*"Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD forever."
Psalm 23:6*

A Mighty Fortress Is Our God

A mighty fortress is our God, a bulwark never failing;
Our helper He, amid the flood of mortal ills prevailing:

For still our ancient foe doth seek to work us woe;
His craft and power are great, and, armed with cruel hate,
On earth is not his equal.

Did we in our own strength confide, our striving would be losing;
Were not the right Man on our side,
the Man of God's own choosing:

Dost ask who that may be? Christ Jesus, it is He;
Lord Sabaoth, His Name, from age to age the same,
And He must win the battle.

And though this world, with devils filled,
should threaten to undo us,
We will not fear,

for God hath willed His truth to triumph through us:
The Prince of Darkness grim, we tremble not for him;
His rage we can endure, for lo, his doom is sure,
One little word shall fell him.

That word above all earthly powers, no thanks to them, abideth;
The Spirit and the gifts are ours through Him Who with us sideth:

Let goods and kindred go, this mortal life also;
The body they may kill: God's truth abideth still,
His kingdom is forever.

Brian Wayne Kinney

(May 12, 1947 - July 11, 2012)

Brian Wayne Kinney, age 65. Born May 12, 1947 in Cleveland, Ohio. Passed away July 11, 20 at Alive Hospice.

Preceded in death by his parents Edward and Doris Kinney. Survived by his wife of 38 years, Sharon Wagstaff Kinney; son, Dylan Thomas Kinney (wife, Holland); daughter, Dr. Glynis Caitlin Kinney; and stepson David Sokolove; brother, Allen Kinney (wife, Ann); nephew, A.J. Kinney; niece, Allyson Kinney. A celebration of a life forever changed by the grace of God will be Sunday, July 15 at Christ Presbyterian Church, 2323 Old Hickory Blvd, Nashville, TN 37221. Visitation 2-3 pm. Service 3 p.m. Brian grew up in Broadview Height and Brecksville, Ohio. He received a BS degree in journalism from Ohio University and worked for newspapers in Sandusky OH, Cleveland OH, Stars & Stripes, Darmstadt Germany and Richmond VA. He received a MDiv degree from Covenant Seminary in 1992 and served as Associate pastor at Westminster Presbyterian Church from 1993-2005. Because of poor health, he then combined his two careers and edited theological books for several publishers from home.

His life was characterized by kindness and wisdom. He served his family and friends well, despite his physical limitations. His uncomplaining spirit and joy were an inspiration to everyone who met him. Brian's greatest desire was for everyone to know the truths that so transformed his own life. In lieu of flowers, the family requests if you wish to honor Brian's "life well lived" to contribute to Christ Presbyterian Church Mission Fund, 2323 Old Hickory Blvd. Nashville, TN 37221
