January 27, 2015, reference is made to presbytery actions in the meeting on November 11, 2014, namely the licensing of candidate Mr. [name omitted].
   Exception: February 4, 2014; August 19, 2014; January 27, 2015; April 21, 2015; and August 18, 2015 (BCO 13-11; RAO 16-3.e.6) – No record is given for ministerial obligation forms being signed by TEs.
   Exception: General (BCO 13-9.b) – No record of review of Church Session Records.

d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exceptions be found satisfactory:
   Exception: January 25, 2011 (BCO 13-11 and BCO 40-1) – Minutes of executive session not included.
Response: This was an omission on the part of the clerk. The report is reproduced below [executive session minutes omitted].

Exception: April 5, 2011 (BCO 19-2) – Incomplete record of licensure exam requirements.

Response: Presbytery acknowledges its error and assures the Assembly that all areas of the examination were conducted but not recorded separately. Presbytery is correcting its record to reflect all specific areas of the examination.

Exception: April 5, 2011 and November 15, 2011 (BCO 13-6) – No record of examination of TE transferring into Presbytery.

Response: Presbytery acknowledges its error and assures the Assembly that the TE was examined according to BCO 13-6. Presbytery is correcting its record to reflect the examination.

Response: Presbytery acknowledges its error and assures the Assembly that all areas of the examination were conducted but not recorded separately. Presbytery has corrected its record to reflect all specific areas of the examination.

Exception: January 25, 2011; April 5, 2011; and August 23, 2011 (BCO 21-10) – No commission formed to install TEs.

Response: Presbytery empowered the Moderator to appoint the commissions, which the Moderator did subsequent to the meetings. Presbytery acknowledges its failure to reflect this in the minutes.

Exception: November 15, 2011 (BCO 21-4 and RAO 16-3.e.5) – Presbytery’s judgment of candidate’s stated differences with our Standards not recorded in the proper manner.

Response: The exception should have been specifically in the language of the RAO as judged to be more than semantic, but not out of accord with any fundamental of our system of doctrine. This was the judgment of the presbytery in this matter. We will be careful to use that language as we should.

Exception: April 5, 2011 (BCO 38-2) – Request to be divested of office was acted upon at the same meeting.

Response: The original request for demission was received at the 136th stated meeting (November 16, 2010). The action at the 138th stated meeting was the second. The clerk failed to note that fact in the latter minutes.

Exception: January 24, 2012 (BCO 21-4) – All specific requirements of ordination exam not recorded (see also RAO 16-3.e.5).
Response: Presbytery acknowledges its error and assures the Assembly that all areas of the examination were conducted but not recorded separately. Presbytery is correcting its record to reflect all specific areas of the examination.

Exception: August 21, 2012 (BCO 19-2) – All specific requirements of licensure exam not recorded (also see RAO 16-3.e.5).

Response: Presbytery acknowledges its error and assures the Assembly that all areas of the examination were conducted but not recorded separately. Presbytery is correcting its record to reflect all specific areas of the examination.

Exception: November 13, 2012 (BCO 13-6) – No record of examination of TE transferring into Presbytery.

Response: Presbytery acknowledges its error and assures the Assembly that the TE was examined according to BCO 13-6. Presbytery is correcting its record to reflect the examination.

7. That the Minutes of Central Georgia Presbytery:
   a. Be approved without exception: June 16, 2015; and September 8, 2015.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: January 9-10, 2015.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance:
      Exception: May 12, 2015 (BCO 21-4; RAO 16-3.e.5) – Stated differences not recorded in candidate’s own words.
   d. No response to the 44th GA or previous assemblies is required.

8. That the Minutes of Central Indiana Presbytery:
   a. Be approved without exception: None.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: February 13, 2015; May 8, 2015; September 11, 2015; and November 12, 2015.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: None.
   d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:
      Exception: September 12, 2014 (BCO 13-11) – No record of pastoral call.
      Response: We apologize for the omitted call to ministry and attach the correct document with this response (see attachment below).
      Exception: September 12, 2014 (BCO 19-2) – (Appendix F) Presbytery’s judgment on what appears to have been a licensure candidate’s stated difference with WLC 177 was not recorded in the proper manner (RAO 16-3.e.5)

Response: At the 17th Stated Meeting of the Central Indiana Presbytery, the Presbytery did not act on a candidate’s apparent stated difference with WLC 177 for the following reasons:

(a) An examination for licensure does not include a full examination of a candidate’s understanding of the sacraments (BCO 19-2).

(b) The candidate indicated that he was not yet taking an exception to the standards but simply informing the presbytery that he was currently wrestling with the issue. He wrote, “The Leadership Development Committee advised me to make it known that I am presently in process of deciding on my view of Paedocommunion, and have not made my final decision” (17th Stated Meeting, Attachment F).

(c) The minutes of the 17th Stated Meeting further note that the presbytery charged the licentiate to continue his studies of the Lord’s Supper and to report his views to the Presbytery as they are solidified.

(d) The candidate was preparing for ordination, at which time he would be thoroughly examined on his views of the sacraments.

Furthermore, to note that the candidate did report back to Presbytery and that he was indeed examined in his view of the sacraments: the candidate was ordained at the 22nd Stated Meeting of the Central Indiana Presbytery, November 12, 2015. At that meeting, he was examined thoroughly on his views of the sacraments, and the candidate stated that he has come to embrace the position of the standards and does not hold to paedocommunion.

Accordingly, we humbly beseech the Review of Presbytery Records to find the minutes of our 17th Stated Meeting, September 12, 2014, in order. [Attachment omitted.]

9. That the Minutes of Chesapeake Presbytery:
   - Be approved without exception: March 10, 2015; September 8, 2015; and November 11, 2015.
   - Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: None.
   - Be approved with exceptions of substance:
Exception: January 13, 2015 and May 12, 2015 (BCO 21-4; RAO 16-3.e.5) – Stated differences not judged with the prescribed categories.

d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:

Exception: General (BCO 18-6) – No record of annual reports from men under care.

Response: Chesapeake Presbytery (CP) appreciates RPR’s reminder of (BCO 18-6) requiring presbyteries to provide an annual report of men under their care. Even though the men under its care have been and will continue to be mentored, developed, and encouraged in ministerial growth, CP recognizes its error in not having formally reported on them in its minutes. CP appreciates this finding by RPR and has already taken action to correct this error during 2015 and moving forward. Thank you for your careful work.

Exception: November 11, 2014 (BCO 23-1) – No record of congregational meeting and vote to dissolve calls of TEs.

Response: Chesapeake Presbytery (CP) appreciates RPR’s reminder of (BCO 23-1) and (BCO 22-14) requirement to demonstrate congregational action for the dissolution of an associate pastor’s call to a church. The absence of a copy of the minutes of the respective congregational meetings to vote and dissolve the calls of the two TEs at hand was an oversight on the part of CP’s Stated Clerk who thanks RPR for catching the error. The attached minutes are attached to this response in order to validate the approval of the dissolutions on CP’s part in order to validate the approval of the dissolutions on CP’s part.

(See Attachment of Minutes) [Minutes omitted]

Exception: May 15, 2012 (BCO 7-2, 9-3) – A session was improperly granted four years to come into compliance with BCO 7-2 and 9-3.

Previous Response found Unsatisfactory: CP recognizes and endorses proper doctrine and polity (i.e., that only men are to serve as ordained deacons), fully concurs with the RPR finding, and seeks RPR acceptance of the CP’s ongoing process in transitioning Loch Raven Presbyterian Church to a male- only deaconate over the next two and a half years. CP and LRPC have together been dealing with the issue for over 27 years, enduring bitterness and tears and frustration while seeking to be sensitive to the deeply-held convictions stemming from a commitment apparently made to the congregation in 1986 at the time of the original joining and receiving from an independent status into the PCA to allow women to continue to serve as deaconesses (LRPC had originally been affiliated with the United Presbyterian Church denomination, cf., http://www.lochravenpca.org/about/our-history/). LRPC’s plan to transition to a men-only deaconate came soon after the church received a new pastor in January of 2012 - representing a major breakthrough on this issue. As evidence of LRPC’s alignment with BCO 7-2 and 9-3, we are attaching the LRPC minutes from its May 14, 2012 meeting here: (the relevant action is recorded at the bottom of pg. 2)

(Adobe document) “In order for any individual to be elected to an office, he or she must receive a simple majority of all those voting. Only male communicant members in good standing are eligible for election to the office of Ruling Elder. Both men and women communicant members in good standing are eligible for election to the office of Deacon.”

CP will continue to monitor the situation and make sure the transition takes place as planned. CP thanks RPR for its continued oversight of this issue and asks that RPR find this answer sufficient at this time.

2013 Rationale: General Assembly recognizes the forbearance shown by the presbytery and appreciates its desire to shepherd this congregation. However, presbytery’s response is unsatisfactory because the church is not in full compliance with the BCO.

2014 Response: In response to RPR’s finding the CP answer to the 41st GA to be unsatisfactory, at the 52nd stated meeting of CP held on September 9, 2014, the CP Shepherding Committee was tasked to coordinate with the CP Stated Clerk and meet with the Session of LRPC in order to work toward a solution in this matter. The CP Shepherding Committee met with the LRPC Session and reported to the 53rd Stated meeting of CP held on November 11, 2014, that LRPC’s progress toward a resolution be found acceptable for the current moment, and the good faith effort on the part of the LRPC Session be found commendable and that presbyters be urged to join with the LRPC Session to pray for a unified adoption of a revised set of By-Laws at the LRPC Stated Congregational Meeting on January 22, 2015. The LRPC congregation overwhelmingly approved the changes to the relevant portions of their Bylaws as follows: (new approved language highlighted in the red text, old language in strikethrough)

Section 2 – Nominees
In order for any individual to be elected to an office, he or she must receive a simple majority of all those voting. Only male communicant members in good standing are eligible for election to the office of Ruling Elder. Both men and women communicant members in good standing are eligible for election to the office of Deacon.

“In order for any individual to be elected to a Board, he or she must receive a simple majority of all those voting. Only male communicant members in good standing are eligible for election and ordination to the office of Ruling Elder. Male communicant members in good standing are eligible for election and ordination to the Board of Deacons.”

Rationale [of Presbytery]: The LRPC Bylaws change makes clear that the concept of a deaconess is outside the context of ordination and is placed in a proper context of providing assistance to an all-male Board of ordained deacons. As such, it fully conforms to the BCO. This change also aligns itself with previously approved historic Presbyterian polity on this matter (for example, the Digest of the Principal Acts and Deliverances of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America from 1859 to 1902 – §XXXIII.4 – Deaconesses states: “That while the General Assembly does not find in Scripture sufficient authority for the ordination of women to the office of deacon, it is convinced that pious women may, with profit to themselves, and with great advantage to the cause of suffering humanity and of Christ, be organized to act as assistants of the deacons; it being understood, however, that those so devoting themselves and banded together, shall not be formed into sisterhoods living apart from ordinary society, after the manner of certain Popish devotees, or even of some associations found in certain denominations of the Protestant Church. Vol. IV, p. 567, 1878”)

Rationale: The original exception cited for May 15, 2012 was that the presbytery improperly granted a session four years to come into compliance with BCO 7-2 and 9-3. The relevant section from those minutes are:

(5/15/12, p. 387, Section 12.c) "MA to find the 14 May 2012 e-mail message presented to Loch Raven Pastor [name omitted] to be satisfactory and commendable response to the CSR request. The relevant text of the em ail is printed here: "The Session of Loch Raven Presbyterian Church (will) transition to a Board of Deacons, which will consist of only ordained men. Such transition will occur within four years.) (Appendix E)"
In their updated response, Chesapeake Presbytery notes that LRPC voted to approve changes in their bylaws such that male communicant members in good standing are eligible for election and ordination to the Board of Deacons. This update, however, neither reflects the full changes made to the LRPC Bylaws, nor addresses the original exception.

The new bylaws do reflect that males are eligible for election and ordination, yet they also include that women are eligible for election and commissioning. Immediately following the above quoted Bylaw change, the newly approved Bylaws continue:
"Female communicant members in good standing are eligible for election and commissioning to the Board of Deacons."

This practice is contrary to BCO 9-7, which states, "It is often expedient that the Session of a church should select and appoint godly men and women of the congregation to assist the deacons...”
First, according the LRPC Bylaws, it is the congregation, not the Session, who elects these Deaconesses. Second, there seems to be no mechanism whereby godly men may be so selected to assist the Deacons.

While these Bylaw changes do distinguish between ordained Deacons and commissioned, and therefore non-ordained, Deaconesses, they do not address the original exception from 2012 that both men and women are serving on a "Board of Deacons".
Such a change does not address the statement from LRPC that there will be a transition to a Board that will consist of only ordained men.
Rather, the LRPC Bylaws explicitly state that both ordained Deacons and commissioned Deaconesses will comprise the "Board of Deacons". As such, it is not explicit in the LRPC Bylaws whether these non-ordained, commissioned, Deaconesses will vote on issues before the Board. With nothing in the Bylaws to distinguish these Deaconesses from ordained Deacons beyond being simply commissioned, it seems that voting rights are assumed.

Finally, while the election of men and women to assist the deacons is provided for in BCO 9-7, and while the commissioning of such assistants is not prohibited by BCO 9-7 so long as they are not ordained, the situation outlined in LRPC's Bylaws does not reflect the spirit of the constitutional provisions. Rather than serving as assistants to help the Board, they are members of the Board with, ostensibly, voting privileges. The issue at stake is not the title given to these Deaconesses, but the function they perform. As such, they are not covered under the provision of BCO 9-7, even though they are only commissioned.

Response: In response to RPR’s finding the first and second CP answer to the 41st GA to be unsatisfactory, the CP Shepherding Committee and the CP Stated Clerk continued to work with the Session of LRPC to find acceptable language for the LRPC Bylaws. The newly revised set of Bylaws were approved at the LRPC Stated Congregational Meeting on February 5, 2016 and the relevant sections are listed as follows:

ARTICLE IV – THE BOARD OF DEACONS

Section 1 – Deacons

The Board of Deacons shall consist not more than twelve (12) communicant members of this church elected according to Article 1, Section 4, of these By-Laws. The Board of Deacons will be comprised of ordained men (Deacons). The Board will also be supported by assistants (both men and women).

Section 2 – Officers

The officers of the Board of Deacons shall be the Moderator, a Secretary and a Treasurer. These officers are to be elected annually by the Board of Deacons at its first meeting following the Annual Installation of Church Officers. In the absence of the Moderator, the Secretary will moderate.

Section 3 – Duties

The duties and rights of the Board of Deacons shall be those delegated to it by the Session of this church in conformity with these By-Laws. Unless otherwise ordered by the Session, their duties shall include:

1. Caring for and ministering to the sick and needy of the congregation,
2. Keeping the records of their proceedings,
3. Supervision over such monies as directed to their care, such as monies for ministering to the needy and for scholarships for students preparing for church-related service.

4. Supervision over the ushering services of the church and assistance in counting the offerings

Section 4 – Organization

The Deacons shall maintain at all times an organization document which outlines the deacons’ responsibilities and the manner in which these responsibilities are to be carried out. This document requires the Session’s approval.

ARTICLE VI – THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Section 1- Nominating Committee

The committee shall consist of two (2) members of the Session elected by the Session, one of whom shall be designated the chairman of the committee; a member of the Board of Deacons, elected by that Board; a member of the Board of Trustees, elected by that Board; five (5) members-at-large not members of the Session, Board of Deacons, or Trustees, elected by the congregation at the Annual Congregational Meeting; and the Senior Pastor shall be ex-officio a member of this committee without vote.

Section 2 – Nominees

The Committee shall bring the names of all individuals whom they propose for an office to the Session for their response.

The names of nominees for all Boards must be presented to the Session as early as possible, but no later than November 15. The Session will then examine all nominees prior to the January Session meeting. After this meeting, the names of the nominees, if found acceptable, will be released to the congregation.

Nominations from the congregation will be accepted by the Session up to within two weeks of the Annual Meeting. The Session will then meet with the nominees prior to the Congregational Meeting and, if found acceptable, the names will then be permitted to be placed in nomination at the meeting.

Church officers must receive a simple majority of all those voting. Only male communicant members in good standing are eligible for election and ordination to the office of Ruling Elder or Deacon. Both male and female communicant members in good standing are eligible to become Assistants to the Deacons.

Both male and female communicant members in good standing are eligible for election and commissioning to the Board of Trustees. In addition to the above requirements, Trustees must be at least twenty-one (21) years of age.

Section 3 – Term of Service

The Nominating Committee shall be chosen annually and shall serve until the following Annual Congregational Meeting.

CP believes the above newly revised set of Bylaws fully brings LRPC into conformity with BCO 7-2 and 9-3. Moreover, CP recognizes RPR’s concern with the extraordinary time allocated for this transition and will seek to act with greater expediency should such circumstances arise in the future. Thank you for your careful work and support in this matter.

10. That the Minutes of Chicago Metro Presbytery:
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: July 15, 2015; October 21, 2015; and Directory.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: None.
   d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:

   Exception: January 15, 2014 (BCO 13-6) – No record of TEs being examined on their views in theology, sacraments, or church government.

   Response: We agree that our records did not indicate the TEs transferred into our presbytery at this meeting were examined in the required areas. This was an error in recording and not in action, as the TEs in question were examined in committee and on the floor of presbytery on their views in the areas required by 13-6. We apologize for our oversight in recording, have corrected our minutes to show their examinations, and will be diligent in the future to avoid this error.

Exception: January 15, 2014 (BCO 13-11) – Action on motions not recorded.

Response: We agree that we failed to note action on three motions in our missions report. Our minutes have been corrected to show that these motions were adopted. We will be diligent in the future to make sure that all motions that are adopted are properly recorded.

Exception: April 9, 2014 (BCO 13-11) – Action on motions not recorded.

Response: We agree that we failed to note action on a motion in our missions report. Our minutes have been corrected to show that this motion was adopted. We will be diligent in the future to make sure that all motions that are adopted are properly recorded.

11. That the Minutes of Covenant Presbytery:

   a. Be approved without exception: February 3, 2015 and October 6, 2015.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: May 18, 2015 and General.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: None.
   d. No response to the 44th GA or previous assemblies is required.

12. That the Minutes of Eastern Canada Presbytery:

   a. Be approved without exception: March 6, 2015 and October 23, 2015.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: Directory.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: None.
   d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:

      Response: We presume this refers to the only candidate for ordination, [name omitted]. Presbytery did not waive the internship requirement for [name omitted], but (Minutes page 697) agreed that his internship requirements were satisfied. “MSC that the candidate be considered to have sufficiently completed the requirements for internship on the basis of reports from the pastors of Grace Toronto Church.”
Exception: February 28, 2014 (BCO 13-6, BCO 21-4, BCO 19-16) – No record of exam or waiving internship for minister transferring from another denomination.

Response: We guess that this refers to [name omitted], who had been fully examined at the previous meeting (pp.680-682). He had not been received because, in line with the practice of his former denomination, we did not get a copy of his credentials until his exam was approved. Note in our Minutes p. 693, an amendment to the terms of the previously appointed commission, “MSC that the terms of the commission re: [name omitted] (minutes p. 683) be modified to read ‘to install him as an assistant pastor at Grace Toronto Church.’” BCO 19-7 affirms that ‘To provide for such a period of trial, a candidate for ordination must serve an internship.’ [name omitted] was not a candidate for ordination, so internship is irrelevant.

Exception: February 28, 2014 (BCO 21-4.g) – No record of appointment of commission to ordain.

Response: A commission to ordain [name omitted] was appointed (Minutes, p. 698), ‘MSC that a commission consisting of our Ontario elders, convener TE [name omitted], quorum 2 ruling and 2 teaching elders, be appointed to ordain and install [name omitted].’ Since he was the only candidate for ordination, the exception is evidently incorrect.

13. That the Minutes of Eastern Carolina Presbytery: Adopted
   a. Be approved without exception: April 18, 2015; June 24, 2015; and December 12, 2015.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: January 24, 2015 and October 17, 2015.
   c. Be approved with exception of substance: None.
   d. No response to the 44th GA or previous assemblies is required.

14. That the Minutes of Eastern Pennsylvania Presbytery: Adopted
   a. Be approved without exception: February 21, 2015; April 21, 2015; September 12, 2015; and November 17, 2015.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: Directory.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: None.
   d. That the following response to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:
Exception: November 8, 2014 (BCO 20-1) Ordination of TE: no record of call to a definite work.

Response: The only ordination reported in those minutes was recorded in item 14-11-05, paragraph 4. The call is recorded in sub-paragraph b as follows: [Call omitted].

Licentiate [name omitted] indicated his willingness to accept the call. A duly signed copy of the call was filed with the stated clerk’s office. The Presbytery found the specific arrangements (BCO 20-1) and the call to be in order in light of his current needs. The Presbytery understands this to be a call to a definite work.

15. That the Minutes of Evangel Presbytery:

a. Be approved without exception: February 10, 2015; May 12, 2105; August 11, 2015; and November 10, 2015.

b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: None.

c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: None.

d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:

Exception: February 11, 2014 (BCO 21-4) – No record of completed internship, language requirements, or theological and exegetical papers.

Response: Evangel Presbytery agrees with this exception. Although the Presbytery approved every recommendation of the Credentials (examining) Committee at that meeting of Presbytery, those actions were left out of our Minutes. The Internship of the man in question was approved in August of 2013 and he was licensed in May of the same year. His Exegetical and Theological Papers were approved at the February meeting as noted in the Committee Report in the Indices, but not noted in the Minutes themselves. We appreciate your attention to this oversight and will work to insure it does not recur.

Exception: November 18, 2014 (BCO 21-4) – No record of reasons for using extraordinary clause.

Response: Evangel Presbytery agrees with this exception. The man in question began service with MTW as a Bible translator in 1978 and came to us requesting to be ordained at the age of 59. After years of study with Wycliffe and the Navigators, Presbytery took this as proof of God’s calling on him to be ordained in his ministry with MTW to the Quicha-speaking peoples of Ecuador. This information was included in the Report and recommendations of the Credentials (examining) Committee. However, in spite of being approved by Presbytery, it failed to make it into the Minutes. The process of his ordination took several meetings and he was on the field in Ecuador for some of that time. Hence there was some confusion. We desire to be more diligent in the future about such unusual occurrences. Thank you for bringing this oversight to our attention.

Exception: November 18, 2014 (BCO 21-4) – No record of language requirements met for ordinands.

Response: Evangel Presbytery agrees with this exception. Each one of these men had undergone training in Greek and Hebrew in seminary and the Credentials (examining) Committee recommended the approval of that in lieu of BCO requirements. Presbytery agreed, and although this appeared in the Committee’s Report, it failed to appear in the Minutes. We regret this oversight and will seek to be more careful in the future to note all the elements of the examination process. Thank you for your diligence in bringing our attention to this matter.

16. That the Minutes of Fellowship Presbytery:

   a. Be approved without exception: January 24, 2015; April 25, 2015; and September 24, 2015.

   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: General.

   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: None.

   d. No response to the 44th GA or previous assemblies is required.

17. That the Minutes of Georgia Foothills Presbytery:

   a. Be approved without exception: None.

   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: January 10, 2015; April 21, 2015; September 15, 2015; Directory and General.

   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance:

      Exception: January 10, 2015 (BCO 23-1) – Associate pastor’s relationship with church dissolved without any apparent congregational vote.

      Exception: September 15, 2015 (BCO 43-2) – Presbytery failed to consider the complaint in a timely fashion.

      Exception: September 15, 2015 (BCO 13-11; RAO 16-3.e.7) – Complaint not recorded in minutes.

      d. That the following response to the 44th GA exception be found unsatisfactory:
Exception: April 15, 2014 (BCO 21-4.a) – No record of college degree for ordinand or ¾ approval of extraordinary circumstance.
Response: Presbytery acknowledges the mistake and will correct our practice in the future.
Rationale: Presbytery needs to correct the record.

18. That the Minutes of Grace Presbytery: Adopted
   a. Be approved without exception: None.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: January 13, 2015; September 8, 2015; and General.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance:
      Exception: May 12, 2015 (BCO 13-11; RAO 16-3.e.6-7) – “Charges” submitted to Presbytery not recorded in minutes. Presbytery failed to “keep a full and accurate record.” RAO 16-3.e.6-7 makes provision to protect confidentiality in such circumstances.
      d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:
         Exception: January 14, 2014 (BCO 21-4, RAO 16.3.e.5) – Stated difference on Sabbath not recorded in his own words.
         Response: As to the first Exception, we humbly admit our error and promise to do better in the future. The error is not a matter of disobedience but due in part to the fact that the need to examine the TE at that meeting did not appear in our “White Book” (agenda). After the Examining Committee Chairman read the “Stated Difference” to the Presbytery the document was not given to the Recording Clerk. For the record here is the “Stated Difference” as prepared by the TE and read by the Chairman: [Candidate’s words omitted].
         Exception: January 14, 2014 (BCO 18-2, 3) – No record of endorsement by candidate’s session, no record of six months membership for candidate.
         Response: Regarding the second Exception we humbly disagree with the Assembly’s action. The candidate in question was transferring his candidacy from Mississippi Valley Presbytery (see BCO 18-7). As he was transferred to us as a candidate from Mississippi Valley Presbytery we assume their action to take him under care fulfilled (BCO 18-2, 3 (see also pp. 29 and 30 of the January 14, 2014 Minutes for said transfer from Mississippi Valley Presbytery).
         Exception: September 9, 2014 (BCO 13-7) – Ministerial obligation not shown to be signed.
Response: Regarding the third Exception we must humbly disagree with the Assembly’s action. First, we assume that the Assembly has not taken exception to our action to examine a TE in good standing in another Presbytery for licensure (see Minutes pp. 83-84). Since he remains on the TE roll of Mississippi Valley Presbytery, we do not believe we are required to have him sign our Book of the Covenant containing the Ministerial Obligation.

If, however, the Assembly believes Grace erred by not having Mr. [name omitted] sign the Book of the Covenant which contains the Ministerial Obligation after we had approved his examination for ordination, we believe he was not a Teaching Elder until the service of Ordination and Installation held on October 12, 2014. Thus he signed the Book of the Covenant at our January 13, 2015 Stated Meeting along with the Teaching Elders in attendance that day.

It would be helpful to all the Presbyteries if the Committee on Review of Presbytery Records would indicate the page number of the Minutes where the Exceptions are alleged to have been committed (RAO 16-3.b requires the Minutes to be numbered).

      Response: There was indeed a recording error made in this area. The court judged the stated difference(s) to be more than semantic, but ‘not out of accord with any fundamental of our system of doctrine’ (BCO 21-4). The minutes have been amended to reflect this vote.

churches failed to do that. After this mistake, Presbytery records the review of sessional records and will continue to do that.

Exception: October 21, 2013 (BCO 21-4) – All requirements for ordination exam not recorded.

Response: Exam subjects were recorded on page 12 of the minute along with the detailed test procedures from page 12 to 14 on that minute.

Exception: October 21, 2013 (BCO 21-4) – No record of requiring stated differences.

Exception: October 21, 2013 (BCO 21-5) – Ordinand listed as a TE prior to ordination.

Response: Presbytery approves as a TE just after his ordination event is done even though the ordination worship service is not completed. Therefore, the “new TE” can be listed as a TE from that time on because he has been declared as a TE.

Exception: October 21, 2013 (BCO 13-7) – Ministerial obligation form not signed.

Response: The Presbytery feels very sorry for missing the signing of the ministerial obligation form for the new TE. Actually, the new TE was assigned as Associate Pastor of Open Door Presbyterian Church. Presbytery will correct this error.

Response: At its September 14-15, 2015 meeting, the Presbytery ratified the actions taken at the September 16, 2014; December 16, 2014 meetings that were held without a quorum (RONR (11th ed.) p. 124 lines 21-23).

   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance:
May 12, 2015 and September 15, 2105 (BCO 21-4) – Stated differences not recorded in candidate’s own words.

September 15, 2015 (BCO 46-8) – TE divested without censure was not assigned membership in a particular church.

d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:

Exception: March 18, 2014; September 16, 2014 and November 4, 2014 (BCO 15-1) – Minutes of commission not entered in Presbytery minutes (see also RAO 16-3.e.4).
Response: Presbytery agrees with the exceptions and corrects its record. We will add the commission reports that were noted on March 18, 2014, September 16, 2014, and November 11, 2014 as appendices to the minutes, and promise to be more careful in the future.

Exception: September 16, 2014 (BCO 13-7) – Ministerial obligation not shown to be signed.
Response: Presbytery respectfully disagrees with the exception. Our minutes do reflect that each minister signed the ministerial obligation form.

Exception: September 16, 2014 (BCO 23-1) – Dissolution of pastoral relation not properly recorded by presbytery.
Response: Presbytery agrees with the exception and in the future will properly record the action by noting the session and congregation approval of the dissolution in the minutes.

d. That the following response to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:

Exception: January 21, 2014 (BCO 19-6) – Licentiate removed from rolls without reason being recorded.
Response: Presbytery agrees with the exception. The Clerk erred in not recording the reason for the removal for the licentiate. The Clerk will make an adjustment to the January 21, 2014 minutes reflecting that “Presbytery removed Licentiate [name omitted], due to his decision to no longer pursue ordination in the PCA” and will endeavor to be more careful when recording such information in future minutes.

      Response: The Clerk failed to include the addendum to the minutes of November 15, 2014 in the materials sent to the RPR Committee. The addendum is included in the official record of minutes and is attached hereto for the RPR Committee.
      Exception: November 15, 2014 (BCO 13-7) – Ministerial obligation not shown to be signed.
      Response: The newly elected Stated Clerk was unaware that the notation was required in the minutes. The forms were signed by TE [name omitted] (September 20, 2014) and by TE [name omitted] (November 15, 2014). The record of those actions now appears in the minutes of March 21, 2015. The record for TE [name omitted] is recorded in the minutes of September 19, 2015, the date on which he signed the form.

43. That the Minutes of New River Presbytery: Adopted
   a. Be approved without exception: None.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: None.

      Exception: February 6-7, 2015 (BCO 13-11) – Executive Session minutes not included.
   d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:
Exception: May 2-3, 2014 (BCO 13-11) – Complaint sent to Presbytery not recorded in minutes.
Response: The RPR is correct there is no copy of the three Complaints concerning the change in call of TE [name omitted] by TE [name omitted], TE [name omitted], Chairman of MNA, and RE [name omitted], Clerk of Session of Ft. Worth PCA. The Complaints were to correct a misunderstanding concerning TE [name omitted]’s call as church planter and on the staff of Ft. Worth PCA. It was not thought necessary to include the Complaints since the Administrative Committee acting as a Judicial Commission answered the Complaints and remedied the situation. However, the RPR is correct and copies of the Complaint should have been attached to the Minutes as is our usual practice. In the future we will be sure that all complaints are attached or recorded in the body of the Minutes.

Exception: November 7-8, 2014 (BCO 13-7) – Ministerial obligation not shown to be signed.
Response: [Name omitted] and [name omitted] were both examined for ordination and passed their examinations. The Minutes do not give a record of their signing the Ministerial obligation but the record book of Ministerial Obligations does show their signature. This was simply an oversight to record their signatures. We apologize and will be more careful in the future to assure that the minutes reflect this action.

Exception: November 7-8, 2014 (BCO 21-4) – All specific requirements of ordination examination not recorded.
Response: It appears what happened is that these men had been previously licensed and were reexamined only in the areas the committee thought necessary or were weak during their previous exam. This was not made clear in the minutes. The minutes do state they were examined in Bible content, etc. but the minutes do not reflect their seminary degree with the original languages and other items stated in BCO 21-4. We do usually include all items and will be more careful to state all items required in examination or state in accordance with BCO 21-4b. that they were previously examined in certain areas and do not need to be reexamined.

47. That the Minutes of Northern California Presbytery: Adopted
   a. Be approved without exception: None.

Exception: July 20, 2015 (BCO 13-4, 12) – Quorum not present for Presbytery meeting.

d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:
Exception: February 7, 2014 (BCO 15-1) – Commissions to ordain and install not appointed for either candidate to be ordained or TE transferring in to accept call.
Response: Presbytery agrees with this exception. Presbytery erred in not recording the appointment of the commissions in the minutes. Presbytery promises to be more careful in the future.

Exception: February 22, 2013 (BCO 21-4; RAO 16-3.e.5) – Stated differences with standards not recorded in proper manner.
Response to 43rd GA: Presbytery agrees with this exception and promises to be more careful in the future.
Rationale of the 43rd GA: Stated difference and presbytery’s judgment thereof should be included in response to General Assembly.
Response: Presbytery agrees with this exception. Presbytery’s judgment on the recorded stated difference was not clearly indicated. Presbytery has included the stated difference and its judgment represented in the original minutes by “MSP” in bold font. Presbytery promises to be more careful in the future to record judgments rendered on recorded differences in a proper manner. [Attachment omitted.]

Exception: February 22, 2013 (BCO 13-6) – Minister transferring from another denomination not asked to state differences with the standards.
Response to 43rd GA: Presbytery agrees with this exception and regrets its oversight. Presbytery did require the transferring candidate’s stated differences with the standards, but did not record such. Presbytery promises to be more careful in the future.
Rationale of the 43rd GA: Stated difference and presbytery’s judgment thereof should be included in response to General Assembly.
Response: Presbytery agrees with this exception. The Minister being examined did not take any exceptions to the standards, but presbytery failed to clearly indicate this in the minutes. Presbytery promises to be more careful in the future to record if a candidate or minister takes no exceptions. In the candidate’s theological statement submitted to the Candidates and Credentials committee he stated: “I have not found any exceptions to raise with regard to the Westminster Standards or the PCA Book of Church Order.”

Exception: February 22, 2013 (BCO 13-6) – Minister transferring from another denomination only examined on views.

Response to 43rd GA: Presbytery agrees with this exception and regrets its oversight. The transferring candidate was asked and examined in all areas required in (BCO 21-4) Presbytery promises to be more careful in the future.

Rationale of the 43rd GA: Presbytery not clear on resolution. Was this a recording error, or did they go back and re-examine the minister? And if the latter, there ought to be minutes of this re-examination.

Response: Presbytery agrees with this exception. Presbytery failed to make clear that this was a recording error. Minister transferring from another denomination was given a full exam at the February 22, 2013 stated meeting.

e. That the following response to the 44th GA be found unsatisfactory:

Exception: May 2, 2014 and October 3, 2014 (BCO 15-1) – Minutes of commission not entered in presbytery minutes.

Response: Presbytery agrees with this exception. Presbytery erred in not recording the commission’s minutes. Presbytery promises to be more careful in the future.

Rationale: Presbytery needs to include in their minutes and provide the commission minutes to the General Assembly for review.

      Exception: January 24-25, 2014 (BCO 13-7) – Ministerial obligation not shown to be signed.
Response: Pacific Presbytery agrees with the exception and has corrected its record. The ministerial obligation form was signed but the fact was not recorded in the minutes. The January 24-25, 2014 minutes have been amended and are attached. We will endeavor to make a complete record of all requirements in the future.

54. That the Minutes of Pacific Northwest Presbytery:
   a. Be approved without exception: January 22, 2015; May 19, 2015; and September 24-25, 2015.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: Directory.

55. That the Minutes of Palmetto Presbytery:
   a. Be approved without exception: None.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: January 24, 2015; April 13, 2015, July 25, 2015; October 22, 2015; and Directory.

   a. Be approved without exception: October 26, 2015; November 12, 2015; and November 30, 2015.

   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance:
      Exception: January 17, 2015; May 16, 2015; and September 19, 2015 (RAO 16-3.e.5, BCO 21-4) – Stated differences not judged with the prescribed categories.
      Exception: September 19, 2015 (BCO 13-11) – Presbytery included two sets of minutes for September 19, 2015 that included conflicting information. They failed to maintain a “full and accurate record.”
d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:

Exception: February 27, 2014 – Presbytery ordained a man who is unsure that the New Testament “itself teaches a universal prohibition of women eldership.”

Response: Just as Presbytery had originally sought guidance on this matter from a denominational level at the time of the candidate's examination, the Philadelphia Presbytery agrees with the exception and submits to the guidance now received from General Assembly and in the future will not approve of a candidate who expresses doubts about the universal prohibition on women elders. The candidate (now TE) who expressed this view has since transferred to another denomination.” m/s/a by majority vote

Exception: September 21, 2013 (BCO 19-2.d) – Candidates submitted written copies of sermons to committee but there is no record of the candidates preaching the sermons to presbytery or a committee thereof.

Response: The Philadelphia Presbytery has begun to make sermons available (1) by invitation to the candidate’s host church, or (2) electronically online, or (3) at the recommendation of a committee. The candidate’s sermons were made available to the Presbytery, but this was not noted in the minutes (but will be noted in the future). Rationale: This does not comply with BCO 19-2.d, which requires a candidate for licensure to “present orally his sermon or exhortation before presbytery or before a committee of presbytery.”

The CT brought a recommendation in response to this exception: "Philadelphia Presbytery receives the correction and will in future make sure that a candidate preaches in person before either Presbytery as a whole or a committee of Presbytery." m/s/a by unanimous vote.

57. That the Minutes of Philadelphia Metro West Presbytery: Adopted

a. Be approved without exception: January 17, 2015; April 6, 2015; and September 19, 2015.

Exception: November 17, 2015 (BCO 13-9.b) – No review of session minutes.
d. That the following response to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:

Exception: May 17, 2014, (RAO 16-3.e.5) – Stated differences not judged by the presbytery using prescribed categories.

Response: Philadelphia Metro West Presbytery has amended its minutes of May 17, 2014 to address the exception by adopting the following motion at the Presbytery's meeting of September 19, 2015:

MSC: That the Philadelphia Metro West Presbytery's minutes of May 17, 2014 be amended as follows:

1. The portion of the minutes which currently states:
   iv. that PMWP approve Mr. [name omitted]’s exception to the Westminster Larger Catechism."be amended to read:
   “iv. that PMWP approve Mr. [name omitted]’s exceptions to the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, judging the stated difference(s) to be more than semantic, but “not out of accord with any fundamental of our system of doctrine” (BCO 21-4)

2. The portion of the minutes which currently states:
   "iv. that PMWP approve Mr. [name omitted]’s exception to the Westminster Larger Catechism be amended to read:
   "iv. that PMWP approve Mr. [name omitted]’s exceptions to the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, judging the stated difference(s) to be more than semantic, but “not out of accord with any fundamental of our system of doctrine” (BCO 21-4)."

Minority Report on Philadelphia Metro West Presbytery

Motion: that an exception of substance be added to the report of this Presbytery. The exception of substance shall read: “Presbytery granted as an exception a view that seems to strike at the system of doctrine of the Westminster Standards.”

The candidate's own words are quoted in full (from the November 2015 meeting of PMWP):
My exception, stated briefly, is as follows: I can in good conscience affirm that the Bible teaches that a due proportion of time on one day out of seven be set apart for the worship of God. I believe the Lord's Day is analogous to and in many ways the fulfillment of the Old Testament Sabbath. I believe that Sunday is perpetually the Lord's Day because it commemorates the resurrection of Jesus. Our Sunday worship follows the example of the New Testament church and stands with almost all of the global and historic church. However, I am not comfortable with how closely the Confession seems to tie the specific day of worship and rest with the essence and acceptability of our worship and rest. As a result, I believe that it is possible that certain circumstances may arise in which a church could consider gathering for weekly corporate worship and resting on a day other than Sunday.

This is not a “hot-button” issue for me. I have no ideas or desires regarding moving (church name omitted) services from Sunday to another day, or even of adding services on other days of the week (such as Saturday night, for example) that could be seen as “substituting for” the Sunday service. I also have no desire to stir up controversy or ignite debate on this issue. As a matter of deference to the Confession and to the Presbytery, I am happy to refrain from teaching my position on this. I am merely trying to guard my own conscience and keep myself from binding the consciences of others on this issue as I continue to develop and solidify my position on this matter.

Several points of interest are important here. 1. The candidate is certainly not wanting to stir up trouble or strife. 2. The candidate is showing proper deference to the Confession, and to the Presbytery. 3. The candidate is not going to change his church's worship service. 4. The candidate is willing not to teach this view. Although these caveats are important, they do not erase the problematic nature of the difference that the candidate expressed.

Only God may change the day of the Sabbath. From the creation of the world until Christ's resurrection, the Sabbath was on the last day of the week. From the resurrection of Christ until the Second Coming, the Sabbath is on the first day of the week (WCF 21.7, WSC 59, WLC 116). Israel had no authority to change anything about the Sabbath, or any of the festivals, either. God told them when, how, and why in each case. Therefore, if a church decided to change its weekly day of worship, it would not longer be the Sabbath at all. It could still be worship, but it would not be the Sabbath. This, then, would be a repudiation of the Fourth Commandment to remember the Sabbath by keeping it holy. We would not be remembering the Sabbath anymore. The candidate believes that it is acceptable to decouple worship and rest from the Sabbath Day, when the Fourth Commandment plainly teaches otherwise.

Our culture is witnessing the continuing erosion of morality. The philosopher Voltaire connected the destruction of Christianity with the destruction of the Sabbath Day. Allowing differences on recreation is one thing. Allowing a Teaching Elder to hold a position that could result in a denial of the Sabbath altogether is something quite different.

The committee vote on whether to include this exception of substance was 8-42.

58. That the Minutes of Piedmont Triad Presbytery: Adopted
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: General
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance:
      Exception: July 25, 2015 (BCO 15-1, RAO 16-3.e.4) – No report from the commission for [name omitted] installation.
      Exception: September 23, 2015 (BCO 13-11) – Executive session minutes are not included.
   d. No response to the 44th GA or previous assemblies is required.
59. That the Minutes of Pittsburgh Presbytery:
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: April 25, 2015.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: None.
   d. No response to the 44th GA or previous assemblies is required.

60. That the Minutes of Platte Valley Presbytery:
   a. Be approved without exception: None.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: None.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: None.
   d. That the following response to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:
      Exception: October 26, 2013 (BCO 21-4) – No record of requiring statement of differences.
      Response: “There were two candidates examined on the date in question: one for Licensure and one for Ordination. The candidate for Licensure stated his differences with the Standards and his differences were noted and judged (actions 9 & 10). Candidates for ordination are routinely asked by Presbytery whether their views have changed since their Licensure exam (since the examination in Theology is often not repeated), but this was not noted in the Minutes. This was presumably an oversight by the clerk and was not caught by the reviewers. We will seek to be more careful in our recording in the future.”
   e. That the following response to the 44th GA be found unsatisfactory:
      Exception: General: No minutes from 2014.
      Response: [personal response from the clerk removed]
      Rationale: Minutes of 2014 still need to be submitted.

61. That the Minutes of Potomac Presbytery:
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: None.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: None.
   d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:
Exception: January 28, 2014 (BCO 21-4.c.2-4; RAO 16-3.e.5) – No record of thesis, exegesis, or sermon preached by candidate for ordination.

Response: The Potomac Presbytery respectfully disagrees with the stated exception that there is no record or thesis, exegesis, or sermon preached by candidate for ordination. The presbytery did not examine any candidate for ordination at the January meeting. We only examined an ordained minister (chaplain in the United States Army) for transfer into the Potomac Presbytery and the PCA from another denomination, the Southern Baptist Convention, which is governed by BCO 13-6. Potomac Presbytery believes that BCO 21-4c2-4 does not apply since the candidate was not on trial for ordination. The presbytery believes that it met the requirements of RAO 16-3e5 by (Please see the minutes of the January 28, 2014 meeting, pages 903-904, paragraph 6.a).

Exception: March 15, 2014 and November 15, 2014 (BCO 13-7) – Ministerial obligation not shown to be signed by transferees.

Response: The Potomac Presbytery respectfully disagrees with the stated exception. The Potomac Presbytery agrees that we did not record the signing of the ministerial obligation for [name omitted] in the March 2014 meeting. As has been our practice for over 20 years, and never challenged in reviews, the receipt of [name omitted]'s ministerial obligation form was recorded in the stated clerk's report for the next stated meeting which was held in September 2014 (Please see Page 2 of Appendix 3 to the Minutes of the 109th (March 15, 2014) stated meeting). While we usually have a transfer sign the ministerial obligation at the meeting in which he was received, we can find nothing in the BCO (specifically BCO 13-7) that says how and when the signing of the ministerial obligation is recorded.

Exception: March 15, 2014 and November 15, 2014 (BCO 19-2.c) – No record of candidate for licensure being examined orally before presbytery.

Response: The Potomac Presbytery respectfully disagrees with the stated exception. Although our minutes did not explicitly state that the candidate, Mr. [name omitted], was examined orally, he was in fact present on that date and was presented before the Presbytery. Presbyters were permitted to ask questions. He was examined orally; i.e., several presbyters asked questions orally and Mr. [name omitted] passed. We use committees for doing much of the work of the presbytery. The Potomac Presbytery's Credentials Committee is required to consider and make recommendations on all matters referred to the committee concerning the credentials of a candidate. The committee does a full, exhaustive exam in the areas referenced by BCO 19-2b; therefore, a full exam is not duplicated at the presbytery meeting. Under our bylaws, candidates for licensure are examined in each area specified by BCO 19-2.b, by the Credentials Committee. The committee reports the result of each examination, presbyters are permitted to ask questions without restrictions, and the presbytery votes to sustain each examination. That long-standing process is defined in the bylaws of Potomac Presbytery, and has always been found acceptable by the Committee to Review Presbytery Records. Thus, the Potomac Presbytery continues to believe that it has met the requirements of BCO 19-2c.

62. That the Minutes of Providence Presbytery:
   a. Be approved without exception: None.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: February 10, 2015; May 12, 2015; August 4, 2015; November 10, 2015; and General.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: Exception: August 4, 2015 (BCO 13-11) – Executive Session minutes not included.
   d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:
      Exception: February 12, 2013 and August 6, 2013 (BCO 21-4; RAO 16-3.e.5) – Stated differences not recorded in candidate’s own words or judged by presbytery.
      Response to the 43rd GA: Stated differences were submitted in writing to Candidates and Credentials Committee. We failed to record them properly in Presbytery minutes and have now remedied that practice. All stated differences were judged by Presbytery to be exceptions that were “not out of accord with any fundamental of our system of doctrine because the difference is neither hostile to the system nor strikes at the vitals of religion.” We failed to include that ruling in our minutes and intend to do so in the future.
      Rationale of the 43rd GA: Stated difference and presbytery’s judgment thereof should be included in response to General Assembly.
      Response: The notation in the minutes of Providence Presbytery for February 12, 2013, that the candidate had exceptions to the Standards was recorded and approved in error. The candidate in reality stated that he had no exceptions, and he still does not express any exceptions to our Standards. This has been confirmed by the candidate himself and by the chairman of the Providence Presbytery Candidates and Credentials Committee. The notation in the minutes of Providence Presbytery for August 6, 2013, did omit the candidate’s exception and the Presbytery’s ruling concerning the exception. Here is his exception in his own words: [Candidate’s words omitted]

The Presbytery determined the candidate is not out of accord with any of the fundamentals of our system of doctrine because the difference is neither hostile to the system nor strikes at the vitals of religion.

We members of Providence Presbytery are increasingly aware of the necessity of presenting accurate and complete information in the minutes and will continue to strive to do so in the future.

e. As no response was received in 2015, response must be submitted to the 45th GA:

Exception: November 11, 2014 (BCO 19-2; 21-4) – Not all specific requirements for licensure recorded; no indication of requirements of licentiate to record any stated differences with our confessional standards, no recording of presbytery’s judgment on those potential differences.

63. That the Minutes of Rocky Mountain Presbytery:  Adopted
b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: None.
c. Be approved with exceptions of substance:
   Exception: January 22, 2015 (BCO 46-8) – Divested TE not assigned to membership in a particular church.
   Exception: October 1, 2015 (BCO 13-9) – No record of review of session minutes from a majority of churches.
d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:
   Exception: January 23, 2014 (BCO 46-8) – Divested TE not transferred to a congregation.
   Response: The presbytery made numerous efforts to locate and contact the divested TE. We have no phone or address, therefore were unable to establish communication with him, he was not assigned membership in a local congregation.
   Exception: – April 18, 2013 and October 3, 2013 (BCO 20-1 and BCO 8-7 and BCO 13-2) – TE serving out of bounds either without concurrence of other presbytery or without assurance of BCO 20-1.
Response: Presbytery acknowledges the error. Verbal concurrence was provided by Korean Central Presbytery, but written concurrence was not requested nor recorded. Presbytery assures that this TE is serving with the concurrence of Korean Central Presbytery.

Exception: – April 18, 2013 (BCO 13-2 and BCO 34-10) – All requirements for divesting a minister not recorded [no record of transfer; no record of divested with or without censure].

Response: The TE was divested without censure. The Presbytery acknowledges the failure to record this aspect of the divestiture. The Presbytery made numerous efforts to locate and contact the divested TE. We have no phone or address, therefore were unable to establish communication with him, he was not assigned membership in a local congregation.

e. That the following response to the 44th GA exception be found unsatisfactory:
Exception: January 24, 2013 - All specific requirements of ordination exam not recorded.

Response: Presbytery has reviewed the minutes referred to and cannot find any missing requirements of an ordination exam. Please inform Rocky Mountain Presbytery with more specific information.

Rationale: At the meeting in question, two men were examined for ordination and the record does not reflect that their examinations included knowledge of the Greek and Hebrew languages or a seminary degree being accepted “in lieu of an oral examination in the original languages.” (BCO 21-4.c.1)

64. That the Minutes of Savannah River Presbytery:

a. Be approved without exception: None.

b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: January 23-24, 2015; April 21, 2015; October 20, 2015 and Directory.

c. Be approved with exceptions of substance:
Exception: January 23-24, 2015 (BCO 15-1) – No report of commissions to ordain the TEs.

Exception: July 17-18, 2015 (BCO 13-8) – No report of Commission re: examination of REs and their names in the organization of New Covenant church plant.

d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:
Exception: July 18, 2014 (BCO 19-2.d) – No record of sermon preached.
Response: Presbytery erred in providing an improper BCO reference. TE [name omitted] was transferring his licensure from Northern California Presbytery. He was examined in accordance with BCO 19-5 which excluded the preaching of a sermon.

Exception: July 18, 2014 (BCO 19-2.b.2) – No record of exam in practical Bible knowledge.

Response: Presbytery erred in providing an improper BCO reference. TE [name omitted] was transferring his licensure from Northern California Presbytery. He was examined in accordance with BCO 19-5 which excluded the examination in practical Bible knowledge.

65. That the Minutes of Siouxlands Presbytery:
   a. Be approved without exception: February 12, 2015; April 23, 2015; and June 25, 2015.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: January 23-24, 2015.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance:
      Exception: January 23-24, 2015 (BCO 23-1) – No record of congregational meeting to recommend dissolution of a pastoral call.
      Exception: January 23-24, 2015 (BCO 13-6, 21-4) – Incomplete record of examination of minister transferring from another denomination.
      Exception: January 23-24, 2015 (BCO 21-4) – Incomplete record of ordination exam.
      Exception: General (BCO 13-11) – Minutes of September 2015 stated meeting not included.
   d. No response to the 44th GA or previous assemblies is required.

66. That the Minutes of South Coast Presbytery:
   a. Be approved without exception: None.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: January 24, 2015; April 25, 2015, September 26, 2015; and Directory.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance:
      Exception: September 26, 2015 (RAO 16-3.e.7) – No motion to enter or rise from executive session and no minutes from executive session included.
      Exception: September 26, 2015 (BCO 46-8) – TE divested without censure was not assigned membership in a particular church.
      Exception: January 24, 2015 (BCO 13-10) – No record in 2015 minutes of any resolution to the Presbytery’s recorded uncertainty regarding the TE’s call.
      Exception: April 25, 2015 (BCO 8-7) – A TE laboring out of bounds had his call approved without assurances of his full freedom to maintain and teach the doctrine of the church.

d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:

Response: South Coast had seven churches organize in 2014. While these churches were included in the year-end rolls, their minutes were not reviewed until 2015. Five of the 25 are mission works of the presbytery, with no session. Most of these report through their mother church, though we are reviewing our reporting process for mission works. One multisite church dissolved to become five particular churches, leaving one church with missing records. These have now been reviewed.

Exception: General (RAO 16-3.e.5) – Candidate’s stated differences not judged with appropriate RAO language.
Response: We have not been consistent in using the RAO language, but will correct this going forward.

Exception: September 27, 2014 (BCO 13-7) – Ministerial obligation not shown to be signed.
Response: The forms were signed but not recorded.

67. That the Minutes of South Florida Presbytery:

a. Be approved without exception: September 22, 2015.

b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: February 10, 2015; May 12, 2015; August 11, 2015; and November 10, 2015.

c. Be approved with exceptions of substance:

Exception: August 11, 2015 (BCO 15-2) – Commission established with only one RE. Exception: August 11, 2015 (BCO 13-11) – Complaint sent to Presbytery not recorded in minutes (“full and accurate record”) see also RAO 16-3.e.7.

Exception: August 11, 2015 (BCO 34-9, 36-7) – Deposition of TE not recorded in prescribed words and pastoral relation not dissolved.

Exception: November 10, 2015 (BCO 15-1) – Minutes of commission not entered in Presbytery minutes (see also RAO 16.3.e.4).

d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:

Response: The Presbytery has been negligent in fulfilling this task. We regret this omission and promise to be careful to include it in the future.

Exception: General (RAO 16-4.c.1) – TE roll incomplete; unsure if Sessions represented; licentiates, REs, and churches not specified.
Response: The Attendance roll included only included the TE’s. We regret the error of leaving out the RE’s, licentiates, and churches, and promise to do better in the future to include those parts of the Attendance.

Exception: General (BCO 15-1) – No commission reports/minutes.
Response: There were five ordination and installation commissions, one judicial commission, one commission for the transfer of a TE into the Presbytery, and one commission for a provisional session. None of the commission reports were included in the Minutes. We included an addendum to the Minutes of the proper months with some of these reports of the commissions. Our Presbytery has not been diligent in requiring the commissions to submit reports. We regret this omission and this error and promise to be careful to include all reports for all commissions in the future.

Exception: February 11, 2014 (BCO 13-7) – Ministerial obligation not shown to be signed.
Response: The candidates all were approved for all parts of their exams and did sign the ministerial obligation (Ex Amino book), but we did not record that those signatures were done. We regret this error and promise to do better in the future to record the signatures of the ministerial obligations.

Exception: February 11, 2014 and August 12, 2014 (BCO 21-4) – No record of requiring statement of differences with our standards.
Response: It is recorded in the Minutes that the differences were approved, as “more than semantic but not out of accord with any fundamental of our system of doctrine”, for each candidate, but we did not include the Differences in the Candidates’ own words for the candidate in the February meeting. The candidate from the August meeting did include his differences which are listed at the end of his Views and may have been overlooked. We regret the omission for the first candidate and the confusion for the second. We promise to do better in the future by including each candidate’s difference in his own words.

Exception: February 11, 2014; May 13, 2014 and August 12, 2014 (BCO 21-4) – No record of all specific requirements of ordination.
Response: There were three candidates in February, one candidate in May, and one candidate in August. Each of these candidates took, passed, and was approved for all requirements of ordination. We did not include all requirements in our Minutes and regret our omission. We promise to be more careful in the future.

Exception: May 13, 2014 (BCO 21-4) – No record of ordination exam.

Response: The TE involved transferred into the Presbytery in the previous year (2013). All requirements of his transfer were not recorded in the Minutes although each requirement was propounded and approved by the Presbytery. We regret this error and promise to do better in the future to include all requirements for a TE to transfer into the Presbytery.

Exception: April 21, 2009 (BCO 46-8) – Presbytery divested a TE and put him “under the authority (though not necessarily member) of [a particular congregation].” They further state the TE “would no longer be a member of presbytery.”

Response: The South Florida Presbytery acknowledges our error. We will strive to keep better records in the future.

In addition to the Executive Minutes, the MCRC Chair sent an email which stated:

“The MCRC received a 38-1 letter from TE [name omitted]. He confessed that his “household was not in order” after over a year of doing its due diligence, the commission that made to investigate and adjudicate made the motion to presbytery to take Mr. [name omitted] credentials away because his “household was still not in order.”

Except for the attached Executive Minutes and a copy of the email stated above, there are no other records. Due to changes with the position of the Stated Clerk, there were three different Stated Clerks in the position through the time of this issue. The documents were not filed or misplaced. The only copy of the Executive Minutes that were found is the copy included with this response.

68. That the Minutes of South Texas Presbytery:
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: None.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: None.
   d. No response to the 44th GA or previous assemblies is required.
69. That the Minutes of Southeast Alabama Presbytery:
   a. Be approved without exception: January 31, 2015; March 31, 2015; April 28, 2015; and October 27, 2015.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: August 25, 2015 and Directory.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: None.
   d. That the following response to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:
      Exception: January 22, 2013 (BCO 21-4; RAO 16-3.e.5) – Candidates’ differences not recorded in his own words.
      Response: Attached is the result of diligent and thorough research to locate the candidates’ statements of their differences (Appendix A 1-3). The statements of first two candidates (A, 1, 2) seem complete. An incomplete statement by (A, 3) in his own words, is attached; the files of the chairman of the Examination Committee can yield nothing further. This third candidate has responded that his files are in storage and unavailable at this time. This candidate, following ordination, transferred to another presbytery, and is no longer subject to our jurisdiction. Thence, we are unable to proceed beyond this in securing his statement.
      We also attached relevant portion of the minutes of the presbytery meeting on January 22, 2013. The inclusion of this present document in the minutes of Presbytery at this meeting (ie., the meeting in which this response is submitted and adopted) will achieve placing their exceptions in the record. We hope this diligent and good faith effort to comply will be satisfactory.
      [Attachment omitted.]
   e. As no response was received in 2015, response must be submitted to the 45th GA.
      Exception: General (BCO 21-4; RAO 16-3.e.5) – No record of how candidates’ differences were judged by presbytery.

70. That the Minutes of Southern Louisiana Presbytery:

   d. No response to the 44th GA or previous assemblies is required.

   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance:
      Exception: April 23-24, 2015 (BCO 13-5, 6) – The BCO permits an honorably retired minister to transfer presbyteries but he must still be examined per BCO 13-6.
      Exception: April 23-24, 2015 (BCO 19-2.f; BCO 13-11; RAO 16-3.e.5) – Stated differences not recorded in candidate’s own words. Mr. [name omitted]’s “updated statement” not included in minutes. Presbytery failed to keep a “full and accurate record.”
      Exception: September 24-25, 2015 (BCO 18-2) – Use of extraordinary clause for Mr. [name omitted] not explained.
      Exception: January 22-23, 2015 and September 24-25, 2015 (BCO 13-11; RAO 16-3.e.6) – Executive Session minutes not included.
   d. No response to the 44th GA or previous assemblies is required.

      Exception: September 22, 2015 (BCO 21-4, RAO 16-3.e.5) – No judgment on candidate’s stated differences.
      Exception: November 21, 2015 (BCO 22-6) – No record of Presbytery approving stated supply.
      Exception: December 16, 2015 (BCO 13-6) – Incomplete record of transfer exam.
   d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:
      Exception: January 25, 2014 and October 4, 2014 (BCO 13-11; 13-12) – No recorded call for meeting attached for review.
      Response: Presbytery agrees with the exception, corrects its actions and promises to be more careful in the future. The meetings were called by email and those emails are pasted below. [emails omitted]
      Exception: February 15, 2014 (BCO 22-4; 23-1) – Presbytery should not receive completed dissolution of call by Session but must terminate/dissolve call itself based on inputs of parties.
      Response: Presbytery agrees with the exception, corrects its actions and promises to be more careful in the future. Presbytery believed that accepting the action of the session was the same thing as terminating the call.
      Exception: May 17, 2014 (BCO 13-6; 21-4) – No record of examination of TE transferring from another Presbytery.
Response: Presbytery agrees with the exception, corrects its actions and promises to be more careful in the future. – TE [name omitted] was transferring as an RUF Campus Minister. He could not be present for the May meeting so to facilitate the move (something SVP was assured was common practice with transfers of RUF Ministers) the transfer was approved with the understanding (as indicated in the minutes) that further examination and action would be necessary at the September meeting – which was done. [Minutes omitted.]

Exception: February 15, 2014; May 17, 2014; September 16, 2014; and November 15, 2014 (BCO 13-7) – No record of signing form of ministerial obligation on transfer into Presbytery.

Response: Presbytery agrees with the exception, corrects its actions and promises to be more careful in the future. This was an oversight on the part of the Clerk and having been informed of the requirement all such forms have been signed and filed.

Exception: May 17, 2014 (BCO 13-6; 21-4) – Minister from another denomination should be fully examined or received under extraordinary clause.

Response: Presbytery agrees with the exception, corrects its actions and promises to be more careful in the future. The Clerk failed to record the full examination of TE Mark Mathews, who was also fully examined by the CIE Committee.

Exception: May 17, 2014 (BCO 21-4) – No record of sermon or testimony.

Response: Presbytery agrees with the exception, corrects its actions and promises to be more careful in the future. Three men listened to an online sermon by Trip Beans and reported their satisfaction with it to the CIE Committee in February 2014. The presbytery was informed orally that that had been done but it was not recorded by the Clerk.

Exception: September 16, 2014 (BCO 23-1; 22-2) – No record of congregational meeting to approve new/revised call of pastor changing status.

Response: Presbytery agrees with the exception, corrects its actions and promises to be more careful in the future. New City Fellowship is a mission church so there was no call from the congregation. The meeting of the borrowed session in June approved the plan and a meeting of the “congregation” was held to inform and allow discussion before the issue was brought to presbytery.
Exception: September 16, 2014 (BCO 22-2) – No record of congregational meeting to approve resignation prior to Presbytery acting on call.
Response: Presbytery agrees with the exception, corrects its actions and promises to be more careful in the future. The congregation met and voted to accept the resignation on July 20, 2014, but it was not noted by the Clerk.

Exception: November 15, 2014 (BCO 13-6) – No record of views exam on transfer into Presbytery.
Response: Presbytery agrees with the exception, corrects its actions and promises to be more careful in the future. The Reverend [name omitted] was being transferred as “Honorably Retired” and after a long examination of the previous man on the docket, while opportunity was given to ask questions from the floor, presbytery accepted his testimony as proof of his views being in accord with the Westminster Standards and the Presbyterian Church in America. The Clerk failed to record that fact.

Exception: February 19, 2011 (BCO 21-4; RAO 16-3.e.5) – All specific requirements for ordination exams not recorded.
Response: The action in Question: The examinations of Lic. [name omitted] continued with TE [name omitted] examining him in Theology. RE [name omitted] examined him in Church Government. M/S/C to sustain the Theology, Church History, and Book of Church Order examinations, and also to approve his theological paper. M/S/C to approve his sermon preached during the morning worship time. The ministerial obligation was signed.
M/S/C to approve the Clerk’s Proposed Response: The examination was a continuation of one started in November 2010 as noted in the February minutes and those portions were approved in November.

Exception: February 19, 2011 (BCO 21-4; RAO 16-3.e.5) – Stated differences not judged by presbytery.
Response: M/S/C to approve the Clerk’s Proposed Response: The exceptions were presented and approved at the November 2010 meeting.

As no responses were received in 2015, responses must be submitted to the 45th GA:

Exception: February 16, 2013 and September 17, 2013 (BCO 21-4; RAO 16-3.e.5) – All specific requirements for ordination exam not recorded.
Exception: February 16, 2013 and September 17, 2013 (BCO 13-7) – Ministerial obligation not shown to be signed.
Exception: November 16, 2013 (BCO 23-1) – No record of congregational meeting to dissolve pastoral relationship.
Exception: February 18, 2012; September 18, 2012; and November 17, 2012 (BCO 13-6) – Incomplete record of transfer examination from another denomination.
Exception: February 18, 2012 and May 19, 2012 (BCO 21-4, RAO 16-3.e.5) -Candidates’ exceptions are not stated in his own words.
Exception: September 18, 2012 (BCO 20-1) – Ordination of TE, no record of call to a definite work.

Exception: February 18, 2012; September 18, 2012; and November 17, 2012 (BCO 13-6) – Incomplete record of transfer examination from another denomination.
Exception: February 18, 2012 and May 19, 2012 (BCO 21-4; RAO 16-3.e.5) –Candidates’ exceptions are not stated in his own words.
Exception: September 18, 2012 (BCO 20-1) – Ordination of TE; no record of call to a definite work.

Exception: February 19, 2011 (BCO 13-10) – No record of transfer or dismissal of members after dissolution of a church.
Exception: November 19, 2011 (BCO 23-1) – No record of congregational approval of dissolution of call.
Exception: May 15, 2010; September 18, 2010; and November 20, 2010 (BCO 18-2) – No record of 6-month membership.
Exception: February 20, 2010 (BCO 21-4) – Not all required elements of ordination exam included in the minutes.

76. That the Minutes of Tennessee Valley Presbytery:
   a. Be approved without exception: January 10, 2015; April 18, 2015; July 14, 2015; and October 20, 2015.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: None.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: None.
   d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:
      Exception: January 11, 2014 (BCO 23-1) – No record of request for dissolution of assistant pastor relationship; no record of dissolution of assistant pastor relationship.
      Response: We appreciate the Committee’s assistance in correcting this oversight. On November 26, 2013, TE [name omitted] notified the Pastoral Care Committee of the Tennessee Valley Presbytery (TVP) of his resignation from East Ridge Presbyterian Church (ERPC), and requested a change of call. On December 4, 2013, the Clerk of Session of ERPC, reported to the Pastoral Care Committee of the TVP that the Session of ERPC had voted to dissolve the pastoral relationship between the Session and TE [name omitted], and to further request that the TVP approve the dissolution.

Exception: April 12, 2014 (BCO 23-1) – No record of congregational concurrence in dissolving a pastoral relationship.

Response: We appreciate the Committee’s assistance in correcting this oversight. The congregation of Evergreen Presbyterian Church voted to dissolve the pastoral relationship of TE [name omitted] on February 23, 2014. The minutes of this congregational meeting were received by (and are on file with) the Pastoral Care Committee of the TVP. Similarly, the Session of Hixson Presbyterian Church reported to the Pastoral Care Committee of the TVP that the Session of Hixson Presbyterian had voted to dissolve the pastoral relationship between the Session and TE [name omitted] on March 14, 2014, and it was further requested that the TVP approve the dissolution.

Exception: July 8, 2014 (BCO 20-1) – No record of call from congregation.

Response: We appreciate the Committee’s assistance in correcting this oversight, and we apologize for not recording TE [name omitted] call to Smoky Mountain Presbyterian Church. The call from the congregation was received, and was found to be in order. The call reads as follows: [call submitted and reviewed]

Exception: July 8, 2014 (BCO 23-1) – No record of dissolution of assistant pastor relationship.

Response: We appreciate the Committee’s assistance in correcting this oversight. On May 7, 2014, the Session of New City Fellowship Church voted to dissolve the pastoral relationship of TE [name omitted]. This action was reported to the Pastoral Care Committee and the Stated Clerk of the TVP on May 9, 2014, and it was further requested that the TVP approve the dissolution.

Exception: July 8, 2014 (BCO 21-4; RAO 16-3.e.5) – Stated differences not evaluated by the presbytery according to prescribed categories.

Response: We respectfully disagree that this is required in these instances. On July 8, 2014, each of the men examined were being examined for transfer into the TVP from other presbyteries within the PCA, in accordance with BCO 13-9 and 20-9. In each exam, the minutes summarily reflect that each man was asked if his views on theology, Sacraments, church government, or the constitution of the PCA had changed since his ordination. Each man stated that his views had not changed. Their respective exceptions are listed in their views as submitted in writing. However, based on their testimony that these views have not changed since ordination, and that such evaluations were made during their ordination exams in previous presbyteries, we do not believe it necessary to evaluate them according to the prescribed categories.

Exception: October 14, 2014 (BCO 23-1) – No record of session’s concurrence in dissolving an assistant pastor relationship.

Response: We appreciate the Committee’s assistance in correcting this oversight. On October 3, 2014, the Session of Hixson Presbyterian Church voted to dissolve the pastoral relationship of TE John Southworth.

Exception: October 14, 2014 (BCO 23-1) – No record of congregational concurrence in dissolving a pastoral relationship.

Response: We appreciate the Committee’s assistance in correcting this oversight. On September 17, 2014, the congregation of Grace Presbyterian Church of Lookout Mountain, GA, voted to dissolve the pastoral relationship of TE [name omitted].

Exception: General (BCO 13-9.b) – Incomplete review of records of church sessions.

Response: We appreciate the Committee’s assistance in correcting this oversight, and we are currently discussing a more careful means of reviewing the records of each session within the TVP. Each session is asked to have their minutes reviewed, based on a predetermined scheduled announced in the TVP directory. Sessions failing to appear are listed in the TVP minutes. However, to better follow-up with sessions who fail to have their minutes reviewed by our Review of Sessional Records Committee, in 2015 we started recording which sessions appeared and which sessions failed to appear on a spreadsheet; and we are discussing ways to better follow up with the sessions who failed to have their minutes reviewed.

77. That the Minutes of Tidewater Presbytery:

- Be approved without exception: June 4, 2015.
- Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: February 7, 2015; April 28, 2015; October 1, 2015; General; and Directory.
- Be approved with exceptions of substance:
  Exception: February 7, 2015 (BCO 21-4) – Reasons for omitting portions of transfer exam not noted – no record of ¾ vote.
d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:

Exception: February 1, 2014 (BCO 13-11; RAO 16-3.f.1) – Substitute motion mentioned but not included in minutes.

Response: This was an error on my part and will be noted for future use. I will work to ensure all motions and substitutes are clearly noted.

Exception: June 3, 2014 (BCO 21-4.c) – All specific requirements of ordination exam not recorded.

Response: This is an oversight that I thought was covered in the Membership Committee report that was attached as an appendix. I will note and correct this error.

Exception: October 2, 2014 (BCO 23-1) – Congregational concurrence with dissolution of call not shown.

Response: This was an oversight on my part as I did not ask for the results of the Congregational meeting. This will be corrected.

78. That the Minutes of Warrior Presbytery:

a. Be approved without exception: January 20, 2015; April 28, 2015; July 7, 2015; and October 20, 2015.

b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: Directory.

c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: None.

d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:

Exception: January 21, 2014 (BCO 46-8) – Membership of TE divested not recorded.

Response: Warrior Presbytery acknowledges that the record did not include the transfer of membership of the divested TE. This individual no longer lives within the bounds of Warrior Presbytery. The stated clerk made multiple attempts to contact him to ascertain where he would prefer to have his membership transferred. He never responded to these attempts. In the future, Warrior Presbytery will work to provide explanation in the record of such omitted items.

Exception: January 21, 2014 (BCO 15-1) – Membership committee empowered to act as a commission; minutes of commission not entered into Presbytery minutes.

Response: The presbytery agrees with the finding of GA and is grateful that this oversight has been brought to our attention. As no minutes were kept during this portion of the membership committee meeting, we are unable to provide them for review. We will, however, work to keep minutes of this portion of future meetings and include them in presbytery minutes.

Exception: October 12, 2014 (BCO 15-1) – Minutes of commission not entered in record.

Response: Warrior Presbytery agrees that minutes of the commission were not entered in the record. Though a report concerning the commission was provided, the commission had not had any formal meetings and therefore had no minutes to provide. We will work to clarify this in future minutes.

79. That the Minutes of Western Canada Presbytery: Adopted
   a. Be approved without exception: October 2, 2015.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: March 6, 2015.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: None.
   d. No response to the 44th GA or previous assemblies is required.

80. That the Minutes of Western Carolina Presbytery: Adopted
   a. Be approved without exception: November 10, 2015.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: February 28, 2015; May 5, 2015; and August 1, 2015.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance:
      Exception: February 28, 2015 (BCO 24-1; 12-3; Preliminary Principle 6) – Presbytery approved a commission to act as the session of a particular church without record of congregational approval.
      Exception: May 5, 2015 and August 1, 2015 (BCO 19-2) – No record of required statement of differences with Standards.
      Exception: May 5, 2015 (BCO 13-2) – No record of “full concurrence” and agreeability of circumstances of a TE laboring out of bounds within the boundary of another Presbytery.
   d. That the following response to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:
      Exception: February 22, 2014 (BCO 13-7) – No record of the ministerial obligation having been signed.
      Response: “On motion the following response to the Review of Presbytery Records Committee was approved: “Presbytery respectfully disagrees with the exception as the TE in question was already a member of the Presbytery and had previously signed the ministerial obligation.””
81. That the Minutes of Westminster Presbytery: Adopted
   a. Be approved without exception: November 14, 2015 and December 1, 2015.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: July 11, 2015 and General.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance:
      Exception: January 10, 2015 (BCO 13-6, 21-4) – No record of ¾ vote to omit parts of exam of TE transfer.
      Exception: January 10, 2015 (BCO 38-2) – TE’s request for divestiture received and acted upon at same meeting.
      Exception: March 14, 2015 (BCO 38-1) – TE divested without full statement of facts or judgment rendered.
      Exception: July 11, 2015 (BCO 21-4, RAO 16-3.e.5) – No record of requiring stated differences with our standards.
   d. That the following response to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:
      Exception: Manual *(RAO 16-3.e.5, 16-6.c (1)) – Includes a declaration that all officers and candidates must affirm, in violation of court’s power. SJC 2009-25/2009-26 (M39GA pp.548ff.) (Note: vote on motion to strike failed 21-26-0)
      Response: We are grateful for the Committee on the Review of Presbytery Records, and your diligent work in the service of our Lord. In response to the exception of substance taken by the 43rd General Assembly to resolution #4 of Appendix 2 of the Presbytery Manual, titled Declaration on the Special Creation of Adam and Eve, Presbytery unanimously voted a change in its Manual, effective as of its Stated Meeting on November 14, 2015, that has removed Appendix 2 in its entirety from the Manual.

82. That the Minutes of Wisconsin Presbytery: Adopted
   a. Be approved without exception: January 26, 2013; January 26, 2015; April 25, 2015; and September 6, 2015.
   b. Be approved with exceptions of form reported to presbytery: None.
   c. Be approved with exceptions of substance: None.
   d. That the following responses to the 44th GA exception be found satisfactory:
      Exception: January 26, 2013 (BCO 40-1; RAO 16-1) – Missing minutes of called meeting.
      Response: This is most curious. The presbytery Stated Clerk e-mailed the minutes of the January 26, 2013 Called Meeting to the PCA Administrative Committee’s office on April 27, 2015. In checking the .pdf file of the minutes attached to the e-mail, all three pages were present. Without speculating on what may have happened to the missing page 2, of the January 26, 2013 minutes, the Clerk will resend the minutes in question.

Exception: September 13, 2014 (BCO 34-10; BCO 46-8) – Removed divestiture from a previous TE rather than followed ordination procedures.

Response: The presbytery consulted the PCA Stated Clerk’s office on how to remove divestiture but no one seemed to know the procedure. Advice given to the presbytery was to proceed as we thought best. The man was without call for three years, therefore presbytery divested him. Later, when the man received a call, presbytery removed the divesture. The presbytery did make a good faith effort to determine the correct course of action in this matter.

VI. Officers Elected for 2016-2017

Chairman: TE Patrick Morgan, Siouxlands Presbytery
Vice-Chairman: TE Matthew Bradley, Nashville Presbytery
Secretary: TE Hoochan Paul Lee, Korean Northeastern Presbytery
Assistant Secretary: TE Kenneth McHeard, New York State Presbytery

APPENDIX R

REPORT OF THE
THEOLOGICAL EXAMINING COMMITTEE
TO THE FORTY-FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY
OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN AMERICA
June, 2016

I. Introduction to the Committee’s Work

A. Purpose and Scope of Examinations
   According to our Book of Church Order, Teaching Elders should seek office “out of a sincere desire to promote the glory of God in the Gospel of his Son.” In this same spirit, the Theological Examining Committee (comprising 3 Teaching Elders, 3 Ruling Elders, and 2 alternates) serves the General Assembly by ensuring that candidates for positions of influence in our denomination are both gifted for and committed to promoting the glory of God by promoting the biblical gospel of Jesus Christ. Our task according to The Book of Church Order, chapter 4, section 1.14, is to examine “all first and second level administrative officers of committees, boards, and agencies, and those acting temporarily in these positions who are being recommended for first time employment.”

B. Nature of Examinations
   The examinations we administer resemble those for the ordination of Teaching Elders in the PCA, covering the following areas: Christian experience, theology, the sacraments, church government and the BCO, Bible content, church history, and the history of the PCA. Our standard procedure is to administer a written examination covering theological views, followed by an intensive oral examination, which covers not only views but knowledge in these areas.

II. Summary of the Committee’s Work

In the past year, our committee has conducted two examinations:

A. On October 13, 2015, we examined Mr. Jeff Sandhoff, Nominee for Vice President of Development at Covenant College. All areas of Mr. Sandhoff’s exam were sustained and unanimously approved by the committee.
The Committee reviewed Mr. Sandhoff’s written statement of personal difference with the Westminster Standards, included below, and deemed this difference “to be more than semantic, ‘but not out of accord with any fundamental of our system of doctrine’ (BCO 21-4).”

WCF 21:8 – I do take exception with reference to “recreation.” I do believe some private recreational activities with my family are acceptable. I do exclude organized recreational activity to not be acceptable.

B. On April 26, 2016, we examined TE Paul Hahn, Nominee for Coordinator of Mission to North America. All areas of Rev. Hahn’s exam were sustained and unanimously approved by the committee.

The Committee reviewed Rev. Hahn’s written statement of personal difference with the Westminster Standards, included below, and deemed this difference to be “more than semantic, ‘but not out of accord with any fundamental of our system of doctrine’ (BCO 21-4).” Tennessee Valley Presbytery had previously noted Rev. Hahn’s difference (stated in different form) to be “not out of accord with any fundamental of our system of doctrine because the difference is neither hostile to the system nor strikes at the vitals of religion” (BCO 21-4).

I take exception to the recreation and works of mercy clauses found in WCF 21.8; WLC 117, 119; and WSC 60, 61 in the following manner:

As Holy Scripture and our standards affirm, there is an abiding validity to the Fourth Commandment. The emphasis of the commandment, it seems to me, is on rest and celebration – resting from our ordinary labors to uniquely worship the Living God, following him in his own rest, to celebrate his works of creation (as he did on the first Sabbath) and redemption.

The Christian Sabbath – now the Lord’s Day, after the resurrection of Christ and the outpouring of the Holy Spirit – is to be set apart for meeting with the saints in gathered public worship through word and sacrament, resting uniquely in the grace of God as we do so, celebrating with the assembled saints the power and wonder, and the love and mercy of God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit, through and because of the Gospel of Christ.

We should encourage and admonish the saints to embrace gathered worship with Christ’s people and to cease from their ordinary labors. However, I do not believe that we to restrict what their rest should, or could, look like or to state explicitly that it cannot involve recreational activity that does not supplant the gathered worship of the saints.

Furthermore, I believe that works of mercy by Christians are to be encouraged on the Lord’s Day, not mandated or enforced, or to function as a bounding on all other Lord’s Day activity besides acts of public and private worship and deeds of necessity. In my view, there can, and should be, freedom in how Christians spend their Lord’s Day in rest and worship, beyond attendance to the stated worship services of the church.

I have not held or taught these views in any proud or divisive manner, or disseminated them in any way to the detriment of the church, by God’s grace. It is my privilege to submit to my brethren in the Lord!

I take no further exceptions to our standards.

III. Committee Correspondence

As the previous chairman (Teaching Elder P. Clay Holland) and previous secretary (Ruling Elder Charles Waldron) rotate off the committee this year, Teaching Elder Guy Prentiss Waters (Mississippi Valley) and Ruling Elder William Blake Temple (Providence) have been elected to serve as Chair and Secretary, respectively. The Committee’s minutes may be obtained through the Office of the Stated Clerk.

Respectfully submitted,

TE Guy Prentiss Waters, Chairman    RE William Blake Temple, Clerk

2014-01 Complaint of TEs Don Aven/David Dively vs. Ohio Valley Presbytery
2015-01 Complaint of RE D. G. Sanfacon vs. Philadelphia Presbytery
2015-02 Complaint of TE Chris Gearhart vs. Chicago Metro Presbytery

At this time, Cases 2015-13 and 2016-01 are being considered by panels. The SJC has determined Cases 2015-01, 2015-02, 2015-04, 2015-05, 2015-07, 2015-09, 2015-10, and 2015-12 are either administratively or judicially out of order. The SJC has determined Case 2015-03 is moot. The SJC notes Cases 2016-03 and 2016-04 were withdrawn. The SJC has not considered the SJC Officers’ recommendation that Case 2016-02 is administratively out of order. The SJC has completed its work on Cases 2014-01, 2015-06, 2015-08, and 2015-11.

The report on those cases follows.
III. REPORT OF THE CASES

CASE 2014-01

TE DON AVEN AND TE DAVID DIVELY
VS.
OHIO VALLEY PRESBYTERY

DECISION ON COMPLAINT
JUNE 9, 2015

SUMMARY OF THE CASE

A minister notified his Presbytery his view had changed on Larger Catechism 177, now disagreeing with the final clause regarding the admission requirement for the Lord’s Supper (“... only to such as are of years and ability to examine themselves.”) Presbytery adopted a recommendation from its Credentials Committee and judged the minister’s difference as being “more than semantic, but neither striking at the vitals of religion nor hostile to our system of doctrine.” Two ministers filed a complaint against that judgment, Presbytery declined to sustain it, and the two then filed a complaint with the SJC. The full SJC heard the Complaint, declined to either sustain or deny, and is now sending the matter back to the Presbytery, due to an insufficient Record.

I. SUMMARY OF THE FACTS

12/04/13    TE Charles Hickey, Pastor of Trinity Presbyterian Church of Ludlow, KY, officially notified Ohio Valley Presbytery (OVP) of a change in his view regarding the final clause in the answer to Larger Catechism question 177. He included the following as an attachment to that email notification:

Exception of TE Hickey to Westminster Larger Catechism Answer to Question 177:

I find in the Bible that participation in the sacramental meals on the part of the members of the covenant community, in good spiritual standing, was never limited by any factor other than the ability to ingest solid food (Exodus 12:4) and do find the assumption everywhere that covenant children were included in the sacred meals of the covenant community (Lev 10:14; 22:10-11; Deut. 12:6-7, 12, 18; 14:26, 16:11, 14). I am unconvinced that the warnings found in 1 Corinthians 11 regarding unworthy participation, similar as they are to what are found in the ancient prophets, are in any way directed at little children. Therefore, I take exception to the phrase contained in Westminster Larger Catechism answer 177; “...and that only to such as are of years and ability to examine themselves” as being an extra-biblical requirement for covenant participation at the sacramental meal.

Rationale

In taking this exception I wish to make clear that I am not denying the necessity of faith for salvation, or, for that matter, for participation in the Lord's Supper. I believe that, as the Westminster divines assert in their Directory of Worship, baptized covenant children are "Christians." Not only can I not find in the Bible our traditional teaching that some Christians must not participate in the sacramental life of the church, but I find the Bible regularly numbering covenant children among the believers. Covenant children are in Holy Scripture artlessly identified as those who trust in the Lord (Psalm 22:9-10; Psalm 71:4-6; Luke 1:44), who offer a sacrifice of praise (Psalm 8:1-2), as saints (Eph. 1:1; 6:1-2), as heirs of the promise (Acts 2:39), as the saved (Acts 16:31), as those inhabited by the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:38-39), and as citizens of the kingdom of God (Luke 18:16). They are with a similar artlessness included among the repentant (Joel 2:12-17). Certainly if a covenant child can rejoice in the presence of the Son of God, or trust in the Lord while at his mother's breast, or know the Scripture's [sic] from his infancy, it cannot be said that the Bible regards covenant children as incapable of spiritual acts.
The only other qualification necessary for participation in the Supper that I can find in the Bible is the ability to eat solid food and drink from a cup (Exod. 12:4). Furthermore, if the children of believers are recipients of the promise of the remission of their sins and the gift of the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:29), then surely the signs and seals of those promises, both sacraments, should attend the recipients of the promise.

Though John Calvin did not embrace the communing of small children at the Lord’s Table, I believe that Calvin's concept of covenant children possessing "faith in the seed" is a helpful way to describe the burden of this large body of biblical material (Institutes, IV, xvi, 16-20). In my view, given that both the Bible and the Westminster divines identify covenant children as Christians, it follows by rigorous necessity that their Christian life, their faith, if you will, should be nurtured by the ordinary means of grace (Acts 2:42). But if nurtured by hearing and learning the Word of God (certainly an activity that presumes some capacity for spiritual development (cf. 2 Tim. 3:14-15; Deut. 6:4-7), why not by the sacrament as well, which, it is to be remembered, has often been identified in our tradition as "a visible word"? Our authorities have often described the Lord's Supper as the "sacrament of nutrition," but if so, why would the infant faith of covenant children not be nourished by this means? Calvin's insistence that covenant children are to grow into a fuller understanding of their baptism as they get older serves as well to describe their developing relationship to the Lord's Supper [xvi, 21].

In short, covenant children are reckoned in the Bible as believers in God and Christ, even if their faith is in the seed and not yet in the mature fruit, and as believers they have a right to participate in the Lord's Supper precisely so that their faith may be nourished unto maturity.
01/11/14  OVP Stated Meeting. The change in view was discussed in Executive Session, and the minutes record the following: “When Presbytery rose from executive session, it was reported that action on the TE’s view would be postponed until the May Stated Meeting, and that all TEs who are members of Ohio Valley Presbytery and all REs serving Ohio Valley Presbytery churches, may take part in discussion outside the meeting concerning the change in the TE’s views.”

05/20/14  OVP Stated Meeting. The Minutes recorded the minister’s stated difference (minus rationale), followed by Presbytery’s two actions:

A Presbytery Committee recommended his difference be judged as “more than semantic, but neither striking at the vitals of religion nor hostile to our system of doctrine.” Presbytery concurred, and adopted the following:

MSA that Presbytery receive Pastor Hickey’s difference as more than semantic, but neither striking at the vitals of religion nor hostile to our system of doctrine.

MSA that Presbytery not allow Pastor Hickey to practice or promote from the pulpit this difference in order to preserve the peace and unity of the church.

07/18/14  Revs. Aven and Dively filed a Complaint with OVP against Presbytery’s judgment on the difference (first motion above).

07/23/14  Rev. Dively, who was then the Presbytery Clerk, emailed presbyters the Complaint three months prior to OVP’s October Stated Meeting.

10/21/14  OVP Stated Meeting. Complaint was considered and denied.

11/07/14  Revs. Aven & Dively filed Complaint with SJC. The Case was assigned to a Panel of three SJC members who had been randomly selected (for the next case) before the Case was filed.
12/8/14 OVP Clerk Dively filed initial Record of the Case (80 pages).

01/08/15 Additional documents were added to the Record at the request of the parties and the Panel, and the Record was finalized at 133 pages. The Panel then requested the SJC officers to consider conducting a full SJC Hearing on the case because of the significance of the Case and because the Panel could not likely hold a Hearing and render a proposed judgment in time for consideration at the March SJC meeting. The Parties did not oppose this request, and the officers assigned the case to the full SJC.

01/23/15 Complainants filed a Preliminary Brief.

02/17/15 Presbytery filed a Preliminary Brief.

03/05/15 Hearing was conducted before the full SJC at its stated meeting in Atlanta, GA. Rev. Hickey was present as a visitor. At the Complainants’ request, Rev. Dominic Aquila assisted them and presented their case. Following a lengthy SJC discussion, a committee was appointed to draft and recommend a proposed Decision.

06/09/15 The SJC considered the Committee’s recommendation, and after amendment, adopted this Decision.

III. STATEMENT OF THE ISSUE

Should the Complaint be sustained, which alleges Presbytery erred on May 20, 2014, when it granted an exception to TE Hickey’s stated difference as to Larger Catechism 177, with respect to limiting participation in the Lord’s Supper to those “such as are of years and ability to examine themselves,” as being more than semantic but neither striking at the vitals of religion nor hostile to our system of doctrine?

IV. JUDGMENT

The Complaint is neither Sustained nor Denied. The Commission cannot render judgment because the Record is insufficient regarding this minister’s particular expression of his view. Therefore, the Commission sends the matter back to OVP to hear further from TE Hickey regarding his stated difference in order to create a more comprehensive Record.
V. REASONING

Our polity related to our system of doctrine depends on the diligence and integrity of our ministers to identify fundamental changes in their views and to make them known to the presbytery (BCO 21-5.2). Once such a disclosure is made, our BCO does not provide express procedural guidance in dealing with the matter. However, by analogy the court should be guided by BCO 21.4.e and 21.4.f.

When reviewing whether a man’s stated difference is “out of accord with any fundamental of our system of doctrine” (i.e., because it is “hostile to the system [or] strikes at the vitals of religion”), the court will ordinarily need to consider more than the man’s mere citation of the confessional section, and in many cases, even more than a summary statement of the difference. The court will often need also to consider the Biblical and Confessional exegesis, and the theological reasoning that is used to support the difference. It is that underlying exegesis and reasoning that will evidence how the man and the court is understanding the Constitution of the Church and thus should be an important part of the higher court’s review of the lower court’s decision. This could be warranted even with commonly expressed confessional differences, at least in part because there could be instances where two men disagree with the same confessional statement, but for different reasons. And while one man’s reasons might be acceptable to the Presbytery, the other man’s might not be. Consider two examples.

First, consider two men who take exception to the language of Larger Catechism 191 that states that the church is to be “countenanced and maintained by the civil magistrate” arguing that this statement goes beyond the God-given authority of the civil magistrate. One man, however, might defend his difference by reasoning that Scripture (e.g., Mt. 22:21) and the Confession (e.g., 23:3) point to a greater separation of civil and ecclesiastical authority than is apparently recognized by his reading of LC 191. The other might support his difference by arguing that because all authority on heaven and earth has now been given to Christ (Mt. 28:18) and because Christ has delegated his earthly authority to the church (Mt. 16:17-19), therefore the civil magistrate has no authority over the church (or individual Christians, for that matter), and indeed, by virtue of Mt. 16, the church should have authority over the civil magistrate. Whatever is right or wrong with either of these views, surely the second raises more serious questions about the nature of the difference, not because of the mere statement of the difference, but because of the issues raised in the supporting argumentation.

Similarly, consider two men who take exception to the phrase “without body, parts, or passions” in WCF 2:1. One man states he objects to the phrase because he believes saying God does not have “passions” means God cannot love. A second man states he objects to the phrase because he believes God has “passions” that are contingent upon the actions of men. Again, whatever one thinks of these reasons, the second raises more serious questions than the first because of the underlying reasoning.

In the same manner, in this case the question before OVP and this Commission is not simply whether or not paedocommunion is an allowable exception, but whether this particular formulation of that confessional difference, as developed in TE Hickey’s reasoning, is allowable, or whether it “strikes at the vitals of religion” or is “hostile to the system of doctrine.” Given that, it is not sufficient to conclude that because “paedocommunion” has been deemed an allowable exception in other settings, TE Hickey’s expression of it must be so deemed here. The question that must be addressed is whether this particular formulation of that difference justifies the granting of an exception.

Apart from his statement of difference, certain statements in TE Hickey’s rationale require further explanation for the Record. It is not clear from the Record how Presbytery understood these statements, or whether Presbytery required or received such further explanation. Further, before the SJC renders a judgment, TE Hickey should have an opportunity to provide a fuller statement of his view than what is contained in the Record, should he desire to do so.

The Record was insufficient in the following respects:

1. The Record does not indicate: a) whether the following statements in the minister’s “rationale” mean he believes all covenant children have some degree of faith, or b) what he believes is the nature of “infant faith” with respect to the child’s capacity for spiritual discernment.

   [Opening to Rationale] In taking this exception I wish to make clear that I am not denying the necessity of faith for salvation, or, for that matter, for participation in the Lord's Supper. I believe that, as the Westminster divines assert in their Directory of Worship, baptized covenant children are "Christians."

...Though John Calvin did not embrace the communing of small children at the Lord’s Table, I believe that Calvin's concept of covenant children possessing "faith in the seed" is a helpful way to describe the burden of this large body of biblical material (Institutes, IV, xvi, 16-20).

[Conclusion to Rationale] In short, covenant children are reckoned in the Bible as believers in God and Christ, even if their faith is in the seed and not yet in the mature fruit, and as believers they have a right to participate in the Lord's Supper precisely so that their faith may be nourished unto maturity.

2. The Record does not indicate whether Presbytery judged this minister’s confessional difference to only pertain to LC 177, or whether it logically results in a difference with other sections. For example, in this instance should the stated difference also require expressing differences to six other questions of the Larger Catechism, with respect to:
   - those who “worthily communicate” (LC 170, as well as WCF 29:7),
   - the requirements of preparation (171),
   - the appropriate resolution of doubts or lack of preparation (172),
   - concerning the “ignorant” professors (173),
   - concerning the duties of participants at the time of administration (174),
   - and the duties of participants after they have received the sacrament (175)?

3. If the stated difference does result in differences with other sections, what are the implications of that for the nature of the exception? Given that Confession of Faith 28:6 makes specific provision for the efficacy of baptism to be delayed in time from its administration, and that there is no like provision for the efficacy of the Lord’s Supper, does not the stated difference also require an expression of corresponding differences to questions 171-175 of the Larger Catechism?
4. The Record does not make clear whether the minister reached his position solely on his view that “covenant children were included in the sacred meals of the covenant community” simply on the basis of their being covenant children and his exegesis of 1 Corinthians 11:27-29, or whether there are additional theological reasons for his particular difference (e.g., the child’s personal discerning faith, as distinguished from the representational faith of the child’s parents).

5. If the minister’s reasons are based upon the exegesis of 1 Corinthians 11:27-29, then the Record does not indicate how the minister exegetes that passage or related Standards (possible examples being LC 170, 171, 172, 173, 174, and 177 (where it is the only text cited)). Further, how, for example, would the minister’s exegesis fit with “remembrance passages” like Luke 22:19 and 1 Corinthians 11:24-25?

6. The Record does not indicate how the stated difference affects the minister’s approval of the PCA’s form of government and discipline as being in conformity with the general rules of biblical polity (BCO 21-5.3), given the BCO’s frequently expressed distinction between communicant and non-communicant members. Further, with the stated difference, the Record does not indicate how the minister will comply with and enforce the above-mentioned distinctions of the BCO.

We conclude that the Record before us is insufficient to allow us to reach a determination on this case. Accordingly, we remand this case to the Presbytery to hear further from TE Hickey regarding his change in view. Such a remand has been an option (BCO 43-10) for higher courts for over a century. For example, in his comments on the same provision in the 1898 Book of Church Order, F. P. Ramsay observed that the higher court “may wait for fuller records before deciding the issue.”

Finally, if this matter comes back to the SJC, the Record shall include the 133-page Record from Case 2014-01, and any additional material considered by Presbytery when it hears the matter, including any supplemental or clarifying material submitted by TE Hickey.

CONCURRING OPINION
JUDICIAL CASE 2014-01
TE DON AVEN AND TE DAVID DIVELY
VS.
OHIO VALLEY PRESBYTERY

JULY 22, 2015

Concurring Opinion of RE Howard Donahoe

As I understand it, the Complainants alleged two Presbytery errors. First, they alleged Presbytery erred by allowing anyone to disagree with the final clause of Larger Catechism 177. Here’s the assertion from their Brief:

The specific phrase that is the object of the difference: “... and that only to such as are of years and ability to examine themselves” is such a significant part of the fundamentals of the system of doctrine that to grant an exception to it tears at the very fabric of the system so as to disfigure and distort the whole system. ²

Second, they alleged Presbytery erred by granting the exception in this particular instance given the minister’s “specific statements” and his “expanded reasoning.” ³

I concurred with the SJC that the Record was insufficient as it pertained to the second part regarding the minister’s particular expression of his view.\(^4\)

My concern was not Presbytery’s judgment granting the exception for the difference per se, but whether Presbytery exercised appropriate or sufficient judgment on some things in the minister’s rationale, or at least on how he expressed them (i.e., his particular expression). And a fuller Record could address that.

There’s a distinction between a man’s confessional “difference” (i.e., the specific part of the Standards with which he disagrees or has reservations - BCO 21.4.f.)\(^5\) and the rationale he might provide to support or explain his view (“in their own words” - RAO 16.3.e.5). As the SJC shows with its illustrations on LC 191 and WCF 2:1, a Presbytery might judge a difference to be permissible in and of itself, but might have different concerns arising from a man’s rationale for holding the difference.

On the other hand, there are certain parts of the Standards on which disagreements have already been judged, or probably would be judged, as unacceptable regardless of a man’s rationale. Below are some examples.

- cessation of certain kinds of revelation (WCF 1:1, 6)\(^6\)
- divine inspiration of Scripture (WCF 1:8)
- particular redemption (WCF 3:4-7)\(^7\)
- infant baptism (WCF 28:4)\(^8\)
- existence of hell (WCF 32:1)
- marriage only between a man and a woman (WCF 24:1)

The examining court, and the appellate Church courts, would likely judge any disagreement with one of those fundamental doctrines as disqualifying, regardless of a man’s particular expression of his view.

Unlike the six examples above, a disagreement with the final clause of LC 177 should not automatically be judged as disqualifying - and no GA or SJC

\(^4\) Italics are original in the SJC Judgment.
\(^5\) For use of the noun “difference” in the Record of the Case, see p. 2 fifth paragraph; p. 59 item 13h; p. 62 second paragraph, and p. 68 item 2.
\(^7\) Ibid.
\(^8\) Ibid.

has ever judged it to be so. I concurred with the SJC’s Judgment in this Case largely because the SJC did not judge it to be so. If the SJC had agreed with the Complainant’s key assertion in the excerpt from their Brief above, it could have sustained the Complaint rather than remanding for a more comprehensive Record.

CONCOURRING OPINION
JUDICIAL CASE 2014-01
TE DON AVEN AND TE DAVID DIVELY
VS.
OHIO VALLEY PRESBYTERY

JULY 22, 2015

Concurring Opinion of TE Grover Gunn, joined by RE John Bise

The change in views at the center of this case involves paedocommunion, a term that can cover a broad range of possible opinions on the admitting of baptized covenant children to the Lord's Supper. The term could possibly refer merely to a rejection of adult only communion and an openness to the possibility that a baptized covenant child may, at an age younger than usual or traditional, have a profession of faith that provides credible evidence that he has the maturity of faith needed for partaking of the Lord's Supper meaningfully and responsibly. I do not regard this degree of paedocommunion as an exception to our Standards, provided that one is not significantly and artificially lowering our Standards' measures of readiness to partake. At the opposite extreme of possible meanings is the view that every covenant infant should partake of the Lord's Supper as soon as possible after his baptism through someone's inserting into his mouth at a communion service a small crumb of communion bread that has absorbed a small drop of communion wine. This view totally eliminates the distinction between 9 Most recently, by a 69-31% margin, the June 2015 Chattanooga GA adopted a recommendation from a minority of the Committee on Review of Presbytery Records and declined to cite Susquehanna Valley Presbytery for its judgment allowing such a difference with LC 177. The RPR Committee had, by a vote of 29-22, recommended the GA cite Presbytery simply for granting the exception, without RPR noting any specific concern about the man’s rationale or particular expression of his view. But instead, the RPR Minority’s recommendation against any citing was adopted. See also the June 2013 action of the Greenville GA judging Pacific NW Presbytery’s response “Satisfactory.” M41GA, pp. 464-465 for GA’s action and pp. 500-514 for PNW’s Response. http://pcahistory.org/ga/41st_pcmaga_2013.pdf communing and non-communing baptized members in the visible church. I regard this degree of paedocommunion as an exception to our Standards that is out of accord with the fundamentals of our system of doctrine. Because the term “paedocommunion” has such a wide range of possible meanings, I agree with the opinion in the SJC decision that a presbytery should examine in thorough detail on a case by case basis the new views of any TE who reports a change in views that involves paedocommunion. I also agree that the presbytery should also record in its minutes a detailed explanation of its evaluation of such changed views.

I commend the TE at the center of this case for his honesty in reporting to his Presbytery with transparent candor the changes in his views since he took his ordination vows. He has specified where his new view fits within the broad spectrum described above. He believes that all covenant children are believers who should be admitted to the Lord's Table as soon after baptism as they can ingest solid food. This view limits baptized, non-communing members in the visible church to baptized covenant children who are not yet able to ingest solid food. I believe that he has expressed his new view in the current record of the case with sufficient clarity and detail to allow the SJC to render an informed judgment on the compatibility of his new view with our Standards. In my opinion, his new view as expressed in the current record is out of accord with the fundamentals of our system of doctrine. Nevertheless I am willing to concur with the decision of the majority of the SJC to remand the case back to the Presbytery without denying or sustaining the complaint. The degree of paedocommunion in this case is far enough along the spectrum to have serious theological implications that contradict fundamentals of our system of doctrine beyond the explicit contradiction which I profess to see as noted above. This possibility is largely not addressed in the current record of this case. As suggested in the decision, there are questions that still need to be asked and areas that still need to be investigated. My hope is that remanding this case back to the Presbytery will give the Presbytery an opportunity to supplement the current record so that it becomes more complete and provides greater clarity. I would, of course, re-evaluate my judgment in response to any substantial clarifications and modifications in a new record.

Concurring Opinion RE Jack Wilson, joined by RE Howie Donahoe and RE John White

I concur in the Judgment and Reasoning of the Commission. I write separately to note that not every difference with our Standards warrants the formation of a record with the level of analysis outlined in this decision. In my view, not every difference demands an evaluation of the implications of that difference with respect to other parts of our Standards. It is, in the first place, the duty of an officer or candidate to make his differences known in his own words with specificity and clarity. It is then the duty and purview of the Presbytery to evaluate those differences by the benchmarks outlined in BCO 21-4(f). Our decision should not be misconstrued as a framework for evaluating all differences with our Standards; or as a methodology to be employed in every instance of a change in views; or as an infringement upon the discretion of our presbyteries to determine generally the manner of inquiry or the means employed to evaluate the views of candidates and officers subject to their jurisdiction.

CASE 2015-01

D. G. SANFACON
VS.
PHILADELPHIA PRESBYTERY

April 29, 2015

The Standing Judicial Commission (SJC) finds that the above-named Complaint is Administratively Out of Order and cannot be put in order (OMSJ 9.1.a.). This ruling is based on the fact that the original Complaint was not timely filed, and therefore this ruling voids every action taken on the Complaint(s) by the lower courts.
Rationale: Mr. Sanfacon is an inactive ruling elder and member of Tenth Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia. The Record indicates his original Complaint was filed with the Session 18 days after the 60-day window had expired (BCO 43-2). Thus, it was not timely filed. It was filed on June 16, 2014, against a Session action of March 30, 2014, thus 78 days afterwards. A “second” subsequent Complaint was filed with the Session on August 7, purportedly against a Session action of July 13, but this was essentially just an extension of the earlier Complaint and thus tied directly to it and therefore out of order. The Session recognized the Complaint was filed outside the 60-day window, yet addressed it anyway. Presbytery also recognized it was untimely filed yet also addressed it. This SJC ruling is similar to one in a 2001 case where the SJC ruled a Complaint out of order because the original complaint was not timely filed with the original court, despite the Session and Presbytery later having considered it anyway. (Case 2001-32 Christ Covenant v. Central Carolina Presbytery, M31GA, Charlotte 2003, pp. 107-109 http://pcahistory.org/ga/31st_pcaga_2003.pdf)

CASE 2015-02
TE CHRIS GEARHART
VS.
CHICAGO METRO PRESBYTERY

DECISION ON COMPLAINT
April 29, 2015

The Standing Judicial Commission (SJC) finds the above-named Complaint Administratively Out of Order (OMSJJC 9.1.a.) in that the minister who would have had standing to file did not notify the PCA Clerk’s office within the 30-day window required by BCO 43-3. Furthermore, that minister did not subsequently give an unqualified ratification of the Complaint. The Complaint cannot be put in order, and therefore it is dismissed.

Rationale - TE Chris Gearhart was and is a member of Chicago Metro Presbytery. An unsigned document alleged to be a Complaint from TE Gearhart was sent to the PCA Clerk’s office on February 19, 2015, by an individual who did not have standing. Despite repeated attempts by the PCA Clerk to contact TE Gearhart, he did not contact the PCA Clerk until April 8, which was 77 days after the January 21 Presbytery action complained against (47 days after the BCO 43-3 deadline). In that e-mail he indicated, “I would like to submit this in my name,” but his lack of timely notification renders this Complaint Administratively Out of Order. Furthermore, in the same e-mail he indicated he was “not sure if the wording of the request fully represents my heart in the matter” and also that he “was not able to review the wording of the document” prior to it being filed.

COMPLAINT OF JOHN B. THOMPSON
VS.
SOUTH FLORIDA PRESBYTERY
DECISION ON COMPLAINT
MARCH 3, 2016

The SJC finds the Complaint judicially out of order as the objections raised in the Complaint ought to be raised by a defendant during process with the court of original jurisdiction (BCO 32-14), or thereafter, if not satisfied, by an appellant on appeal (BCO 42-3).

Note: RE Howie Donahoe timely submitted a Concurring Opinion, which was considered at the May 9, 2016, SJC meeting. See Attachment 2 (Supplement) for this Concurring Opinion.

CONCURRING OPINION
CASE 2015-04
JOHN B. THOMPSON
VS.
SOUTH FLORIDA PRESBYTERY

March 7, 2016

Concurring Opinion of RE Howard Donahoe.

I heartily concur with the SJC Decision but believe further background and rationale would be helpful. To summarize, the plaintiff contended his indictment from the Session was illegitimate, and he filed what he regarded as a BCO 43-1 complaint, but the Session and Presbytery ruled it out of order. He carried the complaint to the SJC, and the SJC Panel recommended the case also be ruled out of order, specifically because a defendant should not be granted appellate review of a decision of a trial court or commission via a BCO 43-1 complaint while the judicial case is in process (absent a demonstration of irreparable impending harm).

The procedural issue in this Case is similar to one decided by the SJC last year in which an accused person filed a complaint, prior to his trial, alleging the indictment was incomplete (Case 2013-03: Marshall v. Pacific). In Marshall, the SJC ruled as follows:
The Complaint is Judicially Out of Order, because it has to do with matters in a judicial case that an accused should reserve for proper disposal in an appeal, not through a complaint (BCO 32-14; 42-3), and because it arose in a judicial case in which an appeal is now pending (BCO 43-1).\footnote{Case 2013-03: Marshall v. Pacific Presbytery, M43GA, Chattanooga 2015, p. 548.}

The first part of the SJC’s reasoning in Marshall, and its reference to BCO 32-14 and 42-3, also apply to this present Case.

In his Complaint to the Session, Mr. Thompson wrote:

> Chapter 43 of the BCO happily provides that the victim of "some act or decision of a court of the Church" may bring a stand-alone complaint against the Church, separate and apart from and before an appeal of a final decision of the Church in any disciplinary proceeding against him.

In his Complaint to Presbytery, he wrote:

> Such a Complaint could be loosely analogized to an interlocutory appeal in a secular court system. It seeks a remedy from an unjust judicial act or proceeding before that proceeding is completed.

But our BCO does not explicitly allow for what’s known in U.S. law as an “interlocutory appeal” (i.e., appealing a lower court’s ruling to an appellate court prior to the final judgment of the lower court). And even in civil cases in U.S. courts, it’s extremely rare and only allowed if it meets narrow requirements. For example, the U.S. Supreme Court specified requirements for U.S. Federal Courts, holding that a pre-judgment appeal would be permitted only if three facts were each demonstrated:

1. The outcome of the case would be conclusively determined by the disputed question;
2. The matter appealed was collateral to the merits (i.e., of a secondary nature to); \textit{and}
3. The matter was effectively unreviewable if immediate appeal were not allowed.\footnote{Lauro Lines v. Chasser, 1989, https://supreme.justia.com/cases/federal/us/490/495/case.html}
Interlocutory appeals are even more rare in criminal cases. Appellate courts are understandably reluctant to consider this when the defendant has not yet been convicted. A defendant’s petition for permission to appeal a trial court’s pre-judgment ruling usually must demonstrate he will be irreparably harmed if he must wait until the end of the trial to appeal. For example, irreparable harm is probably at risk where a juvenile is waived from children's court into adult court. If the juvenile were forced to wait until the end of the case to appeal the waiver order, the children's court may lose jurisdiction (because the child becomes a legal adult) by the time the Court of Appeals reverses the waiver order. But examples like this are rare.

Even if the BCO explicitly allowed for such interlocutory appeals, the circumstances in this present Case do not rise to the level of something warranting the allowance of such an unusual and trial-delaying action. There was no demonstration of impending irreparable harm.

And if this Complainant’s broad interpretation of BCO 43-1 is correct, and such interlocutory appeals are allowed for any and all objections to a trial court’s many rulings, there could be an unlimited number of BCO complaints in a judicial case – even prior to the convening of the actual trial. If a defendant were allowed to file complaints against any and all actions of a trial commission, it could significantly and needlessly delay a trial. For example, the accused might file complaints against:

1. the appointment of a particular prosecutor;
2. alleged deficiencies in the indictment;
3. the appointment of a particular member of a trial commission;
4. the date of the trial;
5. any pre-trial rulings of the court or trial commission (allowable defense counsel, witness citations, admissibility of evidence, length of briefs, scheduled length of trial, time allotted for closing arguments, etc.).

If a defendant were allowed to file a BCO 43-1 complaint simply because he believed an indictment was faulty, as the plaintiff alleged in this Case, it could delay the trial for a year or more while the BCO 43 Complaint was adjudicated by the Session, and then by the Presbytery, and then by an SJC Panel, and then by the SJC.

Finally, it should be noted the Complainant’s objection to the indictment was eventually one of the matters considered in his subsequent Complaint in SJC Case 2015-11. But that part of his Complaint was not sustained.

CASE 2015-05

BCO 40-5 APPLICATION OF JOHN B. THOMPSON TO CITE GRANADA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH FOR “GROSSLY UNCONSTITUTIONAL PROCEEDINGS” AND “DELINQUENCIES” IN REGARD TO ALLEGED IMPROPER, ILLEGAL, AND UNCONSTITUTIONAL USE OF CHURCH DISCIPLINE.

DECISION ON BCO 40-5 APPLICATION
AUGUST 12, 2015

The Standing Judicial Commission (SJC) finds the above-named Case Administratively Out of Order (OMSJJC 9.1.a.) in that The Stated Clerk of South Florida Presbytery has advised that this matter is on the Docket of its August 11, 2015, Stated Meeting. Accordingly, this case cannot be put in order within the Rules of Discipline of the BCO and the requirements of the OMSJC, and that this BCO 40-5 Application is dismissed for the reasons that it was prematurely filed with the SJC. Assuming a “credible report,” “the first step shall be to cite the court alleged to have offended (Granada Presbyterian Church) to appear before the court having appellate jurisdiction (South Florida Presbytery) (BCO 40-5). South Florida Presbytery has docketed this matter for the August 11, 2015, Stated Meeting and has not had an opportunity to rule on said Application.

Officers’ Recommendation finding this case Administratively Out of Order was approved as modified unanimously because the Petitioner’s BCO 40-5 Application was prematurely filed with the SJC. Roll call vote:

Barker, Concur  Duncan, Concur  Meyerhoff, Concur
Bise, Concur  Evans, Concur  Neikirk, Concur
Burnett, Absent  Fowler, Concur  Nusbaum, Concur

Donahoe, Concur  McGowan, Concur  Wilson, Concur
The Standing Judicial Commission reports to the 44th General Assembly that South Florida Presbytery responded to the citation issued by the 43rd General Assembly, and to all outstanding exceptions of substance, by written responses properly adopted by Presbytery.

After reviewing the responses, the SJC took the following actions:

That the minutes of the Presbytery’s executive session of April 21, 2009 (not previously submitted for review) be approved with the following exception of substance:

Exception: Presbytery divested a TE and put him “under the authority (though not necessarily member) of [a particular congregation].” They further state the TE “would no longer be a member of presbytery.”

Grounds: As written, this action appears to violate BCO 46-8. (Note: A response to this exception should be sent to the 45th General Assembly as part of the normal review process.)

That, except as noted below, the Standing Judicial Commission finds all the responses of South Florida Presbytery (see Attachment 1, p. 2048) to be satisfactory.

That the following response be found to be unsatisfactory:

Exception: November 8, 2011 - Minutes report several charges were laid against a TE. Rather than proceeding with judicial process, the moderator appointed a commission as to avoid scandal and hearsay before all the facts are presented, citing BCO 34-2 (BCO 31-2 and BCO 32-2 and 3).

Response: The TE was accused of mismanagement of funds regarding the sale of some land and some loans that were taken out.
All of the paperwork turned out to be in order because he did it with the approval of the Session. A Commission dealt with their situation and reported to the Presbytery. The Commission Report was not included in the Minutes. We admit our error and regret the error. We promise to do better in the future. After a diligent search, the Commission Report was not found. This Response relies on the information provided via e-mail from the Chair of the MCRC Committee:

yes now I remember, there was a man who accused him of mismanagement of funds. He had made decisions about the sale of land and loans taken out but—all the paperwork was in order (meaning that he did it with session approval) and did not do it alone. This was dealt with by a commission that was set up for another issue and I asked that commission to do both cases.

It was dealt with on a commission and reported I remember—I do not have the written info—but I know we denied the charges.

Grounds: Presbytery’s response does not address the concern that BCO 32-2 requires the Court to move to process once an individual makes out a charge against an alleged offender.

Presbytery is reminded that, where its response included the addition of specific language to its minutes not included in the original response (for example, the recording of exceptions in the candidate’s own words), the amended minutes must be presented for review at the 44th General Assembly so that all portions and additions of Presbytery’s minutes that may be reviewed (BCO 13-9.b; 40-1).

Presbytery is further reminded that it still has the duty to review the records of Sessions for all years in which reviews were not accomplished by Presbytery (BCO 40-1; cf., M14GA14-52.46 (p.128; cf., p. 336)). Therefore, if Presbytery has not already done so, it is directed to accomplish these reviews prior to the 45th General Assembly, or to include in its minutes some plan to accomplish this review and to report such plan to 45th General Assembly. The SJC approved this decision on the following roll call vote:

Decision on Complaint
August 12, 2015

The Standing Judicial Commission (SJC) finds the above-named Complaint Administratively Out of Order (OMSJC 9.1.a.) in that the next Stated Meeting of South Florida Presbytery was August 11, 2015, and it had not yet considered the complaint. The SJC finds this case cannot be put in order within the Rules of Discipline of the BCO and the requirements of the OMSJC, and that this case should be dismissed for the reason that it was prematurely filed, i.e., BCO 43-2 does not require a court to consider the complaint until “its next stated meeting.”

Officers’ Recommendation finding this case Administratively Out of Order was approved unanimously because the Petitioner’s BCO 40-5 Application was prematurely filed with the SJC. Roll call vote:

On September 16, 2014, Metropolitan Atlanta Presbytery (MAP) appointed a Commission in response to a request submitted by the Session of Grace North Atlanta (GNA). On January 24, 2015, that Commission made its report to MAP. After receiving the report, MAP appointed a judicial commission, appointed a prosecutor and suspended TE John Hardie (Appellant), without censure, from all official functions while he was under process.

The MAP Judicial Commission conducted the trial and found Appellant guilty of three charges and imposed the censure of indefinite suspension. Appellant filed an appeal citing numerous irregularities in the proceedings and prosecution of the case. The SJC is denying the Appeal.

I. SUMMARY OF THE FACTS

09/15/14 The Session of Grace North Atlanta submitted a request asking the Shepherding Committee which has already met with us, to provide appropriate help as needed as we initiate pursuing reconciliation with various staff members in keeping with Matthew 18:15-18 and Matthew 7:1-5. We as a Session recognize we need ongoing help in living out repentance and putting into place safeguards to wisely shepherd the church community of Grace North Atlanta so that we, congregation and Session, may grow more in the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ.

09/16/14 At the September 16, 2014 Stated Meeting of MAP, the Presbytery passed the following motion:
To form a Commission to come alongside of the Session, to meet with elders, members, and the pastor of a MAP church [TE John Hardie and Grace North Atlanta] in a holy attempt to investigate, discern and help all work through disorder that has come to the surface.

09/23/14 The Commission (referred to hereafter as the “9/16/14 Commission”) convened and began its work.

01/24/15 The 9/16/14 Commission presented its report and recommendations to MAP at the January 24, 2015, Stated Meeting. The 9/16/14 Commission’s report included a finding that there was a “strong presumption of guilt regarding TE Hardie’s violation of his ordination vows, BCO 31-2.”

At the January 24, 2015 meeting, MAP passed the following motions:

- MSP that Presbytery begin process concerning TE Hardie per BCO 31-2;
- MSP that Presbytery appoint a judicial commission and appoint a prosecutor per BCO 31-2; and
- MSP while TE Hardie is under process, Presbytery suspended him from all official functions without censure per BCO-31-10.

03/24/15 Appellant met with the Judicial Commission to hear charges and enter a plea.

Appellant waived the reading of the charges and entered a plea of not guilty to all charges.

06/29/15 MAP held a Called Meeting to consider the report of the Judicial Commission. At that meeting, the Commission reported “The commission found TE Hardie guilty of three counts of breaking his ordination vows and indefinitely suspended him from the exercise of his office until he gives satisfactory evidence of repentance.” (Underline in original) A motion to approve the commission’s judgment was made and passed.

At that same meeting, the MAP inflicted the censure: “We, the Metropolitan Atlanta Presbytery in the name and by the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ, do now declare you suspended from the exercise of your office, until you give satisfactory evidence of repentance.”

MAP also approved a resolution that read in part and concluded:

WHEREAS. Should TE John Hardie give, or subsequently file, notice to appeal the Judicial Commission trial, verdict and censure, as approved by Metropolitan Atlanta Presbytery, the following action is deemed proper and appropriate to be recorded as an official act of Metro Atlanta Presbytery and inscribed in the official minutes of this said meeting.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED. that Metropolitan Atlanta Presbytery does hereby evoke the provisions of BCO 42-6; to-wit, “prevent him from exercising…all of his official functions, until the case is finally decided. (cf BCO 31-10).”

FURTHER BE IT RESOLVED that this action is not taken in the way of inflicting censure, but rather is to protect the peace, purity and unity of the Church. (bold and underline in original) 07/13/15 Appellant filed an Appeal.

01/15/16 The Panel conducted its hearing.

II. STATEMENT OF THE ISSUE

Shall the specifications of error raised by the Appellant be sustained?
APPENDIX T

III. JUDGMENT

No. The Appeal is denied.

IV. REASONING AND OPINION

The standard of review for this Court is set forth in BCO 39-2 and 3:

2. A higher court should ordinarily exhibit great deference to a lower court regarding those factual matters which the lower court is more competent to determine, because of its proximity to the events in question, and because of its personal knowledge and observations of the parties and witnesses involved. Therefore, a higher court should not reverse a factual finding of a lower court, unless there is clear error on the part of the lower court.

3. A higher court should ordinarily exhibit great deference to a lower court regarding those matters of discretion and judgment which can only be addressed by a court with familiar acquaintance of the events and parties. Such matters of discretion and judgment would include, but not be limited to: the moral character of candidates for sacred office, the appropriate censure to impose after a disciplinary trial, or judgment about the comparative credibility of conflicting witnesses. Therefore, a higher court should not reverse such a judgment by a lower court, unless there is clear error on the part of the lower court.

This Court is charged, therefore, to give “great deference” to MAP’s decision and to reverse only if there is “clear error.”

Appellant alleged seventeen specifications of error under six categories. These errors will be addressed in the order they were raised in the Appeal. The format for addressing these errors will be to summarize the alleged error in italics and present the reasoning and opinion in regular font.

Category I-Irregularities in the Proceeding of the Presbytery

a. The Presbytery erred in how it formed its Judicial Commission. There is no record of a BCO 31-2 investigation, no finding of a strong presumption of guilt and no indictment was drawn. Further, MAP invoked BCO 31-10 to suspend TE Hardie from his official functions.

The issues raised in this specification of error are essentially the same issues raised in the Complaint SJC 2015-03. The only documents in the ROC that address these issues are materials from Case 2015-03 that were included in this ROC by reference.

At its January 24, 2015 meeting, MAP heard the report of its 09/16/14 Commission, which commission had been charged, in part, “to meet with elders, members, and the pastor of a MAP church [TE John Hardie and Grace North Atlanta] in a holy attempt to investigate, discern and help all work through disorder that has come to the surface.”

In the course of its work, the 09/16/14 Commission, which was not established to conduct judicial process, (but was commissioned “to investigate”) came to the conclusion that judicial process should begin against Appellant. The 09/16/14 Commission concluded that there was a strong presumption of Appellant’s guilt and recommended that MAP begin process against Appellant, appoint a judicial commission to try Appellant, and appoint a prosecutor. Further, the 09/16/14 Commission recommended that Appellant be suspended from all official functions while under process, without censure, per BCO-31-10.

MAP passed motions consistent with the recommendations of the 09/14/16 Commission. It was at this point that MAP authorized the appointment of a judicial commission. The Judicial Commission then began its work.

BCO 31-2 provides:

31-2. It is the duty of all church Sessions and Presbyteries to exercise care over those subject to their authority. They shall with due diligence and great discretion demand from such persons satisfactory explanations concerning reports affecting their Christian character. This duty is more imperative when those who deem themselves aggrieved by injurious reports shall ask an investigation.

If such investigation, however originating, should result in raising a strong presumption of the guilt of the party involved, the court shall institute process, and shall appoint a prosecutor to prepare the indictment and to conduct the case. This prosecutor shall be a member of the court, except that in a case before the Session, he may be any communing member of the same congregation with the accused.

The investigation (which included a finding of a strong presumption of guilt) in this case originated from the work assigned to the 09/16/14 Commission; as such it was an investigation consistent with the provisions of BCO 31-2. The results and recommendations from the investigation were presented to MAP in the 9/16/14 Commission’s report of January 24, 2015. MAP’s action to form a judicial commission based on the report and recommendation of its 09/16/14 Commission was not, therefore, improper.

This Court is at a loss to give credence to Appellant’s argument that “no indictment” was drawn, as this was in fact done by the prosecutor consistent with MAP’s actions of January 24, 2015.

Finally, as to MAP’s action to suspend Appellant from all official functions while under process, without censure, per BCO-31-10, the authority for such action is provided in BCO 31-2, and Appellant offers no evidence to show clear error on the part of MAP.

The Appellant has failed to show that MAP clearly erred in establishing the Judicial Commission or in appointing a prosecutor, or invoking BCO 31-10 to suspend Appellant from his official functions while the case was pending.

b. The indictment was improperly drawn and the citation was improperly signed. On February 28, 2015, TE Hardie was served with an indictment along with a citation to appear before the Judicial Commission on March 11, 2015. The indictment was signed by the Moderator of MAP, TE Rienstra; TE Reinstra’s involvement in the process was out of order since a Judicial Commission had been appointed.

The ROC does not include a copy of the indictment, but the ROC does show:

- On January 24, 2015, MAP passed the following motion: that Presbytery appoint a judicial commission and appoint a prosecutor per BCO 31-2 (emphasis ours). Therefore, MAP did not give the judicial commission the power to appoint the prosecutor.
- One of the duties assigned to the prosecutor is the preparation of the indictment. (BCO 31-2).
- The Judicial Commission conducted a proper “first meeting” of the court given that the Presbytery did not give the Commission power to appoint the prosecutor. (BCO 32-3)
- On March 24, 2015, Appellant met with the Judicial Commission to hear charges and enter a plea, at which time Appellant waived the reading of the charge and entered a plea of not guilty.
- The Judicial Commission’s March 24, 2015 meeting was, therefore, a proper “second meeting” of the court. (BCO 32-3)

It is the responsibility of the prosecutor to prepare the indictment (BCO 31-2). The Court will assume for the sake of argument that the MAP moderator signed the indictment prepared by the prosecutor. The Court fails to see, however, how the signature of the MAP moderator on the indictment is a violation of BCO procedure, much less a basis for finding clear error on the part of MAP.

c. The Presbytery erred in allowing RE Bob Edwards to serve as a member of the Judicial Commission. In this specification of error, the Appellant raises two issues.
1) That RE Edwards should not be allowed to be a member of the commission “since he is a ruling elder in the church pastored by a member, who was also the chairman, of the Presbytery Commission that brought charges against the Appellant.”

Appellant made this objection at the March 24, 2015 meeting of the court. The Commission denied his request. Appellant produced no evidence that RE Edwards was biased because of his relationship to the Chairman of the Presbytery Commission and therefore there is no clear error mandating reversal.

2) That RE Edwards should have been disqualified from sitting on the Commission because he was not present for the final day of the trial, May 30, 2015.

On May 16, 2015, the Court decided to reconvene the trial on May 30, 2015. On May 30, 2015, a quorum (two Teaching Elders and two Ruling Elders) was present for the proceedings. RE Edwards’s absence from the May 30, 2015, proceedings was noted and discussed, and Appellant did not object to RE Edwards’s absence.

There is nothing in the BCO that requires a member of a Judicial Commission to be physically present to hear all testimony in a trial. In fact, BCO 32-17 allows the court to grant permission to a member of the court to be absent from a sitting of the court. Appellant’s failure to object to the Judicial Commission’s decision to allow RE Edwards to be absent and to hear the case in video format constitutes a waiver of the objection. Appellant did not even ask the Judicial Commission to consider an alternative. Therefore, Appellant cannot raise the issue after the trial.

The ability of a commission member to perform his duties is a matter of discretion and judgment on the part of the lower court. This court notes that allowing a temporarily absent member of a judicial commission to vote on a decision could be the basis of a challenge to a lower court’s decision, but we do not have sufficient information to make that determination in this case.

Finally, the Court notes that had the Judicial Commission decided to disqualify RE Edwards, the required quorum would have still been present.

This Court is compelled to defer to the lower court unless there is clear error on the part of the lower court. Appellant has failed to prove clear error.

d. The Commission received advice from the Presbytery’s Parliamentarian. The appellant contends that once a case is committed to a Judicial Commission, seeking and receiving outside advice constitutes interference in the trial process.

To commit a case to a commission is to place the commission in charge of the case; it does not isolate or quarantine the commission. In the course of a case, it is advisable that a court consult competent authority for advice. Appellant provides no evidence to show that consulting the MAP Parliamentarian interfered with the trial, and therefore there is no clear error mandating reversal.

e. The Commission allowed two witnesses (RE John Norris and RE Chuck Lia) to join the Prosecution team after they had testified. In this specification of error, the Appellant raises two issues:

1) That both witnesses were disqualified because “these men were known to ‘indulge a malignant spirit towards the accused’ and were ‘deeply interested in any respect in the conviction of the accused.’ (BCO 31-8)” Appellant raised this objection at trial and the Commission denied the objection. Making a determination on the presence of a malignant spirit or deep interest in the conviction of an accused is a matter of judgment and discretion for the lower court. Appellant did not produce any evidence that a malignant spirit or deep interest in conviction existed in John Norris. Appellant did cite a reference in ROC 2356 concerning Chuck Lia, to wit “To write a formal rebuke from the commission to Chuck Lia and refer his disciple [sic] to the provisional session for refusing to meet [sic] with John and the commission.”

The matter of qualifying witnesses is a matter of judgment and discretion for the lower court. In the absence of clear error, the higher court must defer to the lower court. \( BCO \) 39.3.3)

2) \textit{There was a possibility that these two ruling elders could be recalled to testify as witnesses for the defense}

Although it may be argued that the two ruling elders could not be recalled, Appellant did not raise the issue of \textit{possibly} recalling either witness, and therefore this aspect was not raised in trial by objection. Appellant had opportunity to cross-examine both witnesses when they testified. Appellant has presented no evidence that he even considered recalling either witness or that the inability (if there was, in fact, an inability) to recall the witnesses was detrimental to his defense. Appellant has not established clear error on the part of the lower court.

\textbf{Category II-Receiving Improper Evidence}

\begin{enumerate}
\item \textit{The Judicial Commission allowed Prosecution witnesses to be asked questions that were not specific to the questions listed in the charges}

Appellant has failed to show from the ROC that MAP committed clear error regarding the questions that were asked during the trial.

\item \textit{Witnesses could not testify to specifics since the indictment itself was not specific regarding when alleged offenses occurred}

Though the Specifications of the Indictment were not included in the ROC, the Record does not show that objections were made or properly preserved that testimony was non-specific or irrelevant to the indictment, or that testimony was generally disadvantaged by the state of the indictment.
\end{enumerate}
c. The Commission allowed witnesses to present other than firsthand, eyewitness testimony that was based on hearsay.

In support of this specification, Appellant cited incidents found in ROC 133, 163, 171, 177, 271, 328, 458, 510, 517, 528, 819, 1159, 1160, and 1161. In examining those incidences, it is our opinion that the Commission acted properly in responding to the objections and issued proper warnings and guidance to the parties and witnesses. On numerous occasions, the members of the court cautioned witnesses about the nature of their testimony. When testimony was found to be improper, the Court declined to hear it or explained that they would grossly discount its value as evidence. [E.g., ROC 153-158, 165-166, 271, 298, 510-511, 516-517] Appellant failed to produce evidence that the testimony taken at the trial violated the rules of evidence as outlined in the \textit{BCO}; therefore, there is no clear error on the part of the Commission.

d. The Commission allowed emails and written statements as documentary evidence from a number of individuals that declined to testify. Appellant contends that these documents should not have been entered into evidence since the Appellant would not have an opportunity to cross examine the authors of those documents.

In support of this specification, Appellant cited ROC 161-164, 1946, 2067-2077 (regarding Morgan Havig); 167 (regarding David Conner); 237 (regarding David Wilhite); and 2135 (regarding Mary Stewart).

In examining Appellant’s citations, it is our opinion that the Commission gave proper consideration to the evidence and testimony properly presented to the Commission. In considering the interaction between Morgan Havig and Appellant, the Judicial Commission relied on the testimony of HL Jackson, Kimberly Jackson and Tom Schuler. Information that may have been provided by David Conner and David Wilhite is not cited in the Commission’s finding of fact and Mary Stewart did testify and was questioned regarding her diary entries.
The Court notes that Appellant presented written statements from witnesses who did not appear before the Judicial Commission and who were not subject to cross-examination, e.g., ROC 2188, 2190, 2193 and 2293. Appellant’s claim of harm due to the fact that he could not cross-examine certain witnesses and their written statements is weakened by the fact that Appellant submitted to the Judicial Commission substantial amounts of the same type of evidence.

Appellant has failed to produce evidence that the Commission committed clear error by giving undue consideration to any of these documents.

e. The Commission allowed testimony from individuals that should have not been allowed to testify under provisions of BCO 31-8.

Making a determination on the presence of a malignant spirit or deep interest in the conviction of an accused is a matter of judgment and discretion for the lower court. The question for this Court is whether MAP committed clear error in reaching its decision. Appellant has not produced any evidence from the ROC that would demonstrate that any of the individuals who testified were not qualified and has not demonstrated that the lower court committed a clear error; therefore, the higher court must defer to the lower court. (BCO 39.3.3)

Category III-Refusal of Reasonable Indulgence

a. The Court repeatedly changed the date for the beginning of the trial such that it affected the Appellant’s ability to inform its witnesses when they could be expected to be called to testify. The Appellant contends that the trial was originally scheduled for April 18, then rescheduled for May 2, and then, at the request of the Prosecutor, was delayed until May 9.

According to the ROC, the trial date of May 9, 2015 was set by the Court on April 17, 2015 during a conference call attended by Appellant. During the second day of the trial, May 16th, all parties were involved in setting May 30, 2015 as the third day of the trial. Appellant raised no objection to the date at that time. By setting May 30, 2015 as the date for the trial to continue, Appellant had 14 days to notify and line up witnesses. Appellant has failed to provide any evidence from the ROC that would demonstrate that the scheduling was a refusal of reasonable indulgence and constituted clear error on the part of the Court.

b. The Commission directed the Appellant to present and conclude his case on May 30, 2015.

There is nothing in the ROC that indicates that the Commission ever gave such direction to Appellant. Further, there is no evidence in the Record that Appellant asked for more time and was denied, or that Appellant objected to any time limits alleged to have been imposed. Consequently, this Court cannot say that MAP clearly erred and refused reasonable indulgence to the Appellant.

Category IV-Manifestation of Prejudice in the Case

a. Manifestation of prejudice is evidenced by beginning the judicial process in an unconstitutional manner, the improper drafting and lack of proper approval of an indictment, the unconstitutional interference of persons in the judicial process, the Court being deferential to the prosecution, failing to heed the concerns of the Appellant and the development of factual findings without corroborative evidence, the use of hearsay and the testimony of witnesses not supported by other witnesses.

This Court has addressed above Appellant’s claims of error which are set out in summary fashion in this specification of error. The Appellant failed to demonstrate from the ROC that MAP clearly erred and manifested prejudice in this case.

b. The Court manifested prejudice on January 24, 2015, when it suspended TE Hardie under the provisions of BCO 31-10. Appellant contends that the suspension sent a prejudicial signal that only a guilty verdict would be the right outcome.

The decision to suspend a member under process is a decision that is made at the discretion of the court. Appellant failed to produce any evidence in the ROC to indicate that MAP’s decision to suspend TE Hardie on January 24, 2015, was a clear error or prejudiced the eventual outcome of his case in any way.

c. The Court manifested prejudice when it stated its intent to invoke the provisions of BCO 42-6 and to continue the suspension from all official duties of office before the Appellant gave notice of appeal. Appellant contends that the notice of appeal must be given before the court can consider the continuation of a suspension and to take the preemptive action was indicative of prejudice against the Appellant.

There is nothing in BCO 42-6 that would require a court to wait for a notice of appeal to be filed before considering the question of suspension. It is reasonable and prudent for a court to anticipate that a notice of appeal would be filed and make a determination regarding suspension immediately following the pronouncement of censure. By anticipating the notice of appeal, the court prevents any confusion regarding the status of a person between the time that the notice is received and the court is able to reconvene. The Appellant failed to provide evidence from the ROC to support his assertion that this action by MAP was a clear error or was indicative of any prejudice against him.

Category V-Hurrying to a Decision before All the Testimony Was Taken

The Appellant contends that the Court gave great latitude to the Prosecution to present its case and then informed the Defense that it had to complete presenting its case in a short period of time.

The Appellant failed to produce evidence from the ROC to substantiate this claim. The Appellant began his defense at about 5:15 PM on May 30, 2015. [ROC 1596]. Twelve witnesses, including Appellant, were examined and cross examined. Nothing in the ROC suggests that Appellant asked for additional time or that the Commission put any restriction on the time allowed for Appellant to make his defense. The Commission asked the defense if they were resting and the only response was “We’ll make a closing.” Appellant has failed to prove clear error.
Category VI-Mistake and Injustice in the Judgment

Appellant contends that in addition to the suspension imposed on January 24, 2015, the censure of Indefinite Suspension from Office is not commensurate with the offenses. The Appellant argues that a censure of Admonition or Definite Suspension from office would be more commensurate.

Appellant was convicted of three offenses; each offense involving the breaking of one of his ordination vows. BCO 30-1 states that definite suspension is only appropriate for “an accused who, upon conviction, satisfies the court as to his repentance and make restitution as appropriate.” The issue of whether or not the Appellant is repentant is left with MAP. MAP issued the only censure that was appropriate for the conviction, that is:

We, the Metropolitan Atlanta Presbytery in the name and by the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ, do now declare you suspended from the exercise of your office, until you give satisfactory evidence of repentance.” (underline in original).

For the reasons stated above, Appellant has failed to sustain any of the specifications of error raised in his appeal. The judgment of MAP is upheld.

BCO 35-7 allows the court of final appeal to assess the cost of transcription equitably among the parties. The SJC assesses the cost of transcribing this trial equally between the parties. However, we encourage MAP, as an act of mercy, to consider absorbing the entire cost.

The Panel’s Proposed Decision was drafted by RE Jones and RE Nusbaum and edited by the Panel, and further amended and approved by the SJC on the following roll call vote:

The Standing Judicial Commission (SJC) finds the Request/Application Administratively Out of Order and cannot be put in order (OMSJC 9.1.a.) because it deals with proceedings in a judicial case, and that the case be dismissed pursuant to OMSJC 9.2(d). See BCO 40-3: “Proceedings in judicial cases, however, shall not be dealt with under review and control when notice of appeal or complaint has been given the lower court.” Further, the claimant stated on November 1, 2012 upon withdrawing a complaint on this matter: “Please consider this my official request to withdraw my complaint…I understand that once my complaint is withdrawn it cannot be resubmitted.”

Concurring Opinion of RE Howard Donahoe.

I concur with the SJC Decision in this Case, but believe fuller explanation is warranted. This Case is administratively out of order for two reasons. First, in his August 2015 letter to the PCA, the claimant essentially seeks to re-file his previously filed Complaint, which he withdrew almost three years prior on November 1, 2012. To allow this would be to disregard the filing deadlines stipulated by the BCO.

Second, his letter seeks the reversal of a judicial censure via the avenues of BCO Chapter 40. But BCO 40-3 stipulates, “no judgment of a lower court in a judicial case shall be reversed except by appeal or complaint.” In his letter, he mistakenly asserts the following: “While the court can not overturn a judicial case, this was not a judicial case as I was deposed without a trial despite requesting one.” But it was a judicial case and he is seeking reversal of the censure via BCO 40, which cannot be done.

According to the Record, in 2012 the claimant was a ruling elder on leave of absence. That summer, the Session encouraged him to resign, noting that if he declined, the Session would likely proceed to indictment. He declined to resign, and the Session indicted him on four charges. At the arraignment on August 5, 2012, the Session regarded his response to two of the charges as being guilty pleas. To one charge, he responded, "Yes, I have fallen short in this area." And to another charge he responded, "I have certainly fallen short in this area, too." The Session considered these responses as admissions of guilt, advised him of such at the arraignment, and proceeded that evening to impose the censure of deposition from office.

He filed a Complaint against that censure in September 2012. But on November 1, 2012, he withdrew his Complaint, acknowledging, “I understand that once my complaint is withdrawn it cannot be resubmitted.” Over 30 months later, in July 2015, he filed what he purported to be a BCO 40-5 letter asserting Presbytery was guilty of grossly unconstitutional proceedings and important delinquency for allegedly failing to investigate his August 2012 deposition. Presbytery rightly judged the matter to be closed and his letter to be administratively out of order for reasons similar to the SJC’s.

DECISION ON BCO 40-5 APPLICATION
MARCH 3, 2016

The Standing Judicial Commission (SJC) finds this Case Administratively Out of Order and cannot be put in order (OMSJC 9.1.a.) because it deals with proceedings in a judicial case in which a complaint was filed. Accordingly, the case is dismissed pursuant to OMSJC 9.2(d). CASE 2015-11

JOHN B. THOMPSON
VS.
SOUTH FLORIDA PRESBYTERY

DECISION ON COMPLAINT
MARCH 3, 2016

SUMMARY OF THE FACTS

A member of Granada Presbyterian Church (and PCA ruling elder not actively serving on a session) was indicted for violating his membership and ordination vows for allegedly inappropriate emails sent to officers and other members of his church, and he pled not guilty. A week prior to the trial, he changed his plea and proposed handling the matter as a BCO 38-1 case without process and proposed a 23-page “full statement of the facts.” The Session Commission then proposed a different two-page statement, but an agreement was not reached on a 38-1 statement. Prior to trial, the accused was convicted of contumacy for allegedly failing to appear at two citations for BCO 38-1 discussions and “refusing to cooperate with lawful proceedings,” and the censure of excommunication was imposed. His subsequent Complaint to the Session was ruled Administratively Out of Order, and his Complaint to Presbytery was denied.

06/06/14 Granada Session charged its Commission for Care (SCC) “to administer discipline, as deemed necessary” regarding Mr. John B. Thompson. He is a PCA ruling elder, but not serving on a session.

01/07/15 Six months later, the Commission adopted the following:

“That RE Jack Thompson be instructed to cease sending emails regarding Granada Presbyterian Church business. (This will be communicated to him in person and contemporaneously in writing at our next planned Commission meeting to take place on Wednesday, January 14, 2015.)”

01/13/15 Mr. Thompson was notified to appear at a Commission meeting the next day.

01/14/15 Commission meeting, with five REs present: Woody Lippincott, Dale Haywood, Ernesto Escoto, Nathan Adler, and Marcos Ruiz. Granada TE Phil Binnie was present as a guest and consultant. Below is an excerpt from the minutes:

Jack Thompson did not appear at the SCC meeting as verbally requested by telephone by RE Lippincott and TE McCloud earlier in the week. The meeting was scheduled to start at 6:45 pm (15 minutes before the start of choir practice) in order to accommodate Thompson. It is noted that while the commission waited for Thompson to appear, he attended choir practice in the same building.

After discussion, the following motion resulted due to the finding of a strong presumption of guilt of the party involved: SCC- 2015-3: That the Granada Session authorize the SPC [sic] to proceed with judicial process and to allow the commission to invite a Presbytery member familiar with judicial procedures to act as moderator. Motion passed without objection.

01/23/15

Date the Indictment was signed by prosecutor RE Elwood T.
[Woody] Lippincott, Jr., which included the following:

4. On June 17, 2014 commission members
[three REs] initiated a meeting in person with JBT and admonished him to stop sending emails regarding GPC business.

5. In contravention of this admonition, JBT continued to initiate emails regarding GPC business.

6. As a result of this contravention, on September 17, 2014, commission members [RE and TE] initiated another meeting in person with JBT. [The senior pastor] was also in attendance. The commission members again admonished JBT to stop sending
e-mails regarding GPC business.

7. In contravention of this admonition, JBT continued to initiate emails regarding GPC
business.

8. Since the first meeting of commission members and JBT on June 17, 2014, JBT has initiated in excess of 369 emails regarding GPC business. A number of these emails were sent to, among others, church members who are not Ruling Elders or Teaching Elders, children of church members, the wives of some session members and the elderly mother of at least one church member.

9. The continuing initiation of emails after June 17, 2014 regarding GPC business constitutes multiple clear violations of the vows of membership and eldership taken by JBT,
"against the peace, unity and purity of the Church, and the honor and majesty of the Lord Jesus Christ, as the King and Head thereof".
01/24/15 Indictment was delivered. Mr. Thompson submitted a written plea of “not guilty.” Eventually, a trial was scheduled for July 1.

06/23/15 Five months later, and one week prior to the trial, Thompson notified the court he was changing his plea to guilty, not to the charges in the indictment, but rather, guilty to what was in his 23-page document that accompanied his change in plea. He proposed the matter be handled as a BCO 38-1 case without process. [For the June 23 date, see ROC 229, paragraph #1, last sentence. Mistakenly, his Complaint to the Session stated this confession was delivered June 25.]

The Commission then “cited” him to appear at a meeting on June 25 “to approve a full statement of facts in accordance with BCO 38-1.” The Commission attached a two-page document it proposed as the appropriate 38-1 statement. (The citation was dated June 22, but apparently was drafted after the court received Mr. Thompson’s June 23 change in plea.)

06/25/15 Thompson did not appear. The Commission “cited” him a second time, to appear at a 6/26 meeting “to approve a full statement of facts in accordance with BCO 38-1.” The Citation read in part, “If you appear and the parties are not able to approve a full statement of the facts, the case will proceed to trial as scheduled on July 1....”

06/26/15 Meeting between Thompson and the Commission. In his Complaint to the Session, Thompson contended he was “ordered not to speak” and contended the Commission said it was "because that is not on the agenda." Thompson was accompanied by a retired police chief who attested to the accuracy of that contention.

06/27/15 Mr. Thompson was served by a process server at his home with a citation to appear at Granada the next day for the purpose of having a “judgment” entered against him.

06/28/15 Commission Meeting with four REs present: Woody Lippincott, Marcos Ruiz, Nathan Adler, and Dale Haywood, with TE McCloud present as a guest and consultant. Mr. Thompson attended the meeting with his wife. Commission Minutes record:

The Judgment [of excommunication] was read in accordance with BCO 36-6. A trespass warning was also read to Thompson, and he received copies of the Judgment and the trespass warning. Judgment read as follows:

- Whereas the session of Granada Presbyterian Church charged its standing Commission for Care on June 5, 2014, to administer discipline, as deemed necessary, to John Bruce Thompson, a member of Granada Presbyterian Church and a ruling elder in the Presbyterian Church in America, and
- Whereas the Commission for Care served an Indictment on John Bruce Thompson on Jan 24, 2015, and Whereas the accused, John Bruce Thompson, initially submitted a written plea of not guilty to the charges in the Indictment and
- Whereas the accused subsequently submitted a written change of plea from not guilty to guilty and
- Whereas the accused received a Citation to Appear before the commission to approve a Statement of Facts per BCO 38-1 and
- Whereas the accused refused to attend as cited and
- Whereas the accused received a second Citation to Appear before the commission to approve a Statement of Facts per BCO 38-1 and
- Whereas the accused refused to attend as cited a second time and
Whereas the accused, both before and after his guilty plea, has intentionally engaged, and continues intentionally to engage, in the behavior which is the subject of the Indictment and

Whereas the accused refuses to cooperate with these proceedings and has displayed no sign of repentance as to his contumacy and as to the charges in the Indictment and

After much admonition and prayer and further endeavor by the court to bring the accused to a sense of his guilt, the accused has persisted in his contumacy and obstinately refuses to hear the Church. Therefore, in the name and by the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ, we, the standing Commission for Care of the session of Granada Presbyterian Church of the Presbyterian Church in America, do pronounce you, John Bruce Thompson, to be excommunicated from the Presbyterian Church in America and cut off from the fellowship of the Church.”

07/01/15 The date originally scheduled for the trial, but no trial was held.

07/02/15 Called Session meeting. Approved the Judicial Commission’s recommended Judgment and Censure of excommunication.

07/06/15 Mr. Thompson filed a 14-page Complaint with the Session. The 14-page Complaint did not allege error in the Session’s trespass warning.

07/16/15 Stated Session Meeting. Three TEs and seven REs were present. Below is the only excerpt from the Minutes regarding the Thompson Complaints:
Item 4: Correspondence - Clerk Haywood distributed a letter sent to the session by several Granada members regarding the Jack Thompson situation. Discussion was deferred until later in the meeting. Also, Thompson's complaints (#’s 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11) were ruled administratively out of order, thus not received.

Jul/Aug Mr. Thompson filed several complaints with Presbytery, including this present one.

08/11/15 Presbytery Stated Meeting at Granada. Excerpts from Executive Session Minutes include:

In the matter of John Thompson: TE Matt Dubocq reported 8 complaints were received from former RE of Granada John Thompson. TE Matt Dubocq - on behalf of the MCR [Minister and Church Relations] committee made a motion to rule these complaints (united as one complaint) by John Thompson out of order. TE Phil Binnie, TE Matt Dubocq, and RE Marcos Ruiz (members of the MCR committee) abstained from voting on this motion as they are either members of Granada or involved in the complaint.

A motion was made to amend the motion and substitute "denied" instead of "out of order" in regards to complaints by John Thompson. The motion was passed to deny the complaints of John Thompson. BCO 43-2, 43-3 rules these complaints are denied. The session did not err, nor was there any misconduct or delinquency on the part of the Clerk of Presbytery or the Chairman of the MCR. (Note: The Teaching and Ruling Elders of Granada abstained from voting on this this motion and all other motions regarding this case.)

08/12/15 SFL Moderator TE Moran sent Mr. Thompson a letter, which included the following:

The South Florida Presbytery met on August 11, 2015 and considered all of the judicial matters that you submitted to the clerk of Presbytery. The Presbytery passed the following motion: “Motion to deny the complaints made by John Thompson.” Please find this decision with its accompanying rationale in the document attached.”

A three-page “Judicial Decision” was attached, which contained 11 bullet points under “Reasoning.” (This seems to come from the MCR Committee report. It’s unclear if the Presbytery ever adopted this. The August 11 Minutes don’t reflect adoption, but at the ROC Hearing the Respondent indicated he believed Presbytery had adopted it.) The document included the following as the conclusion:

Under BCO 38-1; 43-1, one who cooperates with the court in a case without process has 60 days to file a complaint against the imposed censure. The censure was ratified by the Church Session July 2. The sixty-day deadline for filing such a complaint against the censure would be September 7. That complaint would have to be filed first with the session. Filing with the Presbytery or SJC without first filing with the session and giving the session opportunity to deal with it would be pre-mature.

The difficulty for the complainant to win his complaint regarding the BCO 38-1 process is, in the MCRC committee chairman's opinion, not possible because:

- He did not plead guilty to the charges specified in the indictment as required by BCO 38-1.
- He did not agree to the statement of facts as required by BCO 38-1.
- He did not agree that his guilty plea and the statement of facts could be used by the court to impose whatever censure the court deemed appropriate. He agreed only to a censure of admonition.
- He walked out of the proceedings (as he had walked out of his disbarment proceedings in 2008).

Since the complainant did not appear for a trial, he does not have the right to appeal (BCO 42-2).

01/26/16 Panel filed its Proposed Decision with the SJC.

II. STATEMENT OF THE ISSUE

Did the Session Judicial Commission initially err in reaching its June 28, 2015 pre-trial judgment that Mr. Thompson was guilty of contumacy for alleged disregard of two citations or alleged refusal to cooperate with lawful proceedings?

Thereafter, did the Presbytery err on August 11, 2015 in denying a Complaint (BCO 43-3) against the Session’s actions regarding the Judgment of Guilt and Censure of excommunication on June 28, 2015, July 2, 2015, and July 16, 2015?

III. JUDGMENT

Yes. The Session’s judicial commission procedurally erred, and subsequently the Session and the Presbytery erred in not sustaining the Complaint.

Therefore, the SJC annuls the judgment of guilt for contumacy under BCO 32-6 and thus the censure of excommunication. This Judgment also annuls the Session actions on July 2 and July 16, and the Presbytery action on August 11.

This places the matter back to where it was on June 26, 2015 when the Session’s judicial commission invited the accused to a meeting to discuss the wording of a proposed confession (“full statement of the facts”) with the view of trying to handle the matter as a BCO 38-1 case without process. In other words, he is restored to the status of being a member of Granada PCA under indictment with judicial process pending.

IV. REASONING

The SJC is not expressing any opinion on whether the Complainant could have been convicted at a trial for contumacy. We are simply saying that his behavior was not the immediately censurable kind envisioned in BCO 32-6.b. For him to be censured for the subjective kind of contumacy, it would need to be proven at trial or confessed.

First, a BCO 30 censure cannot be imposed unless guilt is proven by:

1. a mutually-acceptable BCO 38-1 confession (case without process);
2. pleading guilty to charges in an indictment;
3. guilt proven at trial;
4. the demonstration of immediately censurable contumacy by willfully ignoring two citations to appear, or refusing to plead, at an arraignment;
5. or, the demonstration of immediately censurable contumacy by refusing to cooperate with lawful proceedings. (BCO 32-6)

The Record does not demonstrate 1, 2, 3, or 4 occurred. There was no mutually agreeable 38-1 confession, or a plea of guilty as charged, or a trial. And an accused person is not constitutionally required to appear at a hearing to discuss a proposed BCO 38-1 statement of facts. Declining to appear at a 38-1 meeting is not the same as ignoring a citation to appear or plead at the arraignment (BCO 32-6). Regardless, the Record indicates the Complainant appeared at the second meeting on June 26 and only left after he was told he was not to speak.

So that brings us to item 5: guilt of the sin of “refusing to cooperate with lawful proceedings.” (See the last Whereas clause in the Commission’s Judgment on June 28, 2015.) While that phrase might appear to be subjective, its location in BCO 32-6 and the fact that it is immediately censurable points to it being objective instead. In other words, it’s the kind of refusal to cooperate that renders process impossible — like ignoring two citations for an arraignment or refusing to plead.
While the Record demonstrates the accused was challenging to deal with, the behavior in the Record does not demonstrate the type of “refusing to cooperate with lawful proceedings” that would be immediately censurable as BCO 32-6.b contumacy. The Collins English Dictionary, for example, defines contumacy in two ways:

1) obstinate and wilful rebelliousness or resistance to authority; insubordination; disobedience;
2) the wilful refusal of a person to appear before a court or to comply with a court order.\(^\text{12}\)

That two-part definition is instructive here because it describes both subjective and objective behavior. The second definition describes the type of objective contumacy envisioned in BCO 32-6.b. The first definition describes the type of subjective contumacy of which the Presbytery apparently believed the Record also demonstrated the Complainant was guilty. This was clear from the Presbytery Respondent’s answers to questions at the Hearing before the SJC Panel. But the first kind of contumacy is the subjective kind that must be proven at trial, with witnesses and evidence.

Again, the SJC is not expressing any opinion on whether the Complainant could have been convicted at a trial for contumacy. We are simply saying it was not the immediately censurable kind envisioned in BCO 32-6.b. For him to be censured for the subjective kind of contumacy, it would need to be proven at trial or confessed.

Second, for a matter to be a BCO 38-1 case without process, the accused and the court must mutually approve a written statement (confession). Both must agree it is a full statement of the facts. If agreement cannot be reached, there cannot be a BCO 38-1 case without process. In this case, on June 26, 2015, the two-page statement proposed by the judicial commission was quite different than the 23-page statement proposed by the accused. So, absent an agreement, they should have proceeded to the trial scheduled for a week later.

Further, the SJC interprets the January 23 Indictment as charging Mr. Thompson with persisting in sending unsolicited emails about church business in excessive numbers to church members after being admonished to cease. The admonitions given to Mr. Thompson as represented in the Indictment could be interpreted as instructing Mr. Thompson not to send any emails regarding church business, not even one composed with temperate language, and with accurate, non-confidential content, and sent to willing recipients with a reasonable frequency. A ban of that scope would be beyond the powers of a Session because that prohibition would have no basis in the general moral regulations of Scripture. The Record does not demonstrate that the Session intended an absolute ban of emails regardless of content. For this reason, the SJC does not judge the Indictment to be unconstitutional.

It should be noted that the Complainant raised the issue of the Session’s June 29 trespass warning (“TW”) in his Preliminary Brief. However, since the Complainant did not include the TW as a specification of error in his original Complaint as enumerated under “The Wrongful Acts and Delinquencies of Granada,” he cannot raise it now with the appellate court in Complaint 2015-11.

After Thompson’s oral argument, and because his reference to the TW was so pronounced in his Brief, a Panel member asked him to cite a page number in ROC 86-99 where he complained about the Session’s TW (i.e., in his original, 14-page Complaint filed with the Session on July 6). He was unable to provide any citation. He said it might be in the sections of that document that the Panel redacted on October 12 (for intemperance). However, nowhere in the 19 lines of text redacted from two pages in his July 16 Complaint does he complain about the TW, nor does the word “trespass” even appear in those redacted lines. While the TW was one of the documents in the nine pages of attachments to his Session Complaint, that’s different than being part of the Complaint. So, the TW is not a matter before the SJC in Case 2015-11.

Finally, some procedural omissions of the Presbytery warrant critique, and some actions of the Complainant warrant rebuke.

The Presbytery failed to comply with many important stipulations of BCO 43 regarding how an appellate court reviews a Complaint. The Complainant was apparently not able to “present his complaint” (BCO 43-5) or “appear before the higher court” (BCO 43-7 & 8). There was no “hearing” where he could “present argument” including “the right of opening and closing the argument” (BCO 43-9). At the Hearing, the Respondent’s answers to questions from the Panel confirmed these omissions. Ordinarily an appellate court should give parties the opportunity to file briefs (BCO 43-8). And while the BCO does not explicitly require Presbytery to give the Complainant the opportunity to comment on the Record filed by the Session, it would be prudent to do so. Had Presbytery done these things, this Case might have been resolved much earlier.\textsuperscript{13}

The SJC is compelled to note for the record that the Complainant has egregiously violated the rules of decorum in these proceedings (RONR (11th ed.), p. 392-93). This conclusion is sustained in the consideration of the following particulars:

1. The Panel was required to redact (remove) material from 20 pages of his writings in the original Record due to his intemperate language and non-germane accusations. For example, the Panel was required to redact intemperate or accusatory text from 7 of the 23 pages in his proposed BCO 38-1 Confession, which was as much an accusatory document as it was a confession.

2. He filed dilatory motions, such as a request for the entire Panel to be disqualified (which the SJC Chairman rejected, without objection from any Commissioner).

3. He inundated the Panel, the SJC Chairman, and the PCA Stated Clerk with emails outside the customary allowances in the SJC Manual (approximately 1,000 to the Stated Clerk alone). This was so abused the Panel had to warn the Complainant that unless such emailing ceased, the Panel might reduce the number of pages he could file in his Preliminary Brief. The Panel Chairman received over 180 emails from Mr. Thompson related to this Case. Further, these emails were frequently intemperate in tone, contained allegations not germane to the case, or were threatening as to consequences of adverse rulings.

4. In addition to the original 222-page Record, Mr. Thompson requested the addition of over 500 pages of documents and material, \textsuperscript{13} At the Hearing, Presbytery’s Respondent indicated a Brief was not invited since Presbytery had already received dozens of communications from the Complainant, many of which Presbytery’s Minister and Church Relations Committee regarded as circularizing the court. In addition, the Presbytery meeting was held at Granada Church, which had given the Complainant a no trespass warning. But the appellate court should have found a way to give the Complainant a hearing. A Presbytery judicial commission could have held a hearing at a different location.

which the Panel was required to review. (He also requested his 250-page autobiography be added to the Record, but he never supplied it.) Then, just three days before the hearing to establish the final Record, he reduced this request to 70 pages. In other words, he wasted much of the Panel’s time.

5. In emails and other documents in this Case, he demanded information about the PCA’s insurance policy, requested non-existent PCA documents that he insisted existed, and notified the PCA he had written to the IRS with a complaint against Granada and the Presbytery.

6. On January 11, just nine days prior to the Hearing, he emailed 49 Presbytery Clerks (which included a Panel member) and accused a non-involved PCA church of something non-germane to his case and attributed to an SJC officer a position that officer does not hold. He also wrote to the Clerks:

I am hereby asking you to send me other examples of which you are aware in which folks in our denomination have used "church discipline" to treat the freedom we have in Christ to disagree about nonessentials as "sin," in violation of BCO 29-1... Such hijacking by some within our denomination of legitimate church discipline for illegitimate ends needs to stop, and I ask for your help in stopping it. Send me your horror stories.

7. On January 15, five days before the Hearing, he sent a nine-page document to the PCA Stated Clerk titled "Offer of Global Settlement." He copied several people and asked the PCA Stated Clerk to forward it to the Panel chairman (and others). At best, this was another unauthorized attempt to add material over the 10-page limit for a Preliminary Brief. But the excerpts below, from the unauthorized document, seem to indicate it was even more than that.

In providing this formal offer to the PCA GA Stated Clerk, Roy Taylor, Thompson asks that it be provided by him to the Panel Chair and to the SJC Chair and to the PCA Administrative Committee, as well as to the PCA’s corporate Board of Directors, so that everyone who ought to be in the loop, who in fact is in the loop by virtue of the pendency of this Case and the real risks it raises...
To the extent that any PCA court rubberstamps or ignores or enables or fails to order the revocation of this illegal trespass warning that court draws itself, by negligence at the very least, into civil and other attempts to remedy this hateful wrong.

Should civil litigation be necessary to vacate it, how are this denomination and this Presbytery and this particular church going to convince a judge and a jury . . . .

Thompson cannot compel anyone of you on the other side of this mess to mediate or to even consider this offer. You can be as lemmings and go off the cliff. But resolution is possible through the appreciated efforts of those who might take seriously the notion of peace in this church in this place at this time. If none of you wishes to resolve this, then fine, it will be on you all. I have done all I can do. You cannot say you were not warned and given a life line: “Après moi le déluge.” 14 “Here I stand. I cannot do otherwise.

8. After receiving the Panel’s Decision, he filed 23 post-hearing documents and motions, totaling almost 100 pages, none of which are allowed under the OMSJC. (Parties are limited to a 5-page post-hearing Supplemental Brief.)

In conclusion, because this SJC Decision has “reset” the clock to June 26, 2015, the Indictment is still pending. However, as any other person under indictment, the Complainant has the right to request the Session to transfer his membership to another church. The Session may grant such a request and dismiss him to membership in another church (BCO 12-1 and 12-5.a). Or, per the principles of BCO 38-3.a, it may decline such a request and “may retain his name on the roll and conduct the case.”

The Panel’s proposed decision was initially drafted by RE Donahoe, and after amendments, was adopted unanimously by the Panel of RE Bise, TE Gunn, and RE Donahoe. Panel alternates were TE Evans and RE Wilson, and they viewed the Hearing via videoconference. The SJC approved the Decision, as further amended on the following roll call vote:

CASE 2015-12

TE TOLIVAR WILLS
VS.
METRO ATLANTA PRESBYTERY

DECISION ON COMPLAINT
MARCH 3, 2016

I. SUMMARY OF THE FACTS

06/29/15 Metro Atlanta Presbytery (MAP) meets at a called meeting and decides to dissolve Grace North Atlanta (GNA) as an affiliate of MAP and the Presbyterian Church in America.

07/16/15 RE Randy Weekly, RE Steve Flesher, and TE Tolivar Wills file a complaint against the action taken by MAP on 6/29/15 to dissolve GNA.

09/15/15 MAP declares the complaint filed by RE Weekly, RE Flesher, and TE Wills on 7/16/15 to be administratively out of order.

09/18/15 TE Tolivar Wills files a complaint with the Standing Judicial Commission (SJC) of the PCA against the action taken by MAP on 9/15/15. The complaint is “against the decision of Metropolitan Atlanta Presbytery (MAP) taken at its Stated Meeting on September 15, 2015 in declaring administratively out of order the Complaint filed on July 16, 2015, to wit: That the Complaint is Administratively Out of Order because it lacked a signature.”
II. STATEMENT OF THE ISSUE

Is Complaint 2015-12 properly before the SJC?

III. JUDGMENT

No. The Complaint is Administratively Out of Order.

IV. REASONING AND OPINION

Complaint 2015-12 is against the action taken by MAP on 9/15/15.

_BCO 43-2_ states that “A complaint shall first be made to the court whose act or decision is alleged to be in error.”

MAP has not had the opportunity to respond to the Complaint regarding their action on 9/15/15, to wit: declaring the July 16, 2015 Complaint to be Administratively Out of Order.

If the Complainant desires to pursue this Complaint, he must file this Complaint with MAP within 30 days from notification of this Decision. (OMSJC 9.2(c))

This Opinion was drafted by RE Nusbaum and edited and adopted by the Panel, and amended and approved by the SJC on the following roll call vote:

IV. PROPOSED MANUAL CHANGES

The SJC submits to the 44th General Assembly the following proposed amendments (underscoring for additions; strikethrough for deletions) to the Operating Manual of the Standing Judicial Commission (OMSJC) for adoption.

A. That the OMSJC, Chapter 10, Judicial Panels, sub-section 10.9., be amended by striking the current language:

10.9 DURING THE HEARING:

a. The arguments of the parties shall be heard in the following order:
   (1) the Appellant makes the opening arguments;
   (2) the Appellee then replies
   (3) The Appellant makes the closing argument.

b. After the hearing shall have been opened and the initial requirements of BCO 42-8 met, but before any arguments of the parties have been presented, the members of the Panel or Commission shall have the opportunity to question the parties on any matter before the court.

c. A party shall have a maximum of 30 minutes to argue his case before the Panel or Commission (and in the case of the Appellant, this 30 minutes is inclusive of both his opening and closing arguments.)

d. At any time during which a party is presenting an argument to a Panel or the Commission, a member of the Panel or Commission may ask questions of that party; the time taken for such questions shall not form a part of the argument time of the party questioned.

And putting in its place the following:

10.9 ORAL ARGUMENT. A Judicial Panel shall hear oral argument as follows: in an Appeal in accordance with OMSJC 13.3; in a Complaint in accordance with OMSJC 14.3; and in a Report Arising Out of General Review and Control in accordance with OMSJC 15.4.

Rationale:
The section as it stands is (inadvertently?) worded exclusively for an Appeal, and, in light of 13.3 and 14.3, is redundant.
B. That OMSJC, Chapter 7, The Record of the Case, sub-section 7.2.b., be amended by striking “32-18 and” so that the sub-section reads:

b. The Record of the Case in a Complaint shall be prepared in accordance with BCO 32-18 and 43-6 which shall include: . . .

Rationale:
The citation struck, pertaining as it does to a trial, is not relevant to a Complaint.

C. That OMSJC sub-section 7.4.d. be amended by adding the underlined text as below:

d. If the other party does not accede to the objection, the Judicial Panel, or the Commission if the case is to be heard by the Commission, shall hold a hearing by electronic conference with respect to the objection.

(1) In preparation for the hearing the Chairman shall:

(a) Set a date and time for the hearing, making every reasonable effort to obtain such date and time as may be agreeable to the parties.

(b) Notify the parties of such date and time for the hearing by electronic means not less than 14 days prior to the date of hearing, obtaining a receipt of acknowledgement from each party. Such 14 day period may be shortened if the parties agree in writing.

(c) Notify the parties of their right to submit briefs according to the standard set forth in OMSJC 8.4.a. of not more than 5 pages in length.

(2) The hearing shall proceed as follows:

(a) After the hearing has been opened, but before any arguments are presented, the members of the Panel or Commission shall have the opportunity to question the parties with respect to the matter at hand. The same shall be true after the conclusion of the time for argument.

(b) A party shall have a maximum of 20 minutes to address the question, the time divided between opening arguments by the parties in turn, and rebuttal arguments by the parties in turn.

(c) At any time during which a party is presenting an argument, a member of the Panel or Commission may ask questions of that party; the time taken for such questions shall not form a part of the time of the party questioned.

(3) After oral argument the parties shall be dismissed and the Panel or Commission shall make a decision as to whether in fairness and justice the Record of the Case should be corrected.

Rationale:

OMSJC gives direction to hold a hearing, but no direction as to how the hearing is to proceed. The amendment remedies the deficiency, as far as reasonable mirroring the other hearing procedures of OMSJC.

D. That OMSJC, section 7.4. be amended by adding a new sub-section b, with the following sub-sections re-lettered:

b. The hearing body may delete any portions of the Record as submitted that violate justice or due process, a provision of the BCO or Roberts Rules of Order, or that are extraneous to the matter before the Commission. The hearing body may also require the addition of material to the Record that is relevant to the Case. Deletions and additions shall always be recorded in the minutes of the hearing body, with the approved rationale for the change. Any deletions or additions shall be reported to the parties, and may be addressed in argument from the parties in any hearing requested by a party on the ROC (OMSJC 7.4(c)).

Rationale:

With respect to a new 7.b., such discretion ought to belong to the hearing body, but there should also be a record of its actions to make accountability possible.

E. That in regard to Overture 2, the SJC recommends OMSJC, section 18.12. be amended as follows:

Note: there is no proposed change to 18.12.a. It is shown only for context.]
18.12. Concurring and Dissenting Opinions

a. The right of a Commission member to file a Concurring or Dissenting Opinion (see 17.8.k) is an essential element of the work of the Commission, in that it preserves the unity of the Commission by allowing a member in the minority to submit to the Commission’s judgment, while declaring, and thus clearing, his conscience in a particular decision. An Objection (BCO 45-1, 4) is only permissible in the case of an otherwise qualified member of the Commission (cf. OMSJC 2.2-.3) who could not vote due to being a member of the presbytery or a member of a congregation in the bounds of the presbytery from which the case arose (cf. BCO 39-2).

b. That right notwithstanding, in order to preserve the primacy of, the authority of, and respect for Commission decisions, any Concurring or Dissenting opinion, which does not qualify as a minority decision under the terms of BCO 15-5, shall be reviewed to ensure that it meets the following standards:

(1) Concurring or Dissenting opinions shall set forth concisely, as the case may be, the alternate grounds upon which the Commission’s decision ought to have been rendered; or, the alleged error of the Commission’s decision, a statement of the decision that should have been rendered, and the grounds sustaining.

(2) Ordinarily Concurring or Dissenting opinions should set forth positions or employ arguments that were offered in the course of the Commission’s proceedings on a case.

(3) Concurring or Dissenting opinions shall be couched in temperate language conducive to maintaining respect for the Commission, vigorous expression of disagreement with the decision notwithstanding.
(4) Concurring or Dissenting opinions shall conform to the specifications for a preliminary brief (OMSJC 8.4.a-b.).

c. At the request of four SJC members within 14 days after the date the text of the Concurring or Dissenting Opinion is sent by the Secretary to the members of the SJC, the Chairman shall call a special meeting of the Commission, upon at least fourteen (14) days’ notice, by telephone or video conference to consider the adoption of either (1) a motion to adopt an Answer to any Concurring or Dissenting Opinion or (2) a motion to strike the Opinion for failing to meet the standards in 18.12.b. Upon the adoption of an Answer to a Concurring or Dissenting Opinion by the Commission, no further Concurring or Dissenting Opinion shall be permitted; neither shall any amendment to the Concurring or Dissenting Opinion in question be permitted. A Concurring or Dissenting Opinion may be withdrawn.

V. ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The Officers of the Standing Judicial Commission elected for 2015-2016 are as follows:

Chairman: TE Fred Greco
Vice Chairman: RE John White
Secretary: RE Jack Wilson
Assistant Secretary: RE Steve Meyerhoff

Respectfully submitted,
/s/ TE Fred Greco, Chairman    /s/ RE Samuel J. Duncan, Secretary

Meeting Dates: January 18, 2011

Response: The stated difference of the candidate was included at the bottom of the “Theological Views” and was submitted with them. We do admit our failure to include that the difference was judged as being “merely semantic” and will correct that in the future by including the judgments of the Stated Differences.

Response: This response is the same as the response above. This Exception was from both the 40th General Assembly in 2012 and the 41st General Assembly in 2013

Exception: Minutes report several charges were laid against a TE. Rather than proceeding with judicial process, the moderator appointed a commission as to avoid scandal and hearsay before all the facts are presented, citing BCO 34-2 (BCO 31-2 and BCO 32-2 and 3)
Meeting Dates: November 8, 2011
Response: The TE was accused of mismanagement of funds regarding the sale of some land and some loans that were taken out. All the paperwork turned out to be in order because he did it with the approval of the Session. A Commission dealt with this situation and reported to the Presbytery. The Commission Report was not included in the Minutes. We admit our error and regret the error. We promise to do better in the future. After a diligent search, the Commission Report was not found. This Response relies on the information provided via e-mail from the Chair of the MCRC Committee:

yes now I remember, there was a man who accused him of mismanagement of funds. He had made decisions about the sale of land and loans taken out but - all the paperwork was in order (meaning that he did it with session approval) and did not do it alone. This was dealt with by a commission that was set up for another issue and I asked that commission to do both cases.

It was dealt with on a commission and reported I remember - I do not have the written info - but I know we denied the charges.

Exception (repeated): Minutes report several charges were laid against a TE. Rather than proceeding with judicial process, the moderator appointed a commission as to avoid scandal and hearsay before all the facts are presented, citing BCO 34-2 (BCO 31-2 and BCO 32-2 and 3)
Meeting Dates: November 8, 2011
Response: This response is the same as the previous response. This Exception was listed from both the 40th General Assembly in 2012 and the 41st General Assembly in 2013
General Assembly Year: 2012

Exception: No record of review of Sessional records of church sessions (BCO 13-9.b)
Meeting Dates: February 7, May 8, August 14, November 13
Response: The Presbytery has been negligent in fulfilling this task. We regret this omission and promise to be careful to include it in the future.

Exception: Ordination of TE: terms of call not included (BCO 20-1 and 13-11)
Meeting Dates: February 7 and August 14, 2012
Response: The Minutes state: “Credentials Committee Report – (see information attached):” but the report, which has the necessary documents, is not included. We will include the report in the Minutes. We regret this error and promise to be careful to include all reports in the future.

Exception: All specific requirements of ordination exam not included (BCO 21-4 and RAO 16-3.e.5)
Meeting Dates: May 8 and August 14, 2012
Response: The May 8 Minutes do not include the requirements of the Ordination exam at all and the August 14 Minutes have an incomplete list of requirements for the Ordination Exam. Both Ordination Exams were indeed complete with all parts taken, passed, and approved but not properly recorded in the Minutes. We regret these errors and will be careful to include the complete list of all specific requirements of the Ordination Exams in the future.

Exception: Stated Differences with our Standards not recorded in the proper manner (BCO 21-4 and RAO 16-3.e.5)
Meeting Dates: August 14, 2012
Response: The differences were not included from the Report from the Credentials Committee, but it was declared that “M/S/P His adherence to Confessional standards with a declared and allowable Continental view of the Sabbath”. The judgment of the difference should be recorded as “more than semantic but not out of accord with any fundamental of our system of doctrine”. We regret this error and promise to be careful to record the differences with the Standards in the proper manner in the future.

Exception: In complete record of TE transferring into Presbytery
Meeting Dates: November 13, 2012
Response: The Minutes state that “Leo Riley was recognized as a TE serving at Coral Ridge PCA” but the record of transfer is not included. We regret this error, will include the record of transfer, and promise to be diligent to include these records in the future.
Exception: Assignment of temporary session without recording justification or church invitation (BCO 5-3 and 15-1)
Meeting Dates: November 13, 2012
Response: The temporary session is “approved” both by the church and the Presbytery and “assigned”, but not justification or invitation is included in the Minutes. We regret this error and promise to be careful to include the justification or the church invitation in the future.

Exception: No record in the minutes of any stated meetings of an annual report from TEs working out of bounds (BCO 08-7)
Meeting Dates: General
Response: We have been in error by omitting these annual reports for the past years. We regret this error and promise to be more careful in the future to include these annual reports for the TEs working out of bounds.

General Assembly Year: 2013

Exception: “Insufficient record of those at the meeting, namely, the ruling elders and their respective churches should also be included, and the names of visitors may be included.” (BCO 13-1, BCO 13-4, BCO 13-11, and RAO 16-3.c.6)
Meeting Dates: General
Response: We acknowledge our error regarding the incompleteness of the Attendance Rosters for the Presbytery Meeting in 2013. We placed in the Minutes the rosters that include the Ruling Elders with their respective churches along with the Visitors. We regret this omission and promise to do better in the future.

Exception: No record of licensure exam (BCO 19-2)
Meeting Dates: February 12, 2013
Response: The Licensure Exam for Henry Rojas was indeed carried out and approved. We regret our error in the omission of the record of this exam. We placed an addendum for this exam in the February Minutes. The Presbytery promises to be more careful to include the exams in the future.

Exception: No record of congregational meeting to approve dissolution of pastoral relationship (BCO 23-1)
Meeting Dates: February 12, 2013
Response: We agree with the Assembly that the record of the congregational meeting was not included in the Minutes. The TE was an Assistant Pastor. We have obtained the record of the Called Meeting of the Session and included it in the February Minutes. We promise to be careful about including such records in the future.
Exception: No record of licensure questions being propounded (BCO 19-3)
Response: After each Licensure Exam for these candidates, the Questions for Licensure were indeed proposed and answered in the affirmative by all the candidates. We regret our error in not recording these questions and responses. We promise to be more careful in the future to include all questions and responses.

Exception: All specific requirements for licensure exam not recorded (BCO 19-2)
Meeting Dates: November 12, 2013
Response: We regret our error regarding the incompleteness of the Licensure Exams for the two Candidates. We have since placed an Appendix in the November Minutes which includes all the parts of the Exams. We promise to be more diligent in the future to include all the parts.

Exception: All specific parts of Ordination Exam not included (BCO 21-4)
Meeting Dates: November 12, 2013
Response: We regret our error in the omission of all the parts of the Ordination Exam for the Candidate. We placed all the parts which were administered and approved by the Presbytery in an Appendix to the Minutes of November 12, 2013. We promise to do better in the future with including all the parts of the Ordination Exams.

General Assembly Year: 2014

Exception: No record of review of records of church Sessions (BCO 13-9.b)
Meeting Dates: General
Response: The Presbytery has been negligent in fulfilling this task. We regret this omission and promise to be careful to include it in the future.

Exception: TE roll incomplete; unsure if Sessions represented; licentiates, RE’s, and churches not specified (RAO 16-4.c.1)
Meeting Dates: General
Response: The Attendance roll included only included the TE’s. We regret the error of leaving out the RE’s, licentiates, and churches, and promise to do better in the future to include those parts of the Attendance.

Exception: No commission reports/minutes (BCO 15-1)
Meeting Dates: General
Response: Response: There were five ordination and installation commissions, one judicial commission, one commission for the transfer of a TE into the Presbytery, and one commission for a provisional session. None of the commission reports were included in the Minutes. We included an addendum to the Minutes of the proper months with some of these reports of the commissions. Our Presbytery has not been diligent in requiring the commissions to submit reports. We regret this omission and this error and promise to be careful to include all reports for all commissions in the future.

Exception: Ministerial obligation not shown to be signed (BCO 13-7)
Meeting Dates: February 11, 2014

Response: The candidates all were approved for all parts of their exams and did sign the ministerial obligation (Ex Amino book), but we did not record that those signatures were done. We regret this error and promise to do better in the future to record the signatures of the ministerial obligations.

Exception: No record of requiring statement of differences with our standards (BCO 21 – 4)
Meeting Dates: February 11, 2014 and August 12, 2014

Response: It is recorded in the Minutes that the differences were approved, as “more than semantic but not out of accord with any fundamental of our system of doctrine”, for each candidate, but we did not include the Differences in the Candidates’ own words for the candidate in the February meeting. The candidate from the August meeting did include his differences which are listed at the end of his Views and may have been overlooked. We regret the omission for the first candidate and the confusion for the second. We promise to do better in the future by including each candidate’s difference in his own words.

Exception: No record of all specific requirements of ordination (BCO 21 – 4)

Response: There were three candidates in February, one candidate in May, and one candidate in August. Each of these candidates took, passed, and was approved for all requirements of ordination. We did not include all requirements in our Minutes and regret our omission. We promise to be more careful in the future.

Exception: No record of ordination exam (BCO 21 – 4)
Meeting Dates: May 13, 2014

Response: The TE involved transferred into the Presbytery in the previous year (2013). All requirements of his transfer were not recorded in the Minutes although each requirement was propounded and approved by the Presbytery. We regret this error and promise to do better in the future to include all requirements for a TE to transfer into the Presbytery.
RESOLUTION OF THANKS

WITH JOY, THANKSGIVING AND GREAT EXPECTATION, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America has chosen to convene for the fourth time in the state of her birth, Sweet Home Alabama.

At that first General Assembly at Birmingham, on December 4, 1973, commissioners numbered 338, representing a denomination of sixteen presbyteries, 196 teaching elders, 260 churches and a membership of 41,232. This Assembly has received the report that our Presbyteries now number 84, with 4,630 teaching elders, 1,534 churches and a membership of 370,332. This is the LORD’S DOING AND IT IS MARVELLOUS IN OUR EYES (Psalm 188:23).

THE EARLIEST FOUNDATIONS of Presbyterianism in Alabama occurred in the northeast quadrant within the outreach orbit of the ministry to First Americans at the historic Brainerd Mission on Missionary Ridge in Chattanooga. The earliest surviving congregations are Lowndesboro (1816), Greenville (1820), Old Scotland/Monroeville (1823), Pea River, Clio (1823) and First Montgomery (1824), all now part of the PCA. An early pastor of the Montgomery church was Aaron Jerome, uncle of Sir Winston Churchill.

Well-known Alabama Presbyterians include: ex-slave and self-funded missionary to Africans Maria Fearing of Sumter County; “Brother Bryan of Birmingham”; Pioneer frontier evangelist Isaac Hadden; missionaries to the Congo TE Samuel N. Lapsley and African American William H. Shepherd, MD, and wife (he was knighted by King Leopold III of Belgium for defense of African natives being exploited by European rubber companies); Helen Keller; Daniel Baker, the “Apostle to Texas,” sent by Tuskalooosa* Presbytery; US Senate Chaplain Peter Marshall; and Dr. Condoleezza Rice. Yellowhammer Presbyterians all! **

Bold footprints remain of the ministries of the late Robert Strong, a prime leader of Reformed conservatives in the old PCUS, and of Pastor Frank Barker, thankfully still active amongst us, founder and long-time pastor of Briarwood Church, Birmingham, and a founder of Birmingham Theological Seminary and Campus Outreach.

We are thankful for the ordinary means of grace and the able preaching & exhorting received during the 44th General Assembly by retiring Moderator Jim Wert, Tim Keller, and Thurman Williams. We have been uplifted in song by the musicians of Gulf Coast Presbytery, the Bay County Chorale and the wonderful Getty Family. We commend George Robertson for his wise, congenial, and efficient leadership as Moderator of this Assembly.

Host Committee Chairman Mack Griffith and his team have so ably served this Assembly. We thank as well Dr. Taylor and the Staff of the Stated Clerk’s Office who have attended to every detail with careful duty.

Mr. Moderator with the sweet summer winds of Mobile Bay we move this motion be adopted with thanksgiving and acclamation.

APPENDIX V

OVERTURES
OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN AMERICA

(Note: The following are the original texts of the overtures as submitted by presbyteries to the PCA Office of the Stated Clerk. For any changes to these overtures by the Committees of Commissioners and/or the Assembly, see the respective Committee of Commissioners Reports.)

OVERTURE 1 from Heartland Presbytery (to OC)
"Steps Toward Racial Reconciliation"

Whereas, the 30th General Assembly adopted a statement on racial reconciliation that confessed its covenantal, generational, and heinous sins connected with unbiblical forms of servitude; and

Whereas, the 32nd General Assembly adopted a paper titled “The Gospel and Race” that was produced under the oversight of our Mission to North America committee; and

Whereas, the 144th General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, Evangelical Synod, adopted a statement on “Racial Questions”; and

Whereas, the facts of history, especially during the period of the 1950s through the 1970s, confirm generational sins among some of our courts, churches, officers, and members, such as: 1) lack of concern regarding societal and ecclesiastical racial injustice and 2) opposition to the visible unity of all believers in Christ; and

Whereas, in seeking to confess and repent of our own sins, we acknowledge that the iniquity of our fathers may continue in the midst of some of our churches, and as they do, they negatively affect our denomination as a whole (Lev. 26:40-45, Ezra 9:6-16, Neh. 9:1-38, Dan. 9:1-27); and

Whereas, the PCA has been hindered in its goal to be obedient to the Great Commission because our Presbyteries and individual congregations have not sufficiently addressed these sins that continue to affect our churches and witness today; and

Whereas, we wholly lean on the grace of God for forgiveness, reconciliation, and repentance (Eph. 2:1-16, 2 Ti. 2:24-26, 2 Cor. 5:18-21);

3 Minutes of the 144th General Synod of the RPCES, pp. 51-54. www.pcahistory.org/findaids/rpces/docsynod/385.html
Therefore be it resolved, that, before our Lord, the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America exhorts all its members, especially its officers, to examine themselves in the light of Scripture to determine if there be any unconfessed and unrepentant sins of partiality, favoritism, or prejudice among them (Gn. 1:26-27, Eph. 2:14-22, Jas. 2:1-4), specifically:
1. Barring people from participating in and/or failing to encourage them to attend upon the worship of God and membership in Christ’s Church based upon their ethnicity;
2. Tolerating in our Presbyteries and local churches members of groups organized for the segregation, exclusion, and/or harm of people based on their ethnicity;
3. Speaking and/or preaching in favor of prejudice and segregation that leads to the disunity of God’s people;
4. Actively working to oppose the betterment of those of a different ethnicity than ourselves;
5. Looking down upon people based upon their ethnicity;
6. Actively, passively and/or inadvertently being unloving and inconsiderate of all people in all our thoughts, words, and actions;
7. Harboring sinful anger, bitterness, and a vengeful spirit towards people based upon their ethnicity or past sins; and

Be it further resolved, that if any such sins be discovered, either past or present, that these sins be admitted, confessed, forgiveness sought before God and from those brothers and sisters so sinned against, as far as possible, and repentance, reconciliation, and reformation be manifested according to God’s Word (Mt. 3:8, WCF 15); and

Be it further resolved, that all members of the PCA are encouraged to call all people without distinction to faith in the Gospel and repentance, and to invite them into our local churches because our God Himself shows no partiality (Acts 10:34, Rom. 2:11); and

Be it further resolved, that all congregations of the PCA work together to strengthen the unity of our denomination, as a part of the one Church, the singular bride of Christ, founded not on culture, ethnicity, or class, but one in Christ, fulfilling the mission and work of all He commanded us (Mt. 28:18-20, Gal. 3:28, Eph. 4:1-16); and

Be it further resolved, that the Stated Clerk disseminate this resolution to all Presbyteries and Sessions in the PCA for the reconciliation and health of Christ’s Church; and

Be it further resolved, that Presbyteries and Sessions be greatly encouraged to examine their own history on these issues and to spread this resolution to all its members for the purpose that all would examine their hearts with more specificity and appropriate Biblical action be taken where applicable.

OVERTURE 2 (Revised) from Pacific Northwest Presbytery (to SJC)

“Amend Operating Manual of the Standing Judicial Commission (OMSJC) 18.12.b and 18.12.c to Allow Concurring and Dissenting Opinions To Be Distributed Concurrently with an SJC Decision”

Whereas, after the SJC adopts a judicial Decision, it is promptly sent to the parties, and is public; and

Whereas, unfortunately, because of OMSJC 18.12, the Decision is usually published without attaching Concurring or Dissenting Opinions (unlike other appellate courts); and

Whereas, per 18.12, before these Opinions can be published, the SJC must have a called meeting where they are “reviewed,” and because an SJC called meeting requires 30 days’ notice, this usually results in an automatic delay, which is unhelpful and unnecessary;

Therefore, be it resolved that Pacific Northwest Presbytery overture the 44th General Assembly to amend the Operating Manual of the Standing Judicial Commission (OMSJC) as follows:

[Proposed deletions are shown below by strikethrough, and additions are underlined. Note: there is no proposed change to 18.12.a. It is shown only for context.]

18.12. Concurring and Dissenting Opinions

a. The right of a Commission member to file a Concurring or Dissenting Opinion (see 17.8.k) is an essential element of the work of the Commission, in that it preserves the unity of the Commission by allowing a member in the minority to submit to the Commission’s judgment, while declaring, and thus clearing, his conscience in a particular decision. An Objection (BCO 45-1, 4) is only permissible in the case of an otherwise qualified member of the Commission (cf. OMSJC 2.2-.3) who could not vote due to being a member of the presbytery or a member of a congregation in the bounds of the presbytery from which the case arose (cf. BCO 39-2).

b. That right notwithstanding, in order to preserve the primacy of, the authority of, and respect for Commission decisions, any Concurring or Dissenting opinion, which does not qualify as a minority decision under the terms of BCO 15-5, shall be reviewed to ensure that it meets the following standards:

(1) Concurring or Dissenting opinions shall set forth concisely, as the case may be, the alternate grounds upon which the Commission’s decision ought to have been rendered; or, the alleged error of the Commission’s decision, a statement of the decision that should have been rendered, and the grounds sustaining.

(2) Ordinarily Concurring or Dissenting opinions should set forth positions or employ arguments that were offered in the course of the Commission’s proceedings on a case.

(3) Concurring or Dissenting opinions shall be couched in temperate language conducive to maintaining respect for the Commission, vigorous expression of disagreement with the decision notwithstanding.

(4) Concurring or Dissenting opinions shall conform to the specifications for a preliminary brief (OMSJC 8.4.a-b.).

c. At the request of four SJC members within 14 days after the date the text of the Concurring or Dissenting Opinion is sent by the Secretary to the members of the SJC, the Chairman shall call a special meeting of the Commission, with at least 14 days notice, by telephone or video conference to consider the adoption of either (1) a motion to adopt an Answer to any Concurring or Dissenting Opinion or (2) a motion to strike the Opinion for failing to meet the standards in 18.12.b. Upon the adoption of an Answer to a Concurring or Dissenting Opinion by the Commission, no further Concurring or Dissenting Opinion shall be permitted; neither shall any amendment to the Concurring or Dissenting Opinion in question be permitted. A Concurring or Dissenting Opinion may be withdrawn.

Rationale

1. This change will lessen the time between when the parties and the public see the SJC’s Decision and when they see any Concurring or Dissenting Opinions. And, like with most appellate court decisions, the BCO implies these should be published simultaneously, or at least nearly so.

_BCO 15-5.b._ In each case the SJC shall issue a summary of the facts, a statement of the issues, its judgment and its reasoning, _together with_ any concurring or dissenting opinions, all of which shall be entered on the minutes of the GA and shall be reported by the Stated Clerk to the next GA. The judgment shall be effective from the time of its announcement to the parties. (Emphasis added.)

2. It is unwise to delay every Concurring or Dissenting Opinion on the rare chance that one might not meet the four standards in the Manual. The PCA can, and should, trust its judges to meet the four standards described in 18.12.b. And the burden for initiating review should be on those judges who think their fellow judge has written an Opinion that doesn’t comply.

3. Temperate language - There are four sections earlier in the SJC Manual stipulating such an Opinion will be published, “if it is couched in temperate language” (_OMSJC_ 12-10, 13-7, 14-7, 17-8.k.) But the “if” should not necessarily be understood as requiring the opinion be _delayed_ for review. This is the same phrase used in _BCO_ 45-5 (below) for dissents filed against GA actions. But the GA does not docket a separate “review” for such filings. It would presumably take a motion from the floor of GA to strike any alleged intemperate dissent.

45-5. _If a dissent, protest, or objection be couched in temperate language, and be respectful to the court, it shall be recorded; and the court may, if deemed necessary, put an answer to the dissent, protest, or objection on the records along with it. Here the matter shall end, unless the parties obtain permission to withdraw their dissent, protest, or objection absolutely, or for the sake of amendment._

And the same should apply to Concurring and Dissenting Opinions from SJC judges. Such opinions should be appended to an SJC Decision when that Decision is published.

The current mandatory delay for review of temperate language is trying to solve a problem that really doesn’t exist. If a judge uses intemperate language, his fellow judges can (informally at first) encourage him to amend his Opinion. If necessary, they can request a called meeting and propose the Opinion be stricken for intemperate language. _SJC Manual 2.1_ already stipulates: “A member shall, at all times, keep in mind his high calling as an officer of the church of the Lord Jesus Christ and shall in all endeavors conduct himself in accordance with that calling.” It seems obvious that would include the temperance of the language he uses in any opinion.

4. An alternative would be to delay all SJC Decisions until (1) Concurring and Dissenting Opinions have been filed and (2) they’ve been reviewed and approved for release at a called SJC meeting. But that doesn't seem like a better fix since it would delay the release of the main Decision.

Summary - This change would delete the requirement for Concurring and Dissenting Opinions to be delayed for review by the Standing Judicial Commission prior to being sent to the parties. With the proposed change, the SJC still has the opportunity, if necessary, to subsequently adopt an answer to any Concurring or Dissenting Opinion, or strike any that contain intemperate language or fail to meet the standards of OMSJC 18.

OVERTURE 3 from Chesapeake Presbytery (to CCB, OC)
“Amend BCO 15-3 to Allow Judicial Commission Minority Reports”

Whereas Overture 1 to the 43rd General Assembly, presented similar changes to BCO 15-3, but was answered in the negative; and
Whereas in its grounds to answering Overture 1, the 43rd General Assembly advised that the proposed changes to BCO 15-3 should be rewritten; and
Whereas Overture 1 to the 43rd General Assembly contained potential conflicts to the PCA Constitution in that the proposed new alternative of allowing a Presbytery’s Judicial Commission’s judgment to be the final ruling of the Presbytery provided neither a clear defined window for timing in filing a complaint nor provisions on who would be eligible to file a complaint against such ruling; and
Whereas currently, BCO 15-3 provides for a Judicial Commission’s judgment to be approved or disapproved by the Presbytery without debate or for the Presbytery to refer, (a debatable motion), any strictly constitutional issue(s) to a study committee; and
Whereas the current provisions of BCO 15-3 do not allow for any minority report if the judgment of a Judicial Commission was a split decision; and
Whereas providing for a minority report with a Judicial Commission report to the Presbytery would allow debate by the minority and majority before the Presbytery to provide commissioners more information in order to cast a more informed and wiser vote; and

Whereas a Presbytery’s being given the opportunity to hear minority reports in Judicial Commission decisions could help lessen the caseload of the Standing Judicial Commission; and

Whereas hearing a minority report of a Judicial Commission erected by a Presbytery would be consistent with the current provisions of BCO 15-5.c regarding minority reports of the Standing Judicial Commission decisions; and

Whereas inserting minority report provisions directly within BCO 15-3 where the Presbytery acts on the Judicial Commission’s judgment regardless of the existence of a minority report or not provides a cure for the potential constitutional conflicts that arose with respect to Overture 1 to the 43rd General Assembly, whereby having the Presbytery act on a Judicial Commission’s judgment which may or may not include a minority report provides for the normal time window for filing complaints and also establishes who would be able to file a complaint since the actual approval or disapproval of the Judicial Commission’s decision would still remain with the bounds of a Presbytery meeting;

Therefore be it resolved, the Chesapeake Presbytery hereby overtures the 44th General Assembly to amend BCO 15-3 regarding Judicial Commission minority reports as follows:

Proposed additions are underlined. There are no deletions in this proposed amendment.

15-3. Judicial Commissions of Presbytery

a. Presbytery as a whole may try a judicial case within its jurisdiction (including the right to refer any strictly constitutional issue to a study committee with options listed below), or it may of its own motion commit any judicial case to a commission. Such a commission shall be appointed by the Presbytery from its members other than members of the Session of the church from which the case comes up. The commission shall try the case in the manner presented by the Rules of Discipline and shall submit to the Presbytery a full statement of the case and the judgment rendered. The Presbytery without question, discussion, debate, or amendment shall approve or disapprove of the judgment, or may refer, (a debatable motion), any strictly constitutional issue(s) to a study committee. Members of the Judicial Commission may file concurring or dissenting opinions, or a minority report as set forth in (b) below. In case of referral, the Presbytery shall either dismiss some or all of the specific charges raised in the case or decide the case only after the report of the study committee has been heard and discussed. If Presbytery approves, the judgment of the commission shall be final and shall be entered on the minutes of Presbytery as the action. If Presbytery disapproves, it shall hear the case as a whole, or appoint a new commission to hear the case again.

b. Minority Reports
(1) If, within twenty-four (24) hours of the time of adjournment of a Judicial Commission meeting at which a final decision was rendered in a case, at least one-third (1/3) of the voting members of the Judicial Commission file written notice of their intention to file a minority decision with the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery, and within ten (10) days from the adjournment do file such a minority decision, such minority decision shall be considered a minority report and shall be referred, with the report of the Judicial Commission, to the Presbytery. In each instance “file” shall be understood as procedures acceptable within the Presbytery for communicating official judicial documents to the Stated Clerk.
(2) No such reports from the Judicial Commission shall be considered by the Presbytery unless both the report of the Judicial Commission and the minority report have been delivered to the clerk of Session of each church within the Presbytery within the timelines established by the Presbytery.
(3) The Presbytery shall act upon such reports from the Judicial Commission, in each case without question, discussion, debate, or amendment, as follows:
(a) The Judicial Commission shall have 15 minutes to present its decision to the Presbytery.
(b) The minority shall have 20 minutes to present its decision to the Presbytery.
(c) The Judicial Commission shall have 5 minutes to reply to the minority report.
(d) The decision of the minority shall be proposed and the Presbytery shall, without question, discussion, debate, or amendment approve or disapprove of the minority report.
(e) If the Presbytery disapproves the minority report, the Presbytery shall take up the decision of the Judicial Commission and without question, discussion, debate, or amendment, approve or disapprove of the decision of the Judicial Commission.

OVERTURE 4 from Missouri Presbytery (to OC)
“Confession of Sin and Commitment to Racial and Ethnic Diversity”

Whereas, the 43rd General Assembly considered a personal resolution on Civil Rights Remembrance and deferred action on it until the 44th General Assembly meeting in Mobile, Alabama; and
Whereas, in the 1973 “Message to All the Churches,” the founding generation of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) expressly declared our denomination to be the “continuing church” of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (PCUS), saying, “We have called ourselves ‘Continuing’ Presbyterians because we seek to continue the faith of the founding fathers of that Church”; and
Whereas, a “continuing church” inherits not only the faith of the predecessor organization, but also the larger history of the Church from which its descends, whether that history is honorable or dishonorable; and
Whereas, the members of the PCA are increasingly aware that during the Civil Rights period, many of our founding denominational leaders and churches not only failed to support, but also actively worked against racial reconciliation in both church and society through sins of commission and omission, including: barring African Americans from worship services; misusing and twisting the Bible to support racial segregation; participating in and defending white supremacist organizations; and failing to speak out against state-supported segregation and to support efforts to secure access to basic human and civil rights; and

Whereas, the 30th General Assembly adopted a resolution on racial reconciliation that confessed “covenantal, generational, heinous sins” connected with unbiblical forms of servitude, but did not deal specifically with the covenantal, generational, heinous sins committed during the much more recent Civil Rights period, which betrayed the visible unity of all believers in Christ (Ephesians 2:11-22), the command to love our neighbor as ourselves (Mark 12:31), and the image of God in all people (Genesis 1:27); and

Whereas, the 32nd General Assembly adopted a pastoral letter on “the Gospel and Race,” but in doing so, adopted a statement that did not directly acknowledge our sins against African Americans that many of our founding leaders and churches displayed during the Civil Rights period; and

Whereas, our denomination’s unwillingness to speak truthfully about our failure to seek justice and to love mercy during the Civil Rights period significantly hinders present-day efforts for reconciliation with our African American brothers and sisters and their participation in the PCA; and

Whereas, the General Assembly recognizes that the sins of racism and racial injustice—not only toward African Americans, but also toward other racial minorities—are not simply past sins, but continue to be sins with which our churches and congregants wrestle; and

Whereas, God has once more given the PCA a gracious opportunity to show the beauty, grace, and power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through confession and through the fruits of repentance: such as, clarity that racism is a sin requiring formative and corrective discipline; growing into cultural intelligence regarding minority cultures; establishing interracial friendships and partnerships inside and outside our denomination; renewing our church’s commitment to develop minority leadership at the congregational, presbytery, and denominational levels; and encouraging a denomination-wide vision for and commitment to a more racially and ethnically diverse church in the next twenty years;
Be it therefore resolved, that the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America does recognize and confess our church’s covenantal and generational involvement in and complicity with racial injustice inside and outside of our churches during the Civil Rights period; and

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly also confesses our continued sins of racism and failure to love brothers and sisters from minority cultures in accordance with what the Gospel requires; and

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly recommits itself to bear fruit in keeping with our repentance, seeking appropriate courses of action and reconciliation humbly, sincerely, and expeditiously, for the glory of God and the furtherance of the Gospel; and

Be it finally resolved, that the General Assembly urges the congregations and presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church in America to study this action as well as the PCA position paper on the Gospel and Race, to confess their own particular sins and failures regarding racial injustice as may be appropriate, and to seek to bring forth fruits of repentance for the Gospel’s sake within their own local communities.

OVERTURE 5 from Pittsburgh Presbytery (to CCB, OC)

“Amend BCO 15-5.a and RAO 17-1, Paragraph 4, to Allow the General Assembly to Give Directions to the SJC in Judicial Decisions and Reasoning and Opinions”

Whereas the General Assembly (GA) of the PCA exercises its authority in discipline cases through its Standing Judicial Commission (SJC), which was created 1) to avoid tangling the full GA in lengthy, complicated procedures of evidence, and 2) to go to great lengths to keep evidence which ought to remain confidential from inadvertently becoming public due to the generally open nature of GA meetings; and

Whereas, although this authority has been granted to the SJC, the spirit of The Book of Church Order (BCO) and Rules of Assembly Operations (RAO) of the PCA is that the decisions of the Standing Judicial Commission are subject to the final approval of GA as a whole; as shown in the following:

BCO 15-5.a: “. . . The General Assembly may direct the Standing Judicial Commission to retry a case if upon the review of its minutes exceptions are taken with respect to that case.”

BCO 15-5.c (4): “. . . If the General Assembly finally disapproves of both proposed decisions, it must set the case for hearing before the General Assembly or a special commission appointed by it, . . .”

RAO 17-1, para. 4: “. . . If [Rules of Assembly Operations] exceptions are taken with respect to a case, the Assembly may find this a ground to direct the Standing Judicial Commission to retry the case.”

these being examples of oversight of SJC by the GA which are part of the general system of checks and balances in the government of the PCA; and

Whereas, at present, there are two ways for GA to be called upon to debate and consider a ruling of SJC, namely:

1) If there is a minority report from the SJC itself (this possibility is dealt with clearly in BCO 15-5.c), or
2) If the Constitutional Business Committee (CCB) reports an exception in the minutes of the SJC; and

Whereas, on this second route, there is a conundrum in our present rules, namely:

1) RAO 17-1 says that exceptions to minutes of SJC shall be handled as defined in RAO 14-11.d (2), which says that exceptions include “actions which in substance appear not to conform to the Standards of the Presbyterian Church in America, or to be out of accord with the deliverances of the General Assembly, should be reported under this category,”

2) However, RAO 17-1 states that the CCB is not to consider the “judicial cases, decisions, or reports” discussed in the SJC minutes, and RAO 17-1 explicitly mentions only “conformity to the Operating Manual for Standing Judicial Commission (OMSJ) and RAO 17,” which has been interpreted (e.g., at the 2013 GA) to mean that the CCB therefore can only bring to GA exceptions that deal with procedural matters relating to the OMSJC and RAO, not issues of constitutionality in the minutes of the cases themselves; thus, to take an extreme example, if the SJC were to write in its minutes, “the evidence clearly shows that this man denies the Trinity, but we judge this not to be a problem because the Trinity is not an essential doctrine,” the CCB would have no way to call this into question, and the full GA would have no mechanism to raise this as an issue, according to our present rules, if there is no minority report from the SJC on that matter; and

Whereas, we can distinguish between two types of objections to actions of SJC, namely:
1) An objection to the reading of the evidence of a case, which CCB and full GA are poorly equipped to deal with, since they will not have heard the full evidence, much of which may be confidential; or
2) An objection does not deal with the evidence, but with the interpretation of the Constitution of the PCA, on which the CCB and full GA may have valuable input—members of the CCB are expected to be competent to judge not only matters of BCO and RAO rules violations, but the full Constitution of the PCA which includes the Standards, and many members of the full GA are quite astute on theological matters; and

Whereas, in general, on theological matters of great importance, it seems incongruous to leave the decision entirely in the hands of the 24 men of SJC without a possibility of open discussion by the full GA; and

Whereas, in 2014 several presbyteries sent overtures to GA to address this issue, with the aim of exercising greater oversight over the decisions of SJC, but these overtures were deemed to be flawed, in part because these overtures did not distinguish between two types of objections discussed above, that is, evidentiary matters and theological/constitutional matters; and

Whereas it is unlikely to be the will of GA to take up evidentiary matters, but revised language could allow the CCB and GA to take up purely theological and constitutional matters;

Therefore be it resolved:
To amend BCO 15-5.a. by adding the following sentence (underlined):

a. In the cases committed to it, the Standing Judicial Commission shall have the judicial powers and be governed by the judicial procedures of the General Assembly. The decision of the Standing Judicial Commission shall be the final decision of the General Assembly except as set forth below, to which there may be no complaint or appeal. Members of the Standing Judicial Commission may file concurring or dissenting opinions, or a minority report as set forth in (c) below. The General Assembly may direct the Standing Judicial Commission to retry a case if upon the review of its minutes exceptions are taken with respect to that case. The General Assembly may give direction to the Standing Judicial Commission on Constitutional matters.”

And to amend RAO 17-1, paragraph 4, by deleting parts shown in strikethrough and adding underlined wording:

The minutes, but not the judicial cases, decisions, or reports, of the Standing Judicial Commission shall be reviewed annually by the Committee on Constitutional Business. The minutes shall be examined for conformity to the Operating Manual for Standing Judicial Commission and RAO 17, and for conformity of the reasoning in cases and decisions to the Constitution of the PCA, violations of which shall be reported as “exceptions” as defined in RAO 14-11.d.(2). With respect to this examination, the Committee on Constitutional Business shall report directly to the General Assembly. If any exceptions are taken with respect to a case, the Assembly may find this a ground to direct the Standing Judicial Commission to retry the case. The General Assembly shall not take up evidentiary matters of cases, but may give direction to the Standing Judicial Commission on Constitutional matters.

So that the amended passages shall then read:

BCO 15-5.a.

a. In the cases committed to it, the Standing Judicial Commission shall have the judicial powers and be governed by the judicial procedures of the General Assembly. The decision of the Standing Judicial Commission shall be the final decision of the General Assembly except as set forth below, to which there may be no complaint or appeal. The General Assembly may direct the Standing Judicial Commission to retry a case if upon the review of its minutes exceptions are taken with respect to that case. The General Assembly may give direction to the Standing Judicial Commission on Constitutional matters.

RAO 17-1, paragraph 4:

The minutes of the Standing Judicial Commission shall be reviewed annually by the Committee on Constitutional Business. The minutes shall be examined for conformity to the Operating Manual for Standing Judicial Commission and RAO 17, and for conformity of the reasoning in cases and decisions to the Constitution of the PCA, violations of which shall be reported as “exceptions” as defined in RAO 14-11.d (2). With respect to this examination, the Committee on Constitutional Business shall report directly to the General Assembly. If any exceptions are taken with respect to a case, the Assembly may find this a ground to direct the Standing Judicial Commission to retry the case. The General Assembly shall not take up evidentiary matters of cases, but may give direction to the Standing Judicial Commission on Constitutional matters.

“Confession of Sin and Commitment to Racial and Ethnic Diversity”

[Editorial Note: This overture is identical to Overture 4 from Missouri Presbytery.]

Whereas, the 43rd General Assembly considered a personal resolution Civil Rights remembrance and deferred action on it until the 44th General Assembly meeting in Mobile, Alabama; and

Whereas, in the 1973 “Message to All the Churches,” the founding generation of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) expressly declared our denomination to be the “continuing church” of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (PCUS), saying, “We have called ourselves ‘Continuing’ Presbyterians because we seek to continue the faith of the founding fathers of that Church,”; and

Whereas, a “continuing church” inherits not only the faith of the predecessor organization, but also the larger history of the Church from which its descends, whether that history is honorable or dishonorable; and

Whereas, the members of the PCA are increasingly aware that during the Civil Rights period, many of our founding denominational leaders and churches not only failed to support, but also actively worked against racial reconciliation in both church and society through sins of commission and omission, including: barring African Americans from worship services; misusing and twisting the Bible to support racial segregation; participating in and defending white supremacist organizations; and failing to speak out against state-supported segregation and to support efforts to secure access to basic human and civil rights; and

Whereas, the 30th General Assembly adopted a resolution on racial reconciliation that confessed “covenantal, generational, heinous sins”
connected with unbiblical forms of servitude, but did not deal specifically with the covenantal, generational, heinous sins committed during the much more recent Civil Rights period, which betrayed the visible unity of all believers in Christ (Ephesians 2:11-22), the command to love our neighbor as ourselves (Mark 12:31), and the image of God in all people (Genesis 1:27); and

Whereas, the 32nd General Assembly adopted a pastoral letter on “the Gospel and Race,” but in doing so, adopted a statement that did not directly acknowledge our sins against African Americans that many of our founding leaders and churches displayed during the Civil Rights period; and

Whereas, our denomination’s unwillingness to speak truthfully about our failure to seek justice and to love mercy during the Civil Rights period significantly hinders present-day efforts for reconciliation with our African American brothers and sisters and their participation in the PCA; and

Whereas, the General Assembly recognizes that the sins of racism and racial injustice—not only toward African Americans, but also toward other racial minorities—are not simply past sins, but continue to be sins with which our churches and congregants wrestle; and

Whereas, God has once more given the PCA a gracious opportunity to show the beauty, grace, and power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through confession and through the fruits of repentance: such as, clarity that racism is a sin requiring formative and corrective discipline; growing into cultural intelligence regarding minority cultures; establishing interracial friendships and partnerships inside and outside our denomination; renewing our church’s commitment to develop minority leadership at the congregational, presbytery, and denominational levels; and encouraging a denomination-wide vision for and commitment to a more racially and ethnically diverse church in the next twenty years;

Be it therefore resolved, that the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America does recognize and confess our church’s covenantal and generational involvement in and complicity with racial injustice inside and outside of our churches during the Civil Rights period; and

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly also confesses our continued sins of racism and failure to love brothers and sisters from minority cultures in accordance with what the Gospel requires; and

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly recommits itself to bear fruit in keeping with our repentance, seeking appropriate courses of action and reconciliation humbly, sincerely, and expeditiously, for the glory of God and the furtherance of the Gospel; and
Be it finally resolved, that the General Assembly urges the congregations and presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church in America to study this action as well as the PCA position paper on the Gospel and Race, to confess their own particular sins and failures regarding racial injustice as may be appropriate, and to seek to bring forth fruits of repentance for the Gospel’s sake within their own local communities.

OVERTURE 7 from Grace Presbytery (to OC)
“Petition Government Leaders to Insure Religious Liberty in Light of SCOTUS Ruling on Same-sex Marriage”

Whereas, the Westminster Confession of Faith, Chapter 23 “Of the Civil Magistrate,” Paragraph 3 reads:

Civil magistrates may not assume to themselves the administration of the Word and sacraments; or the power of the keys of the kingdom of heaven; or, in the least, interfere in matters of faith. Yet, as nursing fathers, it is the duty of civil magistrates to protect the church of our common Lord, without giving the preference to any denomination of Christians above the rest, in such a manner that all ecclesiastical persons whatever shall enjoy the full, free, and unquestioned liberty of discharging every part of their sacred functions, without violence or danger. And, as Jesus Christ hath appointed a regular government and discipline in his church, no law of any commonwealth should interfere with, let, or hinder, the due exercise thereof, among the voluntary members of any denomination of Christians, according to their own profession and belief. It is the duty of civil magistrates to protect the person and good name of all their people, in such an effectual manner as that no person be suffered, either upon pretense of religion or of infidelity, to offer any indignity, violence, abuse, or injury to any other person whatsoever: and to take order, that all religious and ecclesiastical assemblies be held without molestation or disturbance.
And whereas, the Westminster Confession of Faith Chapter 24 “Of Marriage and Divorce,” paragraph 1 reads:

Marriage is to be between one man and one woman: neither is it lawful for any man to have more than one wife, nor for any woman to have more than one husband, at the same time.

And whereas, in the same chapter, paragraph 3 and 4 read:

It is lawful for all sorts of people to marry who are able with judgment to give their consent. Yet it is the duty of Christians to marry only in the Lord. And therefore such as profess the true reformed religion should not marry with infidels, papists, or other idolaters: neither should such as are godly be unequally yoked, by marrying with such as are notoriously wicked in their life, or maintain damnable heresies.

Marriage ought not to be within the degrees of consanguinity or affinity forbidden by the Word. Nor can such incestuous marriages ever be made lawful by any law of man or consent of parties, so as those persons may live together as man and wife.

And whereas, the Westminster Confession of Faith Chapter 31 “Of Synods and Councils” paragraph 4 reads in part:

Synods and councils are to handle, or conclude nothing, but that which is ecclesiastical: and are not to intermeddle with civil affairs which concern the commonwealth, unless by way of humble petition in cases extraordinary . . .

And whereas, Ruling and Teaching Elders have all taken the same vow which reads:

Do you sincerely receive and adopt the Confession of Faith and the Catechisms of this Church, as containing the system of doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures; and do you further promise that if at any time you find yourself out of accord with any of the fundamentals of this system of doctrine, you will on your own initiative, make known to your Presbytery (Session) the change which has taken place in your views since the assumption of this ordination vow? Book of Church Order, chapter 21:5 (Teaching Elders) and chapter 24:6 (Ruling Elders),

And whereas, the June 26, 2015 decision by the Supreme Court of the United States legalizing same sex marriages violates the beliefs and practices of the Elders of the Presbyterian Church in America when it comes to officiating weddings and/or permitting weddings to be held at the local churches,

Therefore, be it resolved that the Presbytery of Grace “humbly petition” the Governor of the State of Mississippi, the Attorney General of the State of Mississippi, the Speaker of the State House of Representatives, and the President of the State Senate as illustrated in the attached letter requesting their help in crafting legislation so that the religious freedoms of clergy, rabbis, priests, etc., as defined either by the State of Mississippi Tax Code and/or as defined by the Internal Revenue Service of the United States, may be preserved in officiating weddings in the State of Mississippi in accordance with their beliefs and practices whether codified for a particular congregation, synagogue, etc., or for an association/ denomination of their respective charges; and further be it resolved, that the Presbytery of Grace approve the overture to be sent to the Covenant Presbytery, Mississippi Valley Presbytery and the General Assembly with the hope that other Presbyteries will petition state governments and with the hope that the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America will petition the President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President pro tempore of the United State Senate in a similar fashion.

Sample Letter

Dear ____________________________,

The Presbytery of Grace, part of the Presbyterian Church in America, met in Hattiesburg, Mississippi, on January 12, 2016, and instructed me to send you as Governor, Attorney General, the Speaker of the State House of Representatives, and President of the State Senate the following humble petition.
The June 26, 2015 Supreme Court decision legalizing same-sex marriages across the United States potentially places our ministers (known as Teaching Elders) and lay officers (known as Ruling Elders) of our congregations in jeopardy.

Our Teaching and Ruling Elders have taken a vow which states “Marriage is to be between one man and one woman: neither is it lawful for any man to have more than one wife, nor for any woman to have more than one husband, at the same time” (Westminster Confession of Faith, Chap. 24, Para. 1).

The Presbytery of Grace is concerned that by officiating and/or permitting weddings to be held within our churches by the “authority vested in the minister by the State of Mississippi” and signing government issued wedding licenses Teaching Elders, Ruling Elders, and congregations could open themselves to litigation should a same-sex couple be denied the use of the facilities and/or the minister refuse to officiate a same-sex marriage.

We humbly ask that both the Executive branch and Legislative branch of the State government enact legislation so that the religious freedoms of clergy, rabbis, priests, etc., as defined either by the State of Mississippi Tax Code and/or as defined by the Internal Revenue Service of the United States, may be preserved in officiating weddings in the State of Mississippi in accordance with their beliefs and practices whether codified for a particular congregation, synagogue, etc., or for an association/ denomination of their respective charges.

We humbly petition both the Executive branch and Legislative branch of State government to insure our protection under the First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America: “Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof . . .” by enacting legislation which will both authorize clergy to officiate weddings in accordance with their religious beliefs and protect clergy and religious institutions should they refuse to officiate at or allow weddings to be held in their facilities which would violate their religious convictions.

OVERTURE 11 from Calvary Presbytery (to OC) “Call for Repentance and Reconciliation”

Whereas, we, as Christians, believe that all men and women are created in the “image of God” and are thereby individually of infinite worth and value and entitled to the utmost respect . . .

Then God said, “Let us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness” . . . So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him, male and female He created them. (Genesis 1:26-27)

Whereas, we, as Christians, take the Biblical position stated by the Apostle Paul as recorded by the Apostle Luke that all men are of “one blood,” and are descended from common parents, Adam and Eve . . .

And He made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth. (Acts 17:26)
Whereas, we, as Christians, know that in our Lord Jesus Christ all walls of separation, ceremonial and otherwise, are discarded, and we are all through His death adopted, reconciled, and united as brothers and sisters in one perfect body as one new man in Him . . .

He Himself is our peace, who has made both one, and has broken down the middle wall of separation, having abolished in His flesh the enmity, that is, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, so as to create in Himself one new man from the two, thus making peace, and that He might reconcile them both in God in one body through the cross, thereby putting to death the enmity. (Ephesians 2:14-16)

Therefore be it resolved that in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ:

We reject “race-based” slavery as wicked, immoral, prideful, and arrogant;

We reject legalized and institutionalized “racial” segregation as being wicked, immoral, prideful, arrogant, and against the clear teaching and spirit of the New Testament;

We call on all people everywhere, and in particular all churches and members of the PCA who had or have anything to do with the promotion and continuance of racial segregation, to repent of their sin;

We call on all people everywhere, and in particular all churches and members of the PCA that were or are apathetic or indifferent to racial injustice, to repent of their sin;

We call on all people everywhere, and in particular all churches and members of the PCA, to seek reconciliation with our brothers and sisters of all ethnic groups for the glory of God and the furtherance of the Gospel.

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly also confesses our continued sins of racism and failure to love brothers and sisters from minority cultures in accordance with what the Gospel requires; and

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly recommits itself to bear fruit in keeping with our repentance, seeking appropriate courses of action and reconciliation humbly, sincerely, and expeditiously, for the glory of God and the furtherance of the Gospel; and

Be it finally resolved, that the General Assembly urges the congregations and presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church in America to study this action as well as the PCA position paper on the Gospel and Race, to confess their own particular sins and failures regarding racial injustice as may be appropriate, and to seek to bring forth fruits of repentance for the Gospel’s sake within their own local communities.

OVERTURE 13 from the Providence Presbytery (to OC)
“Confession of Sin and Commitment to Racial and Ethnic Diversity, Providence Presbytery Version”

[Editor’s Note: This overture is very similar to Overture 4 but differs on page 2, lines 1-4 and lines 21-24.]

Whereas, the 43rd General Assembly considered a personal resolution Civil Rights remembrance and deferred action on it until the 44th General Assembly meeting in Mobile, Alabama; and

Whereas, in the 1973 “Message to All the Churches,” the founding generation of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) expressly declared our denomination to be the “continuing church” of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (PCUS), saying, “We have called ourselves ‘Continuing’ Presbyterians because we seek to continue the faith of the founding fathers of that Church;” and

Whereas, a “continuing church” inherits not only the faith of the predecessor organization, but also the larger history of the Church from which it descends, whether that history is honorable or dishonorable; and

Whereas, the members of the PCA are increasingly aware that during the Civil Rights period, many of our founding denominational leaders and churches not only failed to support, but also actively worked against racial reconciliation in both church and society through sins of commission and omission, including: barring African Americans from worship services; misusing and twisting the Bible to support racial segregation; participating in and defending white supremacist organizations; and failing to speak out against state-supported segregation and to support efforts to secure access to basic human and civil rights; and

Whereas, the 30th General Assembly adopted a resolution on racial reconciliation that confessed “covenantal, generational, heinous sins” connected with unbiblical forms of servitude, but did not deal specifically with the covenantal, generational, heinous sins committed during the much more recent Civil Rights period, which betrayed the visible unity of all believers in Christ (Ephesians 2:11-22), the command to love our neighbor as ourselves (Mark 12:31), and the image of God in all people (Genesis 1:27); and

Whereas, the 32nd General Assembly adopted a pastoral letter on “the Gospel and Race,” but in doing so, adopted a statement that did not directly acknowledge our sins against African Americans that many of

Whereas, our denomination’s unwillingness to speak truthfully about our failure to seek justice and to love mercy during the Civil Rights period significantly hinders present-day efforts for reconciliation with our African American brothers and sisters and their participation in the PCA; and

Whereas, the General Assembly recognizes that sins of racial superiority, racial indifference, racial stereotypes, racial biases and racial injustice to other ethnic groups are not simply past sins, but continue to be sins with which our churches and congregants wrestle; and

Whereas, God has once more given the PCA a gracious opportunity to show the beauty, grace, and power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through confession and through the fruits of repentance: such as, clarity that racism is a sin requiring formative and corrective discipline; growing into cultural intelligence regarding different cultures; establishing interracial friendships and partnerships inside and outside our denomination; renewing our church’s commitment to develop minority leadership at the congregational, presbytery, and denominational levels; and encouraging a denomination-wide vision for and commitment to a more racially and ethnically diverse church in the next twenty years;

Be it therefore resolved, that the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America does recognize and confess our church’s covenantal and generational involvement in and complicity with racial injustice inside and outside of our churches during the Civil Rights period; and

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly also confesses our continued sins of racial superiority, indifference, stereotypes, biases, injustice and failure to love brothers and sisters from different cultures in accordance with what the Gospel requires; and

OVERTURE 14 from Providence Presbytery (to CCB, OC)
“Amend BCO 35-1 to Require Accused Officers to Testify”

Be it resolved, that Providence Presbytery overtures the 44th General Assembly to amend BCO 35-1 as follows:

Strike all of BCO 35-1

35-1. All persons of proper age and intelligence are competent witnesses, except such as do not believe in the existence of God, or a future state of rewards and punishments. The accused party may be allowed, but shall not be compelled to testify; but the accuser shall be required to testify, on the demand of the accused. Either party has the right to challenge a witness whom he believes to be incompetent, and the court shall examine and decide upon his competency. It belongs to the court to judge the degree of credibility to be attached to all evidence.

And replace with:

a. In general, the accused party may be allowed, but shall not be compelled, to testify. However, because of the relationship of mutual accountability between church officers and the church created in the voluntary affirmation of ordination vows, church officers under accusation with regard to doctrinal views shall be required to testify before the court of original jurisdiction. Such officers may remain present during the testimony of all other witnesses (BCO 35-4).

b. The accuser shall be required to testify, on the demand of the accused.

c. Either party has the right to challenge a witness whom he believes to be incompetent, and the court shall examine and decide upon his competency.

d. It belongs to the court to judge the degree of credibility to be attached to all evidence.

Grounds:

Requiring officers to testify in cases involving doctrinal issues is consistent with our constitution;
Church officers are required to explain and defend their doctrine when seeking admission to serve under the jurisdiction of another court (e.g. BCO 13-6);

Church officers are required by their ordination vows to come forward and make known any way in which their views might have become out of accord with any of the fundamentals of our system of doctrine (e.g. BCO 21-5.2.);

Church officers are in the nature of the case continually obliged to voluntarily have their doctrine subject to legitimate scrutiny (1 Tim. 4:16; 1 Tim. 5:22; Acts 20:28-30);

A rule relieving all accused persons from an obligation to testify, as does the current BCO 35-1, undermines the responsibilities of our courts of original jurisdiction and our officers (cf. BCO 31-2);

Requiring church officers to testify in cases concerning their doctrine is consistent with the Scripture and the Westminster Standards:

1. 2 Cor. 1:17-18; Prov. 15:23, 25:11, 28:13; Gen 4:9; Job 31:22-27; Ps. 15:1-2, 32:3; Dt 19:15-19;
2. WLC #144, describing the duties required in the ninth commandment:
   The duties required in the ninth commandment are . . . appearing and standing for the truth; and from the heart, sincerely, freely, clearly, and fully, speaking the truth, and only the truth, in matters of judgment and justice, and in all other things whatsoever; . . .
3. WLC #145
   The sins forbidden in the ninth commandment are, all prejudicing the truth, and the good name of our neighbors, as well as our own, especially in public judicature; . . . forgery, concealing the truth, undue silence in a just cause, and holding our peace when iniquity calleth for either a reproof from ourselves, or a complaint to others; . . .
4. WCF XXX and XXXI

The limitation of this overture to matters of doctrine limits the concern that the requirement to testify would cause any direct civil or criminal jeopardy to the officer.

NOTE – This overture mirrors the overture of Missouri and Chesapeake, et al, with one change in the fourth whereas statement. The word “founding” was deleted in hopes of not indicting a small group of men commonly identified as “our founders” without specific charges being sustained.
Whereas, in 2004, the 32nd General Assembly adopted a paper titled “The Gospel and Race” that was produced under the oversight of our Mission to North America committee; and

Whereas, in 1966, the 144th General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, Evangelical Synod adopted a statement on “Racial Questions”; and

Whereas, in 1969, Presbyterian Churchmen United stated in their Declaration of Commitment, “That Christian faith must bear fruit . . . of love, concern and neighborliness toward all races of men without partiality and without prejudice, especially to the poor, the oppressed, and the disadvantaged;” and

Whereas, the facts of history, especially during the period of the 1950s through the 1970s, confirm generational sins among some of our courts, churches, officers, and members, such as: 1) a complicit silence regarding societal and ecclesiastical racial injustice; and 2) in some cases, an active opposition to social and ecclesiastical attempts to ameliorate this injustice; and

Whereas, many Presbyterians of this period were more influenced by the culture of the day than by sound Biblical exegesis on the issue of race and integration (cf. Romans 12:1-2; II Timothy 3:16; James 1:27b; 4:4; WCF 1.6, 10); and

Whereas, in the 1973 “Message to All the Churches,” the founding generation of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) expressly declared our denomination to be the “continuing church” of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (PCUS), saying, “We have called ourselves ‘Continuing’ Presbyterians because we seek to continue the faith of the founding fathers of that Church, . . .”; and

Whereas, a “continuing church” inherits not only the faith of her predecessor organizations, but also the larger history of the Church from which it descends; and

Whereas, in seeking to confess and repent of our own sins, we acknowledge that the personal and institutional legacies of our fathers’ racial iniquity continues at places in our Church and thus negatively affects our denomination (Leviticus 26:40-45, Ezra 9:6-16, Nehemiah 9:1-38, Daniel 9:1-27); and

6 Minutes of the 144th General Synod of the RPCES, pp. 51- 54. www.pcahistory.org/findingaids/rpces/docsynod/385.html
7 Sean Michael Lucas, For a Continuing Church: The Roots of the Presbyterian Church in America (Phillipsburg: P&R, 2015)
Whereas, Matthew 18:15-18 instructs us to address individuals directly with their known sins when feasible; yet public sins ought be rebuked publicly, and it is thus still appropriate and necessary for the PCA to consider its covenantal and generational relationship to these past sins (Galatians 2:11-21); and

Whereas, the PCA, as represented by its churches, courts, and agencies, has been hindered in its goal to be obedient to the Great Commission because we have neglected to fully address these sins that continue to affect our churches and witness today; and

Whereas, we wholly lean on the grace of God for repentance, forgiveness, and reconciliation for every kind of sin; while finding great hope and joy in the Gospel (Romans 5:1-11; 2 Timothy 2:24-26; 2 Corinthians 5:18-21); and

Be it therefore resolved, that the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America does recognize and repudiate our church’s covenantal and generational involvement in a system of racial injustice which was based upon the subjugation of black Americans during the Civil Rights period (WCF 15.1,6); and

Be it further resolved that the General Assembly laments that it took us decades to address this issue, repents of our sins of commission and omission, and asks our brothers and sisters for forgiveness (Matthew 5:22-26); and

Be it further resolved that the General Assembly does recognize, lament, and repudiate our failure to often preach and embody the full truth of the Scripture, which teaches that all races alike are created in the full image of God, and alike fallen into sin; and that Christ calls His elect from every nation, tribe, people and tongue into One Body, having torn down the dividing wall between peoples; so that, now, all members of God’s church, are to seek to embody this reality in our lives now as a sign of God’s reconciling love through Christ Jesus (Genesis 1:27-28; Ephesians 2:11-22; Revelation 7:9); and

Be it further resolved, that the General Assembly thus recommit ourselves to the sound exegesis of Scripture in matters of race and integration, that all necessary repentance may be based on God’s Word alone (II Timothy 3:16; WCF 1. 6,10; 16.1); and

Be it further resolved, that the General Assembly exhorts all its members, especially its officers, to examine themselves in the light of Scripture to determine if there be any unconfessed and unrepentant sins of partiality, favoritism, or prejudice among them (Genesis 1:26-27, Ephesians 2:14-22, James 2:1-4), specifically:

1) Making distinctions on who can or cannot be members of a local... church, attend its worship, or participate in its sacraments based upon a person’s ethnicity (Acts 15:11; 1 Corinthians 11:17-18);

2) Failing to discipline officers and members of our Presbyteries and local churches when they show partiality based on race (James 2:1; Galatians 1:11-14; Hebrews 3:12-14);

3) Speaking and/or preaching in favor of prejudice and segregation that leads to the disunity of God’s people;

4) Harboring sinful anger, bitterness, and a vengeful spirit towards people based upon their ethnicity or sins of racial prejudice; and

Be it further resolved, that if any such sins be discovered, either past or present, that these sins be admitted, confessed, forgiveness sought before God and from those brothers and sisters so sinned against, as far as possible; and repentance, reconciliation, and reformation be manifested according to God’s Word (Matthew 3:8, WCF 15); and

Be it further resolved, that the General Assembly urges the Sessions, Presbyteries and Agencies of the Presbyterian Church in America to include questions about how the Gospel addresses issues of race and integration in the examination of all candidates for office and licensure (Acts 6:1-7; Ephesians 2:11-22; I Timothy 3:1-13; WLC 113; 135-136; 144-145; BCO 19, 21, 24); and

Be it further resolved, that the General Assembly reminds the Sessions and Presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church in America that sins of racism are properly subject to church discipline according to the wisdom and procedures laid out in our Rules of Discipline (Matthew 18:15-20; Romans 16:17; Galatians 6:1-2; Titus 3:10-11; WCF 20.3; 30.4; BCO 27-46); and

Be it further resolved, that the General Assembly exhorts every member of the PCA to remember that God Himself shows no partiality, so that we are to call all people without distinction to repentance and faith in Jesus Christ; and to invite them into our local churches as full citizens of Christ’s kingdom (Acts 10:34; Romans 2:11); and

Be it further resolved, that all congregations of the PCA are encouraged to work to strengthen the unity of the evangelical Church across racial and denominational lines, striving to be one in Christ, thus fulfilling together the Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20; Galatians 3:28; Ephesians 4:1-16); and

Be it further resolved that as part of bearing the fruit of repentance, all congregations, Presbyteries, and Agencies of the PCA are encouraged to pursue the practical steps of reconciliation found in the 2004 “The Gospel and Race” paper, as well as those suggested by other wise leaders in our denomination, such as but not limited to:

1) Teaching cross-cultural skills to our leaders and members;
2) Seeking to learn from, work with, and worship with evangelical minority congregations in our communities;
3) Proactively planting churches in areas with significant minority populations;
4) Ministering with and to Historically Black Colleges and Universities;
5) Proactively recruiting multi-racial involvement in our Boards, Agencies, faculties and staffs; and
6) Proactively discipling qualified minority candidates for all church offices, including providing needed financial support for qualified Teaching Elder candidates; and

Be it further resolved, that the Stated Clerk disseminate this resolution to all Presbyteries and Sessions in the PCA for the health of Christ’s Church, with the understanding that this resolution is not the end of the matter, but one step upon the long road of reconciliation; and

Be it finally resolved, that Presbyteries and Sessions be greatly encouraged to examine their own history on these issues and to spread this resolution to all its members for the purpose that all would examine their hearts with more specificity, and appropriate Biblical action be taken where applicable; all to the glory of God, love of neighbor and the furtherance of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Presbytery Explanatory Note, Overture 16: While appreciating the overtures already sent up on Racial Reconciliation, Blue Ridge Presbytery has built upon these overtures by adding a great deal more specificity throughout while being careful to stay within the confines of WCF 31.4 and the BCO preliminary principles regarding church power; all in keeping with the spirit of the grounds offered by the 43rd General Assembly in its decision to defer the matter to this year's Assembly.

OVERTURE 18 from Heritage Presbytery (to OC) “Confessing Covenantal and Generational Sins during the Civil Rights Period”

Whereas, the 43rd General Assembly considered a personal resolution Civil Rights remembrance and deferred action on it until the 44th General Assembly meeting in Mobile, Alabama; and

Whereas, in the 1973 “Message to All the Churches,” the founding generation of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) expressly declared our denomination to be the “continuing church” of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (PCUS), saying, “We have called ourselves ‘Continuing’ Presbyterians because we seek to continue the faith of the founding fathers of that Church”; and

Whereas, a “continuing church” inherits not only the faith of the predecessor organization, but also the larger history of the Church from which its descends, whether that history is honorable or dishonorable; and

Whereas, the members of the PCA are increasingly aware that during the Civil Rights period, many of our founding denominational leaders and churches not only failed to support, but also actively worked against racial reconciliation in both church and society through sins of commission and omission, including: barring African Americans from worship services; misusing and twisting the Bible to support racial segregation; participating in and defending white supremacist organizations; and failing to speak out against state-supported segregation and to support efforts to secure access to basic human and civil rights11; and

Whereas, the 30th General Assembly adopted a resolution on racial reconciliation that confessed “covenantal, generational, heinous sins” connected with unbiblical forms of servitude, but did not deal specifically with the covenantal, generational, heinous sins committed during the much more recent Civil Rights period, which betrayed the visible unity of all believers in Christ (Ephesians 2:11-22), the command to love our neighbor as ourselves (Mark 12:31), and the image of God in all people (Genesis 1:27); and

Whereas, the 32nd General Assembly adopted a pastoral letter on “the Gospel and Race,” but in doing so, adopted a statement that did not directly acknowledge our sins against African Americans that many of our founding leaders and churches displayed during the Civil Rights period; and

Whereas, our denomination’s unwillingness to speak truthfully about our failure to seek justice and to love mercy during the Civil Rights period significantly hinders present-day efforts for reconciliation with our African American brothers and sisters and their participation in the PCA; and

Whereas, the General Assembly recognizes that the sins of racism and racial injustice—not only toward African Americans, but also toward other racial minorities—are not simply past sins, but continue to be sins with which our churches and congregants wrestle; and

Whereas, God has once more given the PCA a gracious opportunity to show the beauty, grace, and power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through confession and through the fruits of repentance: such as, clarity that racism is a sin requiring formative and corrective discipline; growing into cultural intelligence regarding minority cultures; establishing interracial friendships and partnerships inside and outside our denomination; renewing our church’s commitment to develop minority leadership at the congregational, presbytery, and denominational levels; and encouraging a denomination-wide vision for and commitment to a more racially and ethnically diverse church in the next twenty years; and

Whereas, as the Westminster Larger Catechism’s exposition on the Ten Commandments makes plain, God’s word and the Reformed tradition have much to say with regard to current cultural concerns. The WLC makes plain that God declares that we have a duty:

- “to preserve the life of ourselves and others by resisting all thoughts and purposes, subduing all passions, and avoiding all occasions, temptations, and practices, which tend to the unjust taking away the life of any . . .” (WLC 135);
- to “. . . endeavor, by all just and lawful means, to procure, preserve, and further the wealth and outward estate of others, as well as our own” (WLC 141);
- to preserve and promote the “truth between man and man, and the good name of our neighbor, as well as our own; appearing and standing for the truth; and from the heart, sincerely, freely, clearly, and fully, speaking the truth, and only the truth, in matters of judgment and justice, and in all other things whatsoever; a charitable esteem of our neighbors . . .” (WLC 144); and,
- to teach that “. . .concealing the truth, undue silence in a just cause, and holding our peace when iniquity calleth for either a reproof from ourselves, or complaint to others. . .” (WLC 145) are sins in violation of the 9th commandment.
Be it therefore resolved, that the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America does recognize and confess our church’s covenantal and generational involvement in and complicity with racial injustice inside and outside of our churches during the Civil Rights period; and

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly also confesses our continued sins of racism and failure to love brothers and sisters from minority cultures in accordance with what the Gospel requires; and

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly recommits itself to bear fruit in keeping with our repentance, seeking appropriate courses of action and reconciliation humbly, sincerely, and expeditiously, for the glory of God and the furtherance of the Gospel; and

Be it further resolved, that we reject any teaching that God’s providential allotment to any race, class or group of people (Acts 17:26-27) be taken as grounds to relieve our duty to love all people as our neighbors created in the image of God and deserving of equal treatment under the civil law and equal reception and participation in the Church of Jesus Christ. Such teaching is unbiblical and outside the bounds of orthodoxy for the Presbyterian Church in America; and,

Be it further resolved, that we reject any teaching that any race of people continues to bear the curse of Cain, and that such a view falls outside the boundaries of orthodoxy in the Presbyterian Church in America; and,

Be it further resolved, that we affirm that the church’s power is spiritual and declarative, and therefore we exhort Teaching Elders in the Presbyterian Church in America to declare the whole counsel of God in matters pertaining to race, lest our people be left with the impression that the Scriptures and our Reformed tradition are silent on these matters; and,

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly exhorts the majority culture of our congregations to recognize their moral obligation to seek the welfare, comfort, and inclusion of those among them from minority races. Such welfare, comfort, and inclusion should not be assumed passively but rather sought actively to dialogue, mutual understanding, growth in the gospel together, and sharing of the gifts and graces common to the communion of the saints; and,

Be it further resolved, that the General Assembly urges the congregations and presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church in America to study this action as well as the PCA position paper on the Gospel and Race, to confess their own particular sins and failures regarding racial injustice as may be appropriate, and to seek to bring forth fruits of repentance for the Gospel’s sake within their own local communities.

Whereas, our denomination’s unwillingness to speak truthfully about our failure to seek justice and to love mercy during the Civil Rights period significantly hinders present-day efforts for reconciliation with our African American brothers and sisters and their participation in the PCA; and

Whereas, the General Assembly recognizes that the sins of racism and racial injustice—not only toward African Americans, but also toward other racial minorities—are not simply past sins, but continue to be sins with which our churches and congregants wrestle; and

Whereas, God has once more given the PCA a gracious opportunity to show the beauty, grace, and power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through confession and through the fruits of repentance: such as, clarity that racism is a sin requiring formative and corrective discipline; growing into cultural intelligence regarding minority cultures; establishing interracial friendships and partnerships inside and outside our denomination; renewing our church’s commitment to develop minority leadership at the congregational, presbytery, and denominational levels; and encouraging a denomination-wide vision for and commitment to a more racially and ethnically diverse church in the next twenty years;

Be it therefore resolved, that the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America does recognize and confess our church’s covenantal and generational involvement in and complicity with racial injustice inside and outside of our churches during the Civil Rights period; and

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly also confesses our continued sins of racism and failure to love brothers and sisters from minority cultures in accordance with what the Gospel requires; and
Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly recommits itself to bear fruit in keeping with our repentance, seeking appropriate courses of action and reconciliation humbly, sincerely, and expeditiously, for the glory of God and the furtherance of the Gospel; and
Be it finally resolved, that the General Assembly urges the congregations and presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church in America to study this action as well as the PCA position paper on the Gospel and Race, to confess their own particular sins and failures regarding racial injustice as may be appropriate, and to seek to bring forth fruits of repentance for the Gospel’s sake within their own local communities.

OVERTURE 20 from Southwest Florida Presbytery (to MTW) “Erect Provisional Presbytery in Nicaragua”

Whereas the Presbyterian Church in America has no official presence in Nicaragua; and Whereas there is currently no National Presbyterian Church in Nicaragua; and Whereas TE Lyle Caswell is a member of Southwest Florida Presbytery; and Whereas members of the fledgling Presbyterian Church of Nicaragua (PCN) are requesting oversight and fellowship of this denomination; and
Whereas there is an official MTW Nicaraguan Partnership formulated by Christ Community Presbyterian Church, Trinity Presbyterian Church, and Redeemer Winter Haven, and individual members of Southwest Florida Presbytery have had a long-standing relationship with Nicaragua; and
Whereas the Nicaraguan Partnership is desirous to see the establishment of a National Presbyterian Church in Nicaragua; and
Whereas the Nicaraguan Partnership is desirous of the planting of many new churches; and
Whereas the Nicaraguan Partnership has been active in church planting, as well as, developing and training men for potential Teaching Elders for three active church plants; and
Whereas it is the desire of Southwest Florida Presbytery MNA committee to assist in the church planting effort by establishing a functioning Presbytery in Nicaragua;
Therefore, be it resolved that the General Assembly, according to BCO 15-06, commit to a commission the task of forming a provisional Presbytery in Nicaragua with the goal of establishing an indigenous Presbyterian and Reformed Church. Said commission shall have authority to act as the Presbytery in all matters pertaining to the establishment and ordering of a national Church and shall report annually to the General Assembly. The commission shall be dissolved when there are at least three national Teaching Elders and three organized churches under its care, and these shall then constitute a separate national Church; and

Further, be it resolved to support said commission, that the General Assembly appoint the following men to be members of the commission by merit of their long-standing relationship with the work in Nicaragua and/or their fluency in the Spanish language; TE Lyle Caswell, TE Andrew Lamb, TE Dax Gibson, TE Stan McMahan, TE Jonathan Winfree, RE Jamie Brown, RE Dwight Smith, and RE David Smith.

Rationale for a Provisional Presbytery for Presbyterian Mission Work in Nicaragua:

The Nicaraguan Partnership has been avidly involved with the country of Nicaragua for over 7 years. Our hope from the beginning was to see many Reformed churches planted throughout the country. Our vision would be to see 5 churches planted in the five largest cities throughout Nicaragua. With that said, we have been networking throughout the country to find national men that might be interested in helping us toward this goal. Over the years we have come to find a few men that are willing to be trained and sent out to plant said churches. Therefore, we need a mechanism to formally train and ordain these men. The Provisional Presbytery would give us the mechanism and authority necessary to move forward in training and examining of these men, and Lord willing many more. There is not only provision made in the BCO for kind of work, but also precedent in neighboring countries. We have been working in conjunction with MTW in other countries to gain helpful insight as to the way ahead. We are excited to see what the Lord will do over many years in Nicaragua.

“Memorial for Ruling Elder W. Diehl Evans”

Whereas, on July 22, 2015 after he had “served the purpose of God in his own generation,” our Creator and Author of the destiny of all men, in His infinite wisdom, has seen fit to call from our midst Ruling Elder W. Diehl Evans into His glorious presence; and

Whereas, Diehl served our congregation faithfully from its earliest years of formation as Ruling Elder, then Ruling Elder Emeritus as a faithful leader and example of Jesus Christ, building the strong foundation built upon the Triune God and the Holy Scriptures for the generations to follow; and

Whereas, he served our country in the United States Navy, and our community as a member of the Kiwanis Club of Greater Brandon, a long career at GTE, and owner, along with his wife Margaret Ann, of Angel Estate Sales and Appraisal Services; now

Therefore, Be It Resolved, that Southwest Florida Presbytery does note the death of our brother in the Lord with a deep sense of loss and sorrow by acknowledging that a “prince in Israel” has fallen; yet because of the Gospel a “prince in Israel” has been promoted, we offer the prayer of thanksgiving for the life of Ruling Elder, W. APPENDIX V

OVERTURE 23 from Nashville Presbytery (to OC)
“Confession of Sin and Commitment to Racial and Ethnic Diversity, Nashville Presbytery Version”

[Editor’s Note: This overture is almost identical to Overture 4, but differs in the substitution of the words “in the wake of” for the word “during” in the first "Be it resolved" paragraph.]

Whereas, the 43rd General Assembly considered a personal resolution on Civil Rights Remembrance and deferred action on it until the 44th General Assembly meeting in Mobile, Alabama; and

Whereas, in the 1973 “Message to All the Churches,” the founding generation of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) expressly declared our denomination to be the “continuing church” of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (PCUS), saying, “We have called ourselves ‘Continuing’ Presbyterians because we seek to continue the faith of the founding fathers of that Church”; and

Whereas, a “continuing church” inherits not only the faith of the predecessor organization, but also the larger history of the Church from which its descends, whether that history is honorable or dishonorable; and

Whereas, the members of the PCA are increasingly aware that during the Civil Rights period, many of our founding denominational leaders and churches not only failed to support, but also actively worked against racial reconciliation in both church and society through sins of commission and omission, including: barring African Americans from worship services; misusing and twisting the Bible to support racial segregation; participating in and defending white supremacist organizations; and failing to speak out against state-supported segregation and to support efforts to secure access to basic human and civil rights; and

Whereas, the 30 General Assembly adopted a resolution on racial reconciliation that confessed “covenantal, generational, heinous sins” connected with unbiblical forms of servitude, but did not deal specifically with the covenantal, generational, heinous sins committed during the much more recent Civil Rights period, which betrayed the visible unity of all believers in Christ (Ephesians 2:11-22), the command to love our neighbor as ourselves (Mark 12:31), and the image of God in all people (Genesis 1:27); and

Whereas, the 32 General Assembly adopted a pastoral letter on “the Gospel and Race,” but in doing so, adopted a statement that did not directly acknowledge our sins against African Americans that many of our founding leaders and churches displayed during the Civil Rights period; and

Whereas, our denomination’s unwillingness to speak truthfully about our failure to seek justice and to love mercy during the Civil Rights period significantly hinders present-day efforts for reconciliation with our African American brothers and sisters and their participation in the PCA; and

Whereas, the General Assembly recognizes that the sins of racism and racial injustice—not only toward African Americans, but also toward other racial minorities—are not simply past sins, but continue to be sins with which our churches and congregants wrestle; and

Whereas, God has once more given the PCA a gracious opportunity to show the beauty, grace, and power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through confession and through the fruits of repentance: such as, clarity that racism is a sin requiring formative and corrective discipline; growing into cultural intelligence regarding minority cultures; establishing interracial friendships and partnerships inside and outside our denomination; renewing our church’s commitment to develop minority leadership at the congregational, presbytery, and denominational levels; and encouraging a denomination-wide vision for and commitment to a more racially and ethnically diverse church in the next twenty years;

Be it therefore resolved, that the 44 General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America does recognize and confess our church’s covenantal and generational involvement in and complicity with racial injustice inside and outside of our churches in the wake of the Civil Rights period; and

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly also confesses our continued sins of racism and failure to love brothers and sisters from minority cultures in accordance with what the Gospel requires; and

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly recommits itself to bear fruit in keeping with our repentance, seeking appropriate courses of action and reconciliation humbly, sincerely, and expeditiously, for the glory of God and the furtherance of the Gospel; and

OVERTURE 24 from Ohio Presbytery

“Form Columbus Metropolitan Presbytery”

Whereas, a Presbytery’s geographic boundaries must be conducive to efficient oversight, cooperation, and connection between particular congregations in the Presbytery; and

Whereas, fostering connectionalism and cooperation among churches, Teaching Elders, and Ruling Elders beyond the local congregation is a hallmark of historic Presbyterianism; and

Whereas, a Presbytery that has greater concentration within a specific geographic region may and should lead to a greater emphasis on church planting, campus ministry, mercy ministry within that region; and

Whereas, a Presbytery encompassing a smaller geographic region requires less time invested in travel, leading to more effective and efficient meetings; and

Whereas, shorter distances should lead to greater participation in Presbytery by Ruling Elders, thus allowing Ruling Elders to better fulfill their established calling to “govern the church well”; and

Whereas, the Guidelines for Dividing Presbyteries, as adopted by the 26th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America, include “regional cohesiveness,” “member churches hav[ing] a potential for shared ministries,” and “member churches hav[ing] a common commitment to the region;” and

Whereas, the current boundaries of Ohio Presbytery contain metropolitan regions (Cleveland/ Akron/Canton, whose 2014 Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA) population was 2.06M, and Columbus, whose 2014 MSA population was 2M, on opposite ends of the Presbytery, along with other significant population centers located to the north in the current Presbytery (including Toledo (MSA population 607K in 2014), and whose regional influence demands concentrated mission focus; and

Whereas, The Ohio Presbytery has the potential to divide into two Presbyteries that would meet the Guidelines of having “a total communicant membership of at least 1000” (#3) and “at least 3 churches each having a membership of at least 125 communicant members (#6);

Now therefore be it resolved, that The Ohio Presbytery overture the 44th General Assembly to divide The Ohio Presbytery into the Columbus Metropolitan Presbytery, to include all mission works and churches of the greater Columbus Metro region located in the counties of Franklin, Madison, Union, Delaware, Licking, Fairfield, and Pickaway; and the continuing Ohio Presbytery which contains all mission works and churches in the counties remaining within her bounds after such division. And that the effective date of this division be August 1, 2016.

“Amend BCO 15-1; 15-2; Add new 15-4 and Renumber Subsequent Paragraphs”

Whereas, a commission differs from an ordinary committee;
Whereas a commission can be an efficient way to conduct matters on behalf of a larger body;
Whereas Sessions may also benefit from the use of Commissions to conduct matters on behalf of the Session;
Whereas there is no provision in the Book of Church Order for commissions appointed by a Session,

Therefore be it resolved, that The Book of Church Order be amended by amending BCO 15-1 and 15-2, adding a new BCO 15-4, and renumbering BCO 15-4 to 15-6 accordingly.

Proposed additions are underlined. Paragraphs 15-4 through 15-6 would be renumbered to 15-5 to 15-7. [Note: there is no change to 15-3.]

15-1. A commission differs from an ordinary committee in that while a committee is appointed to examine, consider and report, a commission is authorized to deliberate upon and conclude the business referred to it, except in the case of judicial commissions of a Presbytery appointed under BCO 15-3 or of judicial commissions of a Session appointed under BCO 15-4. A commission shall keep a full record of its proceedings, which shall be submitted to the court appointing it. Upon such submission this record shall be entered on the minutes of the court appointing, except in the case of a presbytery commission serving as a session or a judicial commission as set forth in BCO 15-3. When a commission is appointed to serve as an interim Session, its actions are the actions of a Session, not a Presbytery. Every commission of a Presbytery or Session must submit complete minutes and a report of its activities at least once annually to the court which commission edit.

15-2. Among the matters that may be properly executed by commissions are the taking of the testimony in judicial cases, the ordination of ministers, the installation of ministers, the visitation of portions of the church affected with disorder, and the organization of new churches.
Every commission appointed by Presbytery shall consist of at least two teaching elders and two ruling elders, and the quorum shall be one more than half its membership unless otherwise determined by the Presbytery. However, should a Presbytery clothe a commission with judicial powers and authority to conduct judicial process, or with power to ordain or install a teaching elder of the Gospel, the quorum of such commission shall not be less than two teaching elders and two ruling elders. Every commission appointed by a Session shall consist of at least three elders, and the quorum shall be at least two unless otherwise determined by the Session. If a Session should clothe a commission with judicial powers and authority to conduct judicial process, the quorum of such a commission shall not be less than one teaching elder and two ruling elders. The quorum for a commission appointed as an interim session need not conform to the requirements of a judicial commission, but only to those of a session (BCO12-1). When the ordination of a minister is committed to a commission, the Presbytery itself shall conduct the previous examination.

15-3. Presbytery as a whole may try a judicial case within its jurisdiction (including the right to refer any strictly constitutional issue to a study committee with options listed below), or it may of its own motion commit any judicial case to a commission. Such a commission shall be appointed by the Presbytery from its members other than members of the Session of the church from which the case comes up. The commission shall try the case in the manner presented by the Rules of Discipline and shall submit to the Presbytery a full statement of the case and the judgment rendered. The Presbytery without debate shall approve or disapprove of the judgment, or may refer, (a debatable motion), any strictly constitutional issue(s) to a study committee. In case of referral, the Presbytery shall either dismiss some or all of the specific charges raised in the case or decide the case only after the report of the study committee has been heard and discussed. If Presbytery approves, the judgment of the commission shall be final and shall be entered on the minutes of Presbytery as the action. If Presbytery disapproves, it shall hear the case as a whole, or appoint a new commission to hear the case again.

New 15-4 to read as:

15-4. A Session as a whole may try a judicial case within its jurisdiction (including the right to refer any strictly constitutional issue to a study committee with options listed below), or it may of its own motion commit any judicial case to a commission. Such a commission shall be appointed by the Session from its members. Should prudential reasons at any time make it advisable for a minister other than the pastor to serve on the judicial commission, the Session may appoint a teaching elder of the same presbytery to serve on the commission. The commission shall try the case in the manner presented by the Rules of Discipline and shall submit to the Session a full statement of the case and the judgment rendered. The Session without debate shall approve or disapprove of the judgment, or may refer, (a debatable motion), any strictly constitutional issue(s) to a study committee. In case of referral, the Session shall either dismiss some or all of the specific charges raised in the case or decide the case only after the report of the study committee has been heard and discussed. If the Session approves, the judgment of the commission shall be final and shall be entered on the minutes of the Session as the action. If the Session disapproves, it shall hear the case as a whole, or appoint a new commission to hear the case again.

“Memorial for TE Bill Leonard”

Whereas, William B. Leonard Jr. passed into glory on September 21, 2015, at the age of 98, we remember and are grateful to God for his long and faithful service in our midst. He served as a chaplain, church planter, pastor, Christian educator, chaplain endorser, gracious mentor, and Bible teacher to men in his nursing home well into his nineties. Bill had a remarkable ministry from the time of his graduation from Faith Theological Seminary during World War II to the moment of his graduation into the courts of heaven. This ministry and leadership among us is well known and honored by many throughout our denomination. And,

Whereas, Chaplain Bill Leonard and his able helpmate, Helen, left active duty with the Marines in 1953 after the Korean War, and came to Colorado Springs to plant a church with a group of 16 others. This church became Grace Presbyterian, an 800-member congregation. This plant began what is now the 1600-member Village Seven PCA, a flagship church of Rocky Mountain Presbytery. Bill and Helen also founded Evangelical Christian Academy and an international Summer Vacation Bible School Program called Reachout Adventures, run today by their daughter Anna. And,

Whereas, the fathers and brethren of the Rocky Mountain Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in America remember with gratefulness his faithful life and work among us for 62 years; we have been truly blessed, encouraged, and challenged to faithfulness by this man of God. Bill was preeminently a churchman who humbly served and loved His Lord and those whom the Lord called to Himself. "Then I heard a voice from heaven say, ‘Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on!’ ‘Yes,’ says the Spirit, ‘they will rest from their labor, for their deeds will follow them.’"

Therefore, Be It Resolved, that we the 44th General Assembly remember with thanksgiving the excellent ministry of Bill Leonard within our denomination and its forbears for so many, many years, and thank our great God and the Lord Jesus Christ for his faithful witness unto death.

Whereas, a “continuing church” inherits not only the faith of the predecessor organization, but also the larger history of the Church from which its descendants, whether that history is honorable or dishonorable; and

Whereas, the members of the PCA are increasingly aware that during the Civil Rights period, many of our founding denominational leaders and churches not only failed to support, but also actively worked against racial reconciliation in both church and society through sins of commission and omission, including: barring African Americans from worship services; misusing and twisting the Bible to support racial segregation; participating in and defending white supremacist organizations; and failing to speak out against state-supported segregation and to support efforts to secure access to basic human and civil rights; and

Whereas, the 30th General Assembly adopted a resolution on racial reconciliation that confessed “covenantal, generational, heinous sins” connected with unbiblical forms of servitude, but did not deal specifically with the covenantal, generational, heinous sins committed during the much more recent Civil Rights period, which betrayed the visible unity of all believers in Christ (Ephesians 2:11-22), the command to love our neighbor as ourselves (Mark 12:31), and the image of God in all people (Genesis 1:27); and

Whereas, the 32nd General Assembly adopted a pastoral letter on “the Gospel and Race,” but in doing so, adopted a statement that did not directly acknowledge our sins against African Americans that many of our founding leaders and churches displayed during the Civil Rights period; and

Whereas, our denomination’s unwillingness to speak truthfully about our failure to seek justice and to love mercy during the Civil Rights period significantly hinders present-day efforts for reconciliation with our African American brothers and sisters and their participation in the PCA; and
Whereas, the General Assembly recognizes that the sins of racism and racial injustice—not only toward African Americans, but also toward other racial minorities—are not simply past sins, but continue to be sins with which our churches and congregants wrestle; and

Whereas, God has once more given the PCA a gracious opportunity to show the beauty, grace, and power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through confession and through the fruits of repentance: such as, clarity that racism is a sin requiring formative and corrective discipline; growing into cultural intelligence regarding minority cultures; establishing interracial friendships and partnerships inside and outside our denomination; renewing our church’s commitment to develop minority leadership at the congregational, presbytery, and denominational levels; and encouraging a denomination-wide vision for and commitment to a more racially and ethnically diverse church in the next twenty years;

Be it therefore resolved, that the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America does recognize and confess our church’s covenental and generational involvement in and complicity with racial injustice inside and outside of our churches during the Civil Rights period; and

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly recommits itself to bear fruit in keeping with our repentance, seeking appropriate courses of action and reconciliation humbly, sincerely, and expeditiously, for the glory of God and the furtherance of the Gospel; and

Be it finally resolved, that the General Assembly instructs the congregations and presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church in America to study this action as well as the PCA position paper on the Gospel and Race, to examine their own past and present actions and words, to confess any of their own particular sins and failures regarding racial injustice as may be appropriate, and to seek to bring forth fruits of repentance for the Gospel’s sake within their own local communities.

Note from Pittsburgh Presbytery: This overture is very similar to Overture 4 from Missouri Presbytery, with the following differences:
1. The first “Be it further resolved” paragraph has been deleted.
2. In the “Be it finally resolved” paragraph, the General Assembly “instructs” rather than “urges.”
3. In the “Be it finally resolved” paragraph, the italicized language below has been added: “. . . Gospel and Race, to examine their own past and present actions and words, to confess any of their own particular sins and failures . . .”
All else remains the same.

“A Day of Prayer and Fasting”

Whereas Jesus’ statement “when you fast” (cf. Matt. 6:16) indicates that fasting is normal and acceptable in the Christian life; and

Whereas the Scriptures give examples of fasting for times of: sorrow and deep grief (2 Sam 12:16, Ps.35:13); overwhelming danger (2 Chr 20:3, Est 4:16); the humbling of the people of God and to seek His favor (Ezr 8:21); repentance (Dan 10:2; 1 Kin 21:27, Ezr 10:6); and for the blessing of ministry (Acts 14:23); and

Whereas the original Directory for Publick Worship (1645) helpfully describes occasions for calling a public fast: “. . . when some great and notable judgments are either inflicted upon a people, or apparently imminent, or by some extraordinary provocations notoriously deserved; as also when some special blessing is to be sought and obtained, publick solemn fasting (which is to continue the whole day) is a duty that God expecteth from that nation or people.”
Therefore be it resolved, before the Lord, that the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America calls for a day of prayer and fasting by member churches during the period of October 26, 2016, to November 6, 2016.

OVERTURE 34 from Westminster Presbytery (to OC)
“Call for Repentance and Reconciliation”

[Editorial Note: This overture is identical to Overture 11 from Calvary Presbytery.]

Whereas, we, as Christians, believe that all men and women are created in the “image of God” and are thereby individually of infinite worth and value and entitled to the utmost respect . . .
Then God said, “Let us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness” . . . So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him, male and female He created them. (Genesis 1:26-27)

Whereas, we, as Christians, take the Biblical position stated by the Apostle Paul as recorded by the Apostle Luke that all men are of “one blood,” and are descended from common parents, Adam and Eve . . .

And He made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth. (Acts 17:26)

Whereas, we, as Christians, know that in our Lord Jesus Christ all walls of separation, ceremonial and otherwise, are discarded, and we are all through His death adopted, reconciled, and united as brothers and sisters in one perfect body as one new man in Him . . .

He Himself is our peace, who has made both one, and has broken down the middle wall of separation, having abolished in His flesh the enmity, that is, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, so as to create in Himself one new man from the two, thus making peace, and that He might reconcile them both in God in one body through the cross, thereby putting to death the enmity. (Ephesians 2:14-16)

Therefore be it resolved that in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ:
We reject “race-based” slavery as wicked, immoral, prideful, and arrogant;
We reject legalized and institutionalized “racial” segregation as being wicked, immoral, prideful, arrogant, and against the clear teaching and spirit of the New Testament;
We call on all people everywhere, and in particular all churches and members of the PCA who had or have anything to do with the promotion and continuance of racial segregation, to repent of their sin;
We call on all people everywhere, and in particular all churches and members of the PCA that were or are apathetic or indifferent to racial injustice, to repent of their sin;
We call on all people everywhere, and in particular all churches and members of the PCA, to seek reconciliation with our brothers and sisters of all ethnic groups for the glory of God and the furtherance of the Gospel.

OVERTURE 36 from Pacific Northwest Presbytery

Be it resolved, that the 44th General Assembly amend RAO 13-2 as follows (additional wording underlined):

13-2. New business must be presented to the General Assembly before the recess of the afternoon session on the second day of business, and if it was not first presented as an overture to a Presbytery, the proposal must include an explanation for why it was not. If received by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the commissioners present and voting, it shall be referred by the Stated Clerk to the appropriate committee of commissioners. No proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be received as new business. Memorials for deceased ministers and ruling elders shall be sent to the Overtures Committee without reading their entirety on the floor.

11-9. [No change is proposed to RAO 11-9. Included here only for reference.]

No overtures received by the Stated Clerk less than one month prior to the opening of the meeting of the General Assembly shall be referred to or considered by the General Assembly convening in that year. An overture proposed by a commissioner to the General Assembly during its proceedings shall be treated as new business (cf. 13-1, 13-2).

Rationale

1. Every commissioner to the GA, presumably, already has access to the GA and can use the overture process for proposing the business because RAO 11-10 allows an individual to file an overture with the GA, as long as it was first presented to the Presbytery.

   RAO 11-10. No overture will be considered by the General Assembly until it first has been presented to a presbytery. If approved by the presbytery, it will come before the Assembly as the overture of that court. An overture requested by an individual communicant [emphasis added], a teaching elder, or a session, but rejected by the presbytery, may be presented to the Assembly, provided the fact that it was rejected by the presbytery is clearly stated with the overture.

2. It is neither prudent nor necessary to routinely allow men to propose, as new business at GA, a matter they could have filed with their Presbytery as an overture.

3. RAO 11-9 prohibits a Presbytery from filing an overture less than a month prior to the GA. So it seems inconsistent to allow a single commissioner to essentially propose an overture on the floor.

   RAO 11-9. No overtures received by the Stated Clerk less than one month prior to the opening of the meeting of the General Assembly shall be referred to or considered by the General Assembly convening in that year. An overture proposed by a commissioner to the General Assembly during its proceedings shall be treated as new business (cf. 13-1, 13-2).

4. This revision more closely reflects the limiting provision in RAO 11-2.

   RAO 11-2. Communications from individuals shall not be received by the GA unless they originate with persons who have no other access to the Assembly. . . .

   A man who is a commissioner to GA certainly has access to the Assembly via the overtures process. And the deadline for overtures not involving the RAO or BCO is 31 days prior to the Assembly. So a man who will be a commissioner has ample time to propose his overture to his Presbytery.

5. New business is often proposed on Tuesday night after the opening worship service, after the election of the Moderator, and after many of the commissioners have traveled all day. That is not the most prudent time to be having a debate on whether to receive “new business” – especially when the commissioners have not read about the matter in the GA Commissioner Handbook or Supplement.

“Amend BCO 13-2 to Add Requirement for Annual Reports from Ministers Without Call”

Be it resolved, that the 44th General Assembly amend BCO 13-2 by the addition of a final sentence as follows (addition underlined):

BCO 13-2. A minister shall be required to hold his membership in the Presbytery within whose geographical bounds he resides, unless there are reasons which are satisfactory to his Presbytery why he should not do so. When a minister labors outside the geographical bounds of, or in a work not under the jurisdiction of his Presbytery, at home or abroad, it shall be only with the full concurrence of and under circumstances agreeable to his Presbytery, and to the Presbytery within whose geographical bounds he labors, if one exists. When a minister shall continue on the rolls of his Presbytery without a call to a particular work for a prolonged period, not exceeding three years, the procedure as set forth in BCO 34-10 shall be followed. A minister without call shall submit at least one report to his Presbytery each calendar year and it shall be recorded in the minutes.

Rationale

1. Losing track of ministers who are without call is a problem in many presbyteries. It is likely many of our 82 Presbyteries have at least one minister without call living out of bounds with whom they’ve lost adequate contact.
2. This would also help inform with any future application of BCO 34-10. 34-10. Whenever a minister of the Gospel shall habitually fail to be engaged in the regular discharge of his official functions, it shall be the duty of the Presbytery, at a stated meeting, to inquire into the cause of such dereliction and, if necessary, to institute judicial proceedings against him for breach of his covenant engagement. If it shall appear that his neglect proceeds only from his lack of acceptance to the Church, Presbytery may, upon the same principle upon which it withdraws license from a licentiate for lack of evidence of the divine call, divest him of his office without censure, even against his will, a majority of two-thirds (2/3) being necessary for this purpose.

3. Ministers with calls who labor out of bounds are required to make an annual report to Presbytery (BCO 8-4). Interns are required to report at every meeting. (BCO 19-12) But the BCO, unexplainably, has no such reporting requirement for ministers without call – not even annually.

4. Each Presbytery can determine how these reports should be made, and in what detail.

OVERTURE 38 from Pacific Northwest Presbytery (to CCB, OC)
“Amend BCO 5-3 to Add an Explicit Requirement for Reporting and Reviewing Minutes of a Mission Church Temporary System of Government”

Be it resolved, that the 44th General Assembly amend BCO 5-3 by the addition of a final sentence as follows (added sentence underlined):

5-3. The mission church, because of its transitional condition, requires a temporary system of government. Depending on the circumstances and at its own discretion, Presbytery may provide for such government in one of several ways:

a. Appoint an evangelist as prescribed in with BCO 8-6.

b. Cooperate with the Session of a particular church in arranging a mother-daughter relationship with a mission church. The Session may then serve as the temporary governing body of the mission church.

c. Appoint a BCO 15-1 commission to serve as a temporary Session of the mission church. When a minister of the Presbytery has been approved to serve as pastor of the mission church, he shall be included as a member of the commission and serve as its moderator.
The temporary system of government shall record and submit its minutes to Presbytery for annual review in the same manner as Sessions of particular churches.

Rationale

1. BCO 12-7 stipulates: “Every Session shall keep an accurate record of its proceedings, which record shall be submitted at least once in every year to the inspection of the Presbytery.” The temporary system of government is essentially the interim Session of a mission church.
2. This would standardize the practice in the PCA. This is done in some Presbyteries, but not in others. (BCO 12-6, 12-7, 12-8 and 13-9.b) Apparently, some mission church sessions operate for years without ever submitting minutes to their Presbytery.
3. This would apply regardless of whether the temporary government (interim Session) is a local church Session, a commission appointed by Presbytery to act as an interim Session, or a solo Evangelist.

OVERTURE 39 from Pacific Northwest Presbytery (to CCB, OC)
“Amend BCO 38-1 and 42-2 to Allow an Appeal Instead of a Complaint in a Case Without Process”

Be it resolved, that the 44th General Assembly amend BCO 38-1 and 42-2 as follows (strike-through for deletion, underlining for additions):

38-1. When any person shall come forward and make his offense known to the court, a full statement of the facts shall be recorded and judgment rendered without process. In handling a confession of guilt, it is essential that the person intends to confess and permit the court to render judgment without process. Statements made by him in the presence of the court must not be taken as a basis of a judgment without process except by his consent. In the event a confession is intended, a full statement of the facts should be approved by the accused, and by the court, before the court proceeds to a judgment. The accused has the right of complaint appeal against the judgment.

42-2. Only those who have submitted to a regular trial, or a case without process (BCO 38-1), are entitled to an appeal.
Rationale

A BCO 42 appeal, rather than a BCO 43 complaint, is the more appropriate avenue for higher court review of the censure imposed in a case without process.

a. It is important to allow an appeal since it suspends the censure until the higher court has reviewed and ruled - like any other judicial censure. And higher court review could take several months. But if only a complaint is allowed to the censured person, the censure is not suspended during the reviews by the original and higher courts (unless 1/3 of the original court votes to do so per BCO 43-4).

b. A complaint must be considered first by the original court before going to the higher court. But there is no reason why, in a confession/case without process, a censuring court should reconsider its ruling via complaint any more than a censuring court should have to do so after a trial. Why mandate a complaint after a confession but an appeal after a trial?

c. The remedies available to the higher court are different in an appeal vs. a complaint.

Appeal 42-9. The decision of the higher court may be to affirm in whole or in part; to reverse in whole or in part; to render the decision that should have been rendered; or to remand the case to the lower court for a new trial.

Complaint 43-10. The higher court has power, in its discretion, to annul the whole or any part of the action of a lower court against which complaint has been made, or to send the matter back to the lower court with instructions for a new hearing.

It is likely there could be instances where the higher court should have the BCO 42-9 authority to “render the decision that should have been rendered” regarding the appropriate censure in a case without process, rather than just the BCO 43-10 authority it has in a complaint. Thus, we should change the word “complaint” to “appeal” in BCO 38-1 and, for clarity, also revise BCO 42-2 to match.

OVERTURE 40 from Pacific Northwest Presbytery (to CCB, OC)
“Amend BCO 43-1 to Clarify the Timing of Higher Court Review of Complaints in Judicial Cases”

Be it resolved, that the 44th General Assembly amend BCO 43-1 as follows (strike-through for deletions; underlining for additions):

43-1. A complaint is a written representation made against some act or decision of a court of the Church. It is the right of any communing member of the Church in good standing to make complaint against any action of a court to whose jurisdiction he is subject, except that no complaint is allowable in a judicial case in which an appeal is pending.

During the process of a judicial case, a higher court shall not consider a timely-filed complaint against an action or ruling of the lower court until a judgment has been rendered, and:
   − there is an acquittal or a dismissal of all charges,
   − the deadline for filing an appeal has expired,
   − the accused has abandoned his appeal, or
   − an appeal has been adjudicated.

However, by a 2/3 vote the higher court may consider a pre-judgment complaint, and it shall record a reason why the circumstances warrant doing so.

Rationale

1. The current phrase, “appeal is pending,” has caused confusion. The interpretation of 43-1 was an issue in three recent SJC judicial cases, as well as some in the past (below). Clarification is needed.
   − 2015-04: Thompson v. South Florida (reported this year)
   − 2015-03: Flesher and Weekly v. Metro Atlanta (reported this year)

3. In a judicial case, a timely-filed complaint (from anyone) would be held in abeyance until an appeal could no longer be filed, that is,
   − there is an acquittal or a dismissal of all charges,
   − the deadline for filing an appeal has expired,
   − the accused has abandoned his appeal, or
   − an appeal has been adjudicated.
4. The revision would still allow a complaint to be filed in a judicial case where the accused was acquitted.

5. And in a case where an appeal was filed and adjudicated, it seems reasonably obvious a complaint would not be allowed to raise the same issue(s) already adjudicated in the appeal. (See SJC Decision in Case 2015-03 reported this year.)

Whereas, the 30th General Assembly adopted a resolution on racial reconciliation that confessed “covenantal, generational, heinous sins” connected with unbiblical forms of servitude, but did not deal specifically with the covenantal, generational, heinous sins committed during the much more recent Civil Rights period, which betrayed the visible unity of all believers in Christ (Ephesians 2:11-22), the command to love our neighbor as ourselves (Mark 12:31), and the image of God in all people (Genesis 1:27); and

Whereas, the 32nd General Assembly adopted a pastoral letter on “the Gospel and Race,” but in doing so, adopted a statement that did not directly acknowledge our sins against African Americans that many of our founding leaders and churches displayed during the Civil Rights period; and

Whereas, our denomination’s unwillingness to speak truthfully about our failure to seek justice and to love mercy during the Civil Rights period significantly hinders present-day efforts for reconciliation with our African American brothers and sisters and their participation in the PCA; and

OVERTURE 42 from Philadelphia Presbytery (to OC)
“Confession of Sin and Commitment to Racial and Ethnic Diversity”

[Editorial Note: This overture is identical to Overture 4 from Missouri Presbytery.]

Whereas, the 43rd General Assembly considered a personal resolution Civil Rights remembrance and deferred action on it until the 44th General Assembly meeting in Mobile, Alabama; and

Whereas, in the 1973 “Message to All the Churches,” the founding generation of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) expressly declared our denomination to be the “continuing church” of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (PCUS), saying, “We have called ourselves ‘Continuing’ Presbyterians because we seek to continue the faith of the founding fathers of that Church,”; and

Whereas, a “continuing church” inherits not only the faith of the predecessor organization, but also the larger history of the Church from which its descends, whether that history is honorable or dishonorable; and

Whereas, the members of the PCA are increasingly aware that during the Civil Rights period, many of our founding denominational leaders and churches not only failed to support, but also actively worked against racial reconciliation in both church and society through sins of commission and omission, including: barring African Americans from worship services; misusing and twisting the Bible to support racial segregation; participating in and defending white supremacist organizations; and failing to speak out against state-supported segregation and to support efforts to secure access to basic human and civil rights; and

Whereas, the 30th General Assembly adopted a resolution on racial reconciliation that confessed “covenantal, generational, heinous sins” connected with unbiblical forms of servitude, but did not deal specifically with the covenantal, generational, heinous sins committed during the much more recent Civil Rights period, which betrayed the visible unity of all believers in Christ (Ephesians 2:11-22), the command to love our neighbor as ourselves (Mark 12:31), and the image of God in all people (Genesis 1:27); and

Whereas, the 32nd General Assembly adopted a pastoral letter on “the Gospel and Race,” but in doing so, adopted a statement that did not directly acknowledge our sins against African Americans that many of our founding leaders and churches displayed during the Civil Rights period; and

Whereas, our denomination’s unwillingness to speak truthfully about our failure to seek justice and to love mercy during the Civil Rights period significantly hinders present-day efforts for reconciliation with our African American brothers and sisters and their participation in the PCA; and

Whereas, the General Assembly recognizes that the sins of racism and racial injustice—not only toward African Americans, but also toward other racial minorities—are not simply past sins, but continue to be sins with which our churches and congregants wrestle; and

Whereas, God has once more given the PCA a gracious opportunity to show the beauty, grace, and power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through confession and through the fruits of repentance: such as, clarity that racism is a sin requiring formative and corrective discipline; growing into cultural intelligence regarding minority cultures; establishing interracial friendships and partnerships inside and outside our denomination; renewing our church’s commitment to develop minority leadership at the congregational, presbytery, and denominational levels; and encouraging a denomination-wide vision for and commitment to a more racially and ethnically diverse church in the next twenty years;

Be it therefore resolved, that the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America does recognize and confess our church’s covenantal and generational involvement in and complicity with racial injustice inside and outside of our churches during the Civil Rights period; and
Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly also confesses our continued sins of racism and failure to love brothers and sisters from minority cultures in accordance with what the Gospel requires; and

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly recommit itself to bear fruit in keeping with our repentance, seeking appropriate courses of action and reconciliation humbly, sincerely, and expeditiously, for the glory of God and the furtherance of the Gospel; and

Be it finally resolved, that the General Assembly urges the congregations and presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church in America to study this action as well as the PCA position paper on the Gospel and Race, to confess their own particular sins and failures regarding racial injustice as may be appropriate, and to seek to bring forth fruits of repentance for the Gospel’s sake within their own local communities.

OVERTURE 43 from Potomac Presbytery (to OC)
"Pursuing Racial Reconciliation and the Advance of the Gospel"

Whereas, the 43rd General Assembly considered a personal resolution on racial reconciliation and referred the matter to the 44th General Assembly, so that lower courts could perfect and propose a resolution encouraging “heartfelt repentance”; and

Whereas, in the 1973 “Message to All the Churches,” the founding generation of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) expressly declared our denomination to be the “continuing church” of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (PCUS), saying, “We have called ourselves ‘Continuing’ Presbyterians because we seek to continue the faith of the founding fathers of that Church”; and

Whereas, the formation and identity of the PCA was shaped through the honorable and courageous commitment of our founding denominational leaders and churches to be faithful to the Scriptures in doctrine and in practice, and these convictions remain with us to this day; and

Whereas, during the Civil Rights period, there were founding denominational leaders and churches who not only failed to pursue racial reconciliation but also actively worked against it in both church and society through sinful practices, such as the segregation of worshipers by race; the exclusion of persons from Church membership on the basis of race; the exclusion of churches, or elders, from membership in Presbyteries, on the basis of race; the teaching that the Bible sanctions racial segregation and discourages inter-racial marriage; the participation in and defense of white supremacist organizations; and the failure to live out the gospel imperative that “love does no wrong to a neighbor” (Romans 13:10); and

Whereas, the vestiges of these sins continue to affect our denomination to this day and significantly hinder efforts for reconciliation with our African-American and other minority brothers and sisters by: often refusing to lay down our cultural preferences so that these brothers and sisters might feel more welcome in our churches; not sufficiently encouraging minority culture brothers into leadership within our General Assembly Committees and Agencies, presbyteries, and churches, as evidenced by our history; failing to lovingly confront our brothers and sisters concerning racial sins and personal bigotry; and failing to “learn to do good, seek justice and correct oppression” (Isaiah 1:17); and

Whereas, the 30th General Assembly adopted a resolution on racial reconciliation that confessed “heinous sins” connected with unbiblical forms of servitude, but did not deal specifically with the racial sins committed during the much more recent Civil Rights period, which betrayed the visible unity of all believers in Christ (Ephesians 2:11-22), the command to love our neighbor as ourselves (Mark 12:31), and the image of God in all people (Genesis 1:27); and

Whereas, God has once more given the PCA a gracious opportunity to show the beauty, grace, and power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through confession and through the fruits of repentance: such as, formative and corrective discipline for racial sins; in understanding and appreciation of minority cultures; intentionally establishing interracial friendships and partnerships inside and outside our denomination; renewing our church’s commitment to develop minority leadership at the congregational, presbytery, and denominational levels; and encouraging a denomination-wide vision for and commitment to a more racially and ethnically diverse church in obedience to the Great Commission; and

Therefore be it resolved, that the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America does recognize, confess, and condemn these past and continuing racial sins and failure to love brothers and sisters from minority cultures in accordance with what the Gospel requires; and

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly praises and recommitts itself to the gospel task of racial reconciliation, diligently seeking effective courses of action to further that goal, with humility, sincerity and zeal, for the glory of God and the furtherance of the Gospel; and
Be it finally resolved, that the General Assembly urges the congregations and presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church in America to make this resolution known to their members in order that they may prayerfully confess their own racial sins as led by the Spirit and strive towards racial reconciliation for the advancement of the gospel, the love of Christ, and the glory of God.

OVERTURE 44 from Potomac Presbytery (to MNA)
"Creation of PCA Unity Fund"

Whereas, the 43rd General Assembly considered a personal resolution on racial reconciliation and referred the matter to the 44th General Assembly, so that lower courts could perfect and propose a resolution encouraging heartfelt repentance; and

Whereas, presbyteries have responded to this appeal “to prayerfully consider any and all sins of racial prejudice” by submitting overtures on racial reconciliation that call us to individual and corporate repentance; and

Whereas, repentance is an essential first step of racial reconciliation, but not the only one; and

Whereas, the 43rd General Assembly also encouraged sessions and presbyteries to “pursue a proper course of action humbly, sincerely and expeditiously”; and

Whereas, a proper course of action would include actively welcoming minority brothers called to pastoral ministry and encouraging their representation as Ruling and Teaching Elders in the PCA;

Therefore be it resolved, that the 44th General Assembly create a fund to be known as “The PCA Unity Fund” to help raise up future generations of godly, reformed African American and other minority Ruling and Teaching Elders that would include the following objectives:

a) Provide tuition to approved Reformed seminaries for minority PCA seminarians;

b) Pay expenses for minority Ruling and Teaching Elders to attend General Assembly;

c) Support the compensation expenses of minorities serving as an Assistant Pastor in a PCA church, for the first two years of their ministry in churches that pledge to provide full support by the third year;
d) Provide means for historians to explore the role that Reformed minority pastors and theologians have played in our country’s history.

Be it further resolved, that this Unity Fund would be managed by Mission to North America, which would be responsible for:

a) Establishing a board that reports to MNA and is comprised of African American and other minority teaching and ruling elders of the PCA;
b) Receiving, receipting and disbursing monies;
c) Approving the seminaries to which support can be directed;
d) Encouraging individuals, churches and presbyteries to donate to the fund.

"Form Racial Reconciliation Study Committee"

Whereas, the 30th General Assembly adopted a statement on racial reconciliation that confessed its “heinous sins” connected with unbiblical forms of servitude and the after-effects thereof; and

Whereas, the 32nd General Assembly adopted a paper titled “The Gospel and Race” that was produced under the oversight of our Mission to North America committee; and

Whereas, the 144th General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, Evangelical Synod, adopted a statement on “Racial Questions”; and

Whereas, there is a growing consensus of officers that the General Assembly actions to date, while helpful, have not sufficiently resulted in the increased ethnic diversity and participation at all levels of our denomination that these actions called for; and

Whereas, repentance and reconciliation require a thorough understanding of the specific issues and steps to restore unity; and

Whereas, racial and ethnic reconciliation is a serious issue worthy of a careful and deliberative approach, and therefore deserves the extra time and effort to address the issue on a comprehensive level, taking into account historical developments, qualitative, and quantitative research;

Therefore be it resolved that the 44th General Assembly:
1. Authorize the Moderator to appoint a Racial and Ethnic Reconciliation study committee, comprised of multiple ethnicities and a ruling elder majority with research and analytical skills that would:
   a. Assess the current situation in the PCA concerning racial and ethnic reconciliation;
b. Identify specific problems the PCA needs to address to promote racial reconciliation and ethnic diversity;
c. Recommend concrete steps for Sessions and Presbyteries to make progress in the work of reconciliation and diversity;
d. Establish reliable criteria for discerning successful progress in reconciliation;
e. Report to the 45th General Assembly and each successive Assembly through the 50th General Assembly, with updates regarding our progress in meeting these criteria.

2. Set the budget for the study committee at $15,000/year and that funds be derived from gifts to the Administrative Committee designated for that purpose.

Whereas, Jesus said, “My kingdom is not of this world” (Jn. 18:36), so “the power of the church is exclusively spiritual”12 and she may not, therefore, “intermeddle with civil affairs,”13 nevertheless, some of our churches have abused the spirituality of the church by failing to promote, and in some cases actively opposing:
- that all men have equal dignity regardless of race or color because they are made in the image of God (Genesis 1:26-31),
- that all men are one by virtue of our common descent from Adam (Genesis 1:26-31; Acts 17:26),
- that all men must be given fair and equal treatment under the law, both ecclesiastical (James 2:1-13) and civil (Deuteronomy 1:16; Proverbs 16:10-12),
- that the church must embrace all believers, regardless of their race, because of our mutual union with Christ (Galatians 3:25-29), and
- that it is the duty of every believer to use their various positions in life to promote the wellbeing of their neighbor (Luke 10:25-27; Exodus 20:12); and

Whereas, the PCA has been hindered in its goal to be obedient to the Great Commission because our Presbyteries and individual congregations have not sufficiently addressed these sins that continue to affect our churches and witness today; and

God and from those brothers and sisters so sinned against, as far as possible, and repentance, reconciliation, and reformation be manifested according to God’s Word (Mt. 3:8, WCF 15); and

Be it further resolved, that all members of the PCA are encouraged to call all people without distinction to faith in the Gospel and repentance, and to invite them into our local churches because our God Himself shows no partiality (Acts 10:34, Rom. 2:11); and

Be it further resolved, that all congregations of the PCA work together to strengthen the unity of our denomination, as a part of the one Church, the singular bride of Christ, founded not on culture, race, or class, but one in Christ, fulfilling the mission and work of all He commanded us (Mt. 28:18-20, Gal. 3:28, Eph. 4:1-16); and

Be it further resolved, that the Stated Clerk disseminate this resolution to all Presbyteries and Sessions in the PCA for the reconciliation and health of Christ’s Church; and

Be it further resolved, that Presbyteries and Sessions be greatly encouraged to examine their own history on these issues and to spread this resolution to all its members for the purpose that all would examine their hearts with more specificity and appropriate Biblical action be taken where applicable.

“Leading by Example in Repentance First”

Whereas, previous General Assemblies have attempted to provide sweeping, well-meaning, and general statements of repentance for the odious sin of racism; and

Whereas, the 2015 General Assembly requested that courts and presbyters study the issue and make suitable steps toward meaningful repentance; and

Whereas, a helpful article “Confessing Sin One Church Officer at a Time,” published in Old Life (March 17, 2016; see Attachment) advocated a courageous and authentic manner of leading by example first (John 15:20; Phil. 2:3-4) and avoiding a focus on the sins of others (Mt. 7:3); and
Whereas, all the church should be aware of this sincere, gospel-centered practical alternative below, especially since it may not have been widely publicized; and

Whereas, our existing constitution affords prompt, sincere, and responsible action in this area, which needs no additional implementing mechanism other than sincere repentance; and

Whereas, BCO 38-1 (below), which provides for true and meaningful repentance as a “case without process,” might well be put to good and proper use, and widely so, in this time;

BCO 38-1. When any person shall come forward and make his offense known to the court, a full statement of the facts shall be recorded and judgment rendered without process. In handling a confession of guilt, it is essential that the person intends to confess and permit the court to render judgment without process. Statements made by him in the presence of the court must not be taken as a basis of a judgment without process except by his consent. In the event a confession is intended, a full statement of the facts should be approved by the accused, and by the court, before the court proceeds to a judgment. The accused has the right of complaint against the judgment.

And,

Whereas, particular repentance and particular courts and relevant contrition can have more moral and relational impact than other proposed measures;

BCO 31-2. It is the duty of all church Sessions and Presbyteries to exercise care over those subject to their authority. They shall with due diligence and great discretion demand from such persons satisfactory explanations concerning reports affecting their Christian character. This duty is more imperative when those who deem themselves aggrieved by injurious reports shall ask an investigation. If such investigation, however originating, should result in raising a strong presumption of the guilt of the party involved, the court shall institute process, and shall appoint a prosecutor to prepare the indictment and to conduct the case. This prosecutor shall be a member of the court, except that in a case before the Session, he may be any communing member of the same congregation with the accused.
And,

Whereas, no godly assembly wishes to discourage leading by example first; and

Whereas, repentance and confession are personal acts of the individual sinner; and pastors and elders should be the first and chief repenters; and

Whereas, availing the procedures in BCO 31-2 and 38-1 do not exclude additional, future measures if necessary—it primarily establishes a purposeful priority, which should be exercised first, and we call on future measures to report on how these two BCO provisions were implemented, first; and

Whereas, acting in accord with these provisions could be generous, authentic, powerful, public, extensive, renewing, evangelistic, and bring sincere repentance, forgiveness, and reconciliation;

Therefore, be it resolved that all overtures presented to the Forty-Fourth General Assembly calling for confession and repentance be returned to their courts of original jurisdiction to be handled according to the potent and readily available provisions of BCO 31-2 and 38-1.

Confessing Sin One Church Officer at a Time

Published in Old Life, March 17, 2016

The following from Pastor Jonathan Inman (PCA) is a call for his communion to confess its sin of racism by the book — that is, by the Book of Church Order. (Pastor Inman originally submitted this to by Faith magazine but the editors decided against its publication.)

GA Commissioners: Please Lead by Example

To my Fellow Commissioners to the 44th General Assembly of Presbyterian Church in America, Brothers,

Among the various items of business we have before us this summer, several presbyteries have requested the General Assembly confess and repent of sins past and present. Further, we are being asked to encourage our member congregations and presbyteries to do the same in their local communities. I am writing to urge all who support these overtures, and especially those presbyters who plan to be in Mobile in June, to lead others by example in confessing and repenting of your sin as individuals before your courts of original jurisdiction in keeping with the provisions of BCO 38-1.

I agreed with last year’s momentous decision to refer the matter to this year’s Assembly. A year later, it’s not as though the issues giving rise to this initiative have gone away or abated, and the opportunity for folks to think through the issues and consider how best to address them is welcome. But now it is time to act.

By “act” I don’t mean wordsmithing by committee, perfecting language few will read and fewer still will take as pious advice. Nor do I mean huffing and puffing at microphone 6, bewailing our own or others’ failings, or castigating – if only by implication – those who disagree with us. Nor do I mean we should do much more than we did last year – that is, refer the matter – except in a different direction, with more determined purpose, and with a more realistic expectation of effectual results.

I would like for this year’s Assembly to answer all the related overtures by sending them back to the courts from which they originated to be dealt with according to our rules of discipline. Fully a third of our BCO is devoted to how our courts should deal with our members’ sin, and one section in particular, BCO 38-1, spells out how our courts should receive confessions of sin. I do not begrudge anyone’s earnest attempts to deal honestly and graciously with the sins of God’s people. I am calling upon the officers of the PCA to do so in a fashion to which we’ve all agreed.

If you think you have sinned, and not just a little, or in some ordinary fashion, but in an especially heinous sort of way, then 38-1 is totally the way to go. Serious sins, public sins, sins perpetrated by officers of the church – if ever there were occasion for serious, public and official confession and judgment, wouldn’t this be it? And all without the rigmarole of process!

Leaders in the church who believe they have so sinned – whether covenantally or generationally, jointly or severally – should lead by example by formally confessing their sins before their sessions and presbyteries, and asking for judgment to be rendered. Failure to do so suggests a lack of seriousness, either in their estimate of their sin, or their commitment to their ordination engagements.

No need to wait for the Assembly to give you permission; you’ve already agreed to this when you were ordained. There’s plenty of time between now and GA to get the ball rolling. And if you come to Mobile prepared, having discharged your conscience in conformity to the provisions of our constitution, it is reasonable for you to expect that others who share your concerns will have done the same.
Would you like the entire denomination to deal seriously with the substance of the issues presented in these overtures? Then have our elders, teaching and ruling, humble themselves to confess and seek discipline for their acknowledged sin before their brethren to whom they have promised submission. Have their sessions and presbyteries determine what is a full statement of the facts, render judgment, and mete out any censures. Far from superfluous procedures, these basic responsibilities executed by the courts would provide the blueprint for precisely the sort of appropriate responses on the part of the presbyteries and congregations called for by the overtures.

Whether you are for or against this or that sentiment in this or that version of these overtures, the best way forward would be for living men to lead the way, exemplifying how very concerned we are for Christ’s honor and our neighbors’ well-being.

And yet, if you personally vote to support some version of these overtures at this year’s assembly in Mobile, and if I see you next summer in Greensboro and you somehow haven’t yet invoked 38-1 for yourself, I might be willing to meet you at a lunch counter downtown and let you try to explain why you didn’t.

OVERTURE 54 from Calvary Presbytery (to CC)

“Commend Covenant College for Forfeiting Championship Tennis Match Scheduled on a Lord’s Day”

Whereas the Word of God clearly instructs men to observe the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy, and to set aside this one day out of seven as being consecrated to the Lord (Genesis 2:1-3; Exodus 20:8-11; Isaiah 58:13-14); and

Whereas the Sabbath Day has fallen into widespread profanation and disuse in American society today, and various athletic, commercial, and social enterprises and activities have all but obliterated our former national reverence for this holy day;

Therefore, be it resolved that the 44th General Assembly express its appreciation to Covenant College for electing to forfeit with the Women’s Tennis USA South Conference championship match, scheduled for April 17, 2016, because it was scheduled on the Lord’s Day.

And moreover, we remind our congregations of the resolution adopted by the 4th General Assembly in 1976:

Therefore, we the members of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America reaffirm our unwavering stand against all unnecessary encroachments upon the Lord’s Day, and exhort all citizens everywhere to worship God and to properly set aside and sanctify the Sabbath of the Lord Jesus Christ. And that we exhort each pastor and session to study the positive application of Sabbath observance to their congregation in order to bring our practice into great conformity with the Church’s Standards. (M4GA [1976], p. 65)

OVERTURE 55 from Mississippi Valley Presbytery (to OC)
“Confession of the Sin of Racism, and Commitment to Christian Unity”

Whereas, the 43rd General Assembly considered a personal resolution on Civil Rights Remembrance and deferred action on it until the 44th General Assembly in Mobile, Alabama; and

Whereas, in the 1973 “Message to All the Churches,” the founding generation of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) expressly declared our denomination to be the “continuing church” of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (PCUS), saying, “We have called ourselves ‘Continuing’ Presbyterians because we seek to continue the faith of the founding fathers of that Church”; and

Whereas, as a “continuing church,” we rightly own the good Gospel legacy of the movement of Bible-believing, Reformed Christians who brought us into being, and recognize our indebtedness to them, while we also acknowledge the sins and failures of our movement and denomination, including in those areas that have ongoing and significant negative ramifications for the unity, ministry and witness of the church today; and

Whereas, as Calvinists who wholeheartedly believe in the Bible’s teaching on sin and grace, we are unsurprised by serious sin in even our greatest human heroes (“If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us,” 1 John 1:8), we are also unafraid of confessing it (because of God’s great mercy to us, in Christ, Ephesians 2:4-5), and thus we own and acknowledge both the good and the bad in the Bible-believing movement that brought us into being, and in our own denomination’s history, and with both gratitude and sorrow remember different parts of that history and legacy; and

Whereas, we rejoice and give thanks that our founding fathers officially, explicitly, and tangibly rejected racism and segregation as motives for or aims of the formation of the PCA, further, we recognize that our founding fathers did not intend the PCA to be racist or to tolerate racism as they understood it, and indeed many of them during the Civil Rights era increasingly longed for, prayed for, wrote for, preached for, and worked for a Gospel solution to unbiblical segregation and discrimination in church and society; and

Whereas, we grieve and lament that we have become increasingly aware that during the Civil Rights era, many of those who became our founding denominational leaders, churches, and members failed to live up to their and our own Confession’s Biblical doctrine of man, that all mankind is created by God “after His own image” (Genesis 1:27, Acts 17:24-28, WCF 4.2) by not only refusing to support, but also, both congregationally and individually, actively working against racial equality (the unqualified acknowledgment in belief and practice that African Americans are fully human and made in the image of God, that no ethnicity is inherently superior to another, and that the Bible provides no grounds for the enforced segregation of ethnicities) in both church and society, through sins of omission and commission including: barring African Americans from worship services; misusing and twisting the Bible to support racial segregation; participating in and defending white supremacist organizations; failing to speak out against state-supported segregation, not supporting efforts to secure African Americans access to basic human and civil rights, and neglecting to show solidarity with and support for African American brothers and sisters in Christ, as they endured various kinds of discrimination and duress in the Civil Rights era; and

Whereas, the 30th General Assembly adopted a resolution on racial reconciliation that confessed “covenantal, generational, heinous sins” connected with unbiblical forms of servitude, but did not deal specifically with the heinous sins committed during the much more recent Civil Rights era, which betrayed the visible unity of all believers in Christ (Ephesians 2:11-22), the command to love our neighbor as ourselves (Mark 12:31), and the image of God in all people (Genesis 1:27); and

Whereas, the 32nd General Assembly adopted a pastoral letter on “the Gospel and Race,” but in doing so, adopted a statement that did not directly acknowledge our sins against African Americans that many of our founding leaders, churches, and members displayed during the Civil Rights era; and

Whereas, an unwillingness to acknowledge, confess and repudiate these sins, and to speak openly and contritely of them, significantly hinders our present-day witness and unity, our efforts for solidarity and reconciliation with our African American brothers and sisters and their participation in the PCA; as well as our Gospel outreach to men and women of every tribe, tongue, people, and nation; and

Whereas, The Presbytery of the Mississippi Valley recognizes that the sins of racism and racial injustice—not only toward African Americans, but also toward other racial minorities—are not simply past sins, but continue to be sins with which our churches and congregants wrestle; and

Whereas, scripture enjoins the necessity of unity in the body of Christ such that when a brother is thought to have something against another brother, reconciliation between them supersedes even worship (Matthew 5:23,24); and

Whereas, God has once more given the PCA a gracious opportunity to show the beauty, grace, and power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through confession and through the fruits of repentance: such as, clarity that racism is a sin requiring formative and corrective discipline; growing into cultural intelligence regarding minority ethnicities; establishing interracial friendships and partnerships inside and outside our denomination; renewing our church’s commitment to develop minority leadership at the congregational, presbytery, and denominational levels; and encouraging a denomination-wide vision for and commitment to a more racially and ethnically diverse church; and

Whereas, we greatly rejoice that, in spite of ourselves, the Lord has graciously blessed the PCA with an increasing racial and ethnic diversity, including a larger proportion of minorities (among them Asians, Latinos and African Americans), than many traditionally majority white North American denominations (and more than we might have expected, given our history), the Lord has granted the PCA an increasing number of African American teaching and ruling elders, the Lord has raised up Reformed University Fellowship (RUF) campus ministries at historic Black colleges and universities (HBC/Us) and many multi-ethnic church plants in the PCA (including our own Jackson State University RUF and Redeemer Church, Jackson), the Lord has this year brought in the largest number and percentage of African American students in the incoming class in the history of Reformed Theological Seminary, Jackson, the Lord is bringing about a resurgence of the doctrines of grace in parts of the African American church, and there are more presbytery overtures calling for repentance for racism and racial reconciliation submitted to the 44th General Assembly than for any other issue in the history of the PCA (thus showing an overwhelming, denomination-wide concern and resolve to speak faithfully to this issue) – all of this is the Lord’s doing, not ours, but it is marvelous in our eyes!
Be it therefore resolved, in the light of the continuing nature of the Presbyterian Church in America, that The Presbytery of the Mississippi Valley recognizes and confesses, and joins with many sister presbyteries in asking the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America to recognize and confess, our denomination’s history of involvement and complicity in racial injustice, congregationally and/or individually, inside and outside of our churches during the Civil Rights era; and

Be it further resolved, that The Presbytery of the Mississippi Valley also confesses, and asks the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in American to confess, our continued sins of racism and failure to love brothers and sisters from ethnic minorities in accordance with what the Gospel requires; and

Be it further resolved, that The Presbytery of the Mississippi Valley recommits itself to bear fruit in keeping with our repentance, seeking appropriate courses of action and reconciliation humbly, sincerely, and expeditiously, for the glory of God and the furtherance of the Gospel, and asks the 44th GA of the PCA to do the same; and

Be it further resolved, that the attached “Pastoral Letter” from The Presbytery of the Mississippi Valley to its constituent churches be offered as an example of how a presbytery might provide shepherding leadership for its churches toward racial reconciliation; and

Be it further resolved, that the attached “Bibliography and Resources” concerning race and unity be offered to our presbyteries and churches for their use in studying, evaluating and implementing their own efforts toward the goal of reconciliation with all racial minorities; and

Be it finally resolved, that The Presbytery of the Mississippi Valley humbly asks the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America to urge all the congregations and presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church in America to study this action as well as the PCA position paper on the Gospel and Race, to confess their own particular sins and failures regarding racial injustice as may be appropriate, and to seek to bring forth fruits of repentance for the Gospel’s sake within their own local communities.

Adopted by Mississippi Valley Presbytery at its stated meeting, May 3, 2016
Attested by /s/ TE Roger G. Collins, stated clerk
Dear Friends,

Last year, the 43rd General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) considered a personal resolution dealing with the sin of racism as it pertains to our church, both in history and in the present. Though action was deferred on it until the 44th General Assembly (which will be held in Mobile, Alabama in June), our presbytery felt it wise to give careful consideration to this matter ourselves. So a committee was appointed to report to our presbytery on the issue.

Your presbytery, having received that committee’s report and recommendations, and having thoroughly discussed this issue in three different presbytery meetings, adopted an Overture to the 44th General Assembly of the PCA on “Confession of the Sin of Racism, and Commitment to Christian Unity” and now writes to you this pastoral letter.

As a presbytery, we not only want to address the past, we especially want to speak to the present and give biblical counsel and encouragement to our people and churches so that we may “all attain to the unity of the faith” (Ephesians 4:13). During our long discussions, there were moving testimonies of hearts changed, confessions of and repentances for racist language, attitudes and actions, expressions of brotherly forgiveness, and admissions by some that they are reticent to even talk about the issue of racism in the church for fear of the controversy that might ensue. In short, it became ever more clear to us that racism remains a current and ongoing pastoral issue, and that truly pursuing biblical racial reconciliation is not merely a matter of acknowledging the wrongs of the past but of endeavoring to “to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly” with our God (Micah 6:8) in the here and now.

Your presbytery addresses the issue of racism in the same spirit as the PCA Pastoral Letter on the Gospel and Race (2004):

. . . we do so not because it is politically correct, or out of any pressure from outward society, but simply because it is our desire that the convicting and restoring power of God’s grace in the Gospel be applied to the manifestations of racial sin of which we ourselves are guilty, and that those who experience the negative effects of these sins might know the healing power of God’s grace – that we who have been reconciled to God through Christ might become together a holy temple in the Lord, reconciled to one another by His Spirit (Ephesians 2:20-22).

Because racism is a loaded term, and some suspect an unbiblical agenda when it is invoked, we want to say precisely what we mean by racism. Racism is the denial of the image of God (Genesis 1:26, 27) and its implications to someone of another ethnicity. Racism in the church is a contradiction of the visible unity of all believers in Christ (Ephesians 2:11-22, Revelation 5:9; 7:9). Racism inside and outside the church is a contradiction of Jesus’ command to love our neighbor as ourselves (Mark 12:31; Luke 10:25-37, esp. 29, 37), and of God’s creation of all people in his image (Genesis 1:27; Acts 17:26). So theologically, racism entails a denial of the biblical doctrines of creation, man, the communion of saints and is disobedience to the moral law. We will not mince words. Racism is not only sin, serious sin, it is heresy.

Our final rule of faith and practice, the Holy, Inspired, Inerrant Word of God, The Bible and our subordinate doctrinal standard, The Westminster Confession of Faith, ground our treatment of all people with dignity, justice, and kindness in the doctrine of our creation in the image of God. God created our first parents in his own image (Genesis 1:26, 27, WCF 4.2), and therefore all human beings are of the same race. Scripture says: “The God who made the world and everything in it, . . . gives to all mankind life and breath and everything. And he made from one man every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth” (Act 17:24-26). Because of this, Christians are to treat every human being with equal dignity as made in the image of God. So both the biblical doctrine of creation and the biblical doctrine of man inform the Christian’s treatment of everyone, including people of other and minority ethnicities.

The Bible and our Westminster Confession of Faith also ground our treatment of all people with dignity, justice, impartiality, and kindness in the moral law and Jesus’ command to love our neighbors. Both the Old Testament and the New Testament explicitly command love for our neighbor. Moses is very specific about what love of neighbor entails: “You shall not oppress your neighbor . . . . You shall do no injustice in court. You shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great, but in righteousness shall you judge your neighbor. . . . You shall not hate your brother in your heart, . . . lest you incur sin because of him. . . . but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD” (Lev 19:13-18). Neighbor love, then, according to God’s moral law, exemplified in the fifth through tenth commandments, calls for impartial kindness and justice to be shown to all, an equal concern for the well-being of others. Moses grounds this behavior in God’s character (Leviticus 19:3, 4, 10, 12, 14, 16, 18) and our responsibility as believers to imitate him “You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy” (Leviticus 19:2). And this neighbor love was not reserved for Israelites only. Moses explicitly extends it to foreigners: “When a stranger sojourns with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong. You shall treat the stranger who sojourns with you as the native among you, and you shall love him as yourself, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God” (Leviticus 19:33-34).

Jesus reiterates this command in the New Testament (e.g., Mark 12:31, Luke 10:25-37). After summarizing the ethical requirements of the moral law of God for the believer’s life by saying: “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself” (Luke 10:27), Jesus is met with the self-justifying question: “Who is my neighbor?” (Luke 10:29). In other words, the lawyer who queried Jesus was seeking a delimitation of the demands of neighbor love. Jesus answers with the story of the Good Samaritan, and makes it clear that the better question is “Am I a good neighbor?” Jesus’ application of the story shows that those who obey God’s command to love neighbor don’t attempt to delimit the obligation of neighbor love, but rather show mercy indiscriminately and even at significant personal cost (Luke 10:36-37). On this basis, Christians are enjoined by the moral law and by Jesus’ direct exhortation to show love, care, concern for the well-being of, justice, mercy, and kindness to all people, with impartiality.

The Westminster Larger Catechism (WLC) exposition of the moral law, from Question 91 to 152, has much to teach us about this current discussion, and especially Questions 122-152. We daresay that if the commands and prohibitions of this section of the Westminster Larger Catechism had been but applied to our relationships with other and minority ethnicities, it would have meant a death knell for racism among us. WLC 131 tells us of our duty “to regard the dignity and worth of each other.” WLC 130 warns against an “inordinate seeking of” ourselves and our “own glory, ease, profit, or pleasure.” WLC 132 condemns as sin “the undervaluing of the worth, . . . and usurping pre-eminence one over another.” Racism is rooted precisely in the failure to obey in these areas. WLC 135 and 136 especially speak to our treatment of one another.

Q. 135. What are the duties required in the sixth commandment?

A. The duties required in the sixth commandment are all careful studies, and lawful endeavors, to preserve the life of ourselves and others by resisting all thoughts and purposes, subduing all passions, and avoiding all occasions, temptations, and practices, which tend to the unjust taking away the life of any; by just defence thereof against violence, . . . by charitable thoughts, love, compassion, meekness, gentleness, kindness; peaceable, mild and courteous speeches and behaviour; forbearance, readiness to be reconciled, patient bearing and forgiving of injuries, and requiting good for evil; comforting and succouring the distressed and protecting and defending the innocent.

If Bible-believing Presbyterians had carefully studied and lawfully endeavored “to preserve the life of ourselves and others,” including mistreated ethnic minorities, “by resisting all thoughts and purposes, subduing all passions, and avoiding all occasions, temptations, and practices, which tend to the unjust taking away the life of any” and defending others against unjust violence as WLC 135 enjoins, the history of Presbyterianism in U.S. culture from Reconstruction, through Jim Crow and the Civil Rights era would read differently. If we today will relate to other and minority ethnicities with “charitable thoughts, love, compassion, meekness, gentleness, kindness; peaceable, mild, and courteous speeches and behaviour; forbearance, readiness to be reconciled, patient bearing and forgiving of injuries, and requiting good for evil, comforting and succouring the distressed, and protecting and defending the innocent,” our testimony will adorn God’s sanctifying work in us and display true love of neighbor. And WLC 136 furthermore forbids the “hatred,” “oppression” and “whatsoever else tends to the destruction of the life of any.”

The Bible and our Westminster Confession of Faith ground our treatment of fellow Christians as brothers and sisters, joint heirs, as blood-bought family in the doctrine of the communion of the saints. Jesus commissioned his church to “make disciples of all nations” (Matthew 28:19). The language of “all nations” (πάντα τὰ ἔθνη [panta ta ethnē]) highlights the connection of Jesus’ great commission to the fulfillment of the Abrahamic covenant (Genesis 12:3; 18:18; 22:18; 26:4) and the Gentile mission of the church. The command to make disciples from “all nations” indicates that Jesus intended us to go to all the peoples of earth with the Gospel, and that he intended his church to include disciples from all peoples. “Don’t just go to the Jewish people, but to all the Gentile peoples,” Jesus is saying. He reiterates this in Acts 1:8 when he tells his disciples that they will be his witnesses “to the end of the earth.”
The New Testament repeatedly celebrates the fact that Jesus’ redemptive work has brought believing Jews and Gentiles, once separated by the ceremonial law, into one body, the church. No passage states this more clearly than Ephesians 2:11-22:

Therefore remember that at one time you Gentiles in the flesh, called “the uncircumcision” by what is called the circumcision, which is made in the flesh by hands -- remember that you were at that time separated from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For he himself is our peace, who has made us both one and has broken down in his flesh the dividing wall of hostility by abolishing the law of commandments expressed in ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man in place of the two, so making peace, and might reconcile us both to God in one body through the cross, thereby killing the hostility. And he came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near. For through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone, in whom the whole structure, being joined together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord. In him you also are being built together into a dwelling place for God by the Spirit.

Paul indicates here that Christians of all ethnicities have been made heirs of the covenant promises, have been brought into one body with all other believers, are members of the family of God and part of the one holy temple that the Lord is building. All of this is the result of the work of Christ. To deny the multi-ethnicity of the church is to deny an accomplishment of the atoning work of Jesus Christ. It is a contradiction of what the Gospel does in reconciling all believers “to God in one body through the cross” (Ephesians 2:16). A policy of segregation in the church, or indifference to it, is thus inimical to the Gospel and to the purposes of the saving work of Christ, since all who are united to Christ are united to all who are united to Christ, no matter their ethnicity. The work of Christ creates the communion of the saints, and the church visible is to bear witness to the reality of that communion.
WCF 26.1-2 speaks directly to this:

I. All saints, that are united to Jesus Christ their Head, by His Spirit, and by faith, have fellowship with Him in His grace, sufferings, death, resurrection, and glory: and, being united to one another in love, they have communion in each other's gifts and graces, and are obliged to the performance of such duties, public and private, as do conduce to their mutual good, both in the inward and outward man.

II. Saints by profession are bound to maintain an holy fellowship and communion in the worship of God, and in performing such other spiritual services as tend to their mutual edification; as also in relieving each other in outward things, according to their several abilities and necessities. Which communion, as God offers opportunity, is to be extended unto all those who, in every place, call upon the name of the Lord Jesus.

Racism in the church denies the reality of this communion of the saints, disrupts the unity of Christ’s body, resists one of the purposes of his redemptive work, tarnishes the witness of the church, harms members of the body for whom we are called on in WCF 26.1 to perform “such duties, public and private, as do conduce to their mutual good, both in the inward and outward man,” and refuses to extend communion “unto all those who, in every place, call upon the name of the Lord Jesus.” Can you imagine the members of the Assembly of Divines hearing that people who had subscribed these words (from WCF 26.1-2) as a statement of their faith and theological commitments had argued for segregating the church on the basis of race, had refused Christians from different ethnic minorities admission to worship services, and were indifferent to the well-being (in church and society) of fellow Christians who are ethnic minorities? They would have been horrified.

In sum, Racism fails to affirm, explicitly or implicitly, in belief and/or practice (1) that all people, of every ethnicity, are fully human and made in the image of God, (2) that no ethnicity is inherently superior to another, and (3) that the Bible provides no grounds for the forced or institutional segregation of ethnicities. Racism is, of course, the sin of persons, but it can become endemic to cultures and societies. When it becomes so, very often those who are dominant in those cultures and societies are blind to its presence, pervasiveness, and consequences.

Racism may manifest itself in belief, prejudice, and practice. Racist belief asserts the superiority of one ethnicity over another or others, and hence attempts to segregate the “superior” from the “inferior” ethnicity/ies. Racist prejudice makes sweeping negative assessments of ethnicities from the standpoint of condescension and based on stereotypical, preconceived and uncharitable opinion. Racist practice treats people inequitably and unjustly because of ethnicity. Racism is condemned by our sole final authority in faith and practice, the Holy Scriptures, and by our subordinate standards, the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms.

So, if racism is sin, serious sin, heresy, and not merely an issue of the past but a matter that needs our current and ongoing attention, what should we do? What practical steps can we take? An issue this controversial, a problem this big, can seem daunting and can leave us feeling like there is nothing we can do. But there are important, simple things that any and every believer can do to begin engaging this significant challenge.

As believers, we can learn, pray, acknowledge, relate, and commit. Here is what we mean by those five things.

Most of us in the PCA churches of the Presbytery of the Mississippi Valley are white, though we live in a state with a population that is 37% black (and the Jackson metropolitan area is about 50% black). Denominationally, less than 2% of PCA pastors are black. We don’t have statistics on the ethnicity of our church membership in PMV, but ethnic minorities are probably in the low single digits percentage-wise. One of the things that this means is that we will have to make a deliberate effort to gain another perspective on this issue outside of our own “bubble.” Relatively few of us have close friends of other ethnicities, especially in the context of our local churches. That means that understanding the perspective of fellow Bible-believing Presbyterians, who are of a different ethnicity, and with whom we have an actual relationship, on the issue of racial reconciliation, is a challenge.

This means that the very first thing we have to do is want to learn. We don’t know what we need to know about this issue.

1. Learn

Read the PMV overture on “Confession of the Sin of Racism, and Commitment to Christian Unity.” Keep up with the other overtures on this issue coming to the PCA General Assembly. Especially take the time to read the PCA General Assembly’s “The Gospel and Race: A Pastoral Letter” (2004).

Read the material mentioned in the PMV “Suggested Resources on Race and our History for the Presbytery of the Mississippi Valley.” This will take a while. There is a lot to chew on.
Seek to learn from Reformed, African American perspectives on these issues. Talk to black PCA ministers, elders, and members. Tell them you want to learn from them. Listen. Go online and listen to their sermons. Read Reformed, black writers on the internet. Here are four places you can go online to do this.

Ellis Perspectives http://www.ellisperspectives.com/ Dr. Carl and Karen Ellis. Dr. Ellis is a black PCA minister, teaches for RTS, and his wife Karen is an expert in the persecuted church.

The Front Porch http://thefrontporch.org/ Where black Reformed ministers talk about the Bible, the Black Church, Culture/Ethnicity, Family, God, the Gospel, Leadership, Missions, Preaching, Salvation, Shepherding, Theology, Women and Worship.

The Reformed African American Network https://www.raanetwork.org/ Here you will encounter the voices of many younger, black, Reformed people (and others committed to a multi-ethnic church) talking about the Bible, church, race, culture and current events.

Pure Church https://blogs.thegospelcoalition.org/thabitianyabwile/ This is the blog of Thabiti Anyabwile, a black pastor of Anacostia River Church in southeast Washington, DC.

For pastors, elders, and church members wanting to dig deep into a biblical understanding of race and to get perspective on how racialized our society has been and is, three books would provide a huge help.

This is a book written by a conservative, Bible-believing scholar and edited by a renowned evangelical theologian. It is a study of the Bible’s teaching on ethnicity in the sweep of redemptive history (from Genesis to Revelation) and it convincingly shows that God’s grand saving plan finds its culmination in the one people of God, at the consummation of history, depicted as a multi-ethnic congregation, gathered together in the worship of the one, triune God, around his throne. When you realize that this is where the history of the people of God is going, it changes your understanding of the here and now.

Jarvis J. Williams, One New Man: The Cross and Racial Reconciliation in Pauline Theology (B&H Academic, 2010).

Dr. Williams is a professor at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, KY, and teaches for Reformed Theological Seminary as well.
this book Dr. Williams, who is African American, argues that Christ’s death for our sin is God’s only solution to racial hostility and the only provision for racial reconciliation. This is precisely what most of the founding fathers of the PCA thought and taught. This book will help you understand what the gospel says about race and race relations, which is hugely important since we often allow cultural prejudices to shape our understanding of race instead of scripture.

Michael O. Emerson and Christian Smith, Divided by Faith: Evangelical Religion and the Problem of Race in America (Oxford University Press, 2001)

Dr. Mike Campbell, former Senior Pastor of Redeemer Church (PCA), Jackson, MS, recommended this book to the faculty of RTS to read a few years ago. The RTS Jackson faculty read and discussed it, with much profit. It attempts to explain why white evangelicals in general don’t view racism and racial reconciliation the way black Christians do. It is very illuminating on that front. Emerson and Smith are respected sociologists and are fair-minded in the way they present their case. You don’t have to agree with everything in the book to benefit greatly from its perspective. For instance, if you don’t understand the difference between “racist” and “racialized” you are probably blind to important presuppositions you are bringing to this discussion.

In all of this, we should aim to better understand our presuppositions, our history and our context. If we are unaware of our presuppositions, lack knowledge of the history of racism in the churches, and have failed to scrutinize how our context may have unwittingly influenced our attention to and understanding of how the Bible speaks to this issue, we will be hampered in our consideration and discussion.

2. Pray

There is nothing more important we can do than to pray. Racial reconciliation is impossible in our own strength. Only God and the Gospel can avail. And that means we need to pray. In prayer we acknowledge our own powerlessness, but at the same time acknowledge God’s power to act, save and change.

The following prayer suggestions assume our social and geographical location, in Mississippi and Louisiana, in the Southeastern United States in the early years of the 21st century, with all the history of racial conflict that entails. Hence, these suggestions will focus more on black-white relations in our churches, than on other ethnicities (though much will be transferable to prayer in other situations and for other peoples). These prayers also take into consideration that most of us in PCA churches in Mississippi and Louisiana are white, and they ask us to bear in mind fellow believers who are not.

Praise God as the one true God, creator of all humanity, maker of every person of every tribe, tongue, people and nation, in His own image.

Praise God for his saving plan to make out of all peoples and nations, one people, a people for himself.

Praise God that at the consummation of human history, men and women and boys and girls, from all the world in every corner, from every tribe, tongue, people and nation, who have been redeemed by the blood of the Lamb, who have believed the Gospel and trusted Christ, who have been saved by sovereign grace, adopted into God’s household, made members of Christ’s body, will worship God and the Lamb, forever,

Praise God that in some measure the church visible now bears witness to that future reality.

Thank God for your African American brothers and sisters in Christ, and for every ethnicity that is part of the church visible. “Red and yellow, black and white, they are precious in his sight.”

Thank God that there is a reawakening of Reformed Theology in the African American community.

Thank God that he is raising up outstanding African American Reformed preachers in our generation.

Thank God for the increasing ethnic diversity in the PCA that has grown up because of the power of the Gospel, the work of the Spirit and our union with Christ.

God that our denomination’s founding fathers wanted a church for all peoples and that as the PCA approaches fifty years old we are closer to that aspiration than we were in 1973.

Confess whatever your own personal and congregational sins and failures may be, whether by omission or commission, pertaining to loving our African American brothers and sisters in Christ.

Grieve and lament that the evangelical branch of the Presbyterian tradition from which we come fell so short of the Bible and Reformed Theology in our treatment of people of different ethnicities, especially African Americans, even in the church: barring them from worship attendance and church membership, misusing and twisting the Bible to support racial segregation; failing to show solidarity with and support for African American brothers and sisters in Christ as they endured various kinds of discrimination and duress in the Civil Rights era.

Grieve the consequences of this for our own day and ask the Lord to open your eyes to blindspots and behavior that continue to cause us to fall short of our biblical duties towards fellow believers of different ethnicities, especially African Americans.

Ask that God, by grace, would grant an extraordinary work of racial healing and reconciliation among believers, and that our past failures would not hinder present ministry.

Ask God that by the Holy Spirit he would break down barriers that separate us from one another and create the unity that ought to be exhibited within the body of Christ.

Ask God that the real, biblical, Gospel, Holy Spirit-wrought, racial reconciliation in our church might be a powerful witness to the culture around us that would cause even unbelievers to say: “surely God is among them.”

Ask God to bless the ministries of faithful, Bible-believing African American pastors, especially PCA pastors, as well as those of other ethnic minorities.

Ask God that you words, actions, and attitudes would be encouraging to your African American brothers and sisters in Christ, as well as to other ethnic minorities.

Ask God to grant his heart and help to the PCA and other solid biblical churches so that we would do a better job of reaching out to African Americans, and other ethnic minorities, with the Gospel.

Ask God to so work in us congregationally by his sanctifying Holy Spirit that ethnic minority attenders and members of our churches will feel welcome, loved, at home and part of the family.

Ask for God to raise up more African American (and other ethnic minority) pastors, missionaries, church planters, seminary and college professors, campus ministers, elders, deacons, women in the church leaders, and ministerial candidates in the PCA. Pray for minority leadership at the congregational, presbytery, and denominational levels.
Our Father,

You are the one, true God who made the world and everything in it,
   Acts 17:24-26
You are the Lord of heaven and earth,
You give to all mankind life and breath and everything.
   And you made from one man every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth
You made us to seek you and worship you,
   Acts 17:27; John 4:23
But we sought ourselves instead and worshipped the creature rather than the Creator,
   And so we were estranged from You, Romans 1:25; Genesis 11:8-9
   And estranged from one another, like the people of the plain of Shinar.
Yet in your grace, you not only created, called and saved your people Israel, but also promised that your covenant with Abraham would mean blessings for all the families of the earth.
   Genesis 12:3
Through Jesus Christ you brought the blessings of Abraham to the Gentiles,
   Gal. 3:13-14
   And you made Jew and Gentile into one new man, your people, your church.
   Ephesians 2:11-22, 3:6
And at the end of time, a multitude none can number, Revelation 7:9-12
   from every tribe, tongue, people, and nation will all be your people in one body worshipping the one true God, through one savior, Jesus Christ,
   by the power of one Holy Spirit.
Grant that we would long for that, and look like that more. Now.
In Jesus’ name, we pray. Amen.

3. Acknowledge

If we do not acknowledge that racism is a problem and we do not aspire to racial reconciliation and Gospel unity, it won’t happen. We can learn all we want, but if we don’t see our sin and need in this area, if we don’t buy in to its importance, if we aren’t ready to make changes, it won’t matter much whatever else we do.
Acknowledgement not only means owning up to our part of the problem, and that a problem exists, and that it is important, but also recognizing how big the challenge is. Racial reconciliation has not been, is not, and will not be an easy thing. Only the Gospel is big enough to address it.

And acknowledgement doesn’t come easy for many evangelical Christians, for a variety of reasons. As we have already noted, many evangelical Christians view today’s discussions of racism as just another example of political correctness being foisted on the church. Sociologists Emerson and Smith noted in their book Divided by Faith that most evangelicals think of racism as a thing of the past. Hence, when the subject is introduced some respond by saying “It’s time to move on.”

But we also need to realize and acknowledge how hard this discussion is for our African American brothers and sisters in the church. They too, are often “tired” of this conversation, but not for the same reason many white evangelical Christians are. Black Christians are “tired” of having to justify the validity and relevance of the conversation in the first place, and are often deeply discouraged by how little their white brothers and sisters seem to have thought or cared about it, or to have realized the dramatic effect racism has had upon their lives.

Let’s be honest and admit how big a challenge all this is. All you have to do to show how difficult the discussion is is to bring a group of black and white Bible-believing Reformed Christians into a room and say the words: social justice, systemic racism, white privilege, mass incarceration, police brutality, racial profiling, gentrification, spirituality of the church, – and prepare for the whirlwind! The point is not that there is one right view of these things (one quickly learns that there is not one “black view” of these things, even among PCA African Americans). The point is this: even among people with shared Reformed theology, our social and cultural experiences are so different, and our perspectives so varied, that constructive conversation is very difficult on many subjects, especially at first, and requires a long season of trust-building and personal relationship (which leads to our next point).

The problem is real. The solution is not easy. Only God and the Gospel can prevail.

4. Relate

Make friends. Do not underestimate the power of friendship. This whole discussion will remain abstract until you meet and befriend a person whom you come to care about, who is different from you, and who can give you a perspective on this issue different from your own. For white PCA Christians, that is going to mean establishing interracial friendships.

Start with deliberately seeking to cultivate friendships with Reformed and PCA African American Christians. Then reach out to other Bible-believing black Christians. Then seek to be a better friend to African Americans in your neighborhood, work, and community.

Maybe there’s someone in your church who is of a different race. You know each other, but you’ve never spent significant time together or had a serious conversation. Why not invite that person out to coffee, or to breakfast or lunch, or have their family over for dinner? This is a natural, organic way to deepen a relationship you already have.

Be intentional. We don’t naturally gravitate toward those who are different from us. We naturally gather in similar groups. We have to do something unnatural, or rather, supernatural to break the cycles of social sameness that hinder racial reconciliation. Think like a missionary or a church planter or a campus minister. All these folks are deliberately on the look out to try to make friendships and connect with people for the sake of the Gospel and ministry. Apply that attitude and approach to interracial friendships.

Pastors, consider entering into a friendship with a pastor of a different ethnicity. Get together for coffee and meals, and discuss substantial issues. Pray for one another. Get to know each other’s families. Swap pulpits, where appropriate and possible.

5. Commit

Commit to this issue as a part of your personal and congregational sanctification. Determine to grow in your cultural intelligence regarding ethnic minorities. Learn from godly Christians who are already engaged in racial reconciliation and demonstrating Christian unity.

Pastors and elders may want to consider asking people from ethnic minorities in your community their impression of the reputation of your church regarding racism, neighbor love and impartiality.

Pastors and elders may want to examine patterns, language, and culture within our churches that erect barriers to other races.

With pastoral prudence and sensitivity, pastors and elders may want to consider preaching and teaching in our churches concerning racism, highlighting the biblical doctrines that inform the Christian view, but clearly anchoring the study in Scripture.
Establish a minority scholarship for those preparing for the Gospel ministry in the PCA, for both college and seminary education (since both are required for PCA ordination and since many ethnic minorities lack the resources for them).

Consider and cultivate interns from ethnic minorities to be discipled for ministry, as you would any other ministerial candidate or person with potential for service in the church.

Be intentional with discipling minority members for church leadership.

Endeavor to prepare African American (and other ethnic minority) pastors, missionaries, church planters, seminary and college professors, campus ministers, elders, deacons, women in the church leaders, and ministerial candidates in the PCA.

Think carefully about the hiring practices of your church. For instance, is one type of employee typically from an ethnic minority? What message do you intend to send: to the employee, to the members, to visitors, to the watching world?

Deliberately reach out to and evangelize people of other and minority ethnicities within our communities, near our churches, and within the areas covered by our regional church, the presbytery.

Show church members what personal loving interracial friendship and hospitality look like by hosting members, attenders, and friends of all ethnicities in your home.

Read publications by authors of other ethnicities, especially Bible-believing and Reformed authors from other and minority ethnicities.

Don’t exclude or discourage, on the basis of ethnicity, any person from membership, privilege, or responsibility, including leadership, in any church or in the presbytery.

Don’t discriminate, on the basis of race, against a Christian participant in worship services, or other services or functions of the church (including weddings).

Don’t tolerate racist attitudes, language, and practices among the membership of the church.

Don’t expect that we will agree about everything (like church music!), with fellow Christians from ethnic minorities, even within the PCA.
So, learn, pray, acknowledge, relate, and commit. These pastoral suggestions are offered in the spirit of “stirring one another up to love and good deeds” (Hebrews 10:24). Your presbytery writes as fellow elders, brothers, and members of the congregations of PMV. May the Lord himself grant us Gospel unity, racial reconciliation, and enable us to bear fruit in keeping with repentance (Matthew 3:8).

This thesis argues that “Disgruntled by a liberal-moderate coalition that held power [in the PCUS], many conservatives withdrew and created the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) in 1973, the first major division of a Southern denomination. The PCA was not solely founded because of racial disagreements or any single cultural debate; rather decades’ long theological disagreements regarding the church’s role in society fueled separation along with several sharp social controversies.”

OVERTURE 56 from Evangel Presbytery (to OC)

“In Support of Overture 55 from Mississippi Valley Presbytery”

Whereas, the Presbytery of the Mississippi Valley has sent an overture to the 44th General Assembly recognizing and confessing “our denomination’s history of involvement and complicity in racial injustice, congregationally and/or individually, inside and outside of our churches during the Civil Rights era”; and Whereas, Evangel Presbytery is in agreement with the substance of this overture and believes that this is a matter that the General Assembly must address; and Whereas, the pastoral letter attached to the Mississippi Valley overture provides heartfelt pastoral counsel on how a presbytery might provide shepherding leadership for its churches toward racial reconciliation; and Whereas, we believe that more subtle forms of racism still exist in our denomination, among which is an attitude of cultural superiority in the majority culture, an attitude that forces minority cultures to choose between accommodation and resistance to this majority culture;

Be it therefore resolved, that Evangel Presbytery urges the 44th General Assembly to answer in the affirmative the overture from Mississippi Valley Presbytery; and

Be it further resolved, that Evangel Presbytery calls upon our denomination to confess and repent of the sin of maintaining an attitude of cultural superiority in the majority culture of our denomination, an attitude that is in conflict with the heart of the gospel which locates our worth in the forgiveness and righteousness freely given to us through Christ (Westminster Larger Catechism #123-26, 131-32); and

Be it further resolved, that Evangel Presbytery calls upon our denomination to bear fruit in keeping with this repentance, among which is the recognition of cultural expressions outside of the majority culture. Believing that among the freedoms given in the gospel is the freedom of cultural expression, and believing that both majority and minority cultures will be enriched through the mutual love stemming from this gospel freedom, we pledge ourselves to honor one another through these different cultural expressions; and

Be if further resolved, that Evangel Presbytery recommits itself to bear fruit in keeping with our repentance, seeking appropriate courses of action and reconciliation humbly, sincerely, and expeditiously, for the glory of God and the furtherance of the Gospel, and asks the 44th General Assembly of the PCA to do the same.

“Acknowledgment of Sin and Recommitment to Model our Unity in Christ”

Whereas, the sin of partiality is grievous in the sight of God (James 2) and the Lord has called us to love our neighbor as ourselves;

Whereas, the General Assembly recognizes that racism is a subset of the larger sin of showing partiality (James 2), and that showing partiality for any race or ethnicity over another has not simply been a past sin but exists alongside other forms of partiality forbidden by Scripture with which our churches and congregants continue to wrestle; and

Whereas, the 43rd General Assembly considered a personal resolution on Civil Rights Remembrance and deferred action on it until the 44th General Assembly meeting in Mobile, Alabama; and
Whereas, in the 1973 “Message to All the Churches,” the founding generation of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) expressly declared our denomination to be the “continuing church” of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (PCUS), saying, “We have called ourselves ‘Continuing’ Presbyterians because we seek to continue the faith of the founding fathers of that Church”; and

Whereas, a “continuing church” inherits not only the faith of the predecessor organization, but also the larger history of the Church from which its descends, whether that history is honorable or dishonorable; and

Whereas, though our founding denominational leaders were used mightily for the glory of Christ and the spread of the gospel, and some labored for a gospel solution to segregation, however, the members of the PCA are increasingly aware that during the Civil Rights period, many of our founding denominational leaders and churches not only failed to support, but also actively worked against racial reconciliation in both church and society through sins of commission and omission, including: barring African Americans from worship services; misusing and twisting the Bible to support racial segregation; participating in and defending white supremacist organizations; and failing to speak out against state-supported segregation and to support efforts to secure access to basic human and civil rights; and

Whereas, God has once more given the PCA a gracious opportunity to show the beauty, grace and power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through confession and through the fruits of repentance, doing those things which are necessary to obtain a clear conscience by promoting the grace of God for the salvation and spiritual health of all of our brothers and sisters as divine image bearers;

Be it therefore resolved, that the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America does acknowledge many of our denomination’s forefathers’ covenantal and generational involvement in and complicity with racial injustice inside and outside of our churches during the Civil Rights period; and

Be it further resolved, that this 44th General Assembly urges the members, congregations and presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church in America to study this action as well as the PCA position paper on the Gospel and Race, to confess their own particular sins and failures regarding racial injustice as may be appropriate, and to seek to bring forth fruits of repentance for the Gospel’s sake within their own local communities.

Be it finally resolved, that this 44th General Assembly recommits itself to bear fruit in keeping with our repentance, not holding the faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with partiality (James 2:1ff; Acts 10:34f in context), but pursuing a church that models being one body, one new redeemed humanity in Christ (Eph. 2:11-21 and 4:1-16) in the midst of a fractured and fallen humanity, a church which seeks to be salt and light to our present culture, seeking appropriate courses of action and reconciliation humbly, sincerely, and expeditiously, for the glory of God and the furtherance of Gospel.

“Resolution of Gospel Supremacy and the Work of the Church”

Whereas, all authority in Heaven and on Earth belongs to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ (cf. Matthew 28:18) reigning over all affairs of men; and

Whereas, professing Christians throughout the ages have continued to contend with sin of all color and stripe; and

Whereas, the 30th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America adopted a resolution on “racial reconciliation” that confessed its covenantal, generational, heinous sins connected with unbiblical forms of servitude and has received by promise the forgiveness of sins (cf. 1John 1:9); and
Whereas, God created man in His own image (cf. Genesis 1:27) and He has made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on the face of the earth (Acts 17:26a), the concept of different “races” is not biblical; and if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation (2 Corinthians 5:17a), so that there remain no divisions among those who have put on Christ; all are offspring of Abraham (cf. Galatians 3:27-29); and

Whereas, the Presbyterian Church in America has temporarily ignored the exhortation of the Proverbist to hold back those who are stumbling to the slaughter (cf. Proverbs 24:11), by carelessly adopting the philosophies of men (cf. Colossians 2:8) in the form of secular political movements which corrupt and prevent such work; and

Whereas, God has once more given our denomination a gracious providential opportunity to show the beauty, grace and power of the gospel of Jesus Christ through Christ-like love and compassion toward all who still draw breath;

Be it therefore resolved, that the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America does recognize and confess our church’s recent involvement in and complicity with placing current political winds (cf. Ephesians 4:14) above the work of the Gospel; and

Be it further resolved, that this General Assembly recommit to the task of glorifying the Triune God of Scripture and the furtherance of the gospel of peace; and

Be it finally resolved, that the General Assembly urges the congregations of the Presbyterian Church in America to confess their own particular sins and failures as may be appropriate, and to seek to further truth and reconciliation for the gospel’s sake within their own local communities.

Whereas, the Presbytery of Northern Illinois is agreeable with a boundary restructuring to bring Sangamon County into the Presbytery of Northern Illinois;

Now therefore be it resolved, that Illiana Presbytery, at its 2016 Spring Stated Meeting, determined to overture the 44th General Assembly to restructure the boundaries of the Presbyteries of Northern Illinois and Illiana so that Sangamon County joins the Presbytery of Northern Illinois.

The Reverend Doctor L. Roy Taylor Stated Clerk of the General Assembly
Presbyterian Church in America
1700 North Brown Road, Suite 105
Lawrenceville, Ga 30043

Dear Dr. Taylor,

Thanks you for your gracious invitation to represent the National Association of Evangelicals at the 2016 General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America. While it is not possible for me to attend, I am honored to be invited and pray God’s blessing on the Assembly.

Leaders of the Presbyterian-Reformed movement have been involved with the NAE from our founding, nearly 75 years ago, and we greatly value that long-term friendship. We are composed of evangelicals of many types, bound together by loyalty to Jesus Christ, the Word of God and the Church. The PCA is an important part of that diverse NAE family.

At your meetings I understand you will consider the critical issue of racial reconciliation. The NAE has spent considerable time on this topic as well, hosting a conversation with our leaders last fall and devoting the spring edition of Evangelicals magazine to explore the issue. Our new evangelical research definition was developed to help researchers clarify that evangelicals should be defined by belief, not race or politics. Many of us have struggled to address racial issues well, but I am seeing reasons for hope all around our country. I expect that your conversations will open new doors of blessing and opportunity as well.

Roy, your faithful leadership in the PCA and the larger evangelical world is an encouragement to me and a blessing to many. I have prayed for you, know many of your leaders, and share your excitement over what God is doing through your multiple ministries. May God bless and encourage all who gather in Mobile with the presence and power of the Holy Spirit.

With blessing,

Stated Clerk
General Assembly
Presbyterian Church in America

Dear Roy,

Assuming, then, that you will forward our invitation to the incoming Moderator, I'd be grateful if you would also submit our greeting to your General Assembly when it meets in Mobile, June 20-23, 2016.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Australia, when it last met in 2013, warmly received as its Assembly expositor: Rev. Dr. Ligon Duncan. We greatly benefited from his presence and ministry, as we have in past years with MTW church planters.

Like your church, the Presbyterian Church of Australia is a Bible-believing church which upholds the inerrancy, authority, truth, relevance and sufficiency of Holy Scripture. Like you, we defend and proclaim the glorious message of the Gospel – that the gift of God is eternal life through faith in Christ Jesus alone, and that that gift is bestowed on all who repent and believe in Christ's atoning work at Calvary and his empty tomb.

Please accept this expression of fellowship in Christ and partnership in the Gospel from all “down under” within the slightly older PCA.

COMMUNICATION 3 from Église réformée de Québec “Fraternal Greetings”

Église réformée de Québec
Interchurch Committee

June 6, 2016

Fraternal Greetings to the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America

Dear fathers and brothers in Christ,

With thanksgiving to our heavenly Father, we address you as your sister Church serving the French-speaking people of God in the province of Quebec.

As you may or may not be aware, the Église réformée du Québec (ERQ) is a small Reformed-Presbyterian denomination of five congregations serving the French-speaking people of God in the province of Quebec, Canada. We report a total membership of 364 communicate and non-communicant members. While on the one hand, we are a small body of believers, we also note with thanksgiving to our Lord that we have experienced steady growth during the past four years of nearly 2.5% each year. On the North American Church scene, 2.5 % annual growth is very significant.

More important than numbers, we praise our Lord for having raised up the ERQ as a vibrant Reformed witness in the province of Quebec. Our existence, our perseverance in the faith, our faithful Christ-centered preaching, our reception of new converts, and our growth in spiritual maturity, as well as our growing influence upon the protestant-evangelical witness in Quebec, all testify to our vibrant faith.

Since our last fraternal address in 2105, there have been a number of developments in the ERQ of which we would like to inform you and ask for your prayers:

i. For several years the ERQ synod has been wrestling with questions related to the doctrine of creation. At our most recent synod meeting in February 2016, three motions were adopted. We adopted an affirmation summarizing the biblical and confessional teaching on creation. (The text was adapted from the affirmation adopted by the URCNA synod in 2001.)
We adopted a recommended series of questions for the examination of pastoral candidates and pastors transferring into the ERQ. (This examination procedure was taken over directly from the recommendation adopted by the 71st General Assembly of the OPC.) Finally, the ERQ synod also adopted the motion reminding the consistories to follow the church order with respect to the discipline of office bearers in case of heretical teachings.
ii. We rejoice that the Head of the Church continues to raise up men of God to serve his people in Quebec. In January 2015, David Castonguay was ordained to the ministry of the Word and sacraments in order to serve the St-Jean congregation in Montreal, with a view to eventually becoming an army chaplain. Brother Castonguay is the first pastor of Quebec origin to be ordained in the ERQ in more than twenty-five years. Pastor Jean Zoellner accepted a call to serve as dean of Farel, Reformed Theological Seminary. Pastor Karis Mpindi, born in the Democratic Republic of Congo and raised in the United States, was received to serve the St-Jean congregation in Montreal. Three elders were ordained. One congregation of the ERQ remains vacant. Recently, on Saturday May 14th, eight office bearers and sixteen un-ordained men spent the day learning about the call to serve the Church as pastors or elders. We pray that several of these men will eventually be called to serve the Churches in Quebec.

iii. The ERQ continues to develop fraternal relations beyond Quebec. We maintain ecclesiastical fellowship not only with the PCA, but also with the Canadian Reformed Churches (CanRC), the Orthodox Presbyterian Church (OPC), and the United Reformed Churches in North America (URCNA). In November 2105, the ERQ hosted the delegates of the thirteen member churches of NAPARC. We thank our Lord for the growing mutual awareness of our collective Reformed witness throughout North America.

As we conclude this fraternal address, we would like to express our appreciation for the work of your interchurch relations committee, and for the brotherly exchanges during our annual face-to-face meetings at NAPARC. We continue to thank our Lord for MTW and MNA missionaries who partner with us in Quebec and in the French-speaking world. We also note with thanksgiving the occasional visitors received from your church members, as well as some brothers and sisters participating in Short Term Missions in Quebec.

As you conclude the work of the General Assembly, and as you return to shepherding your local congregations, please be assured that we do pray for you and your faithful witness. May our gracious Lord fill us with joy as we preach the Gospel of truth and life.

With brotherly affection,

Dr. Roy Taylor, the Stated Clerk of PCA

Greetings in the Lord Jesus Christ from the Presbyterian Church in Japan!

It is my great pleasure and honor for me to be invited to the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA). Since we are not able to send our delegates to your GA this year, I’d like to send greetings from the Presbyterian Church in Japan (PCJ) in writing.

I am very grateful that so many churches and people at PCA are praying for PCJ asking the Lord’s blessings upon us. I’d especially like to express our gratitude to you all because of the long history of your prayerful generous supports as well as dedicated missionaries both long-term and short-term sent through the Mission to the World. With their indispensable help PCJ is able to continue our ministries of building-up churches and furthering the Kingdom of our Lord. Under the leadership of Rev. Dan Iverson, there are, in the Japan Presbyterian Mission, six teams with more than fifty missionaries are working together with Japanese workers in church-planting, spiritual renewal of churches, translating and publishing Christian literature, and theological education.

The Presbyterian Church in Japan was established in 1993 as a result of the unification of the Presbyterian Church of Christ in Japan and the Evangelical Presbyterian Church in Japan. We started with 3 presbyteries and 42 local churches, but now we have 6 presbyteries and 64 churches. Our guiding principles are the highest regard of the Scripture as the infallible Word of God, the Westminster Standards, and the Presbyterian Polity. While strongly upholding these unchanging principles, PCJ is committing herself for the furtherance of the Kingdom of God in the varying tides of the contemporary world.

Looking back, the history of PCJ cannot be written without the cooperation with PCA, particularly in the fields of church-planting and theological education. Our history of cooperation goes back to the coming of Rev. Phillip Foxwell and Rev. John M. L. Young to Yokkaichi in central Japan in 1948 and their move to Tokyo to help start Japan Christian Theological Seminary.
as well the Presbyterian Church of Christ in Japan soon afterwards. Our cooperation thus spans more than 70 years and has been a result of the commitment and dedication of both PCA and PCJ to the same Lord Jesus Christ and His Church. Based on this history of cooperation, I, as convener of the General Assembly of PCJ and representing the Inter-Church Relations Committee, am wishing wholeheartedly that PCA and PCJ forge a fraternal relationship officially for the sake of the Lord. May I ask also that PCA would consider this in favorable terms.

I pray that the Lord bless the 44th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America and grant grace and peace to all the saints of all her member churches.

Kiyoshi Endo, Convener of the General Assembly
Presbyterian Church in Japan

COMMUNICATION 6 from the Reformed Church in the Netherlands
Greetings to the PCA Assembly in Mobile, Alabama, June 20-24, 2016

Rev. Peter Bakker
Committee for Relations with Churches Abroad
Reformed Churches in the Netherlands

Dear brothers in Christ,

Heartfelt greetings from the Reformed Churches in the Netherlands, de Gereformeerde kerken vrijgemaakt in Nederland.

Thank you very much for the invitation you extended to us to be present at this synod meeting. It is heart warming to meet you again after our latest visit in 2015.

My name is Peter Bakker, and I am here as a member of the Committee for Relations with Churches Abroad (BBK). I appreciate to participate in conversations with your Interchurch Relation Committee (IRC). Again, thanks for inviting our churches to be present at this Assembly.

I am a retired professor of Aerospace Engineering at the Delft University of Technology. I have been active in our churches, such as being an elder, a delegate to the last General Synod, and a member of the Board of Trustees of our theological university in Kampen. Now I am in the BBK Committee in two capacities: as chairman and responsible for maintaining contacts with churches in North America. So that is why I am here.
I am sure many of you could be well informed about our country and our churches. However, for those less familiar just a few statistics.

The Netherlands, a country of some 17 million citizens, is increasingly hostile to orthodox Christian faith. Opposition to gay marriage is seen as unacceptable. Our 100 reformed elementary schools and in particular four reformed High Schools are under pressure to promote gay marriage.

Regarding our church we sometimes do use an addition: the Reformed Church Liberated, because 72 years ago our churches were liberated from greater Reformed Church in the Netherlands. The subjects of the discussions in that day were covenant, baptism, God’s grace, and our responsibility.

Today we have about 270 local churches, 280 ministers, and a total membership of about 120,000 members. We, being a church in the Kuyperian tradition, are the largest orthodox reformed church body in Europe. So by God’s grace, we were endowed with several opportunities to develop many Christian organizations in politics, science, and education.

And we have the freedom and willingness among our members to study the Bible, to encourage one another, and to give our children a proper Christian education.

There are two other Dutch church federations which we have growing contact with: the Christian Reformed Churches, with about 70,000 members, and the Netherlands Reformed Churches, with about 33,000 members (not to be confused with the quite different Puritan Netherlands Reformed Churches in the U.S.!).

For example the Theological Universities of the Reformed Churches, the Christian Reformed Churches, and the Netherlands Reformed Churches are in discussion to amalgamate into a bigger Theological University with each their own identity.

It is fair to say, that sometimes, however, the isolation of reformed people was greater than we wished. Very often, we were seen as a closed church. But in the last decade, many things have changed in our churches; they became far more open.

As many other churches we are thinking about the commandment that the Lord gave us, to reach the world with the Gospel. This is the better part of a Church that wants to be more open, but on the other side we are facing great challenges in our country.
The media, including the social media on the internet, is having a big impact on our people.

We think there is always a close connection between those two things: when the church will be more open to the world, it will also be easier affected by the world.

So it is a struggle for us, to keep committed to the Bible in life in dogmatics. In the Netherlands there is an increasing hostility to Christian faith. We also have to be sharp on points as hermeneutics, the authority of the Bible, and also on our relations with you and many other churches.

In the midst of the turmoil and challenges of the world around us, our churches desire to be true in the Lordship of Christ, the authority of Scripture, and the Reformed confessions. At the same time, we realize that being Reformed does not mean merely repeating slogans of the past, but involves creative and Spirit-led renewal of our minds and hearts, seeking new ways to be missionary to be engaged with our culture.

It is good to experience as delegates how Christ operates and takes care of his church all over the world. All together we may work for the building of God’s kingdom, in the firm belief that the lord will always take care of those who want to serve Him faithfully. Christ is the King of His church, and will preserve her until the day He returns.

Therefore, we wish you the blessing of our Almighty God and the wisdom of the Holy Spirit in all considerations and decisions that you have to make in the IRC.

Thank you for the opportunity to be here today.

We pray that our visit may also contribute to the intensifying of the contacts between our two churches, which is very valuable to us.

Thank you very much.

Gathering Song – And Can It Be

And can it be that I should gain an interest in the Savior's blood?
Died He for me who caused His pain, for me who Him to death pursued.
Amazing love: how can it be that Thou my God shouldst die for me?

Refrain:
Amazing love: how can it be that Thou my God shouldst die for me?

He left His Father's throne above, so free so infinite His grace; Humbled Himself, so great His love, and bled for all His chosen race.
'Tis mercy all immense and free for O my God it found out me.

Long my imprisoned spirit lay fast bound in sin and nature's night.
Thine eye diffused a quickening ray; I woke, the dungeon flamed with light.
My chains fell off, my heart was free, I rose went forth and followed Thee.

No condemnation now I dread, Jesus and all in Him is mine.
Alive in Him my living Head and clothed in righteousness divine Bold I approach th'eternal throne and claim the crown through Christ my own.

Call to Worship – Isaiah 30:15,

Minister: For thus said the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel:
People: “In returning and rest you shall be saved; in quietness and in trust shall be your strength.”

Minister: Therefore the Lord waits to be gracious to you, and therefore he exalts himself to show mercy to you.
People: For the Lord is a God of justice; blessed are all those who wait for him.
Hymn of Adoration – A Mighty Fortress

A mighty fortress is our God, a bulwark never failing.
Our helper He amid the flood of mortal ills prevailing.
For still our ancient foe doth seek to work us woe;
His craft and pow'r are great, and armed with cruel hate;
On earth is not his equal

Did we in our own strength confide our striving would be losing;
Were not the right Man on our side, the Man of God's own choosing.
Dost ask who that may be? Christ Jesus it is He.
Lord Sabaoth His name, from age to age the same;
And He must win the battle.

Refrain:
A mighty fortress, a mighty fortress is our God!
A mighty fortress, a mighty fortress is our God!

And tho' this world with devils filled should threaten to undo us,
We will not fear for God hath willed His truth to triumph thru us.
The prince of darkness grim, we tremble not for him;
His rage we can endure, for lo his doom is sure!
One little word shall fell him.

That word, above all earthly pow'rs, no thanks to them abideth.
The Spirit and the gifts are ours thru Him who with us sideth.
Let goods and kindred go, this mortal life also.
The body they may kill; God's truth abideth still.
His kingdom is forever.

Prayer of Adoration

The Confession of Faith

Apostles’ Creed
I believe in God, the Father Almighty, the Maker of heaven and Earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord: Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell. The third day He arose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Call to Confession of Sin— Acts 3.19-20

Pat Davey
Assistant Pastor, Eastern Shore PCA
Fairhope, AL

Responsive Prayer of Confession of Sin

Minister: Father, we acknowledge and confess that, though we are saints – forgiven, justified, accepted, and redeemed – we often don’t live in light of that truth. We have just now confessed, silently, individual sins. And we also confess that there are certain entanglements to which we all succumb. We admit that we continue to move through life deluded: thinking we have power, ability, and sufficiency.

People: Forgive us, merciful Father.

Minister: We chase after prizes that the world says will bring us peace, when in reality all it brings us is enslavement and pressure and anxiety.

People: Forgive us, Lord Jesus.

Minister: We come to a General Assembly like this and compare ourselves with others…and get either puffed up and self-righteous or dejected and discouraged.

People: Gracious Spirit, enable us to find our identity in the righteousness of Christ.

Minister: We have preached and believed a false gospel of self-improvement. We have failed to rest in the work of redemption, but rather have continued striving and manipulating and scheming. We have grieved your heart, O God, by failing to believe that you love us.

People: Forgive us of all our sins, we pray through Jesus. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon – I John 1.8-9

If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. ESV
Hymn of Assurance – How Deep the Father’s Love

How deep the Father's love for us, how vast beyond all measure,
That He should give His only Son to make a wretch His treasure.
How great the pain of searing loss, the Father turns His face away
As wounds which mar the Chosen One bring many sons to glory.

    Behold the Man upon a cross, my sin upon His shoulders.
    Ashamed I hear my mocking voice call out among the scoffers.
    It was my sin that held Him there until it was accomplished;
    His dying breath has brought me life; I know that it is finished.

    I will not boast in anything, no gifts no pow’r no wisdom;
    But I will boast in Jesus Christ, His death and resurrection.
    Why should I gain from His reward? I cannot give an answer.
    But this I know with all my heart, His wounds have paid my ransom.

Pastoral Prayer (with the Lord’s Prayer)

Gary Cox
Pastor, Grace PCA
Madison, FL

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on Earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and glory, forever. Amen.

Offering

(Offerings are used to help defray the costs of the 44th General Assembly)

Offertory: Wendell Kimbrough

*Hymn of Preparation – Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing

Come Thou fount of ev'ry blessing, tune my heart to sing Thy grace.
Streams of mercy never ceasing call for songs of loudest praise!
Teach me some melodious sonnet sung by flaming tongues above;
Praise the mount I'm fixed upon it, mount of Thy redeeming love!*
Here I raise mine Ebenezer, hither by Thy help I'm come,
And I hope by Thy good pleasure safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger wand'ring from the fold of God.
He to rescue me from danger interposed His precious blood.

O to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be!
Let Thy grace Lord like a fetter bind my wand'ring heart to Thee.
Prone to wander Lord I feel it, prone to leave the God I love.
Here's my heart Lord take and seal it, seal it for Thy courts above.

The Exhortation

Moderator, 43rd General Assembly

*Hymn – When I Survey the Wondrous Cross (verses 1-2)

When I survey the wondrous cross on which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss and pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it Lord that I should boast, save in the death of Christ my God.
All the vain things that charm me most I sacrifice them to His blood.

Communion (Communion elements are gluten free)
Rev. Bob Hornick
Stated Clerk, Gulf Coast Presbytery

Hymn – When I Survey the Wondrous Cross (verses 3-4)

See from His head His hands His feet, sorrow and love flow mingled down.
Did ever such love and sorrow meet or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Were the whole realm of nature mine that were a present far too small;
Love so amazing so divine demands my soul my life my all!

Benediction
